Mahlon married Hannah Hallman,<sup>13</sup> daughter of Abraham Hallman and Elizabeth Trumbower, on 1 Jun 1848.<sup>13</sup> Hannah was born on 2 Aug 1828 in Limerick Township, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania,<sup>32</sup> died on 8 Sep 1903 in Phoenixville, Chester County, Pennsylvania<sup>33</sup> at age 75, and was buried in Morris Cemetery, Phoenixville, Chester County, Pennsylvania.<sup>20</sup> The cause of her death was Apoplexy. Hanna was widowed at age 35 with 8 children ranging in age from one month to 14 years [2].

In the 1870 Census, Hannah is living in Limerick Township, Montgomery Co, PA. She is 43 years old and living in the house of Catherine Miller, 62 (b. abt 1806), along with Joseph Miller, 28 (b. abt 1842), and Mary Miller, 63 (b. abt 1807). Living with Hannah is her son Alfred, age 6. Living next door is her son John and his wife Mary. Also nearby (same census page) are Hannah's brother Alfred Hallman, her late husband Mahlon's brother James and their mother Anna Barlow.

In the 1880 Census, Hannah is apparently the Hannah Hallman, 51 & widowed, in Limerick Township in the house of Joseph Miller, 38, the same household she was living at in 1870. Also in the house are Mary Miller, 83, Harriet Davis, 67, and Harriet's son Frank, 29, with Frank's wife Susie and their daughter Anne. Hannah is a housekeeper along with Harriet Davis.

In the 1900 Census, Hannah Barlow is living in Phoenixville, Chester Co, Pennsylvania. She is 71 years old (born Aug 1829) and widowed. Hannah has had 8 children and 6 are living. She is a housekeeper in the house of Joseph Miller, 58, a carpenter.

At this time, we do not have any information on who the Millers were that Hannah lived with after she was widowed, and whether they are related.

Hannah's great-granddaughter Mary Elizabeth Barlow thought her grandfather John Franklin Barlow's emigration to Iowa was at least partly because his wife (Mary Clemens) was unable to get along with his mother (Hannah Hallman Barlow.) She may be right, and perhaps John Franklin was not the only family member who had that problem...

Hannah Barlow, Hannah, age 75, widow, born in Montgomery County, died 1903/09/08 in Phoenixville of appoplexy. [1]

General Notes: After his father's death when he was just 14 year old, John went to work, probably learning the carpentry trade that he used later in life. [letter from Lotta Reuther Longstreet to Russell & Lydia Reuther, Oct 7, 1963]

In the 1870 Census, John is living in Limerick Township, Montgomery Co, PA. John is 21 years old and a carpenter. Living with him is his wife Mary. Next door is his mother Hannah and youngest brother Alfred.

John moved to Dunkerton, Iowa, about 1877. He was a carpenter by trade. Although the family owned farmland, and were probably also farmers, they lived in a house in Dunkerton from before 1900. The house was sold when John died. [Elaine Jeter]

In the 1880 Census (familysearch.org), John and his wife Mary, are living in Black Hawk, Iowa with their children George, age 9, Addie, age 7, and Jacob, age 3.

In 1900, John Barlow is living in Lester township, Black Hawk County, Iowa. He is 51, born May 1849 in Pennsylvania, and is a carpenter. Living with him are his wife Mary M, 48, born Dec 1851 in Pennsylvania, and their sons Frank C, 17, born Apr 1882, and John M, 11, born July 1888. Mary is incorrectly listed as having born 2 children, both living.

General Notes: After the death of her husband John in 1910, Mary sold the large family home in Dunkerton, Iowa, and bought a house in Waterloo, Iowa, where she lived with her son John until his marriage. After John married, Mary built a small house next door and lived there the rest of her life. [Elaine Jeter] for a number of years before his death.

Mary Elizabeth Barlow remembers her father as very concerned and rather strict. On one occasion he decided that all his children should taste the evils of whiskey, so each was administered a dose. Mary managed to spit hers all over his suit.

