[Elaine Jeter]

Joseph married someone. He had one son: Joseph.

2-Joseph Barlow³ was born about 1690 in Possibly Chester Co, Pennsylvania Or British Isles² and died about 1738 in Limerick Township, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania² about age 48.

Joseph married Ann Evans,⁴ daughter of John Evans and Jean Teate, after 1720 in Probably Limerick Township, Montgomery, PA.³ Ann was born about 1692² and died in 1744 in Limerick Township, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania² about age 52. They had seven children: Abigail, Ann, Hannah, Mary, Rachel, Elizabeth, and John.

General Notes: Ann is thought (unproven) to be the daughter of William Evans, (may not be Quaker) b. in Limerick Ireland, d. abt 1715; and his wife Ann <unknown>. (EJ)

William Evans: Immigrated to America with Welsh immigrants in 1698. Wife name was Ann. Purchased 700A. in Limerick Twp. (then Manatawny). William is cited as being the "Second Son" of John Evans and Ellen DeVerdon. First settled in Gwynedd while looking for land... Ship: Robert & Elizabeth; sailed from Liverpool April 18, 1698; stopped at Dublin, and on May 1, 1698, spread sails for the New World. 45 passengers died of dysentery. Arrival in Philadelphia, 17 July 1798. His will was probated in London, by Tobias Collett, Daniel Quare and Henry Gouldney.

Source: Lives of the Eminent Dead... Norristown, Pa. 1879.

He and sister Anne received a legacy from their "Uncle George" (Elaine Jeter)

Additional investigation shows Ann's parents as John Evans & Jean Teate. [EJ]

Ann first married in 1712 in Philadelphia, Matthew Brooke, 1680-1720. Matthew was the son of John Brooke and Frances Morton. They immigrated in 1699.

After the death of Mathew Brook, Ann married Joseph Barlow, and the title of the acreage belonging to Mathew Brooke was titled to Joseph Barlow. She was still living on Nov 12 1743, when she sold the property to her son Matthew Brooke. [Edson Barlow - via Elaine

General Notes: Elmer's parents Berhart and Charlotte (Anderson) Swenson were born in Sweden. [3]

Elmer shares his first name with his older brother Elmer D B Swenson who died a year before he was born. [3]

In October 1940 Elmer Bernhard Swenson registered for the draft. He was born 11 August 1917 in Pottstown, and is living in Royersford. Elmer is employed at the Erick Swenson Garage in Royersford. [4] Erick Swenson is probably Elmer's older brother.

Elmer enlisted in the US Army on 21 September 1942. He served in the US until 26 Feb 1944 when he went overseas. Elmer returned 25 October 1945, and was discharged from the service on 30 Oct 1945. [2]

Elmer served in the US Army during World War II, and later co-owned and operated Swenson's Garage in Royersford for 45 years. [1]

In January 1950 Elmer B Swenson applied for Pennsylvania Veterans Compensation. He was living in Royersford with his wife Thelma and daughter Linda Sue. Elmer received $470 for his service. [2]

6-Mahlon Barlow¹⁴ was born on 10 Nov 1822 in Limerick Township, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania,⁵³ died on 20 Aug 1863 in Pennsylvania⁵⁴ at age 40, and was buried in St James Churchyard (Limerick Churchyard), Limerick, PA.¹

General Notes: In the 1860 Census, Mahlon Barlow is living in Limerick township, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania. He is 37, a farmer, and has a personal estate of $250. Living with him are his wife Hannah, 31, children John, 11, Lydia A, 9, Owen, 7, Abraham, 5, Elizabeth B, 3, Anna, 1, mother Ann, 62, sister Charlotte, 25, John Kugler, 34, and wife Mary Kugler, 21, the Kugler's daughter Hannah, 1, and Franklin Kugler, 20.

[Mary Kugler was the daughter of Daniel Gilbert and Catharine Specht - CAR, Jul 2014 research with PA death certificates.]

"I do not know whether my grandpa had gone on an errand or to work, but on Aug. 20, 1863 when he did not return home, neighbors went in search of him. Evidently he fell ill & sat down under a tree to rest - there neighbors found his body.

On his tombstone is this inscription: "Mahlon Barlow lived in matrimony with Hannah Hallman 15 years and died Aug 20, 1863. Age 40 years, 9 months, 10 days" [1]

[2] Barlow family journal, of Florence Barlow Fry, believed to be the last words of this Mahlon Barlow, 1822-1863, may have been copied from a family bible

Mahlon married Hannah Hallman,¹⁴ daughter of Abraham Hallman and Elisabeth Trumbauer,⁵⁵ on 1 Jun 1848.¹⁴

Hannah was born on 2 Aug 1828 in Limerick Township, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania,⁵⁶ died on 8 Sep 1903 in Phoenixville, Chester County, Pennsylvania⁵⁷ at age 75, and was buried in Morris Cemetery, Phoenixville, Chester County, Pennsylvania.²¹ The cause of her death was Apoplexy. They had eight children: John Franklin, Lydia Ann, Owen Evans, Abraham, Elizabeth Bertha "Lizzie," Anna Ruberta, Mahlon H, and Alfred (Albert) Hallman.

Descendants of Joseph Barlow

General Notes: Cousin Elaine Jeter placed Hannah with these parents and siblings based on a Bible in possession of Craig and Karen Eiding (craige@ptd.net). Elaine dated her note 4/5/1999. It is not known where Lotta Reuther Longstreet obtained her information on Hannah's parents.

Hanna was widowed at age 35 with 8 children ranging in age from one month to 14 years [2].

In the 1870 Census, Hannah is living in Limerick Township, Montgomery Co, PA. She is 43 years old and living in the house of Catherine Miller, 62 (b. abt 1806), along with Joseph Miller, 28 (b. abt 1842), and Mary Miller, 63 (b. abt 1807). Living with Hannah is her son Alfred, age 6. Living next door is her son John and his wife Mary. Also nearby (same census page) are Hannah's brother Alfred Hallman, her late husband Mahlon's brother James and their mother Anna Barlow.

In the 1880 Census, Hannah is apparently the Hannah Hallman, 51 & widowed, in Limerick Township in the house of Joseph Miller, 38, the same household she was living at in 1870. Also in the house are Mary Miller, 83, Harriet Davis, 67, and Harriet's son Frank, 29, with Frank's wife Susie and their daughter Anne. Hannah is a housekeeper along with Harriet Davis.

In the 1900 Census, Hannah Barlow is living in Phoenixville, Chester Co, Pennsylvania. She is 71 years old (born Aug 1829) and widowed. Hannah has had 8 children and 6 are living. She is a housekeeper in the house of Joseph Miller, 58, a carpenter. (Owen and Elizabeth died in 1894 & 1890, respectively.)

At this time, we do not have any information on who the Millers were that Hannah lived with after she was widowed, and whether they are related.

Hannah's great-granddaughter Mary Elizabeth Barlow thought her grandfather John Franklin Barlow's emigration to Iowa was at least partly because his wife (Mary Clemens) was unable to get along with his mother (Hannah Hallman Barlow.) She may be right, and perhaps John Franklin was not the only family member who had that problem...

Township, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania,⁵⁹ died on 19 Mar 1910 in Dunkerton, Black Hawk County, Iowa⁶⁰ at age 60, and was buried on 22 Mar 1910 in Fairview Cemetery, Dunkerton, Black Hawk County, Iowa.⁶¹

General Notes: After his father's death when he was just 14 year old, John went to work, probably learning the carpentry trade that he used later in life. [1]

In the 1870 Census, John is living in Limerick Township, Montgomery Co, PA. John is 21 years old and a carpenter. Living with him is his wife Mary. Next door is his mother Hannah and youngest brother Alfred.

John moved to Dunkerton, Iowa, about 1877. He was a carpenter by trade. Although the family owned farmland, and were probably also farmers, they lived in a house in Dunkerton from before 1900. The house was sold when John died. [2]

In the 1880 Census (familysearch.org), John and his wife Mary, are living in Black Hawk, Iowa with their children George, age 9, Addie, age 7, and Jacob, age 3.

In 1900, John Barlow is living in Lester township, Black Hawk County, Iowa. He is 51, born May 1849 in Pennsylvania, and is a carpenter. Living with him are his wife Mary M, 48, born Dec 1851 in Pennsylvania, and their sons Frank C, 17, born Apr 1882, and John M, 11, born July 1888. Mary is incorrectly listed as having born 2 children, both living.

8-George Ralston Barlow¹ was born on 1 Apr 1871 in Royers Ford, Montgomery, Pennsylvania,¹ died on 29 Oct 1933 in Des Moines, Polk County, Iowa¹ at age 62, and was buried in Masonic Cemetary, Des Moines, Iowa.¹

General Notes: George spent his younger years working as a carpenter with is father in Dunkerton. Then he went to a business college in Des Moines and took a job with Younkens Department Store. [2]

In his younger years, George worked as a carpenter with his father in the Dunkerton, Iowa, area. Later he went to a business college in Des Moines, and took a job with Younkens Department Store there. He was credit manager there for a number of years before his death.

Mary Elizabeth Barlow remembers her father as very concerned and rather strict. On one occassion he decided that all his children should taste the evils of whiskey, so each was administered a dose. Mary managed to spit hers all over his suit.

George was a heavy pipe and cigar smoker. He developed lung cancer, which lead to his death in 1933. This was the depths of the Depression, so the family had financial difficulties. He had mortgaged his properties and invested in stocks before his death. He left insurance for the family, so they family managed, and all the children were well educated. George, out of concern for his younger brother Frank, also left insurance for Frank's family. [1]

In 1910, George R Barlow is living in Des Moines, Polk County, Iowa. He is 39, widowed, and a salesman at a dry goods store. He owns his home. With George are children Wallace, 4, Mary, 2, and Nettie, 4 months. Also with them is a servant Josephine Brewer, 34 & widowed. [3]

In 1920 George R Barlow is living in Des Moines. He is 48 and a credit manager at a department store. With George are wife Maude M, 31, born in Kentucky, and children Wallace, 14,

General Notes: Nettie was the youngest of four daughters. She was musically talented (voice and piano) and spent one year at Oberlin College. She died of kidney failure (probably eclampsia of toxemic pregnancy) after the birth of her third child. [Elaine Jeter]

9-Henry Wallace Barlow¹ was born on 9 Oct 1905 in Des Moines, Polk County, Iowa,⁶⁶ died on 5 Feb 1936 in Clearwater, Pinellas County, Florida⁶⁷ at age 30, and was buried in Pine Hill Cemetery, Davenport, Scott County, Iowa.⁶⁸ Another name for Henry was Wallace.

General Notes: Henry Wallace Barlow was called "Wallace" by the family. He was a brilliant young man, graduating from Iowa State College with the highest grade point average ever recorded at the time. He went to work for the DuPont Corporation. His death was due to "Bright's disease" (i.e., chronic glomerulonephritis). His wife's name was Dorothy Dannatt, She died in the summer of 1988 in Ames, Iowa.

