1-Antonius Heilmann was born in 1671 in Klein Neidersheim, Palatinate, Germany,¹ died in Jul 1759² at age 88, and was buried on 16 Jul 1759 in Lower Skippack Mennonite Cemetery, Skippack, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania.³ Other names for Antonius were Anthony Hallman,¹ Antonius Heilman,¹ and Antonius Heylman.¹

General Notes: Anthony was listed as a landholder (Genealog. Soc of Pennsylvania), with 100 acres in Perkiomen and Skippack townships. According to Rev. Muhlenberg's "Journal", Anthony and his family came from Klein Niedersheim in the Palatinate about 1710. This should probably be 1720, as one of his children was born in the Palatinate in 1718. [1]

Anthony disinherited his eldest son John when he wrote his will in 1755. [3]

3-Anthony Hallman was born est 1749 and died in May 1833 in Lincoln County, North Carolina³⁴ about age 84.

General Notes: Anthony Hallman (8 Nov 1742 - 3 Feb 1794) as a son of Henry Hallman (1716-1803) came from Elaine Jeter who got the information from the papers of Eric Buzby Hallman, former genealogist for the Hallman Family Association.

The date of birth is correct (church records). [2]

Anthony Hallman, son of Henry, is in Henry's will dated 31 Jan 1800, so the Anthony who died in 1794 is could not the son of Henry (1716-1803).

I have removed the, I believe, erroneous dates for Anthony from his vital statistics. (CAR)

General Notes: From the will of his father Henry Hallman:

I give and bequeath unto my son Abraham Hallman the sum of one hundred Pounds Reason because he has no trade N.B. the different sums Credited to him in my Vendue paper bearing date the twenty third day of February Anno Domini 1795 bearing no Interest To be a part of the sum of one - hundred Pounds which sum shall be in full of his sirvise [service] which he labored for me over Age & having no trade [1]

I believe that Henry left a special bequest to son Abraham, not because he had "no trade", but because Abraham worked his father's farm instead of setting out on his own with his own farm. [CAR Aug 2020]

Abraham also received an equal share of the remainder after specific bequests with his siblings. [1]

John married Elisabeth Hoffman¹³⁰ on 8 Jan 1853 in Montgomery County, Pennsylvania.¹³⁰ Elisabeth was born on 26 Aug 1835 in Montgomery County, Pennsylvania and died on 7 Jul 1853 in Montgomery County, Pennsylvania at age 17. They had one son: Franklin.

General Notes: Elisabeth Hoffman of Allentown [Lehigh County] married John H Trumbauer on 8 Jan 1853 in Skippack, Montgomery County. [1]

Elisabeth could be the Elizabeth Hoffman, age 14, born in Montgomery County about 1836, living in Limerick in 1850. She is living in the home of Jacob H Christman and his family. [2]

It is likely that Elisabeth is the Elisabeth Trumbauer, daughter of John, Lower Milford, who died 7 July 1853 at age 17, 10 months, 11 days. [Calculated birth 26 Aug 1835] [3] The news report that she was the daughter of John could be in error. Her age corresponds to the Elizabeth

Hoffman found on the 1850 Census in Limerick.

The only Elizabeth Trumbauer found in Montgomery County in 1850 is Elizabeth Trumbour, age 17 (born about 1833) living with her parents John Trumbour and Susana in Upper Hanover township. [4] On-line trees on Ancestry show that this Elizabeth married Henry Yeager Hipple and died in 1869.

He probably died young as he has not been found after 1860.

General Notes: Cousin Elaine Jeter placed Hannah with these parents and siblings based on a Bible in possession of Craig and Karen Eiding (craige@ptd.net). Elaine dated her note 4/5/1999. It is not known where Lotta Reuther Longstreet obtained her information on Hannah's parents.

Hanna was widowed at age 35 with 8 children ranging in age from one month to 14 years [2].

Descendants of Antonius Heilmann

In the 1870 Census, Hannah is living in Limerick Township, Montgomery Co, PA. She is 43 years old and living in the house of Catherine Miller, 62 (b. abt 1806), along with Joseph Miller, 28 (b. abt 1842), and Mary Miller, 63 (b. abt 1807). Living with Hannah is her son Alfred, age 6. Living next door is her son John and his wife Mary. Also nearby (same census page) are Hannah's brother Alfred Hallman, her late husband Mahlon's brother James and their mother Anna Barlow.