George was a heavy pipe and cigar smoker. He developed lung cancer, which led to his death in 1933. This was the depths of the Depression, so the family had financial difficulties. He had mortgaged his properties and invested in stocks before his death. He left insurance for the family, so they family managed, and all the children were well educated. George, out of concern for his younger brother Frank, also left insurance for Frank's family. [Elaine Jeter]

General Notes: Nettie was the youngest of four daughters. She was musically talented (voice and piano) and spent one year at Oberlin College. She died of kidney failure (probably eclampsia of toxemic pregnancy) after the birth of her third child. [Elaine Jeter]

General Notes: Henry Wallace Barlow was called "Wallace" by the family. He was a brilliant young man, graduating from Iowa State College with the highest grade point average ever recorded at the time. He went to work for the DuPont Corporation. His death was due to "Bright's disease" (i.e., chronic glomerulonephritis). His wife's name was Dorothy Dannatt, She died in the summer of 1988 in Ames, Iowa.

General Notes: Mary graduated in the first class from Roosevelt High School in Des Moines at the age of 16. She went to Grinnell College in Grinnell, Iowa, and graduated at age 20 holding a Phi Beta Kappa key. Her major was Latin. Mary taught for a short time, then enrolled in the State University of Iowa in Iowa City to obtain her Masters degree in Latin with a minor in Greek. She received her MA about 1932, and taught school in Boxholm, Iowa, until she married Ervin, and in later years did bookkeeping. [Elaine Jeter]

Mary died on July 14, 2004, at 10:40 p.m. Her daughter Elaine was able to be with her for her final 20 hours after driving all night to get to her. She succumbed to left ventricular congestive cardiac failure, secondary to mitral valve regurgitation and the extra strain of a respiratory infection. She was ready to go, no doubt about that. She was just 8 days shy of 96 years and 4 months. She is to be buried beside her husband in Calvary Cemetery, Douglas, Arizona, at her request with no services. The family will have a private ceremony later on. [Elaine Jeter]

(?) Enjoyed acting in theatrical productions in HS and at SUI. Never owned own pharmacy; worked for Katz Drug in Des Moines in mid-1930's; by 1934 he was working for Robert Hawley at Hawley Drug, Clarinda. Served in the United States Navy from about March 1943 until January 1944; discharge due to medical problems. Trained at Farragut, Idaho, then worked dispensing prophylactics at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho; then transferred to Newport, RI in late 1943 to await assignment on hospital ship USS Tranquility. Developed severe respiratory infection (pneumonia?) and became very depressed; resulting in discharge in early 1944. After he came home, he went to work for Glen Taylor (Taylor's Pharmacy) where he worked until about 1955. He then moved to Council Bluffs, Iowa, where he worked as a pharmacist until moving to Arizona in 1963; first Tucson, where he was unable to get a steady job, then Douglas, where he worked for Owl Drug; after that to Ajo, where he was employed by Phelps Dodge Corp. as a pharmacist until his retirement in 1973. After retirement, lived in Douglas, AZ, until his death.

Cause of death was disseminated carcinoma which had originated in the cecum. [Elaine Jeter]

General Notes: 2/5/98 - Phoned Mother this a.m. and we discussed above subject. Here's the "poop". Mother says that Nettie was indeed named Nettie Rebecca (after her maternal grandmother since Mother had been named after the paternal grandmother) but that Nettie herself thought the name sounded too "Jewish" and refused to use it. <All of this is pretty funny when you consider that one of her granddaughters is named Rebecca :-)> When "push came to shove" for her to give a "middle name" as a younger woman, she would say that it was "Ruth" but never used it, preferred to use the initial instead. Certainly Nettie would never have admitted to her children that this situation existed, and I am sure they are unaware of it to this day (or possibly in denial!). There is no reason for Mother to have invented the story; I think she has secretly giggled about it for decades! [Elaine Jeter]

Mother believes that, unless Nettie actually had her birth certificate changed (which is certainly possible) that the original "Rebecca" should be on it. - EJ 2/5/98