One daughter, Mary Jane, m. Philip Pearson [1]

In 1930, Henry W Barlow is living in Buffalo, New York. He is 24, born in Iowa, and a research chemist for a rayon mill. Henry is a roomer, along with Byron J O'Hara, a shipping clerk at a rayon mill, living in the home of George F & Mary A Gow. [2]

General Notes: Mary graduated in the first class from Roosevelt High School in Des Moines at the age of 16. She went to Grinnell College in Grinnell, Iowa, and graduated at age 20 holding a Phi Beta Kappa key. Her major was Latin. Mary taught for a short time, then enrolled in the State University of Iowa in Iowa City to obtain her Masters degree in Latin with a minor in Greek. She received her MA about 1932, and taught school in Boxholm, Iowa, until she married Ervin, and in later years did bookkeeping. [1]

In 1930 Mary Barlow is living in Des Moines, Polk County, Iowa, with her father, step-mother and younger siblings. She is 23 [should be 22], and a teacher in the public school, as is her sister Nettie. [2]

Mary died on July 14, 2004, at 10:40 p.m. Her daughter Elaine was able to be with her for her final 20 hours after driving all night to get to her. She succumbed to left ventricular congestive cardiac failure, secondary to mitral valve regurgitation and the extra strain of a respiratory infection. She was ready to go, no doubt about that. She was just 8 days shy of of 96 years and 4 months. She is to be buried beside her husband in Calvary Cemetery, Douglas, Arizona, at her request with no services. The family will have a private ceremony later on. [1]

David Robert and Daniel Edward.

General Notes: M.D., Univ. of Kansas School of Medicine, 1960. Death: accidental drowning. [Elaine Jeter]

11-David Robert Voth

11-Daniel Edward Voth

Daniel married Kathryn Ann Marks. They had two children: Maxwell Robert and Molly Kathryn.

Margaret next married Hoyt David Jeter,⁷⁵ son of Joseph Henry Jeter and Bessie Estelle Dixon, on 19 Dec 1967 in San Diego, California.⁷⁵ Hoyt was born on 3 Apr 1919 in Camilla, Georgia⁷⁵ and died on 10 Jul 1987 in Poway, San Diego, California⁷⁵ at age 68. They had no children.

General Notes: Birth certificate for Hoyt David Jeter states that he was born on June 10, 1917; however, the family verifies that the actual date was April 3 1919. When he joined the Navy in 1936, he was just shy of the proper age; the family Bible was altered; June 10, 1917 is actually the birth date of his older brother, Harry Tinsley Jeter. [1]

About 1942 Hoyt married Gladys M Harvy, probably in Australia. Gladys was born in Australia, as was their son Hoyt.

In 1944 Gladys M Jeter, age 20, born in New South Wales, and an Australian, and her son Hoyte David Jeter, 11 months, born in Queensland, Australia, and son of a US citizen, sailed for the United States. They arrived in Los Angeles from Melbourne, Australia, on 1 July 1944. [2]

Hoyt and Gladys had two additional children in California - John Harvy Jeter and Denise Carolyn Jeter. [4]

Hoyt and Gladys divorced in November 1966 in San Diego, California. [3]

He retired from the U.S.Navy as a chief radioman in October of 1955, after serving in World War II and the Korean War, and became an electronic engineer for Convair (later General Dynamics) in San Diego

11-Alec Andrew Piplani⁷⁵ was born on 17 Jul 1960 in Easton, Pennsylvania⁷⁵ and died on 2 Aug 2009 in Monterey, California⁹⁶ at age 49.

General Notes: A San Jose man died after scuba diving in Monterey on Sunday, authorities said today. Alec Piplani, 49, was pronounced dead at Community Hospital of the Monterey Peninsula after he had some kind of difficulty in the water off McAbee Beach on Cannery Row, said coroner's Sgt. Matt Luther. Piplani, who had not been diving in about three years, suddenly popped up in the water and began asking for help, Luther said. Soon afterward, he stopped breathing and despite the efforts of bystanders and fire and ambulance crews he died after being taken by ambulance to the hospital. The incident happened about 11:30 a.m., according to Monterey fire officials. Luther said an autopsy is pending. Piplani did not have any known significant medical conditions, he said. [1]

9-Nettie Rebecca Barlow¹ was born on 24 Nov 1909 in Des Moines, Polk County, Iowa¹⁰⁰ and died on 30 Apr 1991 in Wilmington, Delaware¹ at age 81.

General Notes: In 1930 Nellie [Nettie] Barlow is living in Des Moines, Polk County, Iowa, with her father, step-mother and siblings. She is 20, and a teacher in the public school, as is her sister Mary. [3]

2/5/98 - Phoned Mother this a.m. and we discussed above subject. Here's the "poop". Mother says that Nettie was indeed named Nettie Rebecca (after her maternal grandmother since Mother had been named after the paternal grandmother) but that Nettie herself thought the name sounded too "Jewish" and refused to use it. <All of this is pretty funny when you consider that one of her granddaughters is named Rebecca :-)> When "push came to shove" for her to give a "middle name" as a younger woman, she would say that it was "Ruth" but never used it, preferred to use the initial instead. Certainly Nettie would never have admitted to her children that this situation existed, and I am sure they are unaware of it to this day (or possibly in denial!). There is no reason for Mother to have invented the story; I think she has secretly giggled about it for decades! [1]

Mother believes that, unless Nettie actually had her birth certificate changed (which is certainly possible) that the original "Rebecca" should be on it. - EJ 2/5/98

Nettie was cremated May 1, 1993, and her ashes scattered at Longwood Gardens, Pennsylvania. [2]

Nettie married George Hugh Braniff,² son of Hugh Braniff and Anna Perick, on 19 Mar 1932 in Albert Lea, Freeborn County, Minnesota.¹⁰¹ George was born on 5

Descendants of Joseph Barlow

Nov 1911 in Yoderville, Delaware Township, Polk Co, Iowa² and died on 22 Jun 1993 in Wilmington, Delaware² at age 81. They had four children: Beverly Jean, Blaine Alan, Beryl Ann, and Boyd Edward.

Marriage Notes: Nettie was about three months pregnant when she married George in Freeborn County, Minnesota, just across the state line from Worth & Winnebago Counties, Iowa.

General Notes: George's parents were Hugh Branniff and Anna Perick. Hugh was born about 1874 in England, and Anna about 1884 in Wisconsin. They married 13 May 1906 in Des Moines, Iowa. [1]

Nettie and George Braniff were a very loving and devoted couple, George a terrible "tease" (any family member within earshot was a potential victim!) and Nettie was a good sport about it; she was by nature a very warm person. They both were outstandingly intelligent and quite cosmopolitan. They raised four wonderful, intelligent children. George's career as an executive with the DuPont corporation was distinguished; he served on their executive board for a number of years. His retirement was rather early after he was discovered to have a bowel cancer; fortunately this was "cured" with surgery and he lived on to enjoy a lengthy retirement. I am sure the loss of Nettie two years before his death (due to a form of leukemia) was very difficult for him, but his children remained attentive and loving. [Elaine Jeter]

George was cremated June 23, 1993, and her ashes scattered at Longwood Gardens, Pennsylvania. The original Irish spelling of Braniff was Branagh. [Barlow family - Elaine Jeter]

the University of Pennsylvania. He also served in the US Navy for 5 years. [3]

Before working for Onan, Robert was president of Worthington Pump, a New Jersey firm that made industrial pumps, and was a division of McGraw-Edison Co. [3]

From February 1985 to April 1986, Robert was president of Onan Corp, the world's largest producer of generators. At that time, McGraw-Edison owned 63% of Onan. He left Onan after the company was bought by Cummins Engine Co. [3]

Robert then became president of Englehard Speciality Metals, and then was a vice president for corporate development of the Engelhard Corporation (parent company of Englehard Speciality Metals), a manufacturer of chemical products in Edison, New Jersey. [2, 3]

Robert was killed when a bomb planted aboard Pan Am Flight 103 exploded over Lockerbie, Scotland, in December 1988. He was returning from a business trip to London. [1, 3]

7-Lydia Ann Barlow¹ was born on 3 Oct 1850 in Limerick Township, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania,¹ died on 2 Nov 1945 in Phoenixville, Chester County, Pennsylvania²⁶⁰ at age 95, and was buried on 5 Nov 1945 in Phoenixville, Chester County, Pennsylvania.²⁶⁰ Another name for Lydia was Lydia A Barlow.²⁶¹

General Notes: Lydia Ann Barlow was born Oct 3 1850, baptised Dec 15 1850, parents Mahlon & Hannah Barlow, per baptismal record of St James Reformed Church. [Elaine Jeter]

At her father's death, Lydia had not yet reached her 13th birthday. She went to live with a relative. She was miserably treated as a servant. She was given so little to eat that she would nibble on chicken bones & chop bones that were left on plates in order to get a few extra bites. Some days she was so hungry she would shave off the thinnest slice of bread possible, but it was generally detected & she was punished. She did not complain to her mother, but it was discovered by a friend & reported to her mother. Of course her mother brought her home. [1]

In the 1870 Census, Lydia Barlow 19 years old and living as a domestic servant in the home of her mother's sister Elizabeth Hallman Springer and her husband Hiram Springer in Phoenixville, Chester Co, Pennsylvania. The Springers were very wealthy - Hiram listed his real estate value at $75,000 and his personal property at $2000. Elizabeth (Hallman) Springer had a separate business, a store that sold "trimmings".

In 1930, Lydia (Barlow) Keeley gave her grand-niece Mary Elizabeth Barlow Spunaugle a small handtowel with hand-work (lace and embroidery). Mary's daughter Elaine has that towel and considers it an heirloom, and with the "starvation" and knowing where Lydia was living in 1870, it is even more precious. [Elaine Jeter]

In the 1930 Census, Lydia A Keely is living in Phoenixville, Chester Co, PA, at 2 Anderson Avenue in the house of her son-in-law Paul Martens. She is 79 years old and a widow.

In 1940 Lydia Keely is living in Phoenixville with daughter Anna Martens and her family. Lydia is 90 years old, and does have income. [3]

Lydia A Keeley (or Keely) died 2 November 1945 in Phoenixville of Lobar pneumonia. She was born 3 October 1850 in Limerick to Mahlon Barlow and Hannah Hallman. The informant on her death certificate was [son-in-law] Paul Y Martens. Burial was in Phoenixville, no cemetery name given. [2]

General Notes: In the 1870 Census, Harry is living in Phoenixville, Chester Co, PA, with his parents Abeltis and Kate (Catharine on the 1860 Census) Keely. Harry is 19 and a telegraph operator. Abeltis is a tobacconist.

In the 1880 Census (www.familysearch.org), Harry and Lydia were living in Upper Providence, Montgomery, Pennsylvania, with their 5 year old son Harry (should be Frank?) and Lydia's brother Mahlon Barlow. Harry's occupation was telegraph.

In the 1900 Census, Harry W Keeley is living in Phoenixville, Chester Co, PA, at 159 1st Avenue. Harry is 49 years old and a telegraph operator. Living with him are his wife Lydia A, 49, son Fred J, 18, and daughter Annie E, 7. Harry and Lydia have been married 26 years, and Lydia has had four children, three are living.

