Descendants of John Gwinn

1-John Gwinn¹ was born in Ireland and died between 1811 and 1812.¹

General Notes: I have determined Andrew's parents to have been John and Ruth Gwinn who lived in Cabell county as early as 1810. They were there a little before that but I can't say exactly when yet. John died in late 1811 or early 1812 (taken from tax lists and deeds). Ruth was alive at least until 1813-1814 and then probably until after 1820-21 (she is probably the older white female in Andrew Gwinn's residence on the 1820 census). One of John and Ruth's daughters (the name escapes me right now) sold her share in her father's estate to Andrew Gwinn in about 1821. That document (of which I have a copy) would be the only "proof" I have found of Andrew's parentage. Mention is also made of John's widow who still lives on the property. I determined her name to be Ruth based on two or three Cabell co. tax lists. I can give you more details later when I get it together. Hope this is helpful. [1]

His son Andrew's listing on the 1880 Mortality Schedule lists his parents' birthplaces as Ireland.

John married Ruth.¹ Ruth was born in Ireland and died between 1821 and 1830. They had four children: Elizabeth, Mary, Ann, and Andrew.

General Notes: Ruth was still alive in 1821 when her daughter sold her share of her father's estate to her brother Andrew. She is only mentioned as John's widow, still living on the property. Ruth is probably the older woman living with Andrew in 1820. She probably died by 1830.

2-Elizabeth Gwinn

Elizabeth married John Martin.¹

2-Mary Gwinn¹ died after 27 Nov 1820.¹ Another name for Mary was Polly.

Mary married John Griffith¹ on 4 Apr 1819 in Cabell Co, Virginia (West Virginia).² John died after 27 Nov 1820.¹

Ann married Sampson Sanders¹ on 19 Apr 1821 in Cabell Co, Virginia (West Virginia).¹ Sampson was born on 17 Aug 1786¹ and died on 21 Jun 1849 in Cabell County, Virginia/West Virginia¹ at age 62.

2-Andrew Guinn was born on 15 Jul 1794 in Virginia,³ died on 31 May 1879 in Lower Creek, Cabell County, West Virginia⁴ at age 84, and was buried in Gwinn Family Cemetery, Milton, Cabell Co, West Virginia.⁵ The cause of his death was cancer.¹ Another name for Andrew was Andrew Gwinn.⁶

General Notes: Andrew Gwinn was born in the Shenandoah valley [Virginia] on 15 July 1794 of Irish descent. He came to Cabell County about 1810 with his father. [3]

No Censuses are available for Kanawha County or Cabell County (Cabell was formed from Kanawha) for the 1790, 1800, and 1810 Censuses.

Andrew served in the War of 1812 (not in combat). He served in a Virginia militia unit for about six months (19 Sep 1812 to 29 Mar 1813) and participated in the construction of Fort Meigs (near present Toledo, OH) but was discharged before it was attacked by Tecumseh. He also served in the Cabell Co. militia in February 1815, after the war was officially over.

This news article appeared the following year: "Mr. Andrew Guinn, of this county, who lives on Mud river, about a mile from Milton, suffered for many years from a cancer on his hand. About a year ago [1874], Dr. C. D. Moss, assisted by Dr. Vinson, amputated his arm above the elbow; since then he has entirely recovered and is now a healthy man. Mr. Guinn is over eighty years of age, and it is remarkable that he should be able to sustain such a severe operation at his age and recover entirely." [2]

Living with him are his wife Harriett, 28, and sons Charles, 3, and William, 1. They were also born in Virginia. Curiously, son James, born about 1855, is on the 1870 Census, but not the 1860 Census.

In the 1870 Census, Andrew Guinn (or Gwinn) is living in Grant township, Cabell Co, West Virginia. He is 33 years old and a farmer. The value of his personal property is $50. Living with him is his wife Harriet, 36, and their children, James, 15, Charles, 12, William, 10, and Jefferson, 8. Everyone was born in West Virginia. Andrew is living next door to his parents Andrew and Rachel Gwinn.

Andrew and Harriet moved to Texas between 1873 and 1879.