Nettie was cremated May 1, 1993, and her ashes scattered at Longwood Gardens, Pennsylvania. [Barlow family -

General Notes: Nettie and George Braniff were a very loving and devoted couple, George a terrible "tease" (any family member within earshot was a potential victim!) and Nettie was a good sport about it; she was by nature a very warm person. They both were outstandingly intelligent and quite cosmopolitan. They raised four wonderful, intelligent children. George's career as an executive with the DuPont corporation was distinguished; he served on their executive board for a number of years. His retirement was rather early after he was discovered to have a bowel cancer; fortunately this was "cured" with surgery and he lived on to enjoy a lengthy retirement. I am sure the loss of Nettie two years before his death (due to a form of leukemia) was very difficult for him, but his children remained attentive and loving. [Elaine Jeter]

George was cremated June 23, 1993, and her ashes scattered at Longwood Gardens, Pennsylvania. The original Irish spelling of Braniff was Branagh. [Barlow family - Elaine Jeter]

General Notes: Maude Myrtle Little (2d wife of George R. Barlow) was actually born in Hazel Green, Wolfe County KY. Her parents were John Miles Little and Lou Alice Gillmore/Gilmore (sp. varies). (both born KY) [Elaine Jeter 2004]

Noted events in her life were:

General Notes: Ethel was killed in an automobile accident. Both her mother Maude Little and her half-sister Mary were also injured in that accident. [Elaine Jeter]

General Notes: Addie Barlow (d/o John Franklin Barlow) had two other children besides Queen Irene and Freda Madeleine (from gravestones and note from Queen's daughter Shirley): Kitty Dunkerton, b. Sept. 10, 1898; died Sept. 10, 1898. Brooke Dunkerton, b. Mar 8, 1907, died Mar 10, 1907. [Elaine Jeter 2004]

General Notes: I believe that Freda also had a son named Joe Duea, Jr., and possibly more children. [Elaine Jeter]

Freda married Joseph Duea.<sup>3</sup> Joseph was born about 1902 in Iowa.<sup>47</sup> They had two children: Adeline and Jerry Max.

8-Jacob Barlow<sup>1</sup> was born in 1876 in Dunkerton, Black Hawk County, Iowa<sup>1</sup> and died on an unknown date.

General Notes: Lydia Ann Barlow was born Oct 3 1850, baptised Dec 15 1850, parents Mahlon & Hannah Barlow, per baptismal record of St James Reformed Church. [Elaine Jeter]

At her father's death, Lydia had not yet reached her 13th birthday. She went to live with a relative. She was miserably treated as a servant. She was given so little to eat that she would nibble on chicken bones & chop bones that were left on plates in order to get a few extra bites. Some days she was so hungry she would shave off the thinnest slice of bread possible, but it was generally detected & she was punished. She did not complain to her mother, but it was discovered by a friend & reported to her mother. Of course her mother brought her home. [Letter from Lotta Reuther Longstreet to Russell & Lydia Reuther, Oct 7, 1963]

In the 1870 Census, Lydia Barlow 19 years old and living as a domestic servant in the home of her mother's sister Elizabeth Hallman Springer and her husband Hiram Springer in Phoenixville, Chester Co, Pennsylvania. The Springers were very wealthy - Hiram listed his real estate value at $75,000 and his personal property at $2000. Elizabeth (Hallman) Springer had a separate business, a store that sold "trimmings".

In 1930, Lydia (Barlow) Keeley gave her grand-niece Mary Elizabeth Barlow Spunaugle a small handtowel with hand-work (lace and embroidery). Mary's daughter Elaine has that towel and considers it an heirloom, and with the "starvation" and knowing where Lydia was living in 1870, it is even more precious. [Elaine Jeter]

In the 1930 Census, Lydia A Keely is living in Phoenixville, Chester Co, PA, at 2 Anderson Avenue in the house of her son-in-law Paul Martens [Martin]. She is 79 years old and a widow.