In the 1910 Census, Harry W Keely is living in Phoenixville at 139 First Avenue. He is 59 years old and an operator on the railroad. Living with him are his wife Lydia A, 59. They have been married 37 years. Lydia has had four children, three are living. Living with them are their daughter Anna E, 17, and son Fred J, 28. Also in the house is a boarder, Sarah E Flick [or Fleck], 20, and a dressmaker.

In the 1920 Census, Harry W Keely is living in Phoenixville. He is 65 years old (should be 69), and appears to be retired (his occupation is none). Living with him is his wife Lidia, 66. They are renters in the house of Augusta Emery and his wife Blanche, 29 & 24 years old, at 135 First Ave.

Harry W. Keely, 1851 - 1921, husband of Lydia & son of Abeltis and Catherine, is buried at Morris Cemetery, Phoenixville, Chester County, Pennsylvania. [1]

Descendants of Joseph Barlow

They had one son: Carlyle Frederick.

General Notes: Sara Fleck is described as "of Sherwood", Ohio, the daughter of the late Rev William Fleck, a Sherwood pastor. [2] Sherwood is probably the town in Defiance County, two counties over from her birth county Van Wert.

Sarah is reportedly Sarah Susan Fleck, born 6 January 1891 in Van Wert, Ohio, to Anna Elizabeth Smith and William Henry Fleck. She was married on 20 January 1910 in Phoenixville, PA, to Fred Keely, then later to Bud Fkeckenger and then to Bill (last name unknown). [1]

Sarah and Fred Keely actually married 4 May 1910.

In 1900 Sarah S Fleck is living in Allegan township, Allegan County, Michigan, with her family. Sarah is 9, born Jan 1891 in Ohio. Her father William H Fleck, is 45 and a car inspector for the railroad. Mother Annie E is 39. Children - Ulysses H, 16, OH; Jesse J, 14, IN; William H, 11, IN; Adam G, 7, OH; Goldie O, 5, OH; and Clarence L, 2, OH. [3]

Sarah's father William Henry Fleck died in December 1906 in Van Wert County, Ohio. [4]

In the 1910 Census, Sarah E Flick [or Fleck] is living in Phoenixville at 139 First Avenue as a boarder in the house of Harry W Keely, her future father-in-law. Sarah is 20, born in Ohio, and a dressmaker. Also in the house is future husband Fred Keely.

On her 1910 marriage record with Fred Keely, Sarah appears to have lied about her age, stating she was born 6 January 1889 [13], making her 21 years old, when she was more likely 19, born 1891. Saying she was 21 meant she did not need parental permission to marry. Either her mother was not available to give permission (Anna was living in Ohio), or Sara did not have permission. [CAR]

Sarah's mother Anna Fleck died in 1925 in Toledo, Ohio. [5]

In 1935 Sarie is living in Alliance, Stark County, Ohio. [8]

About April 1936, Sarie S Keely, of Alliance, Ohio, married John A Flickinger. Sarie is 39, born about 1897 [should be age 45 or 47.] [7]

In 1940 Sarie and John A Flickinger are living in Salem, Columbiana County, Ohio. Sarie is 43 [should be 49-51], born in Ohio, and a sales lady at a millinery shop, and had 2 years of high school. She did not work in 1939. John is 43, born abt

1897 in Ohio, and is a surveyor's helper for the county. John was living in this house in 1935. In 1939 her had income of $1000. [8]

In February 1942 Mr & Mrs John Albert Flickinger were the first family to move into Erie Gardens in Port Clinton [Ottawa Co], a new Housing Project for civilian workers at the Erie Proving Grounds. John is an inspector on the 155 mm guns. Their permanent home is in Salem. For the past six months they have been living in one room at Oak Harbor [hotel?] and eating in restaurants. Their dog Blackie is with them. [9]

In August 1944, Mrs Sarie Flickinger, local Spencer corsetiere [corsetiere - a woman who makes or fits corsets], announced the opening of Sarie Hat Shop on E. Second St, where she has been in business since last February. Mrs Flickinger has twenty years experience in the millinery business before coming to Port Clinton. [10]

Sarie and John were still together in the spring of 1949 when Mr & Mrs John Flickinger were in Chicago representing Sarie's Hat Shoppe at the Chicago Merchandise Market. [11] They appear to have divorced by December 1949 when Sarie is using the name Sarie Keely. [12]

Mrs Sarie Keely, of Sarie's Shoppe, is leaving Christmas Day [1949] to spend a week in Churchview, VA, with son Carlyle Keely, his wife and family. [12]

In November 1950, Sarie (according to her marriage license) is living at 2273 Hollywood av in Toledo, Ohio (presumably with one of her siblings). She is a milliner. Sarie Keely is 54 as of 6 Jan 1950 (calculating a birth date of 6 Jan 1896). [Sarie's age was actually 59.] Sarie was born in Van Wert, Ohio, to William Fleck and Anna Smith. Sarie was previously married once and is widowed. [She was married and divorced twice, both ex-husbands still living in 1950.]

Sarie married William J Steiner, age 54, born in Ohio, on 13 November 1950 in Toledo, Ohio. William is 59 as of 2 Feb 1950, parents George A Steiner and Matilda Cumbarister. He is a resident of Monroe, Michigan. [14]

In 1952 Mrs Sarie Stienner is living in Monroe, Michigan. [6]

Sarie Steiner died 4 May 1966 in Monroe, Michigan. Her obituary from the Monroe Evening News [transcription] on 5 May says she was the daughter of William H & Anna Elizabeth Fleck. She married Fred Keely 29 January 1910 [should be 4 May] in Phoenixville, PA. Sadly Fred preceded her in death in 1949. [They divorced prior to 1936 and he died in 1960. The obituary does not include 2nd husband John Flickinger from 1936 to about 1949; divorced.] She married William J Steiner 13 November 1950 in Monroe, Michigan [they actually married in Toledo, Ohio]. Survivors included husband William, son Carlyle, step-daughters and siblings. [15]

William J Steiner, b. 2 Feb 1891, died 22 July 1971 in Monroe, Michigan. [16]

General Notes: In 1935 Carlyle and wife Ocie were both living in a rural area of Charlotte County, Virginia. [4]

In 1940 Carlisle Keely is living in Jamaica District, Middlesex County, Virginia. He is 25, has completed 3 years of high school, is employed hauling pulpwood (on his own account) and as a rural mail carrier (for the government). In 1939 Carlyle made $800. With Carlyle are his wife Ocie (age 23, completed 2 years of high school), daughters Jeanette, 3, & Sarie, 2, and son Carlisle Jr, age 6 months. [4]

Descendants of Joseph Barlow

Carlyle Frederick Keely registered for the WWII draft in October 1940. He was living in Church View, Middlesex County, Virginia, and is self-employed. Carlyle was born 6 April 1915 in Phoenixville, Pennsylvania. [5]

Carlyle F Keely born 7 August 1915 (or 6 April 1915) died 2 July 1978 in Hillsborough County, Florida. His Social Security number was issued in Virginia before 1951. [1, 2]

Carlyle is buried at Myrtle Hill Memorial Park in Tampa, Florida. "DS w/ Ocie S. Keely" [2], indicating Carlyle is either buried with wife Ocie, or they were possibly divorced. She is also buried at Myrtle Hill.

Other names for Ernest were Paul Y Martens³¹⁹ and Paul Y Martin.¹ They had one son: Paul Henry.

General Notes: In 1900 Henry Martin (b. Mar 1891) is living in Phoenixville, Chester County, Pennsylvania, with his parents Henry Martin (b. Aug 1846 in Germany) and Pauline (b. Nov 1858 in PA), and younger brother John H (b. Dec 1899). Henry immigrated in 1888 and is a citizen. He is a clerk, possibly at an iron co. [4]

Descendants of Joseph Barlow

On June 5 1917, Ernest Paul Yost Martens registered for the World War I draft. He is living at 137 1st Avenue in Phoenixville, Chester Co, PA. Paul was born in Phoenixville March 26 1891. Paul is a draftsman for the Heine Safety Boiler Co. He should be excused from military service because he engaged in government work. Paul is married.

In the 1920 Census, Paul Y Martin is living next door to his in-laws in Phoenixville, Chester Co, PA, at 137 1st Avenue. He is 29 years old and a draughtsman at a boiler works. Living with him is his wife Anna C, 26. [Elaine Jeter]

In the 1930 Census, Paul Y Martens is living at 2 Anderson Ave in Phoenixville. Paul is 39 and a manufacturer of children's garments. Living with him are his wife Anna K, 37, and mother-in-law Lydia A Keely, 79. Paul and Anna were married when they were 24 & 22 years old.

In 1935, Paul, wife Anna, brother Henry, and mother-in-law Lydia Keely are all living at the house on Anderson Ave in Phoenixville. [3]

In 1940 Paul Martens is in Phoenixville. He is 49, completed 8th grade, ad is a draftsman at a heating company. He worked 52 weeks in 1939, possibly for $2000. With him is wife Anna, 47, completed 2 years of college, son Paul, age 4, brother Henry, and mother-in-law Lydia Keely. Brother Henry is 40, single, also a draftsman at a heating company, probably working with Paul. It looks like Henry did not work in 1939. [3]

In 1942 Paul Yost Martens is living at 2 Anderson Ave in Phoenixville with his wife Ann K Martens. Paul is working for Electric Heating Equip Co of Philadelphia. He was born 26 March 1891 in Phoenixville. [1]

Paul Martens was born 26 Mar 1891 and died Dec 1982. His last residence was in Phoenixville, Chester County, Pennsylvania. [2]

General Notes: Paul H Martens was the son of Paul E and Anna Keeley Martens. [1]

He was a graduate of Phoenixville High School, continued his education at Penn State University, and served in the US Navy as a helicopter pilot during the Korean War. [1]

Paul was a certified journeyman at the Clorox Co. He was also a skilled craftsman in skimshaw and also enjoyed working in leather. He was a Native American Protestant. [1]

In addition to his wife Roxine Keefer Martens and daughters, Paul was also survived by two step-daughters DeAnna (Patricio Sanchez) of Pottsgrove, and Shannon Grow (companion Don Miles) of Coatesville. [1]

It is not clear from his obituary who the mother of his daughters was, so I have assumed she was not Roxine. [CAR]

7-Owen Evans Barlow¹ was born on 8 Aug 1852 in Limerick
Township, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania,¹ died on 11 Jun
1894 in Pottstown, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania³²⁷ at age
41, and was buried in Mount Zion Cemetery and Mausoleum, North Coventry, Chester County, Pennsylvania.

General Notes: In the 1880 Census (familysearch.org), Owen is a telegraph operator in Pottstown, PA. Living with him are his wife Lydia (age 24), their children Charlie, age 3 and Hannah, age 1, as well as Owen's brother Alfred, also a telegraph operator. In addition, the household includes Andrew Fox, a laborer, and Mahlon Hallman, age 21, a blacksmith. Owen and Alfred's mother was a Hallman, so Mahlon may be a cousin, possibly the son of Hannah Hallman Barlow's brother Alfred Hallman. Andrew Fox is probably Lydia's brother.

