Descendants of unknown Terry

1-unknown Terry¹ died about 1812.

General Notes: Mr. Terry was lost while crossing from Sullivan Island to Charleston, S.C., after selling cattle to the government during the War of 1812. It is believed he was murdered by robbers. [Lena Terry's notebook]

There is nothing to-date to support this story. There is some indication that the father of Stephen N Terry died before 1796. [CAR] unknown married widow Davis. They had two children: Stephen N. and Jeriah.

2-Stephen N. Terry² was born between 1756 and 1774 in South Carolina and died in 1807 in Fairfield District, South Carolina.³

General Notes: Stephen's sons reported their father's birthplace as South Carolina. [1880 census]

Stephen may have served during the Revolutionary War. [2]

In the 1800 Census, Stephen Terry is living in Fairfield County, South Carolina. In the house are one male, age 26 to 44 (Stephen), 2 females under 10 (daughters Sarah & Elizabeth) and 2 females age 16 to 25 (wife Mary Sutton, actually 32 in 1800, and possibly Mary's sister Sarah Sutton, age 15 in 1800). Stephen owned 7 slaves.

The appraisal for Stephen's estate included carpenter's tools, household furniture, hogs, cattle, geese, ducks, cotton bales, cured bacon, barrels, leather, and four bushels of rye. [1]

Stephen married Mary Sutton between 1795 and 1796 in South Carolina?. Mary was born on 20 Jul 1768 in South Carolina,⁴ died on 20 Jul 1863 in Georgia, probably Harris County⁵ at age 95, and was buried in Terry Family Cemetary, Harris County, Georgia. They had five children: Sarah Cookson, Elizabeth Caroline, Stephen Davis, John Sutton, and Frederick J. Heath.

Marriage Notes: Stephen and Mary were married by March 1796 when Stephen sold land in Fairfield District, South Carolina, and Mary signed the deed releasing her dower rights. [1]

[1] Fairfield Co. Deed. Book M., Page 063 - Terry Family Historian Vol III No 3 September 1984

General Notes: Implied in the suit of John Rogers vs Nathaniel Thompson, Mary's mother's last name was Clary. In 1806 John Rogers, on behalf of Mary, husband Stephen Terry, and Mary's sister Sarah Sutton, sued for the return of slaves taken by Ann, widow of Mary and Sarah's uncle John Clary, and her new husband Nathaniel Thompson to North Carolina. John Clary left the negroes to his nieces should his only son (age 4 or 5 at the time he died in 1789) not reach adulthood. [see CAR transcriptions]

Descendants of unknown Terry

When her husband Stephen Terry died in early 1807, he left Mary with five young children. The oldest, daughter Sarah, was about 10, and the youngest was about 8 months old.

In the 1810 Census, Mary is living in Fairfield county, South Carolina. Living in the house are 3 males under 10 (Stephen, John & Frederick), 1 male 16 to 25 (unknown), 1 female under 10 (Elizabeth), 1 female 10 to 15 (Sarah), and 1 female 26 to 44 (Mary). Mary owns 8 slaves.

In 1820, Mary is living and farming in Fairfield county, South Carolina. Living in the house are 2 males between 10 & 16 (John & Frederick), 1 male 16 to 18 (Stephen), 1 male 16 to 26 (Stephen listed a 2nd time), 1 male 26 to 45 (unknown), 1 female 16 to 26 (Elizabeth), and 1 female over 45 (Mary). Mary owns 11 slaves.

In the 1830 Census, Mary is living in Fairfield county, South Carolina. Living in the house are 3 males between 20 & 30 (sons Stephen, John, & Fred), 1 female under 5 (granddaughter Mary), 2 females between 20 & 30 (daughter Elizabeth and Stephen's wife Sarah Patterson), and 1 female between 50 & 60 (Mary herself). Mary owns 19 slaves.

Between 1828 & 1830, Mary and her children, the heirs of Stephen Terry, began selling off the land from his estate, probably in preparation to move to Georgia. [see transcription of land sales from Terry Family Historian newsletter]

Mary moved from South Carolina to Georgia about 1832 with her adult children, Elizabeth, Stephen, John, and Frederick. Also with them was Stephen's wife Sarah Ferrell Patterson, and their children Mary and Margaret. After 1850 they were later joined by daughter Sarah Cookson Terry Johnston, who either moved to Georgia, or was visiting at the time of her death in 1858.

In the 1840 Census, Mary Terry is living in the Milner's District of Harris County, Georgia. She is the head of the family listed on the Census. Living in the house are 2 men age 30 to 40 (sons John and Fred), 1 female between 10 & 15 (granddaughter Mary who's father Stephen is next door), 1 female 30-40 (daughter Elizabeth) and one female 60-70 (Mary herself). They are farming and own 39 slaves.

In the 1850 Census, Mary is 83 years old (born about 1767) and living in Harris County, Georgia with her children Fredrick Terry (age 42), Elizabeth C. Terry (age 50), and John S. Terry (age 44). Mary lists her birthplace as South Carolina.

In the 1860 Census, Mary is 86 [should be abt 92] and living with her son Fred Terry (F J H Terry on the census), and an F M Terry, age 17, probably her grandson, Fred M Terry. Living next door is her son Stephen Terry, his wife Sarah, Mary's son John, and Stephen's son James.

Several Sutton's were found on a transcription of the Old Shiloh Independant Missionary Baptist Church Cemetary on rootsweb.com. This could indicate that relatives of Mary Sutton Terry may have emmigrated from South Carolina about the time the Terry's emmigrated. They are:

3-Sarah Cookson Terry was born about 1797 in South Carolina,⁶ died on 28 Aug 1858 in Georgia⁶ about age 61, and was buried in Terry Family Cemetary, Harris County, Georgia.

General Notes: In the 1850, Sarah C Johnston is living in Tuscaloosa County, Alabama. She is 53 years old and was born in South Carolina. The value of her real estate is $4000. The census taker did not list an occupation for her, or her children. Living with her are her children William, 21, Malissa, 15, Caroline, 12, Margaret, 11, and Frederick, 8. All the children were born in Alabama. Sarah owns 12 slaves. Four are aged 25 and 33, three are between age 9 and 7, and five are under age 3. [1]

The Johnstons must have been living close to or in the town of Tuscaloosa in 1850, as they are surrounded on the census by farmers as well as the president of the university, students, professors, and lawyers. Tuscaloosa was not only the home of the state university, but had been the capital of Alabama from 1826 until 1847, when it was moved to Montgomery.

Sarah died in 1858 and was buried in the Terry Family Cemetery in Harris County, Georgia, where her mother and siblings are also buried. Sarah may have been visiting her family when she died. She is one of the earliest burials in the cemetery.

[1] 1850 Census, Dist 1, Tuscaloosa Co, AL, p. 186 - population schedule; slave schedule; population sched dated 14 Jan 1850

Noted events in her life were:

- Alt. Birth: 21 Nov 1797, South Carolina.⁷

Sarah married David Johnston,⁸ son of Robert Johnston, before 1816 in probably Fairfield District, South Carolina. David was born in Aug 1784 in Ireland,⁷ died on 6 Nov 1850⁹ at age 66, and was buried in Old Cemetery, Bryce Hospital, Tuscaloosa, Alabama.¹⁰ They had 13 children: Robert Terry, Stephen Burr, Samuel, Sarah Sutton, John David, Mary Eliza, William Cunningham, Harriet Catherine, Henry Williams, Melissa P, Caroline, Margaret, and Frederick C.

Noted events in their marriage were:

- Alt. Marriage: 26 Apr 1815, Wateree Creek, Fairfield District, South Carolina.⁷

General Notes: David Johnston, a native of Scotland, came to the US with his father Robert Johnston in 1790, and settled near Versailles, Kentucky, then moved to Fairfield District, South Carolina, where he married. [2]

Father Robert Johnston was engaged in carrying country products down the rivers in flatboats to New Orleans. Once in New Orleans, disposing of the cargo and boat, and walking home. He was lost on one of those trips in 1800. [3]

Per Lena Terry's notebook, David and Sarah lived in Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

According to information on son Robert Johnston, they moved to Tuscaloosa about 1818.

Descendants of unknown Terry

It appears that David owned land in Tuscaloosa along the Warrior River that today is where Bryce Hospital (for the mentally ill) is located. The cemetery where David and five of his children are buried is located on the hospital grounds. Bryce Hospital was founded in 1852 and admitted its first patient in 1861. Most or all of the family had left the area by then.

Sarah and David were living in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, in 1829 and 1830 when land from Sarah's father Stephen Terry's estate was sold by his heirs - his wife Mary and their children.

In the 1840 Census, David Johnston is living in Tuscaloosa County, Alabama. Living in the house were 1 male under 5 years (unknown), 1 male age 10 - 15 (William), 1 male 15 - 20 (John), 1 male 20 - 30 (Stephen), 1 male 50 - 60 (David, age 56), 2 females under 5 (Melissa & Caroline), 1 female 10 - 15 (Harriet), 1 female 15 - 20 (daughter Sarah), and 1 female 40 - 50 (wife Sarah, age 43). No slaves were counted on the census.

David appears to have died between 1846 when he is mentioned in son-in-law Columbus Morrison's journal and 1850 when Sarah appears alone on the census dated 14 January 1850.

David was born in 1784 in Ireland and reportedly died on 6 November 1850 in Tuscaloosa, Alabama. He is buried in the Old Cemetery currently on the grounds of Bryce Hospital in Tuscaloosa. [1]

Other Notes:

A genealogy posting in 2003 on RootsWeb for Fairfield Co, SC, for the Johnston family listed a David Johnston, born October 8, 1789 in Chester District, SC, died in Alabama. His parents were James Johnston, b. 1760 in Ireland, d. Mar 13, 1797 in Fairfield County, SC, and Mary Johnston, b. June 15, 1761 in Ballymoney, Antrim, Northern Ireland, d. May 31, 1854, in Chester Co, SC. Married Jan 1780 in Chester Co. (CAR sent a reply to the posting for more info 1/2004 - none received) It is unclear if this family is related to David. It may be possible they are related to the Patterson family.

Noted events in his life were:

- Alt. Birth: Between 1780 and 1790.¹¹
- Alt. Death: Between 1846 and 1850.
- Alt. Death: 1849, Tuscaloosa County, Alabama.

4-Robert Terry Johnston was born on 18 Sep 1816 in Fairfield District, South Carolina,¹² died on 16 Jan 1877 in Carrollton, Pickens County, Alabama¹³ at age 60, and was buried in Upper Cemetery, Pickensville, Pickens County, Alabama.¹⁴

Descendants of unknown Terry

General Notes: Robert T Johnston was born in Fairfield District, South Carolina on 18 September 1816. His father was the late David Johnston of Tuscaloosa, and a native of Ireland. The family came to the Tuscaloosa area in 1818. Mr Johnston is a graduate of Center College, Danville, KY. He began life as a school master, opening a private school in Lowndes County, Mississippi, in 1836 where he taught one year. He then came to Pickensville in Pickens County where he taught until 1844. He married a Pickens county lady in 1840. Robert became editor of the Pickensville Register in 1842 for two years. In 1845 he successfully ran for the Alabama Legislature. For the last eight or nine years [since abt 1847] he has devoted himself to the practice of law. He is promoting the construction of a railroad in the county, is President of the Pickens county Agricultural Society, and is a member of the Presbyterian church. [2]

Robert Terry Johnston was born in Fairfield District, South Carolina on 18 September 1816 from Irish parentage. Robert indicated his father brought him to Tuscaloosa, Alabama, when he was about 2 years old. Robert's father was the "late" David Johnston who had married Sarah C. (Cookson) Terry. Sarah's parents were Stephen D. Terry, died 1807, and Mary Sutton of Fairfield District, South Carolina. Sarah Cookson Terry died in Harris County, Georgia, August 28, 1858. Mary Sutton Terry (Sarah's mother) and most of her children are buried in Harris County, Georgia. [1]

Robert married Mildred Caroline Terry (b 24 November 1822) in Pickens County on July 7, 1840. Mildred was the daughter of John Wesley Terry (1786-1847) and Emily Taliaferro (1803-1846). Her sister Priscilla married Robert's brother Stephen B Johnston. They moved to Mississippi.

In the 1850 Census, R T Johnston is living in the Southern District of Pickens County, Alabama. He is 31 years old, born in South Carolina, and is a lawyer. The value of his real estate is $5000. Living with him are his wife Mildred C, 27, also born in South Carolina, and their children John D, 9, Robt T, 7, Job C, 5, Emily T, 3, and Mary T, 2. All the children were born in Alabama. Also in the house are John T Terry, 19, a student born in South Carolina, and Erasmus Mann, 20, a farmer born in Alabama. John Terry is probably Mildred's brother.

Among a list of Pickens County officers is J. T. Terry. A list of "lawyers and legal firms" circa 1856 includes Robert T. Johnston of Pickensville and John T. Terry of Carrollton. Mike Terry indicates that John T. Terry is John Taliaferro Terry, Robert's brother-in-law.

In 1860, Robt T Johnston is living in Pickensville, Pickens County, Alabama. He is 43, born in South Carolina, and a lawyer and farmer. The value of his real estate is $18000, and his personal property $50000. He owns 31 slaves between 1 and 45 years old. Living with Robert are his wife Mildred (shows age 63, should be 38), born in South Carolina, sons John D, 19 & a "Phision", Robert T, 16, Jas C (Job), 14, Sarah, 12, Mary, 10, Mildred, 5, & William, 7. All the children were born in Alabama. Also in the house are his siblings Wm C Johnston, C J H (Caroline), & Margaret C. Others living in the house are Sarah Ann McCay, 22, owns $5000 personal property and is a teacher, Martha A Noland, 16, Mary Noland, 14, and Penina White, 15. [3]

Descendants of unknown Terry

Robert was in charge of a school at Mayfield, Kentucky, from 1868 to 1870. [5]

In 1870, Robt T Johnson is living in Mayfield, Graves County, Kentucky. He is 54, born in South Carolina, and teaching school. Robert's real estate is valued at $5000 and his personal estate at $2000. Living with him are his wife Mildred, 46, born in South Carolina, children Sarah, 21, Mary, 19, William, 17, Mildred, 15, and Samuel, 10, and sister Caroline Johnson, 30. Caroline and the children were born in Alabama. [4]

In 1870 Robert returned to Pickens County and resumed the practice of law. He died in 1877. [5]

Mildred married Benjamin F Lane,⁹⁶ son of Barney Lane and Mary Jane Obedience Crostick, on 17 Sep 1885 in Pickens County, Alabama.⁹⁷ Benjamin was born on 10 Aug 1850 in Weakley County, Tennessee,⁹⁸ died on 27 Mar 1923 in Fort Worth, Tarrant County, Texas⁹⁹ at age 72, and was buried on 29 Mar 1923 in Llano Cemetery, Amarillo, Potter County, Texas.⁹⁹ Another name for Benjamin was B F Lane.⁹⁷ They had six children: Clifford Johnston, Benjamin Franklin, Janie, Florence Lucille, Olive, and Lexie Parks.