In the 1880 Census, Hannah is apparently the Hannah Hallman, 51 & widowed, in Limerick Township in the house of Joseph Miller, 38, the same household she was living at in 1870. Also in the house are Mary Miller, 83, Harriet Davis, 67, and Harriet's son Frank, 29, with Frank's wife Susie and their daughter Anne. Hannah is a housekeeper along with Harriet Davis.

In the 1900 Census, Hannah Barlow is living in Phoenixville, Chester Co, Pennsylvania. She is 71 years old (born Aug 1829) and widowed. Hannah has had 8 children and 6 are living. She is a housekeeper in the house of Joseph Miller, 58, a carpenter.

(Owen and Elizabeth died in 1894 & 1890, respectively.)

At this time, we do not have any information on who the Millers were that Hannah lived with after she was widowed, and whether they are related.

Hannah's great-granddaughter Mary Elizabeth Barlow thought her grandfather John Franklin Barlow's emigration to Iowa was at least partly because his wife (Mary Clemens) was unable to get along with his mother (Hannah Hallman Barlow.) She may be right, and perhaps John Franklin was not the only family member who had that problem... ??? [EJ]

Hannah Barlow, Hannah, age 75, widow, born in Montgomery County, died 1903/09/08 in Phoenixville of appoplexy. [1]

Mary Elizabeth Barlow remembers her father as very concerned and rather strict. On one occasion he decided that all his children should taste the evils of whiskey, so each was administered a dose. Mary managed to spit hers all over his suit.

George was a heavy pipe and cigar smoker. He developed lung cancer, which led to his death in 1933. This was the depths of the Depression, so the family had financial difficulties. He had mortgaged his properties and invested in stocks before his death. He left insurance for the family, so they family managed, and all the children were well educated. George, out of concern for his younger brother Frank, also left insurance for Frank's family. [1]

In 1910, George R Barlow is living in Des Moines, Polk County, Iowa. He is 39, widowed, and a salesman at a dry goods store. He owns his home. With George are children Wallace, 4, Mary, 2, and Nettie, 4 months. Also with them is a servant Josephine Brewer, 34 & widowed. [3]

6-Lydia Ann Barlow¹⁶¹ was born on 3 Oct 1850 in Limerick Township, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania,¹⁶¹ died on 2 Nov 1945 in Phoenixville, Chester County, Pennsylvania¹⁹² at age 95, and was buried on 5 Nov 1945 in Phoenixville, Chester County, Pennsylvania.¹⁹² Another name for Lydia was Lydia A Barlow.¹⁹³

General Notes: Lydia Ann Barlow was born Oct 3 1850, baptised Dec 15 1850, parents Mahlon & Hannah Barlow, per baptismal record of St James Reformed Church. [Elaine Jeter]

At her father's death, Lydia had not yet reached her 13th birthday. She went to live with a relative. She was miserably treated as a servant. She was given so little to eat that she would nibble on chicken bones & chop bones that were left on plates in order to get a few extra bites. Some days she was so hungry she would shave off the thinnest slice of bread possible, but it was generally detected & she was punished. She did not complain to her mother, but it was discovered by a friend & reported to her mother. Of course her mother brought her home. [1]

In the 1870 Census, Lydia Barlow 19 years old and living as a domestic servant in the home of her mother's sister Elizabeth Hallman Springer and her husband Hiram Springer in Phoenixville, Chester Co, Pennsylvania. The Springers were very wealthy - Hiram listed his real estate value at $75,000 and his personal property at $2000. Elizabeth (Hallman) Springer had a separate business, a store that sold "trimmings".

In 1930, Lydia (Barlow) Keeley gave her grand-niece Mary Elizabeth Barlow Spunaugle a small handtowel with hand-work (lace and embroidery). Mary's daughter Elaine has that towel and considers it an heirloom, and with the "starvation" and knowing where Lydia was living in 1870, it is even more precious. [Elaine Jeter]

In the 1930 Census, Lydia A Keely is living in Phoenixville, Chester Co, PA, at 2 Anderson Avenue in the house of her son-in-law Paul Martens. She is 79 years old and a widow.