General Notes: The censuses reported Sara's birthplace as Pennsylvania (1900 & 1920) and Iowa (1930). The 1920 Census also reported her father's birthplace incorrectly as Iowa. I believe that a birthplace of Iowa is probably correct. The 1920 census is suspect as it also recorded her sons' birthplaces as PA, when the 1930 census and the WWI draft both point to a birthplace of New Jersey for them. [CAR 2007]

Anna would have been about 9 years old when she left home and went to work.

In 1870 Anna and her brother Mahlon appear to be living in Upper Providence township, Montgomery Co, Pennsylvania, in the house of Charles Garber. Anna is 11, and Mahlon is 9. Mahlon has attended school during the year, but Anna has not. Both children are listed on the census as Barber instead of Barlow.

Mahlon & Anna's brother Abraham Barlow was living with Charles & Harriet Garber's daughter Elizabeth Garber Fetterolf and her family. Charles Garber's daughter Anna married a man named Vanderslice. (Elaine Jeter's research on the Garbers.) Anna Barlow's first husband was John Vanderslice.

Early in 1880 Annie Barlow is living in a rooming house in Philadelphia operated by her uncle Abe Hallman. Annie is a seamstress. Also in the house is her future first husband John Vanderslice.

Anna was married first to a promising young Philadelphia lawyer, John R. Vanderslice. Their first year of marriage was drawing to a close when their baby Charles Edgar was born 3/25/1881. While she was confined with the birth of their son, her husband was stricken with pneumonia & died. Soon after that the baby died. So she was a bride, a mother, a widow and childless within 12 months. [2]

John Vanderslice appears to be the John P Vanderslice, lawyer, who died of Typhoid Fever on 22 April 1881.

In 1915 A R Reuther advertised her Knife & Accordion Pleating business. She pleated kilted, box and sun ray skirts. Mail orders received prompt attention. Her business was at 252 N. 8th street. [4]

Anna fell ill while visiting daughter Lotta in Daytona Beach, Florida. She and Henry had arrived about 17 February (21 days before her death). Anna died on 10 March 1930 of pneumonia and influenza. She had been attended by the doctor since 4 March. After she became so ill, her son Russell rushed from Connecticut to see her, but she died before he got there. [1, 3, 4]

Another name for John was John R Vanderslice. They had one son: Charles Edgar.

Marriage Notes: Early in 1880 [1880 Census - www.familysearch.org], John and Anna were living in the same house, probably a rooming house, in Philadelphia. They were not yet married.

John was 25 and a lawyer. Anna (listed as Annie) was a seamstress. The head of household was Abe Hallman, age 45, a brother of her mother. Abe worked in a foundry, and was married to Melvina, age 37, and they had one son, William, age 9.

In addition to John and Anna, the others in the house were:

John Hall, age 30, a weaver born in England

Emma Fertler, age 35, working in an art gallery, born in Maryland

Nellie Sullivan, age 23, working in an art gallery, born in Pennsylvania. Her parents were born in Ireland.

Annie Homer, age 35, a tailoress born in Pennsylvania, and Kate Muller, age 22, a servant, born in Pennsylvania.

General Notes: According to his death certificate, John was born in Chester County. He may be the John Vanderslice, age 8, living in East Vincent township (Pottstown Post Ofc), Chester County, in the home of Casper & Marie Frances in 1860.

John P Vanderslice died on 22 April 1881 of Typhoid Fever at age 29 (or 25). John was married, a lawyer, and living at 372 Franklin Street in Philadelphia. He was buried at ----ville in Chester County, Pennsylvania. [1]

1932 in Fairfield, Fairfield County, Connecticut<sup>59</sup> at age 73, and was buried on 8 Jun 1932 in Westminster Cemetary, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.<sup>94</sup> They had four children: Edna Laura, Lotta Barlow, Russell Evans, and Florence Anna.

Marriage Notes: The marriage took place at Anna's sister Lydia's home in Phoenixville, Pennsylvania [1].

Henry and Anna owned a store in Philadelphia. On the first floor Henry sold cutlery such as knives and scissors. He also sold other goods such as china and leather goods. The family still has knives, scissors, and tea cups that came from the store. On the second floor, Anna operated a pleating business.