General Notes: Benjamin was most born in either Tennessee (1880 & 1900 census) or Kentucky (as reported on the later censuses and the death certificates for son Clifford and daughter Olive).

Most likely he was born in Weakley County, Tennessee, as his parents were there by 1849. [5]

B F Lane married Lydia J Robinson on 6 January 1875 in Hickman County, Kentucky. [8] Lydia died nine months later on 13 September 1875. [9] [See notes below for Lydia J Robinson.]

Benjamin married Eudora M West, widow of Albert G Quarles, between 1873 & 1880. [See notes below for Eudora West.]

In 1880 B F Lane is living in Moscow, Hickman County, Kentucky. He is 29, born in Tennessee, and in the retail dry goods business. With Benjamin are his [second] wife Udora, age 28, born in Kentucky, and stepson Danl Quarles, age 7. [6]

Benjamin and Eudora had a daughter Lottie, born April 1880 in Kentucky. [1] When Benjamin died in 1923, daughter Mrs. Lottie Graves was living in Mobile, Alabama. [7]

In 1900 Benjamin Lane is living in Moscow, Hickman County, Kentucky. He is 49, born in Tennessee, his parents in Tennessee. He is a dry goods

4-Sarah Sutton Johnston¹⁵⁴ was born on 29 Sep 1821 in probably Tuscaloosa County, Alabama,¹⁵⁴ died on 22 May 1844 in Tuscaloosa County, Alabama¹⁰ at age 22, and was buried in Old Cemetery, Bryce Hospital, Tuscaloosa, Alabama.¹⁰ Another name for Sarah was Sarah S Johnston.

General Notes: Sarah was most likely born in Tuscaloosa County, Alabama, as the family reportedly moved from South Carolina about 1818. [CAR]

Mrs Sarah Morrison died 22 May 1844 at age 24. She is buried in the Old Cemetery on the grounds of Bryce Hospital in Tuscaloosa with her father and four siblings. [1]

Sarah's three daughters all died young.

[1] "Old Cemeteries Found In Tuscaloosa County, Alabama", by Beasey S Hendrix, Jr - provided by Patricia Adams Guillory

Noted events in her life were:

- Alt. Birth: Abt 1820.

Sarah married Columbus Morrison¹⁵⁵ on 7 Jul 1840 in Tuscaloosa County, Alabama.¹⁵⁵ Columbus was born on 23 Jan 1808 near Charlotte, North Carolina,¹³³ died on 5 Nov 1862 in North Carolina¹⁵⁶ at age 54, and was buried in Rocky River Presbyterian Church Cemetery, Rocky River, Cabarrus County, North Carolina.¹³³ They had three children: Eliza Terry, Margaret Matilda, and Sarah Lavinia.

General Notes: Columbus Morrison was born in 1808, about 14 miles east of Charlotte, North Carolina. His parents were of old Scottish Presbyterian descent. Columbus lived in Virginia and South Carolina before moving to a farm near Tuscaloosa, Alabama. [1]

In his journal of 1845-1846, Columbus often writes of visiting Mother Johnston and Father Johnston, and mentions other Johnstons such as Saml Johnston and Wm Johnston. He also mentions some of the Mitchell family, probably part of the same Mitchell family buried in the family cemetery in Tuscaloosa where David Johnston, Columbus's wife Sarah, and four other Johnston children are buried. [2]

In 1850 Columbus Morrison is living in Tuscaloosa County, Alabama. He is 42, born in North Carolina, a physician, and owns real estate valued at $3000. Living with Columbus are his children Eliza F [or T], age 9, Margaret M, 9, and Sarah L, 7. Columbus owns 3 slaves - a male age 55, female age 23, and a female age 5. [3]

On 1 April 1851 Columbus married Jane M Young in Tuscaloosa County. [4]

Columbus appears to have moved to Georgia between 1856 (when son John was born in Alabama) and 1858 (when daughter Sarah Lavinia died in Marietta).

Descendants of unknown Terry

By May 1860, Columbus's three daughters with Sarah, and his second wife Jane have died. They are buried in Marietta City Cemetery in Marietta, Georgia. Mrs Jane M Morrison, wife of Dr C Morrison died May 16 1860 at age 42 years. [6]

In 1860 Columbus is living in Marietta, Cobb County, Georgia. He is 52, born in North Carolina, owns real estate worth $3000 and personal estate worth $19,000. Columbus's occupation is blank. He has two female slaves age 18 and 16. Living with Columbus are his children with Jane, Columbus, age 8, G G [Zilpha Gould or Zelphia], age 6, and J M [John Young], age 4. All the children were born in Alabama. [5]

Columbus reportedly died in North Carolina. He is buried in Rocky River, NC, so this is probably correct.

Son Columbus reportedly died young in 1863. He is probably the Columbus Morrison, 3 Aug 1858 - 12 May 1863, buried in Rocky River, NC. In 1870 Zelphia and John Y Morrison are living in Crab Orchard, Mecklenburg County, North Carolina with R. R. King. [4, 7]

General Notes: Although it is not certain that the children of Columbus and Sarah died in Marietta, Georgia, they are buried there and so I have assumed they died there. [CAR]

Eliza, her sisters Lavinia and Matilda, and step-mother Jane are all buried in the Marietta City Cemetery (section A60). Left to right they are: Eliza, Lavinia, a space with no marker, Matilda, and Jane. Lavinia's foot marker "SLM" is readable, her head marker is broken and only "Lav" and "Mor" is currently readable. Eliza's marker is very worn and only the year of her death and age (1859 & age 18) were easily readable. [1]

Frank Morgan Powers enlisted in the US Navy Reserves on 30 May 1917. He was living in Philadelphia on Ellsworth St. Frank served (active duty) from 4 Jun 1917 to 21 Aug 1919. He received an honorable discharge on 29 May 1921. Frank served as Chief Yeoman, Ensign (Asst Paymaster), and Lieutenant (junior grade). He did not serve overseas. [3]

In 1920 Frank M Powers and Mary L Shindel [Mary Louise Shindel]

Descendants of unknown Terry

married in Philadelphia. [5] (See below for more on Mary Louise Shindel)

In 1924 Louise Shindel Powers, wife of Frank M Powers (born Midland, KY) applied for a passport. She was born 14 Jan 1897 in Tamaqua, PA. She planned to travel from Hoboken, NJ, to England, France, Switzerland, Spain and Germany on the SS America leaving 13 Sep 1924. Her brother-in-law completed the affidavit confirming her identity = Thomas C Powers, b. 9 Apr 1894 in Midland, KY.[4]

Frank and Louise divorced between 1924 and 1928.

In 1930 Frank M Powers is 37, born in Ohio [should be Kentucky]. He is renting his home for $100/month and has a radio. Frank is the proprietor of a tent and awning business. He served in World War I. [2]

In May 1934, Frank Morgan Powers applied to Pennsylvania for WWI veterans compensation. He was living in Chicago, Illinois, at the time, and married to Mrs Louise Going Powers. They had no children. [3]

In 1942 Frank Morgan Powers is living in River Forrest, Cook County, Illinois. On the draft he lists [wife] Mrs Louise Going Powers as his contact. Frank is employed by [probably owns the business] Powers & Co of River Forrest. [1]

Sometime following the death of Louise, Frank married Mabel C. She died in 1970. [6]

Frank died in 1964 and is buried in the same cemetery plot as his brother Thomas C Powers. [7]

General Notes: The compilation listing (probably from cemetery records) for the Oddfellows Cemetery in Starkville identifies Henry Williams Johnston and Caroline (Johnston) Cason as brother and sister. Henry's wife is identified as Mary Jane Brown, [married] 20 May 1872. [1]

In 1870 Henry Johnston is living in Oktibbeha County, MISSissippi. He is 37, a farmer, born in Alabama, with a personal estate of $500. He is living in the home of Martha Bell, age 78, born in South Carolina, and probably 6 other members of her family. Also in the house is James Abercrombie, 40, born South Carolina. [3]

In 1880 H W Johnston is living in Oktibbeha County. He is 46, born in Alabama, and a farmer. His parents were born in Ireland and South Carolina. With H W is his wife Mary J, 36. Her and her parents' places of birth are the same as H W. Also listed is their son Henry, age 2, born in Mississippi, but he was subsequently crossed out and noted as dead. [2]

In 1900 W H Johnston is living in Oktibbeha County. He is 60, born January 1840, widowed, and a farmer. He owns his farm free and clear. W H was born in Alabama, his parents in Ireland and South Carolina. [4]

Noted events in her life were:

- Alt. Birth: Abt 1835, Tuscaloosa County, Alabama.¹⁷

4-Caroline Johnston¹⁷ was born on 7 Sep 1838 in Tuscaloosa County, Alabama,²¹⁶ died on 27 Jun 1901 in probably Mississippi²¹⁷ at age 62, and was buried in Odd Fellows Cemetery, Starkville, Oktibbeha County, Mississippi.²¹⁷

General Notes: In 1860, C J H Johnston is living in Pickensville, Pickens County, Alabama, in the home of her brother Robert Johnston. Caroline is 21, born in Alabama, and a teacher. Her personal estate is worth $2500. The census shows her as "insane". [1]

In 1870, Caroline Johnson is living in Mayfield, Graves County, Kentucky, with her brother Robert and his family. Caroline is 30 and was born in Alabama. Her occupation is listed as "with relatives", perhaps indicating that at the time the census taker visited she was away visiting other relatives. [2]

As reported on the 1900 Census, Carrie only had one child. [3]

Carrie and her husband William Cason may have died between 1900 and 1910. In 1910 brother Fred Johnston is still in Dade City, Pasco Co, FL, boarding with another family and in 1918 son William lists his uncle F C Johnston as his closest relative.

Everything matches for Caroline to be the Caroline Johnston Cason who died in 1901 and is buried in Starkville, Oktibbeha County, Mississippi. No other Cason's appear to be buried there, and it is not known why she was in Mississippi - if she moved or was visiting.

4-Margaret Johnston¹⁷ was born about 1839 in Tuscaloosa County, Alabama.¹⁷

General Notes: In 1860, Margaret C Johnston is living in Pickensville, Pickens

Descendants of unknown Terry

County, Alabama, in the home of her brother Robert Johnston. Margaret is 19, born in Alabama, and a teacher. She owns real estate worth $500 and personal estate worth $1500. [1]

[1] 1860 US Census, Pickens Co, AL, p 5-6

4-Frederick C Johnston¹⁷ was born in Mar 1842 in Tuscaloosa County, Alabama²²⁰ and died after 1918. He had no relationships and no children.

General Notes: Frederick reported on his soldier's pension application that he was born 25 March 1839 in Tuscaloosa County, Alabama. [5] While March is correct, other evidence supports a birth year of 1842.

On 18 March 1861, Frederic C Johnston, age 19 [born about 1842] joined the 1st Alabama Regiment, Company B, at Barrancas Barracks [Pensacola, Escambia County], Florida, for 10 months & 22 days. He was present on the muster rolls through December 1861. [4]

On 24 April 1862, F C Johnston enlisted in Company D, 15th Confederate Cavalry of the Confederate States Army. In March 1863 near Milton, Florida, Frederick was shot in the thigh. At the end of the war, he was paroled on 21 May 1865 at Columbus, Mississippi. [5]

Fred moved to Florida in March 1882 or January 1885. (He reported different information on his different pension applications.) [5]

In 1900 Fred C Johnston is living in Dade City, Pasco County, Florida, with his brother-in-law William Cason and sister Carrie. Fred is 58, born in Alabama [about 1842], his parents in Ireland and South Carolina. He is a farm hand. [1]

In 1904, Fred applied for a soldier's pension with the State of Florida. His request does not appear to have been granted until 1907 for $96 a year. [5]

In 1907 Fred reported that he had sold 5 acres to Albert Mays in December 1906 for $65. For the past two years he had been farming, earning $150 a year. [5]

By 1909, Fred was granted an increase in his pension, up to $120 a year. [5]

In 1910 Fred E Johnston is living in Dade City. He is boarding in the home of Alice E Lanier. Fred is 68, born in Alabama [about 1842], his parents in Ireland and North Carolina. He is living on his "own income". [2]

Fred last filed a pension application in 1913. His physician certified his disability from the gunshot wound he received in the Civil War, and that he had hardening of the arteries. [5]

In 1918 F C Johnston of Dade City is listed on his nephew William J Cason's World War I draft registration as his nearest relative.

In 1920, Fred Johnson, age 70 (born about 1850), is living in Dade City. He was born in the US. No Fred Johns(t)on of similar age is found in Pasco County in

Descendants of unknown Terry

1920, so this may be our Fred Johnston. He appears to be boarding with Lon & Johnnie McGoldrick, age 48 & 49, from Kentucky. Lon is a blacksmith, and Johnnie works for a cigar factory. [3]

3-Elizabeth Caroline Terry was born on 11 Jan 1799 in Fairfield District, South Carolina,⁶ died on 26 Oct 1859 in Georgia⁶ at age 60, and was buried in Terry Family Cemetery, Harris County, Georgia. Another name for Elizabeth was Eliza. She had no relationships and no children.

General Notes: In the 1850 Census, Elizabeth is 50 years old (born about 1800) and living in Harris County, Georgia, in the household of her brother Frederic J. H. Terry, age 42. Elizabeth's birthplace is listed as South Carolina. Also in the house are her mother, Mary Terry, and her brother John S. Terry.

3-Stephen Davis Terry was born on 2 Jan 1802 in Fairfield County, South Carolina,²²¹ died on 2 Feb 1884 in Harris County, Georgia⁶ at age 82, and was buried in Terry Family Cemetery, Harris County, Georgia.

General Notes: Lucius Lamar Terry's grandfather, Jack Terry [Lucius's grandfather was actually Stephen Terry], was a native of Virginia and when a young man established his home at Oak Mountain Springs, Georgia, developing a farm and plantation. He lived there and also pursued the vocation of a minister of the Missionary Baptist Church. He was a soldier in the Mexican War. He married a Miss Patterson, also a native of Virginia. [1] Stephen was actually born in South Carolina, and his wife Sarah Patterson was born in Ireland.

Stephen's older sister Elizabeth Caroline was born in Fairfield District, SC. Stephen was probably also born there. Stephen lists his birthplace as South Carolina on the 1850, 60 & 70 Censuses.

Stephen moved to Georgia about 1834. [Lena Terry's notebook]

A transcription of Talbot County deeds recorded between 1833 and 1837 shows the following for Stephen -
1830 - witness along with John L Terry to sale of land between Warren T. Castlebury and James Ellison

Descendants of unknown Terry

Dec 19 1835 - Stephen D. Terry of Harris county purchased 202. 5 acres in Talbot Co from Thomas T. McMullins of Monroe county. Witnesses included his brother John S. Terry.

In the 1840 Census, S D Terry is living and farming in the Milner's District of Harris County, Georgia. Living next door is his mother Mary, and his brothers and sister Elizabeth. Living in the house are 3 boys under age 5 (Stephen, James & John), 1 male age 30-40 (Stephen himself), 2 girls age 5-10 (Margaret & Sarah), and one female between 30 & 40 (wife Sarah). Their oldest daughter Mary, age 10, appears to be living next door with her grandmother. Stephen owns 12 slaves.