7-Sara May Barlow²⁶¹ was born on 19 Sep 1877 in Dunkerton, Black Hawk County, Iowa²⁶² and died after 1956.

General Notes: The censuses reported Sara's birthplace as Pennsylvania (1900 & 1920) and Iowa (1930). The 1920 Census also reported her father's birthplace incorrectly as Iowa. I believe that a birthplace of Iowa is probably correct. The 1920 census is suspect as it also recorded her sons' birthplaces as PA, when the 1930 census and the WWI draft both point to a birthplace of New Jersey for them. [CAR 2007]

Son Horace reported his mother's birthplace as Phoenixville, Pennsylvania. [1]

In 1956 Sara M Barlow, widow of Wm R, is living in Scranton, Pennsylvania, in the home of her son Horace Barlow. Neither are listed in the 1957 directory. [2]

Horace moved, probably to New York, by 1958. Sara probably went with him, and may have died there. She has not been found in the Pennsylvania death indices for 1956 to 1962 (1962 is the most recent year available). Mary's grandmother Maria Boyer died on 27 March 1920.

Descendants of Antonius Heilmann

In 1930 Mary Boyer is still in Pottstown at the home at 337 Walnut where she lived with her parents and with her grandmother. She is 46, single, a clerk at a store and listed as a lodger in the house. The "lead" family is Amon Yoder, his wife Mary, and their children. The Yoders are renting the house. [5]

Based on the 1940 Census and her death certificate, Mary appears to have become an institutional resident about 1938, probably first at the state hospital in Norristown, and later at the Lutheran Home in Philadelphia.

In 1940 Mary E Boyer is living in Norristown at the state hospital [for the mentally ill]. She is 55, single, had one year of high school. Mary appears to have become a resident at the hospital between 1935 and 1940. The census shows her as living in Montgomery County in 1935, but not at the hospital. [6]

From her death certificate (difficult to read):

Mary Boyer, daughter of Sylvester L Boyer & Elizabeth Barlow, died on 22 April 1962 in Philadelphia at the Lutheran Home. She had been living there for 24 years [since about 1938]. Mary had previously been a store clerk. She died of Cerebral Arteriosclerosis and Hypertensive arteriosclerotic cardiovascular disease. [7]

In 2013 the street address for the Lutheran Home at 6950 Germantown Ave is the Germantown Home, a nursing home for seniors.

6-Anna Ruberta Barlow³⁰⁷ was born on 22 Nov 1858 in Limerick Township, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania,³⁰⁸ died on 10 Mar 1930 in Daytona Beach, Volusia County, Florida³⁰⁹ at age 71, and was buried on 14 Mar 1930 in Westminster Cemetery, Bala Cynwyd, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania.³¹⁰ The cause of her death was pneumonia & influenza.

General Notes: When her father died, "my mother was not quite 5 years old & remained at home with her mother & later attended the little country school. There was no compulsory education law in those years and after finishing the 4th grade she went to work.

"I am ashamed to confess that I do not know what she did or when she went to Phila. Nor do I know how or when she started in the pleating business. I do know that she owned the first knife pleating machine in Phila." [6]

Anna would have been about 9 years old when she left home and went to work.

Descendants of Antonius Heilmann

In 1870 Anna and her brother Mahlon appear to be living in Upper Providence township, Montgomery Co, Pennsylvania, in the house of Charles Garber. Anna is 11, and Mahlon is 9. Mahlon has attended school during the year, but Anna has not. Both children are listed on the census as Barber instead of Barlow.

Charles Garber is likely a relative of Anna's aunt Mary (Barlow) Miller whose mother-in-law was a Garber.

Mahlon & Anna's brother Abraham Barlow was living with Charles & Harriet Garber's daughter Elizabeth Garber Fetterolf and her family.

Charles Garber's daughter Anna married a man named Vanderslice. (Elaine Jeter's research on the Garbers.) Anna Barlow's first husband was John Vanderslice.