While engaged in his duties as Reading Railroad yardmaster in Pottstown, Owen E Barlow was struck by an engine and received fatal injuries on 11 June 1894. He left a wife and six children. [1]

Descendants of Joseph Barlow

General Notes: The censuses reported Sara's birthplace as Pennsylvania (1900 & 1920) and Iowa (1930). The 1920 Census also reported her father's birthplace incorrectly as Iowa. I believe that a birthplace of Iowa is probably correct. The 1920 census is suspect as it also recorded her sons' birthplaces as PA, when the 1930 census and the WWI draft both point to a birthplace of New Jersey for them. [CAR 2007]

Son Horace reported his mother's birthplace as Phoenixville, Pennsylvania. [1]

In 1956 Sara M Barlow, widow of Wm R, is living in Scranton, Pennsylvania, in the home of her son Horace Barlow. Neither are listed in the 1957 directory. [2]

The Social Sec. Administration records her name in Jul 1963 as Sara May Barlow. [3]

Sarah M Barlow died Thursday [4 Jul 1968] at Moses Taylor Hospital [in Scranton]. Her husband William R Sweeney died in 1947. She was born in Dunkerton, Iowa, to Abraham and Amanda Rosenberger Barlow. She moved from Phoenixville to this city [Scranton] 50 years ago [about 1918]. She is survived by daughter Mrs Esther Lewis [of Scranton] and brother Horace Barlow of Phoenixville. Burial Monday [8 Jul] in Morris Cemetery, Phoenixville. [4]

General Notes: In 1940 Grace Lewis is living in Scranton, Lackawanna County, Pennsylvania, with her parents. Grace is 21, born in Pennsylvania [should be New Jersey] and is a stenographer. She worked 52 weeks in 1939 for an annual salary of $660. [5]

On 6 December 1940, Grace Esther Lewis's membership in the Westminster Presbyterian Church in Scranton was dismissed to the St. James Church in Jermyn after her marriage to R D Horswell. [1]

Grace probably married Grant Bricker about 1945.

Grace E Bricker is in Las Vegas, Nevada, by 1965 or 1966 when she married John B Murphy. [6]

In 1979 Grace E Murphy married Donald Richard Shipman in Las Vegas. A review of the US Public Records Index on Ancestry, places Grace & Donald at the same address with the correct birth date for Grace. [3, 4]

Grace served as the voice of MGM Grand Hotel in Las Vegas for many years. [2]

Grace Shipman of Mt. Lebanon, Pennsylvania, died 18 December 2009. She was the mother of Kenneth G Bricker (and wife Ellen), Douglas R. Bricker (and wife Evelyn), and the late Robert E Horswell. [2]

Vivian Augustus Barlow, b. Phoenixville, 1898. [3]
Vivian Augustus Barlow, female, b. 5 Feb 1898, Phoenixville, mother Annie [Barlow], father Allen Kaplan.
[4]

In the 1900 Census, Augustus Barlow is 2 years old and living in Phoenixville, Chester Co, Pennsylvania, with his grandparents Abram H & Amanda Barlow, and his uncle Horace K Barlow. Augustus was born in Pennsylvania as were both his parents.

In 1910 Augustus is now known as Augustus Hampton. He is 12, born in Pennsylvania, and living in Camden, New Jersey, with his mother Anna Hampton and [step] father John B Hampton. [1]

In 1920 Augustus Hampton is living in Philadelphia with his aunt and uncle Lydia B & Lawrence Brown. Augustus is 21, born in Pennsylvania, as were his parents, and is a machinist in the pulley industry. [2]

Augustus is very likely the Augustus Hampton arrested in Philadelphia for smuggling alcohol during Prohibition --

Acting on a tip, police went to the Market street ferries of the Pennsylvania Railroad at 1:30 in the morning [7]

Descendants of Joseph Barlow

August?] where they spied a automobile ready to cross the river that looked suspicious.

The driver gave his name as Augustus Hampton of 237 South Sixtieth street. Mr Hampton was taken into custody on a charge of operating an automobile without a proper license. He claimed the woman with him was his wife and not involved in the alleged rum-running, so she was released and promptly disappeared.

The $4000 auto was driven to City Hall. While examining it a woman called and asked to speak to the prisoner. This was refused so she spoke to the captain and asked that the car not be broken into because of the valuable woodwork. She would bring the keys. When she did not appear, the police proceeded and found 200 bottles of rye whiskey.

The police said that the rum-running scheme was very lucrative (Augustus was a participant, not a leader of the scheme), netting $4000 to $5000 a week. [6]

August Hampton was discharged today [8 Aug] after he produced an auto license tag. August had 200 bottles of "wet goods" in his possession when arrested. The tag was not displayed on the car but Hampton produced it at the hearing. He said he borrowed the car to meet a man in Atlantic City.

Hampton had been previously held in $1000 bail by the US Commissioner for a further hearing on a Federal charge of having liquor in his possession. [7]

In 1923 there is Augustus Hampton, chauff[feur], living in Philadelphia at 6018B Catharine. [5]

Nothing further has been found to date (2020) for Augustus Barlow/Hampton.

Apr 1962 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania⁵²² at age 78, and was buried on 25 Apr 1962 in Pottstown Cemetery, Pottstown, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania.⁵²³ Another name for Mary was Mary S Boyer.²⁷⁴

General Notes: In 1900 Mary S Boyer is living in Pottstown, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania, at 337 Walnut St in Pottstown with her grandmother Maria Boyer, and brother Charles P Boyer. Mary is 16, and a sleeve maker at a shirt factory. [1]

In 1910 Mary Boyer is living in Pottstown at 337 Walnut with her grandmother Maria Boyer and her half-cousin Howard Kiler. Mary is 26, single, and a saleslady at a book store. [3]

In 1920 Mary E Boyer is still in Pottstown at 337 Walnut with her grandmother Maria B Boyer. Mary is 35, single, and a saleslady at a candy store. [4]

Mary's grandmother Maria Boyer died on 27 March 1920.

In 1930 Mary Boyer is still in Pottstown at the home at 337 Walnut where she lived with her parents and with her grandmother. She is 46, single, a clerk at a store and listed as a lodger in the house. The "lead" family is Amon Yoder, his wife Mary, and their children. The Yoders are renting the house. [5]

Based on the 1940 Census and her death certificate, Mary appears to have become an institutional resident about 1938, probably first at the state hospital in Norristown, and later at the Lutheran Home in Philadelphia.

In 1940 Mary E Boyer is living in Norristown at the state hospital [for the mentally ill]. She is 55, single, had one year of high school. Mary appears to have become a resident at the hospital between 1935 and 1940. The census shows her as living in Montgomery County in 1935, but not at the hospital. [6]

From her death certificate (difficult to read):

Mary Boyer, daughter of Sylvester L Boyer & Elizabeth Barlow, died on 22 April 1962 in Philadelphia at the Lutheran Home. She had been living there for 24 years [since about 1938]. Mary had previously been a store clerk. She died of Cerebral Arteriosclerosis and Hypertensive arteriosclerotic cardiovascular disease. [7]

In 2013 the street address for the Lutheran Home at 6950 Germantown Ave is the Germantown Home, a nursing home for seniors.

8-Charles Philip Boyer⁵²⁴ was born on 9 Jan 1887 in Pottstown, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania,⁵²⁵ died on 30 Jan 1915 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania⁵²⁶ at age 28, and was buried on 2 Feb 1915 in Northwood Cemetery, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.⁵²⁶

General Notes: In 1900 Charles P Boyer is living in Pottstown, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania, at 337 Walnut St with his grandmother Maria Boyer, and sister Mary S Boyer. Charles is 13 and at school. [1]

Charles is probably the Charles Boyer, age 23, living in Ward 13, Philadelphia, in 1910. He is living with Thomas Cummings, 25, listed as his "companion" [roommate]. Both men are working as fruit sorters. [4]

On 30 November 1911, Charles Boyer married Lizzie Beringer in Philadelphia. Charles was 24 [b. abt 1887], born in Pottstown, living in Philadelphia and a stevedore. Lizzie Beringer was born in Philadelphia. The witnesses were Louis N Braun and Eva Beringer [Lizzie's sister] [3, 5]

Charles Philip Boyer, born 9 January 1887, died 30 January 1915 in Philadelphia of military tuberculosis and acute pericarditis. He was 28 years old, married, and a laborer. His father was ___ Boyer and his mother was E Barlow. [2]

7-Anna Ruberta Barlow⁵³¹ was born on 22 Nov 1858 in Limerick Township, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania,⁵³² died on 10 Mar 1930 in Daytona Beach, Volusia County, Florida⁵³³ at age 71, and was buried on 14 Mar 1930 in Westminster Cemetary, Bala Cynwyd, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania.⁵³⁴ The cause of her death was pneumonia & influenza.

General Notes: When her father died, "my mother was not quite 5 years old & remained at home with her mother & later attended the little country school. There was no compulsory education law in those years and after finishing the 4th grade she went to work. "I am ashamed to confess that I do not know what she did or when she went to Phila. Nor do I know how or when she started in the pleating business. I do know that she owned the first knife pleating machine in Phila." [6]

Anna would have been about 9 years old when she left home and went to work.

In 1870 Anna and her brother Mahlon appear to be living in Upper Providence township, Montgomery Co, Pennsylvania, in the house of Charles Garber. Anna is 11, and Mahlon is 9. Mahlon has attended school during the year, but Anna has not. Both children are listed on the census as Barber instead of Barlow.

Charles Garber is likely a relative of Anna's aunt Mary (Barlow) Miller whose mother-in-law was a Garber.

Mahlon & Anna's brother Abraham Barlow was living with Charles & Harriet Garber's daughter Elizabeth Garber Fetterolf and her family. Charles Garber's daughter Anna married a man named Vanderslice. (Elaine Jeter's research on the Garbers.) Anna Barlow's first husband was John Vanderslice.

Annie Barlow (age 21, b. abt 1858) married Jno. Vanderslice (age 28, b. abt 1851) on 8 May 1879 in Burlington, New Jersey. [7]

Early in 1880 Annie Barlow is living in a rooming house in Philadelphia operated by her uncle Abe Hallman. Annie is a seamstress. Also in the house is her first husband John Vanderslice. Both John and Annie show as single.

Anna was married first to a promising young Philadelphia lawyer,

Descendants of Joseph Barlow

John R. Vanderslice. Their first year of marriage was drawing to a close when their baby Charles Edgar was born 3/25/1881. While she was confined with the birth of their son, her husband was stricken with pneumonia & died. Soon after that the baby died. So she was a bride, a mother, a widow and childless within 12 months.

They had actually been married almost 2 years when John died.

John Vanderslice appears to be the John P Vanderslice, lawyer, who died of Typhoid Fever on 22 April 1881.

In 1915 A R Reuther advertised her Knife & Accordion Pleating business. She pleated kilted, box and sun ray skirts. Mail orders received prompt attention. Her business was at 252 N. 8th street.