Andrew is listed in a biographical sketch of his brother Henry about 1890 as living in Texas. [1] Andrew probably died before 1900, as he has not been found on the census for that year.

In his will he listed 9 slaves who were to be set free at various times following his death if they so desired. James was born about 1771 in Virginia and died in 1851. General Notes: Based on various census, James was born sometime between 1854 and 1856. His brother Charles's death certificate records a birth for him in March 1856, so the September 1855 for James on the 1900 Census is incorrect. He was most likely born in 1854, probably in September as reported in 1900. [CAR]

Their children are Oscar L, 21, Hattie P, 19, Willard P, 16, and Maggie B, 10. All the children were born in West Virginia except Maggie, who was born in Texas.

In 1910, James A Guinn is living in Lancaster, Dallas County, Texas. He is 56, born in Virginia, as were his parents, and a miller operating his own flour mill. General Notes: Phyllis Jan Rigby was born Aug 31 1939 in Wichita County to Dora Naomi Guinn and Covert Laverne Rigby. - 1939 Wichita Co Births (RootsWeb)

Phyllis was injured at birth. Apparently, because she was a breech birth, her neck was stretched and injured. She seemed like she had MS, and could not speak clearly or walk along well. She was a wonderful person. She always typed, even though it would take her a long time just to type one word. Phyllis was always worried about her mother since her mother took care of her, and afraid her mother would die first. Phyllis's aunt Patsy took care of her sometimes, and Naomi planned that Patsy would care for Phyllis if she died. But then Patsy left the church, which was important to Phyllis. There was also a big trust fund set up for Phyllis, and some family members were afraid Patsy wouldn't take care of the trust very well. This never became an issue, as Phyllis died before her mother. General Notes: Lloyd said that when his mother Nora was pregnant with him, she was carrying twins. About six months into the pregnancy, she had to have her appendix removed. Nora lost Lloyd 's twin during the surgery. Lloyd's twin was a fraternal twin, not identical. The lost twin was in his own sac and he was lost without affecting Lloyd. Nora carried Lloyd for another three months. He was born natural out on the farm at 3pm on August 14, 1916, the hottest day of the year. Lloyd said that the help or the nurse was fanning his mother during his birth.

The doctor had to clip Lloyd's tongue when he was less than an hour old because he could not nurse. Because of that, he had trouble talking until he was a teenager, especially in pronouncing R's.

Descendants of John Gwinn

Lloyd was club footed as a child. But he was also a very good runner. Lloyd had 27 ribbons for running track during school. He said that he could run the 100 yard dash in 10 seconds flat.

When he was young, Lloyd's father called him Mike. Lloyd never liked being called Mike, and so made everyone quit calling him that.

Just after he and Honey married, Lloyd took her to a Taylor family reunion (his mother's family). There were 78 people on the farm at Christmas time.

Lloyd said that he smoked until he was 27 years old. In 1943, he went down to Fort Worth for his army physical so he could join up during the war. He went to the hearing examination, then the heart examination. The examiners asked if he had any disease, and he said "yes, ulcers". The doctors found he had a heart murmur, and would not take him into the service. The doctors in the army told him to quit smoking because the tobacco would not allow him to clear up the ulcers. On the way back from the Army physical, there was a guy on the truck they were riding in telling a joke and just before the punch line he stopped and lit a cigarette, then finished the punch line. Papa thought that guy was a slave to cigarettes and handed the guy next to him his pack with only one gone and quit smoking May 3, 1943, and has not touched one since. [Lloyd Gwinn, July 18, 2003]

In 1961 they took part of his stomach out because of the ulcers.

Noted events in his life were:

- Alt. Birth: Wichita Falls, Wichita County, Texas.¹⁴²

Lloyd married Gwendolyn Lassiter, daughter of Wylie Jones Lassiter and Ada Ozella Kiser, on 17 Dec 1937 in Morton, Texas. Gwendolyn was born on 23 Jan 1920 in Ranger, Eastland County, Texas,¹²⁶ died on 11 Aug 2004 in Dallas, Texas¹⁴³ at age 84, and was buried on 14 Aug 2004 in Restland Cemetery, Dallas, Texas. Another name for Gwendolyn was Honey. They had three children: Lloyd Lionel, Barbara Sue, and Kay Ann.