Annie Barlow (age 21, b. abt 1858) married Jno. Vanderslice (age 28, b. abt 1851) on 8 May 1879 in Burlington, New Jersey. [7]

Early in 1880 Annie Barlow is living in a rooming house in Philadelphia operated by her uncle Abe Hallman. Annie is a seamstress. Also in the house is her future first husband John Vanderslice. Both John and Annie show as single.

Anna was married first to a promising young Philadelphia lawyer, John R. Vanderslice. Their first year of marriage was drawing to a close when their baby Charles Edgar was born 3/25/1881. While she was confined with the birth of their son, her husband was stricken with pneumonia & died. Soon after that the baby died. So she was a bride, a mother, a widow and childless within 12 months. [2]

They had actually been married almost 2 years when John died.

John Vanderslice appears to be the John P Vanderslice, lawyer, who died of Typhoid Fever on 22 April 1881.

In 1915 A R Reuther advertised her Knife & Accordion Pleating business. She pleated kilted, box and sun ray skirts. Mail orders received prompt attention. Her business was at 252 N. 8th street. [4]

Anna fell ill while visiting daughter Lotta in Daytona Beach, Florida. She and Henry had arrived about 17 February (21 days before her death). Anna died on 10 March 1930 of pneumonia and influenza. She had been attended by the doctor since 4 March. After she became so ill, her son Russell rushed from Connecticut to see her, but she died before he got there. [1, 3, 4]

Marriage Notes: Early in 1880 [1880 Census - www.familysearch.org], John and Anna were living in the same house, probably a rooming house, in Philadelphia. They were listed as single, but actually married 8 May 1879.

John was 25 and a lawyer. Anna (listed as Annie) was a seamstress. The head of household was Abe Hallman, age 45, a brother of her mother. Abe worked in a foundry, and was married to Melvina, age 37, and they had one son, William, age 9.

In addition to John and Anna, the others in the house were:

John Hall, age 30, a weaver born in England

Her parents were born in Ireland.

Annie Homer, age 35, a tailoress born in Pennsylvania, and General Notes: According to his death certificate, John was born in Chester County. He may be the John Vanderslice, age 8, living in East Vincent township (Pottstown Post Ofc), Chester County, in the home of Casper & Marie Frances in 1860.

John P Vanderslice died on 22 April 1881 of Typhoid Fever at age 29 (or 25). John was married, a lawyer, and living at 372 Franklin Street in Philadelphia. He was buried at ----ville [Phoenixville?] in Chester County, Pennsylvania. [1]

Marriage Notes: The marriage took place at Anna's sister Lydia's home in Phoenixville, Pennsylvania [1].

Henry and Anna owned a store in Philadelphia. On the first floor Henry sold cutlery such as knives and scissors. He also sold other goods such as china and leather goods. The family still has knives, scissors, and tea cups that came from the store. On the second floor, Anna operated a pleating business.

Per a letter from Florence Reuther Becker to Lydia Speiser Reuther on June 18, 1968, the store was located on 8th Street. It must have been within a few blocks of 8th and Arch Streets, as this was the location of a store called George B. Evans that sold fancy candies, cakes, and fruits. The store also sold gifts and fine china. It covered the entire block on the 8th Street side. Anna passed this store on her way to Henry's store. It was at Evans that she saw a beautiful punch bowl in the window, that Henry subsequently surprised her with for Valentine's Day, reportedly in their first or second year of marriage, probably about 1889. The punch bowl set is currently owned by Catherine Reuther. The green bowl and top is decorated with strawberries, with matching cups, and a platter with strawberry flowers and leaves to sit on. [2]

For it is the heart felt wish of your brother that loves you well
For the love I have for you dear Sister no words can ever tell.

7-Edna Laura Reuther was born on 24 Jan 1889 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania,³¹⁵ died on 10 May 1949 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania³²² at age 60, and was buried on 13 May 1949 in Westminster Cemetary, Bala Cynwyd, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania.³¹⁰

General Notes: In the 1910 Census, Edna is 21 years old and living with her parents and younger sisters. She is a saleswoman at a stationers, probably her father Henry's store.

On 3 June 1916, just before she married Henry later that month, Edna purchased a home at 4522 N. Twelfth st in Philadelphia from Jushua M Holmes for $3800. [1] Edna and Henry lived in this home in the early years of their marriage.