Anna fell ill while visiting daughter Lotta in Daytona Beach, Florida. She and Henry had arrived about 17 February (21 days before her death). Anna died on 10 March 1930 of pneumonia and influenza. She had been attended by the doctor since 4 March. After she became so ill, her son Russell rushed from Connecticut to see her, but she died before he got there. [1, 3, 4]

They had one son: Charles Edgar.

Marriage Notes: Early in 1880 [1880 Census -

Descendants of Joseph Barlow

www.familysearch.org], John and Anna were living in the same house, probably a rooming house, in Philadelphia. They were listed as single, but actually married 8 May 1879.

John was 25 and a lawyer. Anna (listed as Annie) was a seamstress. The head of household was Abe Hallman, age 45, a brother of her mother. Abe worked in a foundry, and was married to Melvina, age 37, and they had one son, William, age 9.

In addition to John and Anna, the others in the house were:

John Hall, age 30, a weaver born in England

Emma Fertler, age 35, working in an art gallery, born in Maryland

Nellie Sullivan, age 23, working in an art gallery, born in Pennsylvania. Her parents were born in Ireland.

Annie Homer, age 35, a tailoress born in Pennsylvania, and Kate Muller, age 22, a servant, born in Pennsylvania.

General Notes: According to his death certificate, John was born in Chester County. He may be the John Vanderslice, age 8, living in East Vincent township (Pottstown Post Ofc), Chester County, in the home of Casper & Marie Frances in 1860.

John P Vanderslice died on 22 April 1881 of Typhoid Fever at age 29 (or 25). John was married, a lawyer, and living at 372 Franklin Street in Philadelphia. He was buried at ----ville [Phoenixville?] in Chester County, Pennsylvania. [1]

Anna next married Henry Christian Reuther,⁵³⁹ son of Christian John Reuther and Emilie Klobe, on 25 Jul 1888 in Phoenixville, Chester County, Pennsylvania.⁵⁴⁰ Henry was born on 17 Mar 1859 in Green Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania,⁵⁴¹ was christened on 17 Apr 1865 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania,⁵⁴² died on 5 Jun 1932 in Fairfield, Fairfield County, Connecticut⁵³⁹ at age 73, and was buried on 8 Jun 1932 in Westminster Cemetary, Bala Cynwyd, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania.⁵⁴³ Another name for Henry was Christian Heinrich Reuther.⁵⁴² They had four children: Edna Laura, Lotta Barlow, Russell Evans, and Florence Anna.

Marriage Notes: The marriage took place at Anna's sister Lydia's home in Phoenixville, Pennsylvania [1].

Henry and Anna owned a store in Philadelphia. On the first floor Henry sold cutlery such as knives and scissors. He also sold other goods such as china and leather goods. The family still has knives, scissors, and tea cups that came from the store. On the second floor, Anna operated a pleating business.

Per a letter from Florence Reuther Becker to Lydia Speiser Reuther on June 18, 1968, the store was located on 8th Street. It must have been within a few blocks of 8th and Arch Streets, as this was the location of a store called George B. Evans that sold fancy candies, cakes, and fruits. The store also sold gifts and fine china. It covered the entire block on the 8th Street side. Anna passed this store on her way to Henry's store. It was at Evans that she saw a beautiful punch bowl in the window, that Henry subsequently surprised her with for Valentine's Day, reportedly in their first or second year of marriage, probably about 1889. The punch bowl set is currently owned by Catherine Reuther. The green bowl and top is decorated with strawberries, with matching cups, and a platter with strawberry flowers and leaves to sit on. [2]

Henry and Anna's store was located at 250 - 252 8th Street in Philadelphia. [3]

General Notes: Henry wrote the following in a notebook he kept as a young man:

My dearest Sister Carrie, this present I give to thee,
May our love exist for ever, between us you and me.
For it is the heart felt wish of your brother that loves you well
For the love I have for you dear Sister no words can ever tell.

Daughter Lotta "did not remember her father with much affection".
[7] Perhaps Henry was a very stern man like his father has been described. [CAR]

In the 1890 , Henry is living at 510 Franklin Street. He is a bookkeeper. [6] In 1895 & 1896, Henry C Reuther is still on Franklin street, but he is now a stationer ar 252 N 8th st. [5]

In 1896 Henry C Reuther is selling "fancy goods" at 252 N 8th. He is living at 510 Franklin. In 1898 he is selling toys at 252 E 8th, and is now living at 635 N 12th. [2]

In the 1900 Census, Henry Reuther (Ruther on the census) is living at 635 North Twelfth Street in Philadelphia. He is 40 years old and a stationary dealer. Living with him is his wife Anna, 40. They have been married 12 years. Living with them are their children Edna, 11, Lotta, 8, Russell, 7, and Florence, 2, Anna's aunt Charlotte Barlow, 70, and Anna's nephew Frank Keely (Keighly on the census), 25. In addition, there are 4 boarders and 2 servants in the house.

On 26 October 1901, Henry C & Anna R Reuther sold their home at 635 N Twelfth St to Wm J Ferguson for $4000. But in 1902 a permit was issued to Ambrose Beck to add a 4.6 x 10 ft addition for $600 to the home of H C Reuther at 635 N 12th st. [2, 3]

In the 1910 Census, Henry is renting a house at 749 Corinthian Avenue in Philadelphia. He is 51 years old, married for 23 years (his first marriage), and is a retail merchant in the stationary business. Living with him is his wife Anna R. She is also 51 years old, and this is her second marriage. She has born 5 children, only 4 are currently living. Her occupation is none. Living with them are their daughters, Edna L, 21, Lotta, 18, and Florence, 13. Edna is a saleswoman at a stationers - her father's store?

In 1916 H C Reuther purchased 4743 N. 12th St from Hill B Bush Asso No 2 for $1500. [4]

In 1917, Henry C Reuther, doing business at 259 [or 250?] N 8th st, advertised sharpening razor blades equal to new, both single and double edge. [1]

Descendants of Joseph Barlow

In the 1920 Census, Henry is living at 4743 12th Street in Philadelphia. He is 60 years old, and was born in Philadelphia, Pa. He is a merchant in the stationary business. Living with him are his wife Anna R, age 60, and daughters Lotta B, 28, and Florence A, 22. Florence is a clerk in the stationary business, and may be working with her father. Anna's occupation is none. She appears to have retired from her pleating business.

In the 1930 Census, Henry is living at 4743 12th Street in Philadelphia. He owns his home, and gave it a value of $5000. He owns a radio. Henry is 71 years old, widowed, and living alone. He is retired.

After Anna died, Henry moved to Fairfield, Connecticut, to live with his son Russell and his wife Lydia Speiser Reuther, and their children Joyce and Calvin. He died at their home at 219 Toilsome Hill Road. [Calvin Reuther]

In a note by Florence Reuther Becker in a notebook kept by Henry, he was buried Wednesday, June 8, 1932, in Westminster Cemetery, Philadelphia, PA. Services were conducted by Rev. Calvin P. Swank, pastor of Muhlenberg Lutheran Church.

Henry's obituary in the paper reads "Mr. Henry C. Reuther, for many years a resident of Logan, at 4713 North Twelfth street, passed away at the home of his son in Bridgeport, Connecticut, and was buried from the undertaker parlors of Mr Keller, and old friend, on Wednesday afternoon. He was a member of Muhlenberg Lutheran Church, whose pastor conducted the funeral."

General Notes: In the 1910 Census, Edna is 21 years old and living with her parents and younger sisters. She is a saleswoman at a stationers, probably her father Henry's store.

On 3 June 1916, just before she married Henry later that month, Edna purchased a home at 4522 N. Twelfth st in Philadelphia from Jushua M Holmes for $3800. [1] Edna and Henry lived in this home in the early years of their marriage.

Family stories passed down in the Zimmer family report that Edna may have been institutionalized at some point. Her husband Henry may even have had her institutionalized because he wanted a divorce. [2]

Regarding Edna's mental illness: Edna was treated professionally at home and by daughter Mildred. It was often said, Mildred raised her brothers Henry and Bob. [3]

From the little bit known, it appears Edna suffered from some type of mental illness. She was not ill enough to be hospitalized, but was ill enough that daughter Mildred may have performed many household duties, including the care of her younger brothers (only 2 and 4 years younger), as well as caring for Edna. It would not be unexpected for Mildred to have resented her mother and the position she was placed in. This would help explain the rift in the family that occurred when (if?) Henry and Edna divorced, and after Edna's death in 1949. [CAR]

Edna L Zimmer died 10 May 1949 at Germantown Hospital in Philadelphia. Husband Henry F Zimmer was the informant on her death certificate. He reports them as married and Edna as living at their home on Fairhill St. An inquest was held on 19 May with the jury rendering a verdict that the cause of death was hypertensive cerebral hemorrhage. Another name for Henry was Friedrich Heinrich Zimmer.⁵⁴⁹ They had three children: Mildred Barlow, Henry Frederick, and Robert Evans.

Marriage Notes: Although two sources report that Edna and Henry were divorced, it is unclear at this time (2012) if that is correct or if they may have been separated or planning a divorce before her death in 1949. [CAR] When she died, Edna was listed on her death certificate as married and living at their home on Fairhill St in Philadelphia. Husband Henry was the informant. [4]

Edna and Henry had been divorced for many years when Edna passed away. They were still married in 1942, so may have divorced shortly after that as Edna died in 1949. [1]

Daughter Mildred and her husband John Root lived with Henry & Edna during World War II, so they most likely divorced between 1945 and 1949. John Root does not remember a divorce, but other sources (see notes below) do remember a divorce. [3]

When Henry divorced Edna, apparently for another woman, it caused a rift between their children. Mildred sided with her father, Robert with his mother, and Henry was caught in between. Eventually, Mildred and Robert quit talking to each other, and remained estranged until their deaths. [2]

Later, when Henry's 2nd wife Esther died [in 1982] grandson Mark Zimmer asked about the Zimmer family memorabilia that Esther inherited from Henry. Daughter Mildred wrote him that he was not in the will, everything was sold off; "tough stuff" - you don't get anything. [2] This contributed to the estrangement between the children of Henry and Edna and their grandchildren. Although, Mark reports that the cousins harbour no ill feelings.

Notes on divorce: Edna's brother Russell Reuther's daughter Joyce remembers a divorce. Joyce might have been planning her wedding around that time, so the breakup of the family would have been something she would remember. Also, Edna's son Henry Zimmer, Jr's, son Mark knew growing up that they had divorced, and that it caused a rift between Edna and Henry's children.

General Notes: In 1900 Henry F Zimmer is living in Philadelphia with his parents. William Zimmer was born in Germany and is a musician. Wife Anna K was also born in Germany. They have three sons - William L, 11, Henry F, 9, and Herbert P, 6 months. [2]

In the 1920 Census, Henry F Zimmer is living at 4522 12th Street in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Henry's in-laws Henry and Anna Reuther live at 4743 12th Street. He is 31 years old and was born in Philadelphia. Living with him are his wife Edna, 31, daughter Mildred, 2 9/12, and son Henry, 11/12. Edna and the children were also born in Philadelphia. Also living with them is Dorothy Stiffer?. She is identified as a helper. She is 13 years old and was born in Philadelphia.