Per a letter from Florence Reuther Becker to Lydia Speiser Reuther on June 18, 1968, the store was located on 8th Street. It must have been within a few blocks of 8th and Arch Streets, as this was the location of a store called George B. Evans that sold fancy candies, cakes, and fruits. The store also sold gifts and fine china. It covered the entire block on the 8th Street side. Anna passed this store on her way to Henry's store. It was at Evans that she saw a beautiful punch bowl in the window, that Henry subsequently surprised her with for Valentine's Day, reportedly in their first or second year of marriage, probably about 1889. The punch bowl set is currently owned by Catherine Reuther. The green bowl and top is decorated with strawberries, with matching cups, and a platter with strawberry flowers and leaves to sit on. [2]

Henry and Anna's store was located at 250 - 252 8th Street in Philadelphia. [3]

For the love I have for you dear Sister no words can ever tell.

8-Edna Laura Reuther was born on 24 Jan 1889 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania,<sup>59</sup> died on 10 May 1949<sup>59</sup> at age 60, and was buried on 13 May 1949 in Westminster Cemetery, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.<sup>89</sup>

General Notes: In the 1910 Census, Edna is 21 years old and living with her parents and younger sisters. She is a saleswoman at a stationers, probably her father Henry's store.

On 3 June 1916, just before she married Henry on the 16th, Edna purchased a home at 4522 N. Twelfth st in Philadelphia from Joshua M Holmes for $3800. [1] Edna and Henry lived in this home in the early years of their marriage.

Family stories passed down in the Zimmer family report that Edna may have been institutionalized at some point. Her husband Henry may even have had her institutionalized because he wanted a divorce. [2]

Regarding Edna's mental illness: Edna was treated professionally at home and by daughter Mildred. It was often said, Mildred raised her brothers Henry and Bob. [3]

From the little bit known, it appears Edna suffered from some type of mental illness. She was not ill enough to be hospitalized, but was ill enough that daughter Mildred may have performed many household duties, including the care of her younger brothers (only 2 and 4 years younger), as well as caring for Edna. It would not be unexpected for Mildred to have resented her mother and the position she was placed in. This would help explain the rift in the family that occurred when (if?) Henry and Edna divorced, and after Edna's death in 1949. [CAR]

Edna married Henry Frederick Zimmer Sr.,<sup>62</sup> son of William Zimmer and Anna K., on 16 Jun 1916 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.<sup>96</sup> The marriage ended in divorce. Henry was born on 21 Mar 1891 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania<sup>97</sup> and died in Jul 1977 in Pennsylvania<sup>29</sup> at age 86. Another name for Henry was Henry F Zimmer. They had three children: Mildred Barlow, Henry Frederick, and Robert Evans.

Marriage Notes: Edna and Henry had been divorced for many years when Edna passed away. [1]

They were still married in 1942, so may have divorced shortly after that as Edna died in 1949. [1]

Daughter Mildred and her husband John Root lived with Henry & Edna during World War II, so they most likely divorced between 1945 and 1949. John does not remember a divorce, but other sources (see notes below) do remember a divorce. [3]

When Henry divorced Edna, apparently for another woman, it caused a rift between their children. Mildred sided with her father, Robert with his mother, and Henry was caught in between. Eventually, Mildred and Robert quit talking to each other, and remained estranged until their deaths. [2]

Notes on divorce: Edna's brother Russell Reuther's daughter Joyce remembers a divorce. Joyce might have been planning her wedding around that time, so the breakup of the family would have been something she would remember. Also, Edna's son Henry Zimmer, Jr's, son Mark knew growing up that they had divorced, and that it caused a rift between Edna and Henry's children.

Sometime after 1942 or 1945 [CAR], Henry divorced Edna because he wanted to pursue another woman. Henry's second wife was a woman named Esther. He pre-deceased her and she did not re-marry. [4] destroyed. Henry had many physical and health problems due to his time in a POW camp. [4]

He was in in the insurance business, working near his summer home about an hour and a half from the family's main home in Philadelphia. [4]

In writing Cal Reuther about the death of his cousin Henry Zimmer's widow, Lydia wrote her son that Henry had a drinking problem and committed suicide. [1] His drinking was probably related to his WW II experiences.