Family stories passed down in the Zimmer family report that Edna may have been institutionalized at some point. Her husband Henry may even have had her institutionalized because he wanted a divorce. [2]

Regarding Edna's mental illness: Edna was treated professionally at home and by daughter Mildred. It was often said, Mildred raised her brothers Henry and Bob. [3]

From the little bit known, it appears Edna suffered from some type of mental illness. She was not ill enough to be hospitalized, but was ill enough that daughter Mildred may have performed many household duties, including the care of her younger brothers (only 2 and 4 years younger), as well as caring for Edna. It would not be unexpected for Mildred to have resented her mother and the position she was placed in. This would help explain the rift in the family that occurred when (if?) Henry and Edna divorced, and after Edna's death in 1949. [CAR]

Edna L Zimmer died 10 May 1949 at Germantown Hospital in Philadelphia. Husband Henry F Zimmer was the informant on her death certificate. He reports them as married and Edna as living at their home on Fairhill St. An inquest was held on 19 May with the jury rendering a verdict that the cause of death was hypertensive cerebral hemorrhage. Edna married Henry Frederick Zimmer Sr.²¹⁴ son of William Louis Zimmer and Anna K Hasselbach, on 28 Jun 1916 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.³²³ Henry was born on 21 Mar 1891 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania,³²⁴ was christened on 17 Apr 1891 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania,³²⁵ and died in Jul 1977 in Pennsylvania¹⁹¹ at age 86. Another name for Henry was Friedrich Heinrich Zimmer.³²⁵ They had three children: Mildred Barlow, Henry Frederick, and Robert Evans.

Marriage Notes: Although two sources report that Edna and Henry were divorced, it is unclear at this time (2012) if that is correct or if they may have been separated or planning a divorce before her death in 1949. [CAR] When she died, Edna was listed on her death certificate as married and living at their home on Fairhill St in Philadelphia. Husband Henry was the informant. [4]

Edna and Henry had been divorced for many years when Edna passed away. They were still married in 1942, so may have divorced shortly after that as Edna died in 1949. [1]

Daughter Mildred and her husband John Root lived with Henry & Edna during World War II, so they most likely divorced between 1945 and 1949. John Root does not remember a divorce, but other sources (see notes below) do remember a divorce. [3]

When Henry divorced Edna, apparently for another woman, it caused a rift between their children. Mildred sided with her father, Robert with his mother, and Henry was caught in between. Eventually, Mildred and Robert quit talking to each other, and remained estranged until their deaths. [2]

Later, when Henry's 2nd wife Esther died [in 1982] grandson Mark Zimmer asked about the Zimmer family memorabilia that Esther inherited from Henry. Daughter Mildred wrote him that he was not in the will, everything was sold off; "tough stuff" - you don't get anything. [2] This contributed to the estrangement between the children of Henry and Edna and their grandchildren. Although, Mark reports that the cousins harbour no ill feelings.

Notes on divorce: Edna's brother Russell Reuther's daughter Joyce remembers a divorce. Joyce might have been planning her wedding around that time, so the breakup of the family would have been something she would remember. Also, Edna's son Henry Zimmer, Jr's, son Mark knew growing up that they had divorced, and that it caused a rift between Edna and Henry's children.

Noted events in their marriage were:

- Divorce: Between 1942 and 1949.³²⁶
- Divorce: Between 1945 and 1949.
- Alt. Marriage: 16 Jun 1916, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.³²⁷

General Notes: In 1900 Henry F Zimmer is living in Philadelphia with his parents. William Zimmer was born in Germany and is a musician. Wife Anna K was also born in Germany. They have three sons - William L, 11, Henry F, 9, and Herbert P, 6 months. [2]

In the 1920 Census, Henry F Zimmer is living at 4522 12th Street in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Henry's in-laws Henry and Anna Reuther live at 4743 12th Street. He is 31 years old and was born in Philadelphia. Living with him are his wife Edna, 31, daughter Mildred, 2 9/12, and son Henry, 11/12. Edna and the children were also born in Philadelphia. Also living with them is Dorothy Stiffer?. She is identified as a helper. She is 13 years old and was born in Philadelphia.