In the 1930 Census, Henry Zimmer is living in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He is 39 years old, and was born in Pennsylvania. His parents were born in Germany. Henry is a salesman. Living with him are his wife Edna, 41, and children, Mildred, 13, Henry, 11, and Robert, 8. All the children were born in Pennsylvania.

In 1942 Henry Frederick Zimmer, Sr, registered for the World War II draft. He was born 21 March 1891 in Philadelphia, and was living at 6206 N Fairhill St in Philadelphia with his wife Mrs Edna Zimmer. Henry was working for Columbia Mills Inc of Philadelphia as a traveling salesman. [1]

Sometime after 1942 or 1945 [CAR], Henry divorced Edna because he wanted to pursue another woman. Henry's second wife was a woman named Esther. He pre-deceased her and she did not re-marry. [4]

Note: Family sources disagree on whether Henry and Edna divorced. His 2nd marriage seven months after Edna's death may point toward no divorce.

On 19 December 1949 Henry F Zimmer married Esther Mae Zerby in Doylestown, Berks County, Pennsylvania. Their marriage license was issued in Montgomery County. [5]

Henry Zimmer was born 21 Mar 1891 and died Jul 1977. His last residence was Philadelphia, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania. [3]

9-Mildred Barlow Zimmer⁵⁵³ was born on 4 Apr 1917 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania⁵⁵⁴ and died on 20 Apr 2003 in Toledo, Lucas County, Ohio⁵⁵⁵ at age 86. Another name for Mildred was Mildred Zimmer.⁵⁵⁶

General Notes: Mildred enrolled at Drexel Institute of Art, Science and Industry in Philadelphia in 1935. She graduated in 4 years in 1940 with a degree in Home Economics. When she graduated Drexel was Drexel Institute of Technology. Today it is Drexel University. [3, 4]

Lydia Speiser wrote that Mildred & John had a child named Dusky. [2] This appears to be in error (or unclear) and should probably have been Dick (or Dicky).

Mildred Z. Root was born 4 Apr 1917 and died 20 Apr 2003. Her last residence and benefit paid was in Sylvania, Lucas County, Ohio. Her SSN was issued in New Jersey before 1951. [1]

9-Henry Frederick Zimmer Jr was born on 26 Feb 1919 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania,²⁹⁵ died on 1 Jun 1973 in Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania⁵⁶⁰ at age 54, and was buried in Bryn Athyn Cemetery, Bryn Athyn, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania.⁵⁶¹ The cause of his death was suicide. Another name for Henry was Henry Zimmer.⁵⁵⁶

General Notes: Henry F Zimmer Jr joined the US Army on 29 May 1942 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Henry was born in 1919 in Pennsylvania. He has had 1 year of college, is working as a photographer, and is married. [3]

Henry was a prisoner of war in Germany during World War II. He kept a diary during his imprisonment. This diary's location is currently unknown and may have been destroyed. Henry had many physical and health problems due to his time in a POW camp. [4]

He was in in the insurance business, working near his summer home about an hour and a half from the family's main home in Philadelphia. [4]

In writing Cal Reuther about the death of his cousin Henry Zimmer's widow, Lydia wrote her son that Henry had a drinking problem and committed suicide. [1] His drinking was probably related to his WW II experiences.

Over the years, Henry threatened suicide, always calling his father, who would call Henry's wife Connie. Connie would hurry to him to prevent him from following through. On 1 June 1973, Henry again threatened suicide. He was at their summer home, and Connie and the children were in Philadelphia. Before Connie could get there, Henry shut himself in the garage with the car running, using the car exhaust to kill himself. [4]

Henry Zimmer was born 26 Feb 1919 and died Jun 1973. His Social Security number was issued in New Jersey before 1951. [2]

8-Russell Evans Reuther was born on 8 May 1893 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania,⁵³⁹ was christened on 23 Feb 1908 in Reading, Berks County, Pennsylvania,⁵⁹⁹ died on 4 Dec 1967 in Bridgeport, Fairfield County, Connecticut⁶⁰⁰ at age 74, and was buried on 7 Dec 1967 in Lawncroft Burial Park, Fairfield, Connecticut.⁶⁰¹ The cause of his death was Pulmonary Endema.

General Notes: Russell left school and Philadelphia at age 16 in 1909 to work for Mr. Phillips at the fabric company [in Bridgeport, Connecticut]. [Aunt Lotta]

In 1910, Russell Reuther is living in Bridgeport at the home of his boss H. Albert Philips. He was born about 1894 in Pennsylvania. [7]

Russ first lived with the Phillips, then took a room on Coleman Street near Park Avenue. [6]

On June 5 1917, Russell Evans Reuther registered for the World War I draft in Bridgeport, Connecticut. He was living at 346 Beechwood Ave in Bridgeport, and was an assistant manager for Alb. & E. Henkels Inc.

Russell E. Reuther was inducted in the United States Army May 23, 1918 at Bridgeport, Connecticut. He achieved the rank of corporal October 7, 1918. He served in the 15th Company, 152nd Depot Brigade. He was honorably discharged May 28, 1919 at Camp Upton, New York. The discharge papers list his height as 5 feet, 2 inches. [Russell E. Reuther honorable discharge & enlistment record, US Army, 1919] Russell served his enlistment in the United States & did not go to Europe during World War I.

In the 1920 Census, Russell is living in Bridgeport, Fairfield Co., Connecticut, on Beechwood Avenue in the house of Christopher and Ida Melick. Russell is 29 years old and an assistant manager at a lace factory. Christopher is 52 years old, and a telegraph operator for the railroad. Ida is 51. Both were born in New Jersey. Russell became very close to Christopher and Ida as he boarded with them when he first came to Bridgeport at age 16, and I recall a story that Russ loaned them money to start a business (CAR). After Christopher died, Russ helped Ida manage her affairs. When Ida Bigley Melick died in 1947 (or 1946), she left Russ her house at 346-8 Beechwood Avenue. The flintlock rifle owned by Calvin Reuther was given to Russ. It was in the Melick family and is believed to be from the Revolutionary War. (Calvin Reuther). Currently, the gun is owned by Russell's grandson Russell Reuther (CAR 2004).

In March 1930, Russell received word that his mother was very ill in Florida, probably visiting her daughter Lotta in Daytona Beach. Russ rushed to Florida to see his mother, but she passed away before he got there. She was buried in Philadelphia, and Russ returned to Fairfield the day before his son Calvin was born. [5]

In the 1930 Census, Russell is living in Fairfield, Fairfield Co., Connecticut, on Toilsome Hill Road. He is 36 years old and was born in Pennsylvania. He is an assistant manager at a fabric factory. Living with him are his wife Lydia, 32, and their children Joyce B, 3, and Calvin R, 1 month. Lydia was born in Connecticut, and lists her parents' birthplaces as Wurttemberg, Germany.

In 1944, Russell E Reuther and his wife Lydia R are living at 219 Toilsome Hill Road in Fairfield. Russell is assistant secretary for the American Fabrics Company at 1069 Connecticut Ave. [2]

On Monday, September 17, 1951, Russ was fired from his job as manager of American Fabrics by the new owners who had purchased the company in May 1948. In a meeting with the owners, they had already prepared a resignation letter for Russ to sign. He was immediately escorted out without even having the opportunity to say his good byes nor to clean out his office after 42 years with the company. He was given 5 months pay in lieu of notice. Both Russ and Lydia talked about the gangster Jews that owned the company and fired him. [3, 4] Russ was 58 years old when he lost his job.

In 1955, Russ was elected to one of the seats in District Six for the Representative Town Meeting. [1]

Russ was deathly afraid of dogs. When walking in the neighborhood, if he saw a dog, he was so shaken, he would go back home. [Virginia Speiser Rutter]

Descendants of Joseph Barlow

Son Calvin remembers Russ talking about a Barlow cousin who was a Rockette at Radio City Music Hall in New York City. He met her on one of his trips to the city. Cal thought she may have still been there when he was little and the family went to Radio City.

Russell married Nora Alice Monk, daughter of John Thomas Monk and Alice Kemp, on 17 Oct 1921 in Bridgeport, Fairfield County, Connecticut.⁶⁰⁵ The marriage ended in divorce. Nora was born on 8 Dec 1901 in Nottingham, Nottinhamshire, England⁶⁰⁶ and died on 12 Aug 1968 in Fairfield County, Connecticut⁶⁰⁷ at age 66. They had no children.

Marriage Notes: Nora Monk, daughter of Mr & Mrs Thomas Monk of 1010 Connecticut Ave, and Russell Reuther of 346 Beechwood Ave were married October 17 1921 at St John's Episcopal Church. After an extended honeymoon trip the couple will reside at 1550 North Ave. [1]

On September 12, 1923, summons were served on Nora Monk Reuther to appear before the Superior Court regarding the plaintiff's petition for divorce, charging Nora with adultery between the date of their marriage and September 11, 1923, in Atlantic City, New Jersey, with one Vessella. [Copy of Summons]

On Oct 20, 1923, The Bridgeport Telegram reported (on page 14) that counsel clashed in proceedings before the Judge about the divorce proceedings. Mrs. Reuther planned to contest the suit to the bitter end, and more time was needed to prepare her defense. No other information was included in the article beyond what the divorce papers contain.

According to the divorce decree, the plaintiff (Russell) was guilty of intolerable cruelty to the defendant (Nora) beginning about three months after their marriage, and ending on September 6, 1923, when Nora moved out of their shared residence. She was granted $10,000 in alimony, and her name was changed back to Nora Alice Monk. [Judgement of Divorce, State of Connecticut, Fairfield County, Superior Court, December 21, 1923]

On Dec 22, 1923, the divorce was reported on the front page of The Bridgeport Telegram. Russell must have been very unhappy to see himself on the front page of the paper. The paper reported that Nora Alice Reuther was granted a divorce on the grounds of cruelty. A few days earlier, Mr. Reuther withdrew his original complaint. In her cross-complaint, Mrs. Reuther reported that her husband had an annual salary of $8,400. An alimony of $10,000 was agreed upon.

On December 23, 1923, Nora received $10,000 from Russell, and signed a receipt to that affect.

Noted events in their marriage were:

- Divorce: 21 Dec 1923, Bridgeport, Fairfield County, Connecticut.⁶⁰⁸

General Notes: Nora's parents married 7 Oct 1901 in Nottingham, Nottinghamshire, England. Her mother was Alice Kemp. Her father was John Thomas Monk and went by Thomas. [3, 5] Nora was born in December 1901, shortly after her parents married.

On 23 April 1913, Thomas Monk, his wife Alice and daughter Nora left Liverpool England on the ship SS Haverford for the United States. They arrived in Philadelphia on 6 May 1913. Thomas's occupation is lace designer. His home was listed as Nottingham, England, but was crossed out and changed to Philadelphia. [2]

In the 1920 Census, Nora Monk, 18, is living in Bridgeport, Connecticut, with her parents, at 1010 Connecticut Avenue. Nora's parents are Thomas, 42, & Alice Monk, 40. Nora and her parents were born in England, and are not citizens. Thomas is a designer for a lace company, very likely the same company as Russell Reuther. Nora is a saleslady for a store.