Over the years, Henry threatened suicide, always calling his father, who would call Henry's wife Connie. Connie would hurry to him to prevent him from following through. On 1 June 1973, Henry again threatened suicide. He was at their summer home, and Connie and the children were in Philadelphia. Before Connie could get there, Henry shut himself in the garage with the car running, using the car exhaust to kill himself. [4]

Russ first lived with the Phillips, then took a room on Coleman Street near Park Avenue. [6]

On June 5 1917, Russell Evans Reuther registered for the World War I draft in Bridgeport, Connecticut. He was living at 346 Beechwood Ave in Bridgeport, and was an assistant manager for Alb. & E. Henkels Inc.

Russell E. Reuther was inducted in the United States Army May 23, 1918 at Bridgeport, Connecticut. He achieved the rank of corporal October 7, 1918. He served in the 15th Company, 152nd Depot Brigade. He was honorably discharged May 28, 1919 at Camp Upton, New York. The discharge papers list his height as 5 feet, 2 inches. [Russell E. Reuther honorable discharge & enlistment record, US Army, 1919] Russell served his enlistment in the United States & did not go to Europe during World War I.

In the 1920 Census, Russell is living in Bridgeport, Fairfield Co., Connecticut, on Beechwood Avenue in the house of Christopher and Ida Melick. Russell is 29 years old and an assistant manager at a lace factory. Christopher is 52 years old, and a telegraph operator for the railroad. Ida is 51. Both were born in New Jersey. Russell became very close to Christopher and Ida as he boarded with them when he first came to Bridgeport at age 16, and I recall a story that Russ loaned them money to start a business (CAR). After Christopher died, Russ helped Ida manage her affairs. When Ida Bigley Melick died in 1947 (or 1946), she left Russ her house at 346-8 Beechwood Avenue. The flintlock rifle owned by Calvin Reuther was given to Russ. It was in the Melick family and is believed to be from the Revolutionary War. (Calvin Reuther). Currently, the gun is owned by Russell's grandson Russell Reuther (CAR 2004).

In March 1930, Russell received word that his mother was very ill in Florida, probably visiting her daughter Lotta in Daytona Beach. Russ rushed to Florida to see his mother, but she passed away before he got there. She was buried in Philadelphia, and Russ returned to Fairfield the day before his son Calvin was born. [5]

In the 1930 Census, Russell is living in Fairfield, Fairfield Co., Connecticut, on Toilsome Hill Road. He is 36 years old and was born in Pennsylvania. He is an assistant manager at a fabric factory. Living with him are his wife Lydia, 32, and their children Joyce B, 3, and Calvin R, 1 month. Lydia was born in Connecticut, and lists her parents' birthplaces as Wurttemberg, Germany.

In 1944, Russell E Reuther and his wife Lydia R are living at

219 Toilsome Hill Road in Fairfield. Russell is assistant secretary for the American Fabrics Company at 1069 Connecticut Ave. [2]

On Monday, September 17, 1951, Russ was fired from his job as manager of American Fabrics by the new owners who had purchased the company in May 1948. In a meeting with the owners, they had already prepared a resignation letter for Russ to sign. He was immediately escorted out without even having the opportunity to say his good byes nor to clean out his office after 42 years with the company. He was given 5 months pay in lieu of notice. Both Russ and Lydia talked about the gangster Jews that owned the company and fired him. [3, 4] Russ was 58 years old when he lost his job.

In 1955, Russ was elected to one of the seats in District Six for the Representative Town Meeting. [1]

Russ was deathly afraid of dogs. When walking in the neighborhood, if he saw a dog, he was so shaken, he would go back home. [Virginia Speiser Rutter]

Son Calvin remembers Russ talking about a Barlow cousin who was a Rockette at Radio City Music Hall in New York City. He met her on one of his trips to the city. Cal thought she may have still been there when he was little and the family went to Radio City.