In the 1930 Census, Henry Zimmer is living in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He is 39 years old, and was born in Pennsylvania. His parents were born in Germany. Henry is a salesman. Living with him are his wife Edna, 41, and children, Mildred, 13, Henry, 11, and Robert, 8. All the children were born in Pennsylvania.

In 1942 Henry Frederick Zimmer, Sr, registered for the World War II draft. He was born 21 March 1891 in Philadelphia, and was living at 6206 N Fairhill St in Philadelphia with his wife Mrs Edna Zimmer. Henry was working for Columbia Mills Inc of Philadelphia as a traveling salesman. [1]

Sometime after 1942 or 1945 [CAR], Henry divorced Edna because he wanted to pursue another woman. Henry's second wife was a woman named Esther. He pre-deceased her and she did not re-marry. [4]

Note: Family sources disagree on whether Henry and Edna divorced. His 2nd marriage seven months after Edna's death may point toward no divorce.

On 19 December 1949 Henry F Zimmer married Esther Mae Zerby in Doylestown, Berks County, Pennsylvania. Their marriage license was issued in Montgomery County. [5]

7-Russell Evans Reuther was born on 8 May 1893 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania,³¹⁵ was christened on 23 Feb 1908 in Reading, Berks County, Pennsylvania,³³⁸ died on 4 Dec 1967 in Bridgeport, Fairfield County, Connecticut³³⁹ at age 74, and was buried on 7 Dec 1967 in Lawncroft Burial Park, Fairfield, Connecticut.³⁴⁰ The cause of his death was Pulmonary Endema.

General Notes: Russell left school and Philadelphia at age 16 in 1909 to work for Mr. Phillips at the fabric company [in Bridgeport, Connecticut]. [Aunt Lotta]

In 1910, Russell Reuther is living in Bridgeport at the home of his boss H. Albert Philips. He was born about 1894 in Pennsylvania. [7]

Russ first lived with the Phillips, then took a room on Coleman Street near Park Avenue. [6]

On June 5 1917, Russell Evans Reuther registered for the World War I draft in Bridgeport, Connecticut. He was living at 346 Beechwood Ave in Bridgeport, and was an assistant manager for Alb. & E. Henkels Inc.

Russell E. Reuther was inducted in the United States Army May 23, 1918 at Bridgeport, Connecticut. He achieved the rank of corporal October 7, 1918. He served in the 15th Company, 152nd Depot Brigade. He was honorably discharged May 28, 1919 at Camp Upton, New York. The discharge papers list his height as 5 feet, 2 inches. [Russell E. Reuther honorable discharge & enlistment record, US Army, 1919] Russell served his enlistment in the United States & did not go to Europe during World War I.

In the 1920 Census, Russell is living in Bridgeport, Fairfield Co., Connecticut, on Beechwood Avenue in the house of Christopher and Ida Melick. Russell is 29 years old and an assistant manager at a lace factory. Christopher is 52 years old, and a telegraph operator for the railroad. Ida is 51. Both were born in New Jersey. Russell became very close to Christopher and Ida as he boarded with them when he first came to Bridgeport at age 16, and I recall a story that Russ loaned them money to start a business (CAR). After Christopher died, Russ helped Ida manage her affairs. When Ida Bigley Melick died in 1947 (or 1946), she left Russ her house at 346-8 Beechwood Avenue. The flintlock rifle owned by Calvin Reuther was given to Russ. It was in the Melick family and is believed to be from the Revolutionary War. (Calvin Reuther). Currently, the gun is owned by Russell's grandson Russell Reuther (CAR 2004).

In March 1930, Russell received word that his mother was very ill in Florida, probably visiting her daughter Lotta in Daytona Beach. Russ rushed to Florida to see his mother, but she passed away before he got there. She was buried in Philadelphia, and Russ returned to Fairfield the day before his son Calvin was born. [5]

In the 1930 Census, Russell is living in Fairfield, Fairfield Co., Connecticut, on Toilsome Hill Road. He is 36 years old and was born in Pennsylvania. He is an assistant manager at a fabric factory. Living with him are his wife Lydia, 32, and their children Joyce B, 3, and Calvin R, 1 month. Lydia was born in Connecticut, and lists her parents' birthplaces as Wurtemberg, Germany.