In the 1850 Census, Stephen is living in the Dowdells District of Harris County, GA. He is 46 years old and a farmer, born in South Carolina. Living with him are his wife Sarah F, age 47, and born in Ireland. Their 6 youngest children are living with them. Stephen lists the value of his real estate as $3300. He owns 23 slaves ranging in age from 2 to 50 years.

In the 1860 Census, Stephen is living in District 782 in eastern Harris County, GA. Living next door is his brother Fred Terry and their mother Mary. Stephen is 50 (?) years old and a farmer. He was born in South Carolina. Living with him are his wife Sarah, age 56 and born in Ireland, Stephen's brother John, and Stephen and Sarah's son James. Their son Fred is living next door with his uncle Fred and grandmother. Stephen owns real estate valued at $4400 and personal estate valued at $16483. Stephen owns 16 slaves ranging in age from 2 to 64. They live in 6 slave houses.

In the 1870 Census, Stephen D Terry is living in Harris County, Georgia. He is 68 years old, born in South Carolina, and a farmer. He is living just a few households away from his brother Frederick and Mary Griffin. Living with him is his son Stephen. Also in the house is Sarah C Weaver, age 32, born in Georgia. She is keeping house. Her children John S Weaver, age 12, and Sidney Weaver, age 8, are also in the house. Sarah Weaver may be the same Sarah, Stephen's wife in the 1880 Census. Stephen lists the value of his real estate as $2200, and his personal estate as $650.

In the 1880 Census, an S.B. Terry (transcription shows LB Terry; the image looks like SB Terry), age 78 (born about 1802), is a retired farmer, born in South Carolina, living in Milners Cross Roads, Harris County, GA. He is married to Sarah C. Terry, age 41 (born about 1839). Living with him are two of his sons, Jeremirah, age 8, and Stephen (Stephin on the Census), age 44 (born about 1836). Son Stephen is a farmer. They are living just a few households away from Stephen's son John D Terry (Jackson Terry on the Census). It appears that Stephen remarried after his first wife Sarah Patterson died in 1870.

Stephen's brothers Fred and John died a few days before he did of pneumonia. Stephen may have also had pneumonia. Stephen was reported to be a resident of Talbot county at the time of his death. This is probably in error, and he most likely died at his home in Harris County. [2]

Stephen Terry died in 1884 without leaving a will. In 1915 his grandson Stephen Terry Ellison was executor of his estate, and sold two parcels of land to his cousin, also Stephen's grandson, James Ellison Terry. Sold was 50 acres in Harris County and 75

arces in Talbot County. [3] It may be that by 1915 Stephen's second wife Sarah had passed away, and the farm could now be sold.

Margaret married Rufus Newton Barnes,²³⁶ son of Franklin Barnes and Elvira Franklin, on 7 Feb 1912 in Fulton County, Georgia.²³⁶ Rufus was born on 28 Jul 1868 in Georgia,²⁴² died on 15 Mar 1959 in Waynesville, Haywood County, North Carolina²⁴³ at age 90, and was buried in Hamilton Cemetery, Hamilton, Harris County, Georgia. They had two children: Elsie S and Louisa F.

General Notes: In 1900 Rufus Barnes is living in Hamilton, Harris County, Georgia, with his parents Franklin and Elvira. Rufus is 32, born July 1868, and is farming with his father. Franklin was born in South Carolina and his parents in Germany. Elvira was born in Georgia, her parents in South Carolina and Georgia. [2] In 1910 Rufus is living and farming in Hamilton with his widowed mother Elvira.

Rufus is probably the Rufus Barnes of Hamilton, who in 1907 had a patented machine for sawing wood. [4]

In 1920 Rufus N Barnes, 50, is living and farming in Hamilton. Living with him are his wife Margaret E, 38, and daughters Elsie S, 6, and Louisa F, 4 years and 2 months. [3]

In 1930 Rufus Barnes, 62, is living in Waynesville, Haywood County, North Carolina, in the home of his sister Ella Delacy. Brother Olin S Barnes also lives there. With Rufus are his wife Margaret, 44 [should be 47], and daughter Louie, 14. Neither Rufus nor Margaret are working. [6]

Rufus N Barnes was born 28 July 1868 and died 15 March 1959. [1]

Rufus died at the Teague Nursing Home in Waynesville, North Carolina, of arterio sclerotic cardiovascular disease and cerebral thrombosis. He was widowed; his wife was Margaret Barnes. The informant on his death certificate was Mrs Edward Wilder of Marietta, Georgia. [5]

6-Eugene Knox Barnes¹³⁵ was born on 25 Sep 1887 in Shiloh, Harris County, Georgia,²⁴⁴ died on 9 Jul 1924 in Johnson City, Washington County, Tennessee²⁴⁵ at age 36, and was buried in Waverly Hall Cemetery, Waverly Hall, Harris County, Georgia.

General Notes: In 1900 Eugene K Barnes is living in Atlanta, Georgia, with his parents and siblings. He is 12 and working for a dry goods store. [1]

In 1910 Knox is living in Atlanta with his parents and 3 siblings. He is 21 and a merchant with a furniture store. He appears to be in business with his brother Oscar, with brother Albert working for them as a salesman. [2]

In June 1917, E K Barnes is living in Marietta, Cobb County, Georgia. He was born 25 September 1887 in Shiloh, Georgia, is single and a farmer. [4]

Eugene enlisted in the US military [probably Army] on 25 July 1918 at Marietta, Georgia, as a corporal. He arrived in France by November 1918. During his service, Eugene was gassed. After the World War he returned to the States (reportedly a member of the US Navy), arriving in New York by November 1919 at Camp Dix. He was discharged/demobilized 4 November 1919 at Camp Gordon in Georgia. [5, 6, 7, 8]

In December 1921, Mr. Knox Barnes and Mr. Albert Barnes, of Charlotte, North Carolina, returned home after visiting their parents Mr & Mrs M F Barnes in Powder Springs Rd, [Cobb Co], Georgia. [9]

In 1921, Mr Knox Barnes of Memphis was the guest of his parents Mr & Mrs H A Barnes. [12] It is not clear if this is Eugene or another Knox Barnes. Brother James Albert Barnes was in Memphis in 1920. Eugene has not been found on the 1920 Census.

Eugene was married by January 1924, but his wife's name is not currently known. He was listed as married on his death certificate, but her name was not on the certificate.

In January 1924, E K Barnes was admitted to the US Home for Disabled Veterans in Johnson City, Washington County, Tennessee. He was 36, married, and a salesman. His closest relative was his brother R L Barnes of Savannah, Georgia. Upon release he was to reside in Georgia.

Descendants of unknown Terry

Eugene's disability was far advanced and appeared to be pulmonary (lung related). He was reportedly gassed during World War I. [5, 7]

Eugene K Barnes died 9 July 1924 in Washington County, Tennessee, at the National Sanatorium of tuberculosis pulmonary chronic. [10, 13]
Eugene K Barnes, 1887 - 1924, is buried with his parents at Waverly Hall Cemetery, Waverly, Harris County, Georgia. [3]

After his death Mr & Mrs M F Barnes and Mrs Knox Barnes thanked their friends for the cards, gifts, etc, during their bereavement for the loss of their son and husband Eugene Knox Barnes. [11]

General Notes: In 1880 Louisa Simpson is living in Valley Plains district in Harris County, Georgia, with her brother Robert and his family. Louisa is 18 (born about 1862). Since her mother Mary Terry Simpson died in 1857, the age on this census is inaccurate. Louisa would have been 25 in 1880. [1]

In 1900 Louise Simpson is living in Atlanta, Georgia, with her sister Mary and brother-in-law Morgan Barnes. Louise is 45. [2]

In 1920 Louie Simpson is living in Cobb County with her sister Mary and brother-in-law Morgan Barnes. She is 65. [4]

Louie Patterson Simpson, daughter of Leonard Simpson and Mary Terry, died on 12 May 1923 of apoplexy at about the age of 66. She was buried in Wavery Hall, Georgia. [3]

Margaret married Adger Silliman Ellison,²⁸¹ son of John A Ellison²³¹ and Elizabeth D Patterson,²⁸² on 25 Oct 1850.²²⁴

Adger was born on 29 Mar 1827 in South Carolina,²⁸³ died on 11 Jan 1911 in Harris County, Georgia²⁸⁴ at age 83, and was buried in Ellerslie Cemetery, Ellerslie, Harris County, Georgia. Other names for Adger were Adjer Ellerson and Adjer Sullivan Ellison.²⁸⁵ They had 11 children: Mary Jane

Descendants of unknown Terry

Terry, Stephen Terry, John Terry, Margaret J., Adger S, Lula Cook, Frederick T., Sarah C., Susan R., Elizabeth Patterson "Bessie," and James Edward.

Marriage Notes: Adger and Margaret were first cousins - their mothers Sarah Patterson Terry and Elizabeth Patterson Ellison were sisters.

Two additional children may have died in infancy or early childhood. Their deaths are listed in the Patterson/Terry Family Bible pages. They are Sarah E. Ellison, died June 20, 1853, and Elizabeth T. Ellison, died April 1, 1854. Another child named Frederick is listed on the 1870 Census as 1 year old. This would be a second child named Frederick in addition to the one in the Ellerslie Cemetery who died in 1869 at age 2.

These children would mean Adger and Margaret had about 14 children.

Noted events in their marriage were:

- Alt. Marriage: 1855.²⁸⁰

General Notes: Adger's name came from the surnames of two of his father's brothers-in-law - James Adger married to Sarah Ellison, and John H Silliman married to Elizabeth Milligan, sister of Susannah Milligan, John's first wife. [1] His middle name was also reported as Sullivan [5]

In the 1850 Census, Adger (Edger Ellerson on the Census) is living in District 23 of Talbot County, GA, with his sister Jane and her husband James M Davis. He is 22 years old and lists real estate valued at $2000 or $3000.

In the 1860 Census, Adger (listed as A S Ellotson) is living in District 782, Harris County, GA, just one census page away from his in-laws. He is 32 years old, born in South Carolina. Living with him is his wife M A?, age 28 & born in South Carolina, and children Mary, Stephen, and John, all born in Georgia. Adger lists the value of his real estate as $1600, and the value of his personal estate as $1185. He has 16 slaves, age 3 months to 38 years. They live in 4 slave houses.

A.S. Ellison is listed on the 3rd Georgia Calavary, Company C muster roll dated April 1, 1861. Also on the list is his brother Job, and J.E. Ellison, probably his brother Jim or Joseph. Brother-in-laws John, Thomas (James Polk Terry), and Fred Terry also joined Company C. The 1st lieutenant is W. H. Ellison. [6]

Muster roll dated Nov & Dec 1863, A S Ellison (enlisted 13 Aug 1863 at Talbotton) is a private in the 3rd Georgia Cavalry, Company C. He is absent without leave and has received a certificate for being sick. In Nov & Dec 1864, A S Ellison is "present". [7]

Adger Ellison owned the Ellison Cotton Press in Ellerslie, Harris Co, Georgia. The cotton press was built in the 1830's and was one of the largest and last in the area. The press was copied for the movie "Gone with the Wind." [2]

In the 1870 Census, Adger Ellison (Edger S Ellison on the Census) is 42 years old, and a farmer living in Harris County, Georgia. He was born in South Carolina. Living with him are his wife Margaret, age 37, born in Georgia, and their children Mary, 15, Stephen, 12, John, 10, Maggie, 8, Lula, 4, and Frederick, 1. All the children were born in Georgia. Frederick may be another child born between Sarah and Susan. Another child named Frederick died in 1869. Adger lists the value of his real estate as $5500, and his personal estate as $2000.

In the 1880 Census (www.familysearch.org), Adger S. Ellison, age 51, is a farmer living in Ellerslie, Harris county, Georgia, with his wife Margaret, age 48, and 5 of their children. Adger lists his birthplace as Georgia, and his father and mother's birthplaces as South Carolina and Ireland, respectively. Margaret also lists her father and mother's birthplaces as South Carolina and Ireland. The children are John, age 20, Maggie, age 17, Loula, age 13, Bessie, age 5, and James, age 4. Also in the household is a female, mulatto servant, Zude Williams, age 12.

In the 1900 Census, Adger is living in the Ellerslie District of Harris County. He is 72 years old, widowed, born in March 1827 in South Carolina. Living with him are his daughter Maggie (on the Census her age is 16; it should be 39), son James, age 24, and Bessie, age 23. Adger and James are farmers.

In November 1905, there was a large crowd at the train depot in Ellerslie waiting for the train. Adger apparently decided to walk on the tracks toward the on-coming train. It was approaching faster than he thought and he was unable to get out of it's way. Adger fell and was run over by the train, losing both feet just above the ankle. He was quickly put on the train and taken to the hospital in Columbus. Adger stayed in the hospital for several weeks, returning after Christmas 1905. [3, 4]

In the 1910 Census, Adger is living in Ellerslie with his son James. He is 83 years old and widowed. Also in the house is a sick nurse (her name was unclear). She is caring for Adger, who lost his feet in a train accident 5 years earlier and died the following year in 1911.

In his 1901 will, Adger made provision for S T Ellison, John T Ellison and Loula Pitts. He also made "provisions for the unmarried ones that have remained with me (to wit) Margaret & Besse E & James E Ellison", although later in the will he refers to Bessie Mrs W E Floyd. Adger added two codicils to his will in 1907 and 1910 to make special provisions for his daughter Mrs Maggie T Long. In the second codicil, Adger provided that all the property he had originally willed to her be held for her benefit & income throughout her life and at her death it reverted to Adger's estate to be equally divided between his other children.

General Notes: In the 1900 Census, John is living in the Ellerslie District of Harris County, Georgia. He lists his occupation as grocer. He is 33 years old, born August 1866 in Georgia. Living with his is his wife Susy, age 32, born March 1867 in Georgia. They have been married 9 years, and Mary has no living or deceased children.

In the 1910 Census, John T Ellison is living in the Ellerslie District of Harris County on the Columbus Road. He is 48 (?) years old and a merchant selling general merchandise. Living with him is his wife Susie, 40. They have been married 12 years and have no children.

John T Ellison of Ellerslie, died 17 October 1919 at Branner's San[itarium] in Atlanta, Cobb County, Georgia, of general paresis. General paresis is a very debilitating neuropsychiatric disorder of the brain and central nervous system resulting in dementia and paralysis. It is a result of long-term syphilis disease. General Notes: On the marriage record for Maggie and Jim Long, Maggie's name looks like "Maggie Frank Ellison".

In the 1910 Census, Maggie Long is living in Ellerslie, Harris Co, Georgia, with her brother James and his family. She is 50 years old and married for 2 years. Her husband is not living with her on the census. Maggie may have been separated from her husband or staying in Ellerslie in 1910 due to the lingering illness of her father who lost his feet in a train accident in 1905.