Lydia did not care for her middle name, and often used Ruth in place of Johanna. Her marriage license to Russell lists her name as Lydia Ruth Speiser.

Lydia had a third pregnancy that ended in miscarriage about 1940 when Joyce was a freshman in high school. [Joyce Reuther Holley]

Lydia continued the family cooking traditions she learned from her mother - potato salad, herring salad, and Christmas cookies. When Lydia stopped making Springerle, Brownie Lebkuchen & Schwaben Brodli, her son Cal took up making the cookies. He and Joyce had already been making potato and herring salad for many years.

In 1985, Lydia fell in the kitchen and broke her pelvis. She came South, first to daughter Connie's [Joyce] house in Decatur, GA, then to son Cal's in Huntsville, AL, to recover. By then Lydia was almost 90 years old. Connie and Cal decided she needed to be closer to them, so in the spring of 1986, they closed up and sold the house at 219 Toilsome Hill Road in Fairfield that Russ built for them after they married. Lydia moved into a retirement community in Huntsville, Alabama, near Cal.

In 1996, Lydia suffered a stroke, and died a few weeks later, just 6 weeks short of her 99th birthday.

Cemetery, Huntsville, Alabama. The cause of his death was Multiple organ failure following heart by-pass surgery several weeks prior to death. Another name for Calvin was Cal Reuther.

General Notes: Born one month premature at 7:05 PM, weighed 4 pounds, 13 3/4 ounces, at Bridgeport Hospital [Lydia Speiser Reuther's notebook].

In September 1951, Cal's father Russ wrote Cal to tell him that after 42 years with the company, he had been fired from his job by the new owners. Russ told Cal that that meant there was no income coming in. While Russ had planned ahead for Cal's education (Cal was in college at Alabama Polytechnic Institute), so money was set aside for him to complete his education, but he should still watch his pennies. [1]

During college (Auburn, AL), Cal owned and flew his own airplane, an Ercoupe.

In 1951 or 1952, Cal flew to Connecticut from Auburn through bad weather with no radio and was the only plane flying over NY. Coming back to Auburn, he developed trouble in Maryland (?). He was able to land but could not afford to fix the plane, and left it at the airport. [Jane Reuther]

In June 1952, Cal had airplane trouble. As written by his father - "Imagine you in your little plane, 4000' high, sailing along, as you told me, perfectly - then all of a sudden the moto knocked, the plane quivered and vibrated - and then no engine. You, with only a few hours experience in the air, had this happen. . . To glide that plane, 20 miles away from the airport, to a perfect landing at the field, is a feat you can forever be proud of." Cal landed the airplane in Easton, Maryland. He left it there with someone to look after and sell for him. [2]

During college at API Cal worked for Mr. Fortner at Jake's Joint and the Elk's Club. He met Jane at Jake's Joint. Mrs. Fortner gave Cal her recipe for Barbecue Sauce and Barbecue Basting Sauce that he used throughout his life to make fantastic barbecue chicken on the grill.

Cal graduated from Alabama Polytechnic Institute (API - later re-named Auburn University) in Auburn, Alabama, in 1953, with a Bachelors of Science degree in Electrical Engineering. His first job was across the country for Boeing in Seattle, Washington, working on the B-52 airplane. He left Boeing in 1956 for Westinghouse in Pittsburgh, PA, but was on his way back to Boeing and Seattle in 1958 when Jane was pregnant with Cathy. Just weeks after Cathy was born in September, they headed for a new assignment in Fort Walton Beach, FL, and the BOMARC missile program at Eglin AFB.

In 1963, Cal, Jane, Cathy and Russell moved to California where Cal worked on the Minuteman weapon system.