In 1944, Russell E Reuther and his wife Lydia R are living at 219 Toilsome Hill Road in Fairfield. Russell is assistant secretary for the American Fabrics Company at 1069 Connecticut Ave. [2]

On Monday, September 17, 1951, Russ was fired from his job as manager of American Fabrics by the new owners who had purchased the company in May 1948. In a meeting with the owners, they had already prepared a resignation letter for Russ to sign. He was immediately escorted out without even having the opportunity to say his good byes nor to clean out his office after 42 years with the company. He was given 5 months pay in lieu of notice. Both Russ and Lydia talked about the gangster Jews that owned the company and fired him. [3, 4] Russ was 58 years old when he lost his job.

In 1955, Russ was elected to one of the seats in District Six for the Representative Town Meeting. [1]

Russ was deathly afraid of dogs. When walking in the neighborhood, if he saw a dog, he was so shaken, he would go back home. [Virginia Speiser Rutter]

Son Calvin remembers Russ talking about a Barlow cousin who was a Rockette at Radio City Music Hall in New York City. He met her on one of his trips to the city. Cal thought she may have still Russell married Nora Alice Monk, daughter of John Thomas Monk and Alice Kemp, on 17 Oct 1921 in Bridgeport, Fairfield County, Connecticut.³⁴⁴ The marriage ended in divorce. Nora was born on 8 Dec 1901 in Nottingham, Nottinhamshire, England³⁴⁵ and died on 12 Aug 1968 in Fairfield County, Connecticut³⁴⁶ at age 66.

Descendants of Antonius Heilmann

They had no children.

Marriage Notes: Nora Monk, daughter of Mr & Mrs Thomas Monk of 1010 Connecticut Ave, and Russell Reuther of 346 Beechwood Ave were married October 17 1921 at St John's Episcopal Church. After an extended honeymoon trip the couple will reside at 1550 North Ave. [1]

On September 12, 1923, summons were served on Nora Monk Reuther to appear before the Superior Court regarding the plaintiff's petition for divorce, charging Nora with adultery between the date of their marriage and September 11, 1923, in Atlantic City, New Jersey, with one Vessella. [Copy of Summons]

On Oct 20, 1923, The Bridgeport Telegram reported (on page 14) that counsel clashed in proceedings before the Judge about the divorce proceedings. Mrs. Reuther planned to contest the suit to the bitter end, and more time was needed to prepare her defense. No other information was included in the article beyond what the divorce papers contain.

According to the divorce decree, the plaintiff (Russell) was guilty of intolerable cruelty to the defendant (Nora) beginning about three months after their marriage, and ending on September 6, 1923, when Nora moved out of their shared residence. She was granted $10,000 in alimony, and her name was changed back to Nora Alice Monk. [Judgement of Divorce, State of Connecticut, Fairfield County, Superior Court, December 21, 1923]

On Dec 22, 1923, the divorce was reported on the front page of The Bridgeport Telegram. Russell must have been very unhappy to see himself on the front page of the paper. The paper reported that Nora Alice Reuther was granted a divorce on the grounds of cruelty. A few days earlier, Mr. Reuther withdrew his original complaint. In her cross-complaint, Mrs. Reuther reported that her husband had an annual salary of $8,400. An alimony of $10,000 was agreed upon.

On December 23, 1923, Nora received $10,000 from Russell, and signed a receipt to that affect.

Noted events in their marriage were:

General Notes: Nora's parents married 7 Oct 1901 in Nottingham, Nottinghamshire, England. Her mother was Alice Kemp. Her father was John Thomas Monk and went by Thomas. [3, 5] Nora was born in December 1901, shortly after her parents married.

Descendants of Antonius Heilmann

On 23 April 1913, Thomas Monk, his wife Alice and daughter Nora left Liverpool England on the ship SS Haverford for the United States. They arrived in Philadelphia on 6 May 1913. In the 1920 Census, Nora Monk, 18, is living in Bridgeport, Connecticut, with her parents, at 1010 Connecticut Avenue. Nora's parents are Thomas, 42, & Alice Monk, 40. Nora and her parents were born in England, and are not citizens. Thomas is a designer for a lace company, very likely the same company as Russell Reuther. Nora is a saleslady for a store.