At the time of her father Adjer's death in 1911, Mrs J W Long was living in Columbus, Muscogee County, Georgia. [1]

In his 1901 will, Maggie's father Adjer Ellison made provision for S T Ellison, John T Ellison and Loula Pitts. He also made "provisions for the unmarried ones that have remained with me (to wit) Margaret & Besse E & James E Ellison". Adjer added two codicils to his will in 1907 and 1910 to make special provisions for his daughter Mrs Maggie T Long. In the second codicil, Adjer provided that all the property he had originally willed to her be held for her benefit & income throughout her life and at her death it reverted to Adjer's estate to be equally divided between his other children.

From a reading of the will and a review of the 1910, 1920, & 1930 Censuses, I believe Maggie's marriage to Jim Long quickly disintegrated, and her father wanted to make sure she was provided for, and that Jim did not have access to her share of Adjer's estate. Jim & Maggie were probably divorced between 1910 and 1920, even though the 1920 Census shows her as widowed.

Descendants of unknown Terry

In the 1920 Census, Maggie Long is living in Waverly Hall, Harris Co, Georgia, with her sister Lula Pitts and her husband (W J H Pitts & Mrs W J H Pitts on the census). She is 55 and widowed. In the 1930 Census, Maggie Long is still living in Waverly Hall with her sister and brother-in-law. She is 67 and single.

Magaret's gravestone in the Ellerslie Cemetery has her maiden name. [2]

6-Bessie Irene Pitts³⁰⁰ was born on 27 Aug 1889 in Waverly Hall, Harris County, Georgia,²⁶⁴ died on 17 Oct 1907 in Waverly Hall, Harris County, Georgia³⁰⁵ at age 18, and was buried in Waverly Hall Cemetery, Waverly Hall, Harris County, Georgia.³⁰⁶ Another name for Bessie was Bessie Pitts.²⁵³

General Notes: Miss Bessie Pitts, the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Pitts, of Waverly Hall, died at her home there on last Thursday morning, after an illness of typhoid fever.

Miss Pitts was well known in Talbotton and Talbot County and the news of her sad death was received with much regret. She was only seventeen years of age, and it was particularly sad that one so young in years, full of the joy of life, should be called to another world. She was a young lady of charming manner and numbered her friends by the score.

She is survived by her parents, one sister and one brother. The funeral took place on Friday and was largely attended. Mr. and Mrs. Pitts and family have the sincere sympathy of their many friends in Talbotton and Talbot County in their deep sorrow.

General Notes: In 1860 James A Stewart and his wife Sarah C are living in Barbour County, Alabama. James is 24, born about 1836 in Georgia, and a farmer. He owns personal property worth $100. Sarah C is 20 and born in Georgia. Sarah is actually 26. With them is their daughter Sarah, age 4 months, and born in Alabama. [1]

Sarah died in September 1867, about 7 months after the birth of her youngest child John.

[1] 1860 US Census, Beat #3 (near Midway), Barbour Co, AL, page 152

Sarah married James Alphonse Stewart,¹⁵⁴ son of John Daniel Stewart and Olivia Cephalie DeLaunay, on 17 Dec 1858 in Harris County, Georgia.³⁶³ James was born on 8 Dec 1835 in Columbus, Muscogee County, Georgia,¹⁵⁴ died on 1 Apr 1911 in Lake Butler, Bradford County, Florida¹⁵⁴ at age 75, and was buried in Midway Cemetery, Bullock County, Alabama.¹⁵⁴ Another name for James was James A Stewart.³⁶⁴ They had four children: Sara Terry, Cephalie Olivia, Mary Virginia, and John Baker.

Marriage Notes: From Lena Terry's notebook, Sarah and James children were:

Sarah P

Ceph Lie - m. King

Mary Virginia - m. "

John Baker

Noted events in their marriage were:

- Alt. Marriage: 21 Dec 1858.¹⁵⁴

General Notes: James is the son of John Daniel Stewart and Olivia Cephalie DeLaunay. [1]

Descendants of unknown Terry

After the death of his first wife Sarah Terry, James married Mary Elizabeth Crawford about 1868. [1]

In 1870 James Stewart is living in Midway, Bullock County [formerly Barbour], Alabama. He is 35, a farmer, and born in Georgia. He owns real estate valued at $8000 and personal property valued at $2000. With him are his wife Mary, 25, born in Mississippi, daughter Catherine [Cephalie], 8, Mary, 5, John, 3, and Henry, 8 months. Henry is the son of James & Mary. Oldest daughter Sarah must have been visiting relatives at the time the census was taken as she is not listed with the family. [2]

In 1880 James A Stewart is living in the Enon area, Bullock County, Alabama. He is 44, a farmer, and born in Georgia as were his parents. Living with him are his wife Mary E, 39, born in Mississippi, her parents in Georgia, James children from his first marriage Sarah T, 19, Cephalie, 18, Mary, 16, and John B, 13, and James's and Mary's children Jenry J, 10, Irene, 7, and Emily, 5. [3]

Although it has been reported that James & Mary had a daughter named Jennie [1], Jennie is probably Mary Virginia, James & Sarah's daughter. The age of Jennie on the 1900 census corresponds to Mary Virginia.

In 1900 James A Stewart is living in Midway, Bullock County, Alabama. He is 64 and a farmer. Living with him are his wife Mary, 50?, born Dec 1849?, Sallie, 40, born Dec 1859, Jennie, 36, born May 1864, and Irene, 30?. Mary has had 3 children and they are all living. The ages and birthdates were difficult to read on this census. [4]

In 1910 James A Stewart and his wife Mary are living with their son Henry J Stewart and his family in Lake Butler, Bradford County, Florida. James is 74, Mary 69, and they have been married 41 years. [5]

4-Stephen Alexander Terry was born on 9 Dec 1835 in Georgia,⁴²² died on 8 Mar 1912 in Georgia⁶ at age 76, and was buried in Terry Family Cemetery, Harris County, Georgia. He had no relationships and no children.

Descendants of unknown Terry

General Notes: In the 1860 Census, Stephen and his brother John D Terry are living and farming in District 689 (Flint Hill) in Talbot County, Georgia. They are living 2 houses away from their aunt and uncle Jane Patterson Ellison and James Ellison. The value of Stephen's real estate is $718. There is no amount for his personal estate, and it may be combined with the amount listed for John. Stephen owns 4 slaves ranging in age from 7 months to 23 years. They live in 1 slave house.

Stephen M Terry is listed on a transcription for the Georgia Volunteer Infantry, 4th Regiment, Company A, as a private April 26, 1861. He was furloughed at Camp Jackson, Richmond, VA, for 20 days from Dec 4, 1861. No record after that. Company A was the first volunteer troops from Talbot County.

Stephen A Terry enlisted in Company K [Harris Co Guards], 35th Regiment Georgia Infantry on 28 Novemebr 1864 at ___ son, Georgia. [The 35th was already engaged in Virginia at the Siege of Petersburg.] Stephen was listed on the muster roll of January/February 1865. He was present and due pay from his enrollment. Stephen was captured on 2 April 1865 at Petersburg, Virginia, and was imprisoned at Point Lookout, Maryland. [General R E Lee surrendered a few days later at Appomattox Court House. The 35th was present at the Appomattox Campaign.] Stephen A Terry, resident of Harris County, Georgia, signed the Oath of Allegiance to the United States at Point Lookout on 21 June 1865, and was released. Stephen had lost his right eye. [2]

The Disabled or Invalid Soldiers Roll for Harris County lists S. A. Terry, Co K, 35 Ga, 7-1864, Age. [1]

In the 1870 Census, Stephen is 34 years old and living in Harris County, Georgia, in his father's house. He was born in Georgia, and is a farmer.

In the 1880 Census (www.familysearch.org), Stephen is living and farming in Milners Cross Roads, Harris county, GA, with his father S D Terry.

According to his brother John's daughter Lillie's records from Bryce Hospital for the insane, completed by John's son William in 1907, John had an older brother afflicted like Lillie. I suspect this may have been Stephen.

In the 1900 & 1910 Census, Stephen is living in the house of his step-mother Sarah Terry in Milners Cross Roads. On the 1910 Census, his occupation is "none", and he is a survivor of the Confederate Army.

General Notes: Lena Terry's notebook lists James Polk Terry's nickname as Tom.

Descendants of unknown Terry

In the 1860 Census, J P Terry is living in Harris county with his parents. He is a farmer. The value of his real estate is $900, and his personal estate is valued at $6300.

James P Terry was mustered in to the 3rd Georgia Cavalry, Company C, on 28 Apr 1862 at Talbotton. He traveled on his own horse (value $275) to the rendezvous at Columbus, Georgia. In Dec 1862, J P Terry received $160 for the use of his own clothing and horse from 28 Apr thru 1 Nov 1862. [4]

The Disabled or Invalid Soldiers Roll for Harris County lists J. P. Terry, Co C, 3rd Ga, 4-1862. Soldiers Home 1905. [1]

In the 1870 Census James P Terry is living in Harris County, Georgia. He is 32 years old, and a farmer. He is living in the household of his brother John. James lists the value of his real estate at $825 and his personal estate as $1150.

In the 1880 Census, James P Terry is living in Valley Plains, Harris County, Georgia, next door to Robert Simpson (probably his nephew). He is 42 years old, widowed, and born in Georgia. His father was born in South Carolina, and his mother in Ireland.

In the 1900 Census, James Terry is living in the Waverly Hall District of Harris County. He is 65 years old, born in March 1835 in Georgia. His parents were born in South Carolina and Ireland. The census was difficult to read, but he appeared to be a doctor. Living with him was his son Ellison J Terry. Ellison is 27 years old, born May 1873 in Georgia. He is an insurance agent.

James may have been living in Fulton County, Georgia, in 1905-1906, when in January 1906 he appeared in court to swear on his brother Fred's behalf that his statement of service during the Civil War was true. The statement he signed stated he was a resident of Georgia and Fulton County. Fred was applying for a Confederate pension. [2]

In the 1910 Census, Tom Terry is living in the Milners Cross Roads District of Harris County. He is 74 years old, widowed, and a farm laborer. He is living in the household of Zachery T Jordan and his sister Susie Jordan. Tom is a survivor of the Confederate Army.

Thomas Terry, ex-Confederate soldier, age 78, died Monday, 29 December 1913, in Waverly Hall at the home of N. C. Carlisle. He was survived by one son, J. E. Terry of New York. [3]

James married Frances Brewer Freeman, daughter of M B Freeman and Eliza E Griffin, on 1 Nov 1871 in Harris County, Georgia.⁴²⁴ Frances was born on 15 Apr 1853 in Meriwether County, Georgia, died on 29 Oct 1877 in Harris County, Georgia⁴²⁵ at age 24, and was buried in Waverly Hall Cemetery, Waverly Hall, Harris County, Georgia.²⁵³ Other names for Frances were Fannie and Fannie Trewer. They had two children: James Ellison and Benson.

Marriage Notes: Married by Rev. W. F. Robison, on 1st Nov., 1871, Mr. J. P. Terry to Miss Fannie B. Freeman, of Harris co., Ga. [1]

Lena Terry's notebook appears to list two children for Tom & Fannie - James Patterson and Benson.

[1] Marriage Notices from The Southern Christian Advocate, 1867-1878, Issue of November 22, 1871

General Notes: Lena Terry (or Katie Griffin Terry) identified Tom's wife as Fannie Trewer. Based on marriage & death notices, tombstone, and the census, I believe Tom's wife was Frances Brewer Freeman.

Fannie's father was M B Freeman and her mother was Eliza E Griffin. Eliza's father was E B Griffin and her mother was Flora Frances. After Fannie's father died between 1850 & 1860, Eliza, her children, her mother, and at least two of her brothers moved to neighboring Harris County.

Mrs. Fannie B. Perry [s.b. Terry - CAR], daughter of M. B. and E. E. Freeman, was born in Meriwether county, Ga., April 16, 1853; died in Harris county, Ga., October 29th 1877. She was married November 1st 1871 to Mr. J. P. Terry [sic] [1]

In the Waverly Hall Cemetery in Harris County, Georgia, is Fannie Brewer, wf of James R Terry, b. Jun 15 1853, died Oct 29, 1877. [2]
The actual marker reads April 15 1853. [3]

After Fannie's death in 1877, her son Ellison Terry went to live with his grandmother Eliza Griffin Freeman, Eliza's brother William C Griffin, and Eliza & William's mother (Ellison's great-grandmother) Flora Frances (maiden name unknown) Griffin Copeland. After the death of her husband E B Griffin, Flora had re-married a man named Copeland between 1860 & 1870. Mr. Copeland had died by 1870.

Descendants of unknown Terry

General Notes: In the 1880 Census, Ellison Terry is 5 years old and living in the house of his great-uncle William C Griffin in Waverly Hall, Harris Co, Georgia. William is 31, born abt 1849 in Georgia. He is a farmer. In the house is William's sister Eliza Freeman (Ellison's grandmother) and their mother Frances Copeland (Ellison's great-grandmother).

In the 1900 Census, Ellison J Terry is living with his father James Terry in the Waverly Hall District of Harris County. He is 27 years old, born May 1873 in Georgia. He is an insurance agent.

When his father died in December 1913, Ellison was listed in his obituary as living in New York City. [5]

In December 1915 J Ellison Terry was visiting his aunt Mrs J M Griffin in Waverly Hall, Harris County, Georgia, from his home in New York City. [2] Ellison was in Harris County to finalize the purchase of land from his grandfather Stephen D Terry's estate. His cousin S T [Steven Terry] Ellison was executor of the estate. [3]

In 1915/1916/1917 Jas E Terry, mfrs (manufacturer's) agent is working at 43 Leonard and making his home at 1078 Prospect pl, Bkn (Brooklyn, New York). [1]

In 1917 he could also be J Ellison Terry, salesman, Tortal Broadhust Lee Co, res. Strand Hotel. [1]

In 1918/19 James Ellison Terry, born May 3 1874, registered for the WWI draft in New York City (Manhattan). He is living at 387 Farth Ave, NYC. He appeared to be selling insurance but the image was not clear. I have not been able to find him on a NY census for this time period. [CAR]

In 1930 J E Terry is living in Brooklyn, King's County, New York, on South Elliott Place. He is 56, born in Georgia, and a salesman. Ellison is a lodger along with seven others in a lodging house run by Minnie Gammond, 40, from Vermont, & widowed. [4] buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Bessemer, Jefferson County, Alabama. Another name for John was Jack.

General Notes: In the 1860 Census, John and his brother Stephen A Terry are living and farming in District 689 (Flint Hill) in Talbot County, Georgia. They are living 2 houses away from their aunt and uncle Jane Patterson Ellison and James Ellison. The value of John's real estate is $717, and his personal estate is $9090. John owns 5 slaves ranging in age from 7 months to 30 years. They live in 1 slave house. Some of the slaves are mullato, some are black.