Nora married Russell Reuther in October 1921 when she was 19 years old. They divorced in December 1923 when she was 22. After their divorce, Nora took back her maiden name.

In 1924 & 1925 Nora A Monk is living in Bridgeport with her parents Thomas & Alice Monk. Thomas is a designer. [4]

Nora was still living in Bridgeport in 1925 when Miss Nora Monk participated in a pagent at St John's church. [1]

Nora Monk married Robert Worden on 18 January 1926 in Milford. [15]

Her father John Thomas Monk became a citizen on 4 May 1926 in Bridgeport.

In 1930 Nora C & Robert E Worden are living in Fairfield, Connecticut. Nora is 28, born in England, immigrated 1914 and is a naturalized citizen. Nora is a billing clerk for a wire factory. Robert is 39, born in Connecticut, and a purchasing agent for a telephone company. They married at age 35 & 24

Descendants of Joseph Barlow

[about 1925]. [7]

Nora's parents John Thomas Monk and wife Alice were in Los Angeles, California, in 1933. [5]

Robert Edward Worden was born 5 December 1890 in Bridgeport. In 1917 he was in Milford working for the American Graphophone company. He served in the World War [WWI]. American Graphophone's Bridgeport plant later became part of the Dictaphone Company. Robert was a purchasing agent for them. [7, 8, 9]

In 1940 Nora's parents John Thomas and Alice Monk are living in Los Angeles where they are actors working for a motion picture studio. Alice has been out of work for 6 weeks and is looking for work. She worked 4 weeks in 1939 for $400. Thomas worked 6 weeks in 1939 for $700. [12]

In 1940 Nora A and Robert E Worden are living in Fairfield. She is 39, has had 2 years of high school, and is not working. Robert is 50, completed 8th grade, is a purchasing agent for Dictophone manufacturing. He earned $3000 in 1939. They own their own home worth $10,500. [13]

Robert E Worden died 16 Feb 1953 in Fairfield. [10]

In 1952 Mrs Nora A Monk is in the city directory as "employed by" the Fairfield Travel Center. [11]

Alice (Kemp) Monk died in Los Angeles on 17 July 1954. John Thomas Monk died in Los Angeles on 28 October 1956. [6]

Nora Worden, widow of Robert E Worden, died in Fairfield on 12 August 1968. She was the proprietress of Fairfield Travel Center for 20 years. She was cremated. [14]

- Cremation: Fairfield County, Connecticut.

Russell next married Lydia Johanna Speiser, daughter of Heinrich David Speiser⁶¹¹ and Catharina Barbara "Babette" Habann,⁶¹² on 19 Nov 1924 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.⁶¹⁰ Lydia was born on 29 Oct 1897 in Bridgeport, Fairfield County, Connecticut,⁶¹¹ was christened on 6 Nov 1897 in Bridgeport, Fairfield County, Connecticut,⁶¹³ died on 12 Sep 1996 in Huntsville, Madison Co, Alabama at age 98, and was buried in Lawncroft Burial Park, Fairfield, Connecticut. They had two children: Joyce Babette "Connie" and Calvin Russell.

Marriage Notes: Russell & Lydia were married at the home of Russell's parents in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, by Reverend Swank. The marriage license shows Lydia as "Lydia R. Speiser". Lydia did not care for her middle name Johanna at this time, and used Ruth as her middle name.

Guests were Babette Speiser (mother of the bride), Reverend Stengler, Lula R. Diller, Edna R. Zimmer (sister of the groom), Elsbeth Speiser (sister of the bride and maid of honor), Mr & Mrs Albert Phillips (Russell's boss at American Fabrics and best man), Helene Speiser (sister of the bride), Florence Reuther (sister of the groom), Mary Evans, Henry and Anna Barlow Reuther (parents of the groom). [As signed by the guests in the wedding book.]

Russell & Lydia honeymooned in Havana, Cuba, and Daytona Beach, Florida.

Descendants of Joseph Barlow

When first married Russell and Lydia had a room in Colonnese's (spelling?) house on North Avenue. Mr. C. had a meat and vegetable market where Lydia traded. He also delivered to their home on Toilsome Hill Road as there was no market there when they first built the house. [1]

Russell and Lydia always had the family (Speiser) parties at their house because they had the largest house. [Virginia Speiser Rutter]

[1] Letter from Lydia S Reuther to son Calvin Reuther Aug 14 1983

General Notes: Lydia was baptized November 6, 1897. Her godparents were Elizabeth Boerschel, Anna Becker, and Chris Becker.

In the 1920 Census, Lydia is living at 425 Jane Street in Bridgeport with her parents. She is 22 years old and a bookkeeper in a textile shop.

When her father died in 1921 Lydia had severe pains in her legs such that she could not stand and was in bed for three weeks. She suffered similar pains in her arm from the shoulder to her hand in 1983 when her nephew Henry Broch died. [1]

Lydia did not care for her middle name, and often used Ruth in place of Johanna. Her marriage license to Russell lists her name as Lydia Ruth Speiser.

Lydia had a third pregnancy that ended in miscarriage about 1940 when Joyce was a freshman in high school. [Joyce Reuther Holley]

Lydia continued the family cooking traditions she learned from her mother - potato salad, herring salad, and Christmas cookies. When Lydia stopped making Springerle, Brownie Lebkuchen & Schwaben Brodli, her son Cal took up making the cookies. He and Joyce had already been making potato and herring salad for many years.

In 1985, Lydia fell in the kitchen and broke her pelvis. She came South, first to daughter Connie's [Joyce] house in Decatur, GA, then to son Cal's in Huntsville, AL, to recover. By then Lydia was almost 90 years old. Connie and Cal decided she needed to be closer to them, so in the spring of 1986, they closed up and sold the house at 219 Toilsome Hill Road in Fairfield that Russ built for them after they married. Lydia moved into a retirement community in Huntsville, Alabama, near Cal.

In 1996, Lydia suffered a stroke, and died a few weeks later, just 6 weeks short of her 99th birthday.

Noted events in her life were:

- Education: The Booth & Bayliss Commercial School, 1917, Bridgeport, Fairfield County, Connecticut.⁶¹⁴

9-Joyce Babette "Connie" Reuther was born on 18 Dec 1926 in Bridgeport, Fairfield County, Connecticut,⁶¹¹ died on 19 Sep 2021 in Decatur, DeKalb County, Georgia⁶¹⁵ at age 94, and was buried in Floral Hills Memory Gardens, Tucker, DeKalb County, Georgia.⁶¹⁶

General Notes: Born one month premature at 11:21 AM, weighed 4 pounds, at home at 1650 North Ave, Bridgeport. [1]

Joyce was named "Joyce" because she was such a joy. [4]

How did Joyce end up at an all-girls Baptist college in Alabama?

It started when she was in high school and met someone from the school while on a family trip to Yellowstone National Park. Then there was the favorable article in Life magazine. When Joyce was ready to go to college she had been seriously dating a local boy. She had been trying to breakup with him, and knew that after the breakup, if she went to college in the Northeast that he would follow her wherever she went. So she headed to Alabama and loved Judson College in Marion, Alabama. [4]

Unlike the more progressive views on dating in New England, Judson College had restrictive rules on relations between boys and girls. One of those rules was that the students could not ride in a car with a boy. Connie thought that was funny since she had already been doing that back home. She broke that rule. [4]

Joyce received her nickname Connie when she was in college at Judson. Connie is a nickname for being from Connecticut. [2]

In the spring of 2012, Connie sold her house in the Decatur (Georgia) area and moved into a retirement apartment. She still drives her car to the grocery store, hairdresser, church and to the hospital where she continues to volunteer one day a week. She thinks she may give up driving when she turns 90 in 2016. [3]

Connie gave up her car and volunteer job in 2013 to spend more time participating in the activities at her retirement home. [3]

9-Calvin Russell Reuther was born on 16 Mar 1930 in Bridgeport, Fairfield County, Connecticut,⁶¹¹ died on 14 Jan 2000 in Huntsville, Madison County, Alabama at age 69, and was buried on 18 Jan 2000 in Maple Hill Cemetery, Huntsville, Alabama. The cause of his death was Multiple organ failure following heart by-pass surgery several weeks prior to death. Another name for Calvin was Cal Reuther.

General Notes: Born one month premature at 7:05 PM, weighed 4 pounds, 13 3/4 ounces, at Bridgeport Hospital [5].

Calvin was a favorite name or a favorite cousin (?) of his grandmother Anna (Barlow) Reuther. [4]

In September 1951, Cal's father Russ wrote Cal to tell him that after 42 years with the company, he had been fired from his job by the new owners. Russ told Cal that that meant there was no income coming in. While Russ had planned ahead for Cal's education (Cal was in college at Alabama Polytechnic Institute), so money was set aside for him to complete his education, but he should still watch his pennies. [1]

During college (Auburn, AL), Cal owned and flew his own airplane, an Ercoupe.

In 1951 or 1952, Cal flew to Connecticut from Auburn

through bad weather with no radio and was the only plane flying over NY. Coming back to Auburn, he developed trouble in Maryland. He was able to land but could not afford to fix the plane, and left it at the airport. [6]

In June 1952, Cal had airplane trouble. As written by his father - "Imagine you in your little plane, 4000' high, sailing along, as you told me, perfectly - then all of a sudden the moto knocked, the plane quivered and vibrated - and then no engine. You, with only a few hours experience in the air, had this happen. . . To glide that plane, 20 miles away from the airport, to a perfect landing at the field, is a feat you can forever be proud of." Cal landed the airplane in Easton, Maryland. He left it there with someone to look after and sell for him. [2]

During college at API Cal worked for Mr. Fortner at Jake's Joint and the Elk's Club. He met Jane at Jake's Joint. Mrs. Fortner gave Cal her recipe for Barbecue Sauce and Barbecue Basting Sauce that he used throughout his life to make fantastic barbecue chicken on the grill.

Cal graduated from Alabama Polytechnic Institute (API - later re-named Auburn University) in Auburn, Alabama, in 1953, with a Bachelors of Science degree in Electrical Engineering. His first job was across the country for Boeing in Seattle, Washington, working on the B-52 airplane. He left Boeing in 1956 for Westinghouse in Pittsburgh, PA, but was on his way back to Boeing and Seattle in 1958 when Jane was pregnant with Cathy. Just weeks after Cathy was born in September, they headed for a new assignment in Fort Walton Beach, FL, and the BOMARC missile program at Eglin AFB.

In 1963, Cal, Jane, Cathy and Russell moved to California where Cal worked on the Minuteman weapon system.

In 1964, Russell wrote his son Cal that he had asked the Republican Town Committee to send him an application for an absentee ballot. [3] - Was Cal still registered to vote in Connecticut? [CAR]

In April 1965, Cal, Jane and the children moved to Huntsville, Alabama, where Cal continued his work for Boeing, this time on the space program. He was responsible for the Boeing Saturn V Logistics Support Staff, developing a Logistics Support Plan. He was also responsible for Saturn V Logistics activities and program schedule. In 1967 he assumed responsibility for directing the preparation of the Saturn V Flight Manual, a single source reference prepared specifically for the astronauts' use.