Nora married Russell Reuther in October 1921 when she was 19 years old. They divorced in December 1923 when she was 22. After their divorce, Nora took back her maiden name.

Her father John Thomas Monk became a citizen on 4 May 1926 in Bridgeport.

In 1930 Nora C & Robert E Worden are living in Fairfield, Connecticut. Nora is 28, born in England, immigrated 1914 and is a naturalized citizen. Nora is a billing clerk for a wire factory. Robert is 39, born in Connecticut, and a purchasing agent for a telephone company. They married at age 35 & 24 [about 1925]. [7]

Nora's parents John Thomas Monk and wife Alice were in Los Angeles, California, in 1933. [5]

Russell next married Lydia Johanna Speiser, daughter of Heinrich David Speiser³⁵⁰ and Catharina Barbara "Babette"

Habann,³⁵¹ on 19 Nov 1924 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.³⁴⁹

Lydia was born on 29 Oct 1897 in Bridgeport, Fairfield County, Connecticut,³⁵⁰ was christened on 6 Nov 1897 in Bridgeport, Fairfield County, Connecticut,³⁵² died on 12 Sep 1996 in Huntsville, Madison Co, Alabama at age 98, and was buried in Lawncroft Burial Park, Fairfield, Connecticut. They had two children: Joyce Babette "Connie" and Calvin Russell.

Marriage Notes: Russell & Lydia were married at the home of Russell's parents in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, by Reverend Swank. The marriage license shows Lydia as "Lydia R. Speiser". Lydia did not care for her middle name Johanna at this time, and used Ruth as her middle name.

Guests were Babette Speiser (mother of the bride), Reverend Stengler, Lula R. Diller, Edna R. Zimmer (sister of the groom), Elsbeth Speiser (sister of the bride and maid of honor), Mr & Mrs Albert Phillips (Russell's boss at American Fabrics and best man), Helene Speiser (sister of the bride), Florence Reuther (sister of the groom), Mary Evans, Henry and Anna Barlow Reuther (parents of the groom). [As signed by the guests in the wedding book.]

Russell & Lydia honeymooned in Havana, Cuba, and Daytona Beach, Florida.

When first married Russell and Lydia had a room in Colonnese's (spelling?) house on North Avenue. Mr. C. had a meat and vegetable market where Lydia traded. He also delivered to their home on Toilsome Hill Road as there was no market there when they first built the house. [1]

Russell and Lydia always had the family (Speiser) parties at their house because they had the largest house. [Virginia Speiser Rutter]

[1] Letter from Lydia S Reuther to son Calvin Reuther Aug 14 1983

General Notes: Lydia was baptized November 6, 1897. Her godparents were Elizabeth Boerschel, Anna Becker, and Chris Becker.

When her father died in 1921 Lydia had severe pains in her legs such that she could not stand and was in bed for three weeks. She suffered similar pains in her arm from the shoulder to her hand in 1983 when her nephew Henry Broch died. [1]

Lydia did not care for her middle name, and often used Ruth in place of Johanna. Her marriage license to Russell lists her name as Lydia Ruth Speiser.

Lydia had a third pregnancy that ended in miscarriage about 1940 when Joyce was a freshman in high school. [Joyce Reuther Holley]

Lydia continued the family cooking traditions she learned from her mother - potato salad, herring salad, and Christmas cookies. When Lydia stopped making Springerle, Brownie Lebkuchen & Schwaben Brodli, her son Cal took up making the cookies. He and Joyce had already been making potato and herring salad for many years.

In 1985, Lydia fell in the kitchen and broke her pelvis. She came South, first to daughter Connie's [Joyce] house in Decatur, GA, then to son Cal's in Huntsville, AL, to recover. By then Lydia was almost 90 years old. Connie and Cal decided she needed to be closer to them, so in the spring of 1986, they closed up and sold the house at 219 Toilsome Hill Road in Fairfield that Russ built for them after they married. Lydia moved into a retirement community in Huntsville, Alabama, near Cal.

In 1996, Lydia suffered a stroke, and died a few weeks later, just 6 weeks short of her 99th birthday.