"Grandpa was a character if I ever saw one. He used to entertain us by the hour, telling tall stories that happened to him as a boy and also during the Civil War. Grandma said nothing spectacular happened during the war, as he was captured almost immediately and put in Rock Island Prison. As I recall he had two brothers, Uncle Stephen and Uncle Tom. I remember seeing them both as a child. Grandpa told us one time that they as young boys were sent down to Wetumpka Ala. to a special school. Had to be taken by horse & buggy and after a weeks stay they decided to run away and come home because they didn't want to repeat the Lord's Prayer each morning." [Letter from Pauline Murrah Harding to Catharine Phillips Hager, January 30, 1961]

The Confederate Congress enacted the first conscription law in American history on April 16, 1862. The main purpose of the conscription law was to stimulate volunteering by threat of coercion rather than actual use. Potential draftees had 30 days to avoid the stigma of the draft by volunteering. Volunteers could join new regiments and elect their own officers just as the volunteers of 1861 had. Draftees would be assigned to existing regiments. [Battle Cry of Freedom by James McPherson, Chapter 14]

According to the Confederate Muster Rolls at the U.S. National Archives (Company C, 3rd Georgia Calvary):

Private John D. Terry, age 22, mustered in April 28, 1862, Talbuton, GA, for 3 years. Brought horse valued at $275 and horse equipment at $30. Traveled 32 miles to point of rendezvous after joining.

war. Third Calvary - Gen. Wheeler; under Colonel Thompson, Capt. Henry Persans, First Lieut. Leonard World. Captured in Tenn. Dec. 1863 imprisoned at Rock Island Ill, Exchanged March 1865. [Lena Terry's notebook]

Jack Terry, Jr., was born in Harris county, Georgia, in 1842, grew up and married there and as a young man entered the service of the Confederacy as a member of the Third Georgia Regiment of Cavalry in Fighting Joe Wheeler's command. He acted as courier to General Wheeler at the battles of Lookout Mountain and Missionary Ridge and all the fights around Atlanta in which that great cavalry leader took part. After the war he returned to Oak Mountain Springs, and lived for many years on the old homestead which he inherited from his father. [History of Alabama and Her People, 1927 - listing for Lucius Lamar Terry, Vol III]

When John Terry was serving in the Confederacy during the Civil War he came upon a Yankee general in the woods. Both men took a shot at each other and missed. The Yankee soldiers, on hearing the shots, came and captured John. He was confined for the rest of the war as a prisoner-of-war in Illinois. [Joe Terry, son of Ellis Griffin Terry, to Catherine Reuther on a visit to the Terry Family cemetery in October 1987.]

Interestingly enough, a Confederate woman soldier was incarcerated at Rock Island, IL, POW camp while John was there. In April 1864 she gave birth to a baby boy. [They Fought Like Demons-Women Soldiers in the American Civil War by DeAnne Blanton & Lauren Cook, 2002]

Phoebe Yates Pember, Matron of Chimborazo Hospital in Richmond, VA, on the prisoners exchanged in the summer of 1864 - "Can any pen or pencil do justice to those squalid pictures of famine and desolation? Those gaunt, lank skeletons with the dried yellow flesh clinging to bones enlarged by dampness and exposure? Those pale, bluish lips and feverish eyes, glittering and weird when contrasted with famine-stricken faces, - that flitting, piteous, scared smile which greeted their fellow creatures, all will live forever before the mental vision that then witnessed it." [The War the Women Lived - Female Voices from the Confederate South edited by Walter Sullivan, 1995]

According to Catharine Phillips Hager [to Catherine Reuther May 30, 1988], John Terry caught T.B. in the prisoner-of-war camp during the War Between the States. Many of his children died from T.B. and his wife, Mary Catherine Griffin, became a carrier. Catharine remembers they would secretly wash Mary Catherine's food dishes separately from everyone else's to keep from spreading T.B.

In the 1870 Census, John and Katie are living in Harris County, Georgia. John is 29, a farmer, and Katie is 17. They were just married that year in May. Living with them is John's brother James. John lists the value of his real estate as $1000, and his personal estate as $400. Just a few households and one page away on the Census are their parents.

In the 1880 Census (www.familysearch.org), Jackson Terry, age 42 (born about 1838), and his wife Mary, age 22 (born about 1858), are living at Milners Cross

Descendants of unknown Terry

Roads, Harris county, Georgia with their five children. Jackson is a farmer, born in Georgia. His father was born in South Carolina and his mother in Ireland. Their children are Mary P., age 9, Stephen, age 7, Willie, age 6, Maggie, age 5, and John S., age 1.

In the 1900 Census, John's wife Mary is listed as the head of the household. She is a farmer. Living with them are six of their 10 children. Oldest daughter Mary Patterson Terry Murrah died the year before. William & John have left home, and Ellis may be away at school. Living with them are children Stephen, a farm laborer, Maggie, a teacher, Lila (Eliza), Frederick, a farm laborer, Lucius, and Lina (Lena). Also living with them are 4 of their 5 grandchildren - Pauline, Lucille, George, and Maggie Murrah.

According to John's daughter Lillie's records from Bryce Hospital, completed by his son William in 1907, John had been addicted to alcohol for 20 years. He had used tobacco since he was a boy. He did not have consumption (T.B.), but he did suffer from dyspepsia, and had never been a strong man.

In 1900, removing to Bessemer, Alabama, he became head of the Terry Brothers Company, conducting a large supply house and doing a general loan business. He lived at Bessemer until his death in 1910. He was a democrat and a very active member of the Baptist Church. [History of Alabama and Her People, 1927 - listing for Lucius Lamar Terry, M.D.]

John retired to Bessemer, AL, in 1900, and died there in 1907 at age 67. [History of Alabama and Her People, 1927 - listing for Ellis Griffin Terry]

General Notes: Katie, as Mary Catherine was known, was 12 year old when the family home was pillaged by Union troops under the command of General James Wilson, known as "Wilson's Raiders". It was one week after General Robert E. Lee's surrender to General Grant on April 9, 1865, that these troops sacked Columbus, GA, and began their pillaging and plundering march to Maco

Residents of the area had a splendid news relay system, and Katie's mother Mary Carter Griffin received word to expect a "visit". She and a neighbor lady put their heads together and decided to take their families and what valuables they could gather and hide out. They thought they would have a day or two to prepare. Mary C. Griffin packed several trunks, a hamper of food, and had the Negroes tether the livestock in a thicket about a mile from the house. The trunks were carried by wagon, along with Grandmother Carter [Mary Wilkes Carter], who was not well and about 75 years old, and little Katie.

Just as Mary Griffin and the Negroes who stayed to help were ready to leave, a very excited neighbor rode into the yard to advise her to put everything back and stay in the house. Union troops had visited a home where a similar plan had been followed and had burned everything in sight, and after finding the family members, had inflicted physical injury. The tale he told was reminiscent of the Indian raids experienced by early settlers.

After a few stunned moments, Mary Griffin sent a couple of Negroes to fetch the trunks and livestock, but gave instructions for her mother Mary W. Carter, Katie, and one Negro woman to remain in hiding. Mary Carter insisted on returning, and young Katie who had a mind of her own, would not be left behind. Mary Griffin was trying to persuade her mother and daughter to return to hiding when the Yankees arrived.

Seeing the packed trunks, the troops assumed they had arrived just in time to prevent an "escape". The leader gave a "plundering permission" and ordered a big meal prepared for them. From the hamper she had prepared earlier, Mary Griffin had a baked ham and soon prepared other food. The men grabbed the food and wolfed it down like animals, then threw the ham bone on the floor. Katie proceeded to tell off the soldiers in no uncertain terms. For a moment the men were speechless, but then one of the soldiers started laughing and the others joined in. Instead of punishing Katie, they threw food and dishes on the floor, stuffed silver in their pockets, knocked out windows, and overturned furniture.

The house was ransacked. What they didn't take was damaged or destroyed. Then the troops had the Negroes round up the horses and mules, among them Mary Griffin's prized mare. One after another, the soldiers tried and failed to ride Mary Griffin's horse, and decided to have some fun by requiring the Negroes to try. Then, with the exception of "Old Bob", the Carter-Griffin Negroes were ordered to fall in line and go with the troops. A more forlorn and mournful procession of Negroes was never seen. [3]

Descendants of unknown Terry

According to Katie's daughter Lillie's records from Bryce Hospital, completed by her son William in 1907, Katie had nervous headaches, and had suffered from lung trouble for 18 years.

In the 1910 Census, Katharine Terry is living in Bessemer, Alabama, at 1430 Berkley Avenue. She is 56 and widowed. Living with her are her children Stephen, 36, William, 34, Luscius, 21, Lena, 18, and grandchildren Pauline, 18, Lucille, 16, George, 14, and Maggie, 12. Son Ellis and his wife are living only a few census pages away.

In 1920 Mary Terry is living in Belton, Bell County, Texas, with her daughter Lena. Mary is 56 (should be 66) and widowed. She was born in Georgia, as was her father. Her mother was born in South Carolina. Mary and Lena are boarding with Edward Whaler and his family. [1]

Mary lived at Columbia, South Carolina. [History of Alabama and Her People, 1927 - listings for Ellis Griffin Terry & Lucius Lamar Terry, Vol III] She was probably living with her daughter Lena, who was on the faculty of Columbia College at Columbia, South Carolina, at the time the "History" was written.

In the 1930 Census, Mary is living in Walker County, Alabama, with her son Lucius L Terry and his family. Lucius is a doctor, and appears to be living and working at a coal mine.

Katie always wore a long black dress in her later years. She was living with her son Steve in McComb, Mississippi, when she died. [2]

Mary Catherine died on a Thursday night at her home in McComb, Pike County, Mississippi. She was living on Fernwood Street. Her son Fred Terry is listed as the "informant" on her death certificate. Her cause of death was pyelitis, an inflammation of the renal pelvis, the central part of the kidney where urine accumulates before discharge. It is caused by bacterial infection. [4]

Anne married Arthur Burt Harding,⁴⁴⁴ son of Arthur Pawley Harding and Priscilla Crofts, on 19 Jul 1917 in Bessemer, Jefferson County, Alabama.⁴⁴⁵ Arthur was born on 1 Dec 1890 in Leicester, Leicestershire, England,⁴⁴⁶ died on 8 Oct 1964 in Northampton Township, Bucks County, Pennsylvania⁴⁴² at age 73, and was buried on 10 Oct 1964 in Union Cemetery, Richboro, Bucks County, Pennsylvania.⁴⁴³ The cause of his death was coronary artery occlusion. They had two children: Arthur Burt and John Murrah.

General Notes: Arthur Burt Harding's birth was registered in the 1st quarter (Jan - Mar) 1891 in Leicester district, Leicestershire county, England. [5] He was actually born in December 1890, but his birth was not registered until a month later. His parents were married earlier that year in Leicester.

On 9 April 1903 Arthur Burt Harding left Liverpool, England, on the ship Mayflower, with his parents Arthur Pawley Harding and Priscilla. They arrived in Boston, Massachusetts, on 19 April 1903. All were born in Leicester and were headed to Philadelphia. Father Arthur was 36 years old and a hosiery hand. Priscilla was 34. Also traveling with them

was Edgar Harding, 21 and a painter, and his wife Kate Lily, 21, also from Leicester. [3] Kate is Kate Lily Robinson. [5]

On May 20 1917, Arthur Burt Harding registered for the World War I draft in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Arthur was born 1 December 1890 in Leicester, England. He is working as a construction engineer for US Cast Iron Pipe & Fndry Co in Burlington, New Jersey. He is single and living at 3312 Smedley in Philadelphia. [1]

In 1920 (Census date 2 January) Arthur B Harding and wife Pauline are living in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, with his parents Arthur P Harding and Purcella. The Hardings immigrated in 1903 and were naturalized in 1908. Arthur B Harding is a civil engineer in construction.

Arthur Harding visited Bessemer, Alabama, often in his work for US Cast Iron Pipe & Foundry Co (they had a plant in Bessemer). It was on those visits that he met Pauline Murrah. [8]

In the 1920 Census (9 January), Burt Harding is living in Bessemer, Alabama. He is 29 years old, born in England, and is an engineer in a pipe shop(?). Living with him is his wife Pauline, age 27. Burt immigrated in 1905, but his year of naturalization was not clear.

Burt Harding was a constructing engineer for the United States Cast Iron Pipe Company at Philadelphia. [2]

In the 1930 Census, Arthur B Harding is living in Beverly, Burlington Co, New Jersey. He is 39 years old, born in England, and an engineer in the buidling industry. Arthur immigrated to the US in 1905, and is a naturalized citizen. Living with him are his wife A. Pauline, age 38, and their sons, Arthur B, Jr, age 9, and John M, age 7.

In 1940 A B Harding is living in Beverly, New Jersey. He is 49, a mechanical engineer, apparently with his own business. Arthur owns his own home worth $5000. With his is wife Pauline, 48, and sons Arthur B, 19, and John N, 17. [7]

Arthur Harding was born 1 Dec 1890 and died Oct 1964. His last residence was in Pennsylvania. [6]

6-Lucille Murrah was born on 3 Sep 1893 in Shiloh, Harris County, Georgia,⁴⁶⁶ died on 17 Feb 1966 in Gasden, Alabama⁴⁶⁷ at age 72, and was buried in Maple Hill Cemetery, Huntsville, Alabama.⁴⁶⁸ The cause of her death was stroke.⁴⁶⁹ Another name for Lucille was Mary Lucille Murrah.⁴⁶⁹

General Notes: In the 1920 Census, Lucille is living in Bessemer, Alabama, in the house of her uncle Ellis G Terry. She is 25 years old [should be abt 27], and a bookkeeper in a shop, perhaps her uncle's shop. The type of shop was unclear on the census.

Lucille and Tom were visiting or living with her father Charles Murrah in Shiloh, Georgia, when their first child William was born in 1922. [1]

While her children were young, Lucille, who was a teacher of adult education, took classes over the summers at Montavallo. She would leave her children at her uncle Ellis G Terry's in Bessemer where he and his wife Lula would take care of them. [1]

In later years, Lucille lived with daughter Mary, then for the last years of her life at a nursing home in Gasden, Alabama, as there was no nursing home in Huntsville that she liked and that could take care of her as she was very overweight. [1]

Lucille Phillips was born 03 Sep 1893 and died Feb 1966. Her last residence was in Gadsden, Etowah Co, Alabama. [2]

Lucille married Thomas Russell Phillips I,⁴⁷⁰ son of Jeremiah Solavin Phillips and Elizabeth Dulane Toler, on 30 Mar 1920 in Bessemer, Jefferson County, Alabama.⁴⁶⁹ Thomas was born on 30 Dec 1885 in Cedartown, Polk County, Georgia,⁴⁷¹ died on 17 Jan 1952 in Memphis, Shelby County, Tennessee⁴⁷² at age 66, and was buried in Maple Hill Cemetery, Huntsville, Alabama.⁴⁶⁸ The cause of his death was lung cancer.⁴⁶⁹ They had three children: William Edward "Bill," Mary Terry, and Thomas Russell.