Marriage Notes: Lloyd met Honey while she was in still in high school. Lloyd graduated in 1935, and he was helping the principal of Honey's high school run the track meets. During a track meet Honey was there with Bobby Joe Bradford and asked who the guy was with Durwood Spool. Bobby Joe said that was Lloyd Gwinn. Bobby Joe said lets go over there and see who that was. They talked to everyone, and on the way back they forgot to look at that boy. Durwood would not introduce her because she had been going steady for two years with Jack Cowden. Jack had left town and gone to work in the oil field. At the Allison drug store (11miles from Iowa park), Lloyd asked Bill Overbee to introduce him to Honey. He said he would. So Lloyd drove himself and Bill in Lloyd's 1934 Ford pickup truck to Iowa Park. When Lloyd pulled up at the Lassiter's house, Honey and Darleen Cunningham were laying across the bed looking out the window. She said "Well there is Lloyd Gwinn". He met her on Sunday evening, and the next Saturday he asked her for a date and she accepted. Honey's mother Ada asked them not to go to Wichita Falls, but just to go to the local movie theater. They did. The Monday before their date Lloyd was working on a road grater, he stopped by and caught Honey about to wash her hair. He told her that he was happy she accepted the date. They only had two or three dates before she moved away. About this same time, Lloyd's uncle in Brownfield, TX, wanted Lloyd to come work with him in his mens clothing store. Lloyd was 21 yrs old. He moved to Brownsfield to work with his uncle, and lived in the back of the store. Honey had moved to Martin, and this was only 12 miles across the field from where Lloyd was working in the store.

Honey talked about the first time Lloyd came across that field to see her. She was sitting in church and a girl she was with said "boy that is a good looking boy coming there". Honey said "oh that's Lloyd".

Lloyd moved to Brownfield on August 20, and they married on December 18. Honey said that maybe she would have married anyone at that time because of the tough time she had at home.

On December 18, 1937, Lloyd went to the Lassiters new 1938 blue Ford pickup truck. He traded in his 1934 truck for it. Honey's father Wylie said he was sorry that he had not had a chance to see Lloyd because he had been working all of the time that Lloyd and Honey were courting. Lloyd said to Wylie, "I would like your daughter's hand". Wylie slammed his hands on the arms of the chair and said loudly ""My daughter's hand!" Lloyd said "I am not scared of you. You know I can take care of her." Lloyd asked if they could go and get married after dinner, and they did.

After they were married, they loaded up Honey's hope chest and moved onto the Gwinn farm in Iowa Park. Lloyd was going to help his dad Henry on the dairy farm. Henry built a house on the farm for Lloyd and Honey. [Lloyd & Honey Gwinn, July 18, 2003]

After Lloyd and Honey were married, Lloyd's father Henry asked him what plans they had about having children. Lloyd told Henry he wanted four children. Henry told him well you better plan on six because he and Nora had wanted four and ended up with six. Lloyd said that after Barbara was born, World War II broke out and they waited until after the war to have any more children. [Lloyd Gwinn, July 18, 2003]

Honey & Lloyd were living in Iowa Park, TX, when their daughter Barbara was born in the Wichita Falls hospital. [Lloyd Gwinn, July 18, 2003]

General Notes: Honey was born in Ranger, Texas. Ranger is in Eastland County, about 85 miles west of Fort Worth on Interstate 20.

Honey got her nickname from Lloyd Jr. When Lloyd Jr was young, Lloyd was out working in the yard, and called in to Gwendolyn, calling her "Honey". Lloyd Jr picked it up and started calling his mother Honey, and it just stuck.

Scott was in a complete body cast after getting out of the hospital. He was on lots of pain medication, and started drinking after that time. All the medication and alcohol made him abusive, and Barbara divorced him after that. [BKK - 5/2003]

Scott married two more times to Frankie Williams (Williams was a name from a previous husband) about 1972 or 1973, and Sylvia about 1980. [Becky Sanders, 2004]