In 1964, Russell wrote his son Cal that he had asked the Republican Town Committee to send him an application for an absentee ballot. [3] - Was Cal still registered to vote in Connecticut? [CAR]

In April 1965, Cal, Jane and the children moved to Huntsville, Alabama, where Cal continued his work for Boeing, this time on the space program. He was responsible for the Boeing Saturn V Logistics Support Staff, developing a Logistics Support Plan. He was also responsible for Saturn V Logistics activities and program schedule. In 1967 he assumed responsibility for directing the preparation of the Saturn V Flight Manual, a single source reference prepared specifically for the astronauts' use.

When Boeing reduced their operations in Huntsville in 1974 (the summer President Richard Nixon resigned and the fall Cathy got her driver's license), Cal and Jane decided to stay in Huntsville rather than be transferred to another city, and Cal went to work for Sperry Corporation on tactical missile systems at MICOM. In 1980 he began a brief stint at Guest Associates providing marketing and technical representation for technically oriented customers, as well as consultation to small business through the Small Business Administration.

In 1982, Cal went back to work for Boeing on marketing management assignments for the Air Force, MSFC, MICOM, and SSDC customers. He took an early retirement in the fall of 1993 after Jane's brain aneurysms and surgery that year.

Early in their marriage, when they were young and poor, Cal decided to start making furniture instead of buying it. He bought the appropriate tools and set up shop in the spare bedroom in their apartment. The first thing he made was a long low bench in the Danish Modern style. He made their bedroom furniture and later on a hi-fi cabinet, kitchen table, and a new dresser for Jane in the 1970's.

In 1983, when his mother Lydia was no longer making the family Christmas cookies, Cal took up the task, often with daughter Cathy's help. He made their favorites Springerle, Brownie Lebkuchen & Schwaben Brodli, and new ones as well. Just as Lydia did, he kept track of what he made and how many. In 2002, Cathy took up the tradition on her own. Cal also had a vegetable garden for many years, and took up canning at that time. Not only did he can vegetables, but he also made jellies and pickles.

In 1988 & 1989, Cal and Jane built a new, larger house on Mountain Springs Circle in Huntsville and moved in in April 1989. The house included a 3-car garage with large shop attached, and Jane's large weaving room over the garage and shop. After Cal's death, the house was sold to Hank and Kathy Perkins, friends from church, and a school friend (Hank) of daughter Cathy.

Cal entered Huntsville Hospital November 25, 1999 (Thanksgiving Day) for heart bypass surgery on November 26. The surgery was successful, but numerous complications ensued due to Cal's emphysema and the steroids he had been taking for the emphysema that interfered with the healing process. After seven weeks in ICU, he passed away due to multiple organ system failure on January 14, 2000, at 5:05 PM. Daughter Cathy, son Russell, future son-in-law Bryan Kennedy, and Dr. T. Benton Washburn were present. He was buried January 18, 2000 at Maple Hill Cemetery in Huntsville.

Unknown to his family until after he entered the hospital, Cal had been having heart problems for some time. Nitroglycerin pills were found in his study for heart pain. Cal left a folder of instructions for his daughter Cathy just prior to entering the hospital in case he passed away. The information and instructions included the notice of his death to be published in the newspaper. Cathy used this almost as he had written it.

General Notes: Mary was the youngest child of John Barlow and Anna Evans. [Elaine Jeter]

Although Mrs. Florence Barlow Fry shows John and Anna had a child named Mary, born 1825 & wife of Charles Garber Miller, the 1830 & 1840 Censuses do not support a daughter born in that time frame, and do support a daughter born in 1838. Mary ___ Kugler, living with Mahlon Barlow in 1860 is believed to be the youngest sibling of Mahlon, and daughter of John & Anna. [1]

Census of 1860 shows a Mary Kugler, age 21, and her husband John Kugler, age 34, living with the extended family of Mahlon Barlow. This is the youngest daughter of John (III) Barlow and Anna Evans, who was named Mary.

Mary and John Kugler have one child, Hannah, age 1 on the census. Also living with them is Franklin Kugler, age 20, who appears to be a younger brother of John Kugler. [EJ-2002]

According to Census of 1910 (Mary was living with son Elmer's family) Mary had 9 children, 6 were living in 1910. [EJ 2005]