General Notes: Thomas was the son of Elizabeth Dulane Toler and Jeremiah Solavin Phillips. Jeremiah was a minister. [1]

Thomas's first wife was Margaret. They divorced (or the marriage was perhaps annulled) 23 July 1917. According to the family story, Thomas married a physician's daughter to give her baby a name. Thomas was chauffeur for the physician. [1]

In June 1917, Thos Russel Phillips is living in Anniston, Calhoun County, Alabama. He is an automobile mechanic working for Sneed Auto Sales Co. Thomas is single. He was born 30 December 1886 in Cedartown [Polk County], Georgia. Thomas claims exemption from the WWI draft because he was "unable to pass the Naval examination". [3]

Thomas joined the US Army on 8 August 1918, and was discharged on 7 December 1918. He was in Co. D, 87th Engineers at Fort Benjamin Harrison in Indiana. [1]

If Thomas and Lucille married when she was 25 (1930 Census) that would have them marrying about 1918. Lucille is single on the 1920 Census, so they probably married between 1920 and 1922 when son William was born.

Thomas was known for his bad temper. [1]

Thomas Phillips was an automobile dealer and garage operator at Huntsville, Alabama. [2]

In the 1930 Census, Thomas is living in Huntsville, Madison County, Alabama. He is 42 years old, born in Georgia, and an electrician in an automobile shop. Thomas is a veteran of the world war. Living with him are his wife Lucille M, age 33 [should be abt 37], and children William E, age 8, born in Georgia, Mary T, 6, born in Alabama, and Thomas R, Jr, 4, born in Alabama. Thomas lists his age at first marriage as 22, while Lucille lists her age as 25. Lucille is Thomas's second wife. [4]

Thomas's shop was in downtown Huntsville where the parking garage is today next to Big Spring park. Later the family moved to Monte Sano mountain where Thomas worked for the state park maintaining the big machinery for roads, buildings, and building trails. [1]

Thomas R Phillips was born 30 December 1886 in Cedartown, Georgia, to Jerry S Phillips and Elizabeth Tollar. He died 17 January 1952 at VAMTG Kennedy Hospital in Memphis, Tennessee, after a stay of 10 days of carcinoma of the lung. Thomas was married, resident of Huntsville, Alabama, and an automobile mechanic at the time of his death. He has suffered from the cancer for 8 months. [5]

General Notes: Bill was in the CCC (Civil Conservation Corp) in Talladega, Alabama from August through September 1941. [2]

William E Phillips enlisted in the Army for WWII service on 4 Sep 1942 in Fort McClellan, Alabama. He was born in 1922 in Georgia, and was living in Madison County, Alabama, when he enlisted. William had 4 years of high school, and was working as a "Airplane Fabric And Dope Worker or Chemist or Metallurgist". He is single. [1]

Bill was killed when his plane crashed in Canada while on his way home from Korea in 1952. [2]

On 19 January 1952 Northwest Orient Airlines Flight 324 from Tokyo to Elmendorf AFB in Anchorage, Alaska, diverted to Sandspit, British Columbia, Canada, when the No. 1 engine on the DC-4 shut down. It crashed into the Pacific Ocean one mile offshore after overshooting the runway during the emergency landing. A nose gear retraction difficulty in connection with an icing condition or a power loss, which made the aircraft incapable of maintaining flight. Most of the fatalities were from exposure to the frigid water. Of the 40 passengers and 3 crew members, only 7 passengers survived. [3]

General Notes: Frances was married and divorced from John Neeley at the time of her death. [1]

Frances was a kindergarten teacher in Woodville, Jackson County, Alabama. She was murdered at her home in Paint Rock by her neighbor Billy Ray Jones. He was convicted of her murder and is still in prison (2007). [1]

On the afternoon of 14 December 1981 Frances Neely [sic] was killed at her home in Paint Rock. A neighbor heard a shot, another neighbor entered the house, found her dead with much blood and signs of violence. The witness said she heard a sound like a gunshot and saw a masked person run by her and out the back door. A bullet had entered Frances's upper chest, there were marks and crushing wounds on her head that fractured her skull. She was found lying on a door of the house which had been pulled down from it hinges and was largely covered in blood. [2]

While in Jackson County Jail awaiting trial for her murder, Billy Ray Jones told a fellow inmate that he did not mean to kill Mrs Neely, that he only meant to have intercourse (insert vulgarity here) with her and he panicked. [2]

Jones was convicted of her murder and sentenced to life in prison. [2]

In 1983 he appealed for a new trial on several grounds, mostly related to inadequate counsel, but also on the grounds that the sentence constituted cruel and unusual punishment. The court did not find his appeal supported by the case he and his new lawyers presented. [2]

Noted events in their marriage were:

- Alt. Marriage: 14 Feb 1941, Iuka, Mississippi.⁴⁶⁹

General Notes: According to daughter Lue, Mac was born in either Reinzi, Mississippi, or Red Bay, Alabama.

Mac's real name was reportedly M. C. Thorn - no names to go with the initials. He supposedly had to pick a name when he went into the Army, so used Mac. [4] It is not known if this is correct or if his real name is Melvin, as he reported on his marriage license.

Mac's gravemarker shows his name as Melvin Clifton Thorn. [6]

In 1941, Melvin Clifton Thorn was 26, born 9 March 1914 in Mississippi, living in Huntsville, Alabama, and a leader in the CCC [Civilian Conservation Corps]. His parents were Charlie W Thorn and Mary Miller. [4]

Mac C Thorn, born 1914 in Mississippi, enlisted in the US Army on 23 Sep 1942 at Fort McClellan. He was living in Madison County, Alabama, had 2 years of high school and was married. [2]

Mac was stationed in Chelmsford, Essex, England, during the 1940's, possibly at Boreham airfield. [3]

Mac Thorn (9 Mar 1914 - 15 Nov 1980) enlisted in the US Army on 23 September 1942. He was released from the Army on 4 December 1945. [5]

General Notes: In January 1913, Mr. George Murrah returned home to Birmingham after a short visit to friends in the city [Columbus, GA]. [3]

In June 1917, George Terry Murrah was a student living at 1430 Berkely Avenue in Bessemer, Alabama, when he registered for the World War I draft. George was born September 21 1895 in Shiloh, Georgia.

In February 1918 G T Murrah of Bessemer was one of the "Auburn

Descendants of unknown Terry

men" [from Auburn University] at Camp Gordon, Georgia, who was promoted from second lieutenant to first lieutenant. [4]

George Terry Murrah is a veteran of the World war, enlisting as a private; attended the First Officers' Training School at Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia; was commissioned a second lieutenant, went to France with the Eighty-second Division and was overseas eighteen months, participating in the St. Mihiel and Meuse Argonne campaigns and being promoted to captain in France. [1]

St. Mihiel, south of Verdun, was the site of a major American victory over Germany on September 12, 1918.

Fred J. and Ellis G. Terry (George's uncles) and George Terry Murrah were members of the Terry Murrah Realty Company at Bessemer. [1]

George studied law at the University of Virginia. George and his wife may not have had any children. [2] They did raise Mary's niece Jacqueline Reynolds.

In the 1930 Census, George is living in Bessemer, Alabama, in the house of his father-in-law, Charles L Coker. He is 33 years old, married to Mary C Murrah. George is a special agent at an insurance company. Mary is 22, born in Alabama, and a stenographer in an insurance office. They do not have any children. Also in the home is Mary's niece Jacqueline Reynolds, 6. [7]

George moved to Montgomery, Alabama, about 1940. [6]

In 1940 Geo T Murrah is living in Montgomery. He is an assistant manager at US Fidelity & Guaranty Co. George has had 4 years of college. He worked 52 weeks in 1939 for $3600. Mary is also working. Also with them are [adopted] daughter Jacqueline Murrah and Mary's mother Mary Croker. [8, 9 (1940-1941)]

In the 1945 & 1946 city directory George is listed as "employed" by the USA (US Army). [9]

In 1947 George is the owner of the Murrah Agency, in General Insurance and Surety Bonds. [9 - 1947, 1950]

In 1957 George is a salesman with K T McLemore Co. [9]

Sometime prior to his death, George resided at the Montgomery Tuberculosis Sanitarium. [5] It is not known if he had TB, or was suffering from emphysema (on his death certificate) or some other debilitating condition requiring long term care. [CAR]

George Terry Murrah died 4 December 1965 at the USAF Hospital at Maxwell Air Force Base in Montgomery, Alabama. He died of an acute myocardial infarction due to arteriosclerotic heart disease. He also General Notes: In the 1920 Census, Maggie Murrah is living in Bessemer, Alabama, as a boarder in the house of E P Ray and his family. She is 23 years old, and is a cashier in a dry goods store.

In 1922 when nephew William Phillips was born in Shiloh, Georgia, Margaret Murrah was one of the visitors shortly after his birth. She was living in Bolton, Texas, at the time. [6] Also living in Bolton were Margaret's aunt Lena Terry and grandmother Katie Griffin Terry.

Margaret Murrah was a student in the college at Columbia, South Carolina. [1] Margaret probably enrolled at Columbia because her aunt Lena Catherine Terry was on the faculty there. About this time, her grandmother Katie Griffin Terry was also living there.

In 1926-1927 Margaret Murrah was Director & Coach of Athletics at Chowan College in Murphreesboro, North Carolina. Her aunt Lena Terry was Professor of Home Economics and cousin Catharine Phillips was a sophomore. [7]

In 1930 Randall and Margaret Browne are living in Tuscaloosa, Alabama. They are living in a rooming house owned by Bestty Robertson. Randall is a manager at a gas station and Margaret is a teacher. Both were at work when the census taker came by their home. Randall is 37 (should be 43) and Margaret is 32 (correct). They appear to have been married about 7 years. [2]

In 1935 Randall R & Margt Browne are living in Panama City, Florida.

6-Kathryn Murrah⁵²⁹ was born on 17 May 1899 in Harris County, Georgia, died on 24 Apr 1952 in San Diego County, California⁵³⁰ at age 52, and was buried in Ft. Rosecrans National Cemetery, San Diego, California.⁵³¹ Other names for Kathryn were Katie, Catherine Murrah,¹²⁷ Kate Murrah,⁴³⁵ and Katheryn Murrah.¹²⁷

General Notes: Kathryn's birth date has been variously listed as 19 May 1899 (Lucille Murrah Phillips), 17 May 1900 (Veterans Administration), and 17 May 1901 (California Death Index). As her mother died in October 1899, a date of May 1899 is more accurate, probably on the 17th as reported by the VA and California. 1899 is also supported by the 1910 & 1920 Censuses. [CAR - 2007]

Kate was raised by her aunt and uncle Joseph Florence and Georgia Murrah, sister of Charles Murrah. In the 1910 Census, Katie Murrah is 11 years old, born in Georgia, and living in Columbus, Muscogee County, Georgia, with Joseph T. Florence, 49, his wife Georgia, 47, and daughter Mary, 17. Joseph is a merchant in the retail industry. Joseph and Georgia have been married for 23 years, and Mary has born two children, only 1 is living.

Kate may have followed her aunt Lena Catherine Terry to Texas, and met her husband William there. Lena is believed to have taught home economics at Baylor Female College in Belton, Bell County, Texas. [CAR]

Kate completed one year of college. [6]

In May 1921, Mrs W P Driskell, Jr (the former Miss Kate Murrah of Columbus) and her son Joseph Florence of Waco, Texas, were visiting her uncle Mr Ed Murrah in Columbus, GA. [2]

In 1922 when nephew William Phillips was born in Shiloh, Georgia, (born in February) Mrs W P Driskell was one of the visitors shortly after his birth. She was living in El Paso, Texas, at the time. [5]

In October 1922, Mrs Driscoll [Driskell], the former Miss Kate Murrah, of Al Paso [El Paso], Texas, was visiting her father Mr Charlie Murrah in Shiloh, Georgia. [3]

In 1939 Katheryn Driskell worked 3 weeks for $30. [6]

In 1947 Mrs Kath. Driskell was manager of Green Apts in San Diego, where they also lived. [7]

Kathryn Driskell born 17 May 1900 or 1901 in Georgia died 24 April

Kathryn married William Parks Driskell,¹²⁷ son of William P Driskell and Eula Gregory, about 1919. William was born on 8 Nov 1896 in Waco, McLennan County, Texas,⁵³² died on 29 Oct 1960 in San Diego County, California⁵²⁹ at age 63, and was buried in Ft. Rosecrans National Cemetery, San Diego, California.⁵³¹ Other names for William were Driskell⁴³⁵ and William Driskell.⁸⁸ They had four children: Joseph Florence, Martha Virginia, William Parks, and Eleanor Terry.

Marriage Notes: William and Katie were married by January 1, 1920, when they appear on the 1920 Census.

General Notes: In June 1917, William P Driskell registered for the World War I draft in Augusta County, Virginia. He was born 8 Nov 1895 in Waco, Texas. He is 21 years old and living in Staunton, Virginia. His military service consists of 4 years at Staunton Military Academy. William is currently a student and is employed by the US Army at Ft. Myer, Virginia. [1]

In 1920 William and Kathryn Driskell are living in Waco, McLennan County, Texas. William is 24, born in Texas, his father in Georgia and his mother in Texas. He is a farm manager, working with his father in the county in Justice precinct 2. Kathryn is 20 and was born in Georgia as were her parents. They are living with William's mother Eula and his brother and sister Allison and Irene. [4]

William and Kate moved from Waco to El Paso sometime in 1921 or 1922.

In the 1930 Census, William and Katherine Driskell are living in El Paso, Texas, with their children Joseph, 9, and Martha V. (?), 7 or 8. William is 32, born in Texas, as was his mother. His father was born in Georgia. Katherine is 29, and born in Georgia, as were her parents. William is an inspector for an oil company, and is a veteran of the World War.

In 1933 William was an operator for Pasctex. Pet. [petroleum] Co. [5]

Descendants of unknown Terry

The Driskells were in El Paso until at least 1937 when Wm P & Katheryn are in the City Directory. William is an "ice ss" [ice salesman?]. He had the same occupation in 1935.[5]

In 1940 William P Driskell is in San Diego, California. He is 44 and a cotton buyer. William did not work in 1939, but he did have other income. William has a high school education. With him are wife Katheryn, 40, and children William, 9, and Eleanor T, 7. [6]

In 1943 and 1947 William is an aircraft worker. [5]

In 1959 he is working at Ray's Market. [5]

William P Driskell, Jr, was born 8 November 1896 in Texas & died 29 October 1960 in San Diego County, California. His mother's maiden name was Gregory. [2, 3]

General Notes: Martha Virginia Driscoll was born 8 August 1922 in El Paso County, Texas. [1]

According to the 1940 Census, Virginia was living in Columbus, Georgia, in 1935. [6]

In 1940 Virginia Driskell is living in Columbus, Muscogee County, Georgia, in the home of her aunt [should be cousin] Mary Florence (46 & a secretary at a law office). Virginia is 17, and a helper at a nursery school. Also in the house are three lodgers. [6]

Virginia appears to be in Columbus until at least 1951 when M Virginia Driskell is in the city directory. She is a teacher at the Sixteenth St School. [5]

Martha Driskell is in Chamblee by 1954 when she is in the city directory at 324 Dunwoody Rd. Martha is a teacher at Chamblee High School. [5]

Descendants of unknown Terry

General Notes: In 1910, Stephen is living with his mother and siblings in Bessemer, Alabama. He is 36 years old and a pawn broker, as are his brothers William and Ellis.