When Boeing reduced their operations in Huntsville in 1974 (the summer President Richard Nixon resigned and the fall Cathy got her driver's license), Cal and Jane decided to stay in Huntsville rather than be transferred to another city, and Cal went to work for Sperry Corporation on tactical missile systems at MICOM. In 1980 he began a brief stint at Guest Associates providing marketing and technical representation for technically oriented customers, as well as consultation to small business through the Small Business Administration.

In 1982, Cal went back to work for Boeing on marketing management assignments for the Air Force, MSFC, MICOM, and SSDC customers. He took an early retirement in the fall of 1993 after Jane's brain aneurysms and surgery that year.

Early in their marriage, when they were young and poor, Cal decided to start making furniture instead of buying it. He bought the appropriate tools and set up shop in the spare bedroom in their apartment. The first thing he made was a long low bench in the Danish Modern style. He made their bedroom furniture and later on a hi-fi cabinet, kitchen table, and a new dresser for Jane in the 1970's.

In 1983, when his mother Lydia was no longer making the family Christmas cookies, Cal took up the task, often with daughter Cathy's help. He made their favorites Springerle, Brownie Lebkuchen & Schwaben Brodli, and new ones as well. Just as Lydia did, he kept track of what he made and how many. In 2002, Cathy took up the tradition on her own. Cal also had a vegetable garden for many years, and took up canning at that time. Not only did he can vegetables, but he also made jellies and pickles.

In 1988 & 1989, Cal and Jane built a new, larger house on Mountain Springs Circle in Huntsville and moved in in April 1989. The house included a 3-car garage with large shop attached, and Jane's large weaving room over the garage and shop. After Cal's death, the house was sold to Hank and Kathy Perkins, friends from church, and a school friend (Hank) of daughter Cathy.

Cal entered Huntsville Hospital November 25, 1999 (Thanksgiving Day) for heart bypass surgery on

Descendants of Joseph Barlow

November 26. The surgery was successful, but numerous complications ensued due to Cal's emphysema and the steroids he had been taking for the emphysema that interfered with the healing process. After seven weeks in ICU, he passed away due to multiple organ system failure on January 14, 2000, at 5:05 PM. Daughter Cathy, son Russell, future son-in-law Bryan Kennedy, and Dr. T. Benton Washburn were present. He was buried January 18, 2000 at Maple Hill Cemetery in Huntsville.

Unknown to his family until after he entered the hospital, Cal had been having heart problems for some time. Nitroglycerin pills were found in his study for heart pain. Cal left a folder of instructions for his daughter Cathy just prior to entering the hospital in case he passed away. The information and instructions included the notice of his death to be published in the newspaper. Cathy used this almost as he had written it.

Florence was Floss.

General Notes: In the 1920 Census, Florence is living in Philadelphia with her parents. She is 22 years old and a clerk in the stationary business. She may be working at her father's store.

In 1968 Florence tells sister-in-law Lydia Speiser Reuther she never hears from her sister Edna's children who she was close to at one time. In 1969 Florence tells Lydia that she never hears from her sister Lotta Reuther Longstreet. Lydia's letters never disclose why Florence and Lotta appear to be estranged. [1]

In 1975, after Arthur's death, Florence no longer wanted to live and was ready to die. She was planning to leave everything to her church, but nephew Bob Zimmer talked to her and she agreed with him that it would be better to leave everything to family. Florence re-wrote her will and left everything to Bob. Bob's sister Mildred was pissed and this added further to the estrangement between the siblings. [3]

Florence Becker was born February 7, 1897, and died in June 1975 in Montgomery county Pennsylvania. [2]

7-Mahlon H Barlow²¹ was born on 9 Dec 1860 in Limerick Township, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania,⁶³¹ died on 17 Apr 1936 in Pottstown, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania⁶³² at age 75, and was buried in Pottstown Cemetery, Pottstown, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania.²¹ Another name for Mahlon was Mahlon Barlow.¹

General Notes: In 1870 Mahlon and his sister Anna appear to be living in Upper Providence township, Montgomery Co, Pennsylvania, in the house of Charles Garber. Anna is 11, and Mahlon is 9. Mahlon has attended school during the year, but Anna has not. Both children are listed on the census as Barber instead of Barlow.

Descendants of Joseph Barlow

Charles Garber is likely a relative of Mahlon's aunt Mary (Barlow) Miller whose mother-in-law was a Garber.

Mahlon & Anna's brother Abraham Barlow was living with Charles & Harriet Garber's daughter Elizabeth Garber Fetterolf and her family. (Elaine Jeter's research on the Garbers.)

In the 1880 Census (www.familysearch.org), Mahlon was 19 years old, a laborer, and living in Upper Providence, Montgomery, Pennsylvania, with his sister Lydia and her family.

In the 1900 Census, Mahlon is living in Pottstown, Montgomery Co, PA, at 23 Walnut Street. Mahlon is 39, and an engineer of some kind. Living with him are his wife Addie, 35, and son Harry E, 13. Mahlon and Addie have been married 14 years, and Addie has had two children, only one is living.

In the 1910 Census, Mahlon is living in Pottstown at 23 Walnut Street. He is 48 and an engineer on a locomotive. Living with him is his wife Adie, 45. They have been married for 25 years. Adie has had two children, one is living.

In the 1920 Census, Mahlon is living in Pottstown at 23 Walnut Street. He is 59 years old and a fireman for the railroad. Living with him is his wife Addie, 55. Also living with them are Susan Weiganer (Susan Weigner, Addie's mother), 76, and her daughter Lenora Malsberger, 47, both widowed.

In the 1930 Census, Mahlon is living in Pottstown. He is 69 years old and a foreman for the Reading Co (the railroad?). Living with him is his wife Ada, 65. Her occupation is cook. They were married at age 24 & 20.

According to the Pottstown Mercury newspaper, Pottstown, PA, Oct 30, 1950, Mahlon died in 1936. He served nearly 50 years as an engineer on the Colebrook branch of the Reading Railroad.

Noted events in his life were:

General Notes: According to the obituary for her sister Mrs. Laura E Weigner Weidner, their parents were Samuel Weigner and Susan Fox. [1]

On the occasion of her belated 89th birthday visit from her family, Addie Barlow was profiled on the front page of the Pottstown Mercury as the "happiest woman in Pottstown". Her son, granddaughter, and great-granddaughter came for a visit. Addie lived at 23 Walnut Street for 60 years and has been living by herself in an apartment at 129 North York Street for the past five years. Her son and his wife were visiting from Ashboro, NC, and her granddaughter and great-granddaughter from Freer, Texas. [2]

Addie was in the Pottstown Hospital several times in her later years, in 1947, and twice in 1953. [3]

In October 1951 and 1952, nephew Russell Reuther & wife Lydia took Aunt Addie Barlow to dinner. Lydia wrote in 1952 that Aunt Addie would be 87 on Nov 28. On 8 Nov 1953 Lydia wrote a letter to Aunt Addie. [4]

JOEL BARLOW, a prominent farmer in Lower Pottsgrove township, was born in Montgomery county on October 9, 1833. He is the son of Joel and Susan (Holabush) Barlow.

Joel Barlow (father) had been a resident of Schuylkill county for a number of Years at the time of his death. He was a farmer and a coal miner. He married Susan Holabush, daughter of Henry Holabush, of Montgomery county. She died in 1884, some years after her husband. The father of Joel Barlow is buried in Schuylkill county, Pennsylvania.

Descendants of Joseph Barlow

Joel and Susan Barlow had five children, two of whom are now deceased. They are: Washington(deceased); Sarah, married Daniel Marsh, a farmer in Montgomery county; Phoebe, married, and teaches school near Philadelphia; Joel, Jr.; John (deceased).

Joel Barlow went to school until he was eighteen years of age, when he began to learn the carpenter trade, and followed that occupation for six years. After his marriage he and his wife removed to the farm which he owns to-day, and where they have lived ever since. The farm has within its limits six excellent springs, and many other points of interest. There is a vein of copper crossing the land which is at present being worked by a Philadelphia company.

He is a Democrat in politics. Mr. Barlow has attended the Philadelphia market for thirty-one years. He married Miss Mary Christman, daughter of George Christman and Sarah (Doris) Christman, of Linfield, Montgomery county. George Christman was a boatman and a farmer for many years. He was a Democrat, and a member of the Reformed church. Mrs. George Christman died fifty-four years ago, and her husband ten years ago, of old age.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Barlow had one son, Harvey Barlow, who married Elizabeth Shaffer, of Lower Pottsgrove township.

Harvey Barlow is engaged in the feed business at 79 Franklin street, Pottstown, where he has been established for many years. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Barlow have one daughter, Evelyn. [1]

HARVEY BARLOW, wholesale grain dealer of Pottstown, was born in Linfield, Montgomery county, Pennsylvania, November 3, 1857.

He is the son of Joel and Mary (Christman) Barlow.

Joel Barlow (father) was also born in Montgomery county, Pennsylvania. In early life he was a carpenter but spent his later years on his farm, where he died. He married Mary Christmas, also a native of Montgomery county, and they had one child, Harvey.

Descendants of Joseph Barlow

The paternal grandfather of Harvey Barlow was a farmer in Limerick township, Montgomery county. He died at a very early age. He married Susanna Hollowbush and they had three children. After his death, his wife married (second husband) David Evans, and they had three children.

George Christman (maternal grandfather) was born in Montgomery county and lived at Limerick Station, where he died at the age of eighty years. By his first wife he had eight children. He married (second wife) Margaret Hulby. They had no children. In addition to farming he also engaged in the boating business on the canal.

Harvey Barlow was reared on a farm in Lower Pottsgrove township and received his education in the district schools and in the seminary at Boyerstown. He lived at home until he was twenty-six years of age, learning carpentering and mill-wrighting. After leaving home he followed these trades for one year and then engaged in the grain, feed and coal business at Sanatoga for three years. From 1889 to 1894 he was in the grain business at Linfield, being associated with Jared Evans. In the latter year the firm removed to Pottstown where they still continue the business. They buy grain, shipped from the west, while it is on the tracks.

March 21, 1883, Harvey Barlow married Miss Lizzie A. Schaeffer, daughter of Zephaniah Schaeffer, and they have one daughter, Evalin. Mr. and Mrs. Barlow are members of the Presbyterian church in which he was a trustee for many years. They reside at No. 79 North Franklin street, where he owns a beautiful home. Politically Mr. Barlow is a Democrat.

Mr. Zephaniah Schaeffer and wife, parents of Mrs. Barlow were both born in Montgomery county, where he was a farmer. Mr. Schaeffer resides at the home of Mr. Barlow in Pottstown. His wife died about 1878. They had ten children, four of whom are now living: Ida; Lizzie A., Mrs. Barlow; Ella, wife of Aaron B. Scheffey, of Phoenixville; and Martha, wife of J. W. Binder of Pittsburg [1]