Stephen and family appear to be in Alamo Heights, Bexar County, Texas, in early 1918 when daughter Sarah died there in March. [3]

On September 12, 1918, Stephen Alexander Terry registered for the World War I draft. He was living at 1605 Berkely Avenue in Bessemer, Alabama. Stephen was a merchant with the Terry Brothers company at 103 19th Street in Bessemer. Stephen's wife Sarah Pearl Terry was listed as his nearest relative.

In the 1920 Census, Stephen (S A Terry on the census) is living in Bessemer. He is 48 years old, and is a merchant/owner of a dry goods store. Living with him is his wife Pearl, and their daughters Virginia, age 8, and Marjorie, a few months old.

Stephen and his family moved to El Paso, Texas, about 1925. [3] As Stephen's sister Lena died in El Paso in 1934 of tuberculosis, it is possible that Stephen or one of the members of his immediate family also had TB. El Paso was well known at the time for the treatment of TB.

Stephen's older two daughters both died of heart problems.

Stephen Alexander was a retired merchant living at El Paso, Texas. [2]

In the 1930 Census, Stephen is living in El Paso, Texas. He is retired as his occupation is listed as "none". Living with him are his wife Sarah P, age 43, and their daughters Mary V, 18, and Margaret, 10. Both girls were born in Alabama.

Stephen was in Fernwood, Mississippi, by 1934, when Mrs S A Terry of Fernwood was listed as the informant on Stephen's sister Lena's death certificate. [1]

According to niece Gloria Terry Pennington, brothers Will, Steve, and Fred all moved to Mississippi. Their mother was living with Steve in McComb when she died.

At the time of his death in 1959, Stephen was living in Fernwood, Mississippi. He was a farmer. He died at Beachams Hospital in Magnolia of an acute pulmonary edema. He also suffered from arteriosclerotic heart disease. [4]

Stephen married Sarah Pearl Northey⁵⁵¹ on 4 Oct 1910 in Downey (Bessemer), Jefferson County, Alabama.⁵⁵² Sarah was born on 30 Sep 1886 in Alabama,⁵⁵³ died on 23 Sep 1961⁵⁵⁴ at age 74, and was buried in Hollywood Cemetery, McComb, Pike County, Mississippi.⁵⁵⁴ Another name for Sarah was Sarah Pearl Worthey.⁴³⁰ They had three children: Mary Virginia, Sarah Elizabeth, and Marjorie Northey.

General Notes: On her daughters' Texas death certificates Sarah's name is shown as Pearl Northey and Sarah P Narthey.

In 1900 Pearl S Northey is living in Bridgeport, Fairfield County, Connecticut. She is 13, born September 1886 in Alabama, her parents in New Jersey and Alabama. Pearl is identified as the granddaughter of Alexander and Elizabeth Gordon. As they are 43 and 42 years old, born in Scotland and New Jersey, married for 14 years, that is likely an error. Pearl is probably the granddaughter of Sarah Northey, age 64, living "next door". Her four children that are with her were born in Michigan and New Jersey. [1]

It is likely that Pearl's father was Richard Northey. He is living in New Jersey in 1880 with his parents John and Sarah Northey. Richard is 20 years old and born in Michigan. John, son-in-law Edward Drummell, and sons Richard and John are iron miners. Richard appears to be the Richard Northey, born 7 Jan 1859, who died 2 Feb 1889 and is buried in Midfield, Jefferson County, Alabama. Richard's father John also appears to be buried with him. [2, 3]

The 1930 Census lists Sarah's father's birthplace as Michigan, and her mother's as Alabama.

General Notes: Sarah died in Texas of mitral insufficiency (or mitral regurgitation), where the heart's mitral valve does not close properly and blood in the heart flows backwards. She was attended by her physician from 14 February 1918 until 17 March 1918. [1]

General Notes: Marjorie was a veteraniar. She married someone from the

New Orleans area. [1] Or perhaps it was her husband who was the veteraniar. [CAR]

Marjorie was born 2 June [1919] in Bessemer, Alabama, to Stephen A & Pearl N Terry. [4]

She lived in Fernwood [Mississippi] for many years and was the owner of Fernwood Farms. She was very proud and dedicated to her jersey dairy farm. [4]

Marjorie Terry McMullen of Fernwood was listed as a survivor of her cousin Gene Terry Troutman in 1999. [2]

In 2009, Marjorie's residence is listed as River Ridge, Louisiana. Her husband's obituary also indicated they had lived there for 40 years (since about 1969). [3]

Marjorie lived at St. Joseph's Nursing Home in River Ridge, Louisiana, for the last five years of her life. [4]

General Notes: By 1907, William had formed the Alabama Furniture and Loan Company at 103 Nineteenth Street in Bessemer. He was the president, and brothers Ellis was the Secretary & Treasurer, and Lucius was Vice President. They were pawn brokers and collateral money lenders, and sold furniture and household goods on easy payments. [company]

stationary/letters]

By 1909, they had changed the company name to Terry Furniture and Loan Company. Lucius was no longer part of the company (probably concentrating on his medical practice in Dora), Ellis was vice president, and brother Fred was secretary and treasurer. [company stationary/letters]

In 1910, William is living in Bessemer, Alabama with his mother and siblings. He is 34 years old and a pawn broker, as are his brothers Stephen and Ellis.

William moved to Albuquerque, New Mexico, between 1917 and 1920.

Will moved to Albuquerque because he had tuberculosis and the desert climate was supposed to be beneficial for TB. [1]

The company was probably disbanded about 1920, with Ellis starting his real estate and loan company, and Fred operating Terry Brothers selling shoes and ready-to-wear. [company stationary/letters]

In the 1920 Census, William is living in Albuquerque, New Mexico. He was 42 years old, and is apparently retired as his occupation is "none". Living with him are his wife Mildred, 32, and born in South Carolina, and their daughters Elia M, 6, and Mary E, 2, both born in Alabama.

William was a retired business man living at Albuquerque, New Mexico, and still owning a large amount of property at Bessemer, Alabama. [2]

In the 1930 Census, William is living in Bessemer, Alabama. He is 53, and is apparently retired as his occupation is "none". Living with him are his wife Mildred, 41, and born in South Carolina, and their daughters Elia M, 17, and Mary E, 14, both born in Alabama.

William and Mildred lived in Bessemer, Alabama, where he engaged in real estate until he retired to a plantation near Fernwood, Mississippi. [3]

Will Terry and his family moved to a plantation in Magnolia, Pike County, Mississippi. The plantation was formerly a Borden dairy farm. It had brick stables and was 3000 acres. Will's wife Mildred ran a store there. [1]

At the time of his death, Will was living in Fernwood, Mississippi, where he was a planter. [4]

Will died 31 October 1934 in Fernwood of myocardial degeneration. He had also suffered from chronic emphysema for 15 years. [4]

Other names for Mildred were Mildred Quailes⁵⁶⁵ and Mildred Quailes.⁵⁶⁶ They had two children: Elia Margaret and Mary Emogene "Gene".

Noted events in their marriage were:

- Alt. Marriage: 22 Nov 1910.⁴³⁰

General Notes: Mildred's birth date is found on various sources between 1886 and 1897. I think a date of January 1886 found on the 1900 US Census is the most accurate. Although that Census lists her birth place as Georgia, all other Censuses list it as South Carolina. [CAR]

In 1880, Mildred's parents and sisters are living in Garvin, Anderson County, South Carolina. W B Quailes is 41, born in South Carolina, and a house carpenter. Wife Emma is 31, born in Georgia. Daughter Hattie is 13, born in SC, Marian, age 7, born in GA, and Helin, age 1, SC. Also with them is W B's mother Mary, age 79. [2]

In 1900, the family is in Dover, Terrell County, Georgia. William (b. May 1839 in South Carolina) is a farmer. Wife Emma (b. Mar 1849 in Georgia), has had 4 children, 3 are living. They have been married 29 years. With them are daughters Olivia, age 21, (b. Apr 1879 in GA) and Mildred, age 14 (b. Jan 1886 in GA). [3]

In 1910, the Quailes are living in Bessemer, Alabama. William is 70, born in South Carolina, and living on his own income. Emma is 60, born in Georgia. They have been married 35 years, Emma has had 4 children, 3 are living. Daughter Mildred is 21, born in South Carolina, and a teacher in the city schools. [4]

Mildred Terry was born 6 Jan 1894, and died in October 1984. Her last residence was in Fernwood, Pike County, Mississippi. Her Social Security number was issued in Georgia before 1951. [1]

General Notes: Information for John's marriages & children comes from a case before the Alabama Supreme Court between John's son Jack and John's brother & executor William Terry Gray. [1]

John had two children from his first marriage Robert B Gray and Monica L Muncher. In 1981, while married to Mary Rose Gray, John executed his will, leaving everything to Mary and excluding his children, presumably because they were separately provided for. In 1984, John Merrill "Jack" Gray III was born to John and Mary. They divorced in 1989, the divorce creating a trust for Jack. John died in 2004 without revising his will. Mary could no longer be considered his heir as they were divorced. Jack subsequently sued William T Gray for a share of the estate. [1]

Descendants of unknown Terry

The lower court ruled in Jack's favor, but the Alabama Supreme Court sent the case back to the lower court as the lower court ruling was not supported by law and precedent. [1]

Other names for Margaret were Maggie and Margaret Terry.⁵⁸¹

General Notes: Margaret Terry was born in Georgia and was a popular school teacher in her native state and also in Jefferson County, Alabama. [1]

Margaret was educated at Locust Grove Institute, and taught in the public schools of Georgia and Jonesboro, Alabama. [2]

In the 1900 Census, Maggie is living in Milners Crossroads District, Harris County, Georgia, with her parents, 5 siblings, and 4 nieces and nephews. She is a school teacher.

In 1922 when William Phillips, son of her niece Lucille Murrah, was born in Shiloh, Georgia, Mrs A B Phillips of Dora, Alabama, was one of the visitors shortly after his birth. [4]

Margaret Phillips and her husband Dr. Alford Phillips were so well regarded in the community that in the early 1940's when Mrs. Phillips wanted to go shopping in Birmingham she would call the bus company, and they would reroute a bus by her house to pick her up. [Katherine Southard] Granddaughter Jane remembers walking from Granny's house to the train tracks where the train would stop and pick them up.

Granny Phillips had chickens and a strawberry patch at her house in Dora. There was also a china berry tree, and when the berries fell off they turned your feet purple when you walked barefoot in the yard. When she was 5 or 6 years old, granddaughter Jane remembers Granny had a field of cotton that Jane and Sara helped pick. It was high cotton, not the lower growing cotton that is grown today. Sara's hair got all full of cockle burrs while they were picking cotton. Jane remembers churning butter on the back porch. Granny had two stoves, a giant wood-burning stove that she used in winter because it helped heat the house, and an electric stove. After Dr. Phillips died in 1935, Granny rented out the back bedrooms to school teachers. Jane remembers that Granny had a beautiful set of painted furniture in the front bedroom. She had a bed, dresser, and dressing table painted pale green with flowers.

Margaret was a quilter, and four of her quilts still exist. She made two

Descendants of unknown Terry

Dresden plate quilts in a similar color scheme (yellow). One included scraps from granddaughter Jane's baby and toddler clothes, and is owned by great-granddaughter Catherine Reuther. Catherine also owns a second quilt made of small square blocks pieced in a log-cabin block style. Great-granddaughter Frances Moxley Zinder owns a Grandmother's Flower Garden made with small hexagon patches. According to previous owner Sara Hager Moxley, this quilt may have been quilted after Maggie died. The other Dresden Plate quilt is owned by great-granddaughter Elizabeth Moxley Penrod.

After she died, a lot of things in the house, including Dr. Phillips' medical books, were put into a large pile and burned. [JHR]

According to granddaughter Jane Hager Reuther, Margaret (Granny) was in the hospital in Birmingham when she died.

Maggie T Phillips died 06 June 1946 in Jefferson County, Alabama. [3]

General Notes: Dr. Phillips remembered as a boy when Wilson's Raiders come to his family's farm in 1864. They stole meat from the smokehouse, threw all the clothes on the floor and poured sorgam syrup over them. The negro servant had hidden the horses in the canebreak by the river. He had tied them so tight that all but two broke their necks struggling against the ropes. He also remembered they wove their own linsey-woolsey cloth during the war, and what a treat it was to dress up in his linsey-woolsey suit to go with the negro servant to Warrior to sell the cotton. [Catharine Phillips Hager, daughter] As none of the census takers from 1830 to 1860 recorded any slaves for any of the Phillips's, I think the inclusion of slaves in this story is a little suspect. [CAR]

In 1880, Alford was a school teacher. [1880 Census]

Dr. Phillips was born on a farm two miles south of the fork of the Mulberry and Sipsey Rivers in Walker County, November 23, 1861.

Alford Byrd Phillips grew up on the home farm, attended common schools, completed his high school education in Jefferson County under Professor M. V. Henry and had his professional training at Vanderbilt University at Nashville, where he graduated M.D. in 1883. After graduating he practiced two years and three months in Walker County and from 1885 to 1889 was located at Trenton in Phillips County, Arkansas. It was in 1889 that he established his permanent home at Dora, and since that date has been unflagging in attention to his duties as physician and surgeon, with a practice extending over a large area in Walker and Jefferson counties. He is a local surgeon for Pratt Fuel Corporation, with offices at Yerkwood and Burnwell, now called Beachy Hollow, and also at Red Star.

Doctor Phillips has his home and offices, with a full equipment of the drugs required in his practice, at Dora. For fifteen years he was a member of the City Council of Dora, is a democrat, and was a charter member of the Dora Banking & Trust Company, served as its president and is still one of the stockholders and directors. He is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and in Masonry is affiliated with Davis Fraternal Lodge No. 483, F. and A. M., at Dora, Alabama Consistory No. 1 of the Scottish Rite and Kamram Grotto of Masons at Birmingham, also Zamora Temple of the Mystic Shrine at Birmingham. He is member of the Walker County Medical Society and the Alabama State Medical Society and is a former fellow of the American Medical Association. During the World war he was liberal of his means in contributing to the war causes and the support of orphans of deceased soldiers.

[History of Alabama and Her People, 1927 - listing for Alford B. Phillips, Vol III]

From the 1900 and 1910 censuses, it appears Alford had an earlier marriage and was a widower by 1900.

On May 26 1895, A. B. Phillips married S. B. McConbrey in Walker County. [1] It is very likely that this is Alford and his first wife. Alford was back in Walker County from Arkansas in 1889, so he was living there in at this time. A review of the 1900 Census did not turn up any candidates for this couple, supporting the theory that S. B. McConbrey is Alford's first wife and she died before 1900.

In the 1900 Census, Alford B Phillips is living in Horse Creek, Walker Co, Alabama. He is a boarder in the house of Henry J Dollar. Alford is 38 years old and a physician. His marital status is single, but it also looks like the census taker wrote "wd" (widowed) in the next column.

In the 1910 Census, Alfred B Phillips is living on Main Street in Dora, Walker Co, Alabama. He is 48 years old and a physician in general practice. Living with him are his wife Maggie, 31, son A. B., 3, and daughter Katherine, 11 months. On the census, this is Alford's second marriage; it is Maggie's first. They have been married for 4 years. Maggie has had two children and both are living. Maggie's brother John Terry and his wife are living next door, and Alford's brother John is living just down the street.

In the 1920 Census, Dr Phillips is living at the Burnwell Mine, near Dora, in Walker Co. He is 59 years old and a medical doctor. Living with him are his wife Margaret, age 40, and children Alford Jr, 13, and Catherine, 11.

In the 1930 Census, Dr Phillips is living in Dora, Walker Co, Alabama. He is 68 years old, and a medical doctor in general practice. Living with him are his wife Maggie, age 52, and daughter Katherine, 21. Catharine is attending school.

Dr. Phillips' office in Dora was downtown on the side of the street with the creek behind it. There was steep hill down to the creek from the street, so the buildings were supported by stilts at the back. [JHR]

Family stories say Dr. Phillips practiced medicine during the week at Helena, Arkansas, and on the weekends he rode the river boats of the Mississippi gambling before returning to Alabama to live and practice medicine.

Dr. Phillips was one of the first original stockholders of the Dora Banking and Trust Company, serving as its president for three years (1919-1922). [Katherine Southard]

Alfred B Phillips died in March 1935 in Jefferson County, Alabama. [2]

6-Alford Byrd Phillips Jr. was born on 17 Oct 1906 in Alabama, died on 11 Mar 1970 in Bryce Hospital, Tuscaloosa, Alabama⁵⁸⁸ at age 63, and was buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Bessemer, Jefferson County, Alabama. Another name for Alford was A.B. He had no relationships and no children.

General Notes: A.B. contracted syphilis about 1926, and was uncooperative in the treatment prescribed by his father and other doctors, including his uncle Dr. L.L. Terry.

He had attended Alabama Polytechnic Institute (now Auburn

Descendants of unknown Terry

University). He had been a bookkeeper for the Chevrolet people, and then was a bookkeeper at Dora Motor Company, which Dr. Phillips had a half interest in.

About 1928, A. B. became moody and depressed. He lost interest in his work and became careless in his dress. He had obsessed ideas and hallucinations, and once or twice threatened suicide. He was suspicious, and thought his father and mother were taking his mind away. He became untruthful, and at times vulgar and profane. He was in the hospital for three weeks where his mental condition greatly improved, but on returning home, refused treatment. In August 1928 he was then confined to Hill Crest Sanitarium in Birmingham.

In October 1928, A.B.'s condition was taken before the court and he was committed to the state hospital, Bryce in Tuscaloosa. He was brought to the hospital by his cousins Joe Phillips and W. W. Phillips, most likely Joseph Phillips and William Jefferson Phillips, the sons of Jefferson Lawrence Phillips, brother to Martin Marion Phillips, Dr. A. B. Phillips' father.

The doctors at Bryce diagnosed A.B. as having Dementia Praecox - Hebephrenic Type. This was later updated to more current terminology of Schizophrenic Reaction, Hebephrenic Type. According to the correspondence in the Bryce Hospital records, A.B.'s doctors at Bryce did treat him for syphilis using the available treatment of Salvarsan, since this was before penicillin was available, but they did not think his syphilis was the cause of his mental illness. Hebephrenic schizophrenia is today defined as a form of schizophrenia characterized by severe disintegration of personality including erratic speech and childish mannerisms and bizarre behavior. It usually becomes evident during puberty, and is the most common diagnostic category in mental institutions.

A.B. spent the remainder of his life at Bryce Hospital. He was described in the medical records as being delusional, suffering hallucinations, being silly at times, laughing for no apparent reason. He apparently suffered a cerebral thrombosis in January 1970, and passed away March 11, 1970.

The correspondence in the Bryce Hospital file included letters from A.B.'s parents to his doctor. Often they were sending money and/or requesting a special meal for him. In February 1931, Dr. Phillips wrote to Dr. Partlow - "How is my boy A. B. Phillips Jr?". Just those few words seemed to express how heart-rending A.B.'s illness was for the family.

Upon the death of his parents, Henry Hager, A.B.'s brother-in-law, became his guardian.

Jane Hager Reuther remembers that sometime after A.B.'s funeral, Catharine Phillips Hager told her that the woman who had been A.B.'s

Descendants of unknown Terry

girlfriend or fiancée when he was committed to Bryce had come to the funeral. [1]

Note: Most of the above information from A.B.'s patient files from Bryce Hospital.

6-Catharine Elizabeth Phillips was born on 18 Jan 1909 in Alabama, died on 22 Dec 1999 in Birmingham, Jefferson County, Alabama⁴⁸⁴ at age 90, and was buried on 24 Dec 1999 in Elmwood Cemetery, Birmingham, Alabama.⁴⁸⁴

General Notes: As a child, Catharine used to help her father out in his doctor's office.

Catharine attended Margaret Allen School for Girls in Birmingham.

In her younger days, Catharine was an artist. She painted china, as well as drawing and painting. Only 1 drawing and 2 paintings survive. Catharine left most of her artwork at Judson when she left school. A drawing of a teapot executed when she was 9 is owned by daughter Jane (as of 2012 by granddaughter Catherine Reuther). Daughter Sara owns an oil painting of wisteria, and Phillip owns an oil painting of fruit.

In 1925-1926, Catharine attended Rivers Academy/Athens College in Athens, Alabama. She graduated from there in May 1926. In 1927 Catharine was a sophomore at Chowan College in Murphreesboro, North Carolina. Cousin Margaret Murrah was Director & Coach of Athletics, and aunt Lena Terry was Professor of Home Economics that year. In 1929, Catharine was a junior at Howard College in Birmingham. Also in her class was William M Herbert, cousin of Catharine's future husband Henry Hager. [1]

Catharine taught school for a short while either before and/or after she married Henry. [Sara Moxley]

She was an excellent seamstress. Catherine could go into a store, find a dress she or her daughters liked, do a quick sketch on the street, and then go home and make the dress.

Listed as a survivor on her obituary was her sister-in-heart, Sarah Fleetwood Hendrix. She and Sarah met in the spring of 1914 when they were 5 years old, and remained lifelong and close friends. Sarah was known to all Catharine's children and grandchildren as Aunt Sarah.

Descendants of unknown Terry

When Catharine died, her daughter Sara had just bought her a nice nightgown and bed jacket for Christmas since Catharine was confined to bed. She was buried on Christmas Eve in her new nightgown.

Catharine married Henry Jordan Hager, son of Charles Jacob Hager⁵⁹⁰ and Maggie Herbert, on 31 Jul 1931 in Dora, Walker County, Alabama. Henry was born on 28 Oct 1906 in Burnwell Mine, between Flat Creek & Dora, Walker County, Alabama, died on 4 Nov 1985 in Birmingham, Jefferson County, Alabama at age 79, and was buried in Elmwood Cemetery, Birmingham, Alabama. They had four children: Jane Marie, Sara Ferrell, Henry Jordan, and Phillip Terry.

Marriage Notes: Henry and Catharine were married in the yard at Dr. Phillip's house in Dora. The preacher goofed, and said "John" instead of "Henry" during the ceremony. [daughters Jane and Sara]

Catharine and Henry may have honeymooned in Chattanooga, Tennessee. [Sarah Hendrix]

A party was given by Catharine and Henry's children, Jane Hager and Calvin Reuther, Sara Hager and Tom Moxley, Henry and Sandra Nelson Hager, Jr., and Phillip Hager, in celebration of their 50th wedding anniversary on August 1, 1981, at the Vestavia Country Club in Birmingham, Alabama. [invitation]

General Notes: Henry was named for his uncle, Henry Jordan, his father Charles' sister Annie's husband.

When he was younger, Henry was known as Hank. As an adult most people called him Henry, but old friends still called him Hank. [3]

Henry attended 2nd and 3rd grades (1915-1916) at Ira Street School in Atlanta, Georgia, while living with his Aunt Annie Hager Jordan and Uncle Henry Jordan. Uncle Henry signed his report cards. Henry attended the second grade for the first 3 quarters, and was then promoted to the 3rd grade by examination (Apr 3 1916) and attended the 4th quarter of the 3rd grade. [report cards]

When he was young, Henry hoboed on a train from West Virginia to Atlanta, and came down with appendicitis on the way and almost died. His Aunt Annie Jordan lived in Atlanta, and took him to the doctor. [3]

In the 1930 Census, Henry Hager was living in Birmingham, Alabama, on Highland Avenue. He was 23 years old and an engineer, working in the mechanical industry. His roommate, or lodger on the census, was D.

Descendants of unknown Terry

A. York (?), 36 years old and a physician.

Henry's first job after college was at American Cast Iron Pipe Co, in the drafting office, where future in-law Stephen Moxley (father of Henry's future son-in-law) was his boss. Stephen Moxley was later president of the company. Alabama By Products, the company Henry worked for most of his life, was a major supplier to ACIPCo. [3]

In addition to his B.S. degree in Mining Engineering from the University of Alabama, Henry also received a Masters from the University on a research scholarship with the US Bureau of Mines. [4]

The Mine Foreman Certificate of Competency that Henry received in 1939 is required in order to be an underground mine foreman in the coal industry. Underground mining is quite hazardous. [4]

Daughter Sara and son-in-law Tom Moxley struck up a conversation with a man they met while out to dinner in Birmingham. The man happened to have worked in coal mining. Sara said her father was Henry Hager. The man said that he had been a negotiator for the union and Henry was the fairest man he ever dealt with. [1]

Henry was instrumental in getting the Negro high school built in Walker or Jefferson county. They wanted to hang his picture in the high school. Henry did not want it there as he did not want everyone to know all he did to help other people. [2]

When I was about 5 or 6, I remember Granddaddy telling this story: Once upon a time there was a band of robbers sitting around the campfire. The leader said, "Pedro, tell us a story." And Pedro said . . . Once upon a time there was a band of robbers sitting around the campfire. The leader said, "Pedro, tell us a story." And Pedro said . . . Once upon a time there was a band of robbers sitting around the campfire. The leader said, "Pedro, tell us a story." And Pedro said . . . And on and on the story would go until he couldn't repeat it any more times, or you were laughing so hard he couldn't continue. [CAR]

Grandmother and Granddaddy would occasionally drive up to Huntsville from Birmingham. Granddaddy would come in, say Hello, have a drink of whiskey, and stand around jingling the change and keys in his pockets. He had come, said hello, and now it was time to go. Grandmother, of course, needed to sit and visit for a while. [CAR]

Henry had scars on his lungs, probably from childhood T. B. (tuberculosis). He received further scarring on his lungs in the winter of 1936 from severe pneumonia. He smoked most of his life, usually in secret. [5] He died November 4, 1985, from complications after lung surgery. After surgery to remove part of his lung, a clot formed and/or broke loose and traveled to his lungs causing them to fill with fluid as if he had pneumonia. This was his second surgery to remove part of his lung. The first surgery was several years prior to the second.

7-Jane Marie Hager was born on 15 Jun 1933 in Birmingham, Jefferson County, Alabama, died on 29 Oct 2012 in Atlanta, Fulton County, Georgia⁴⁸⁴ at age 79, and was buried on 2 Nov 2012 in Maple Hill Cemetery, Huntsville, Alabama.⁴⁸⁴

General Notes: Jane was born in 1933 in Birmingham, Alabama. She grew up in the coal mines outside of Birmingham where her father Henry was a manager at the mines.

Jane and her mother Catharine clashed from the beginning, as Jane was something of a tomboy and a troublemaker, and destined to NOT be the proper lady her mother wanted her to be.

She would do things like digging up the dead hunting dog to find out what happened to it after it died, and putting her little brother up in the top of a skinny tree, and then swinging that tree around with him hanging onto the top.

Just before she started high school, the family left the coal mines and moved to Birmingham. After high school she went to Auburn University, where she met Cal Reuther, and decided to get married. Jane always said she got married at age 19 to get away from her mother.

Jane married Cal in 1953, and when he finished school later that year, they moved across the country to Seattle, then to Pittsburgh, back to Seattle, on to Fort Walton Beach, Florida, and then to California. By then there were two children, and more than ten years had passed. And she was now on our way back to Alabama to Huntsville. They stopped moving around the country and stayed put in Alabama.

Jane always loved arts and crafts. There were always numerous craft projects going on at her house. She tried everything from ceramics to macramé to batik to copper enameling. She mastered them all. In the early 1970's she tried weaving, and fell in love with everything about it - weaving, spinning, and dyeing the yarn. She was a founding member and president of the Huntsville Fiber Guild, and started her own weaving business.

About 1970 Jane must have decided she could no longer wait for Cal (who never liked the beach) to take her to Florida every year. Cal taught her and their 10 or 11 year-old son how to hook up the camping trailer to the station wagon, set it up at the campground, and how to empty the holding tanks. She was never comfortable pulling into a gas station with the trailer, so she would pull off the road, change places with Russell, and that young boy would pull it up to the pump. It is amazing she convinced Cal to "let" her do it and that she made those trips for six or seven years on her own, until the trailer was wrecked in an accident.

In 1993 Jane had aneurysms in the brain, and spent a good portion of the year in and out of the hospital. After that, she gave up weaving and her business as she could no longer concentrate enough to do that.

In 2000, Cal died, and plans were made for Jane to move to Atlanta to be near her daughter Catherine and soon-to-be son-in-law Bryan Kennedy.

Between Cal's death and the move to Atlanta, Jane's future son-in-law Bryan moved in with her. They became great friends and Bryan continued to live with after he and Catherine married until Jane and Bryan both moved to Atlanta a few months later.

Jane loved living in her retirement community in Sandy Springs, Georgia. She made great friends, and went on every outing there was, especially if it involved lunch.

Jane loved, in no particular order, the beach in Florida, chocolate, good friends, family, art, travel & adventure, dogs, angels, hugs, her church, chocolate, Florida.

Noted events in her life were:

- Graduation: Shades Valley High School, 30 May 1951, Homewood, Jefferson County, Alabama.
- Height: 5 ft. 5 in.

Jane married Calvin Russell Reuther, son of Russell Evans Reuther and Lydia Johanna Speiser, on 7 Mar 1953 in Dawson Memorial Baptist Church, Homewood, Alabama.⁵⁹⁴ Calvin was born on 16 Mar 1930 in Bridgeport, Fairfield County, Connecticut,⁵⁹⁵ died on 14 Jan 2000 in Huntsville, Madison County, Alabama at age 69, and was buried on 18 Jan 2000 in Maple Hill Cemetery, Huntsville, Alabama. The cause of his death was Multiple organ failure following heart by-pass surgery. Another name for Calvin was Cal. They had two children: Catherine Ann and Russell Evans.

Descendants of unknown Terry

General Notes: Born one month premature at 7:05 PM, weighed 4 pounds, 13 3/4 ounces, at Bridgeport Hospital [Lydia Speiser Reuther's notebook].

During college (Auburn, AL), Cal owned and flew his own airplane, an Ercoupe.

In 1951 or 1952, Cal flew to Connecticut from Auburn through bad weather with no radio and was the only plane flying over NY. Coming back to Auburn, he developed trouble in Maryland (?). He was able to land but could not afford to fix the plane, and left it at the airport. [Jane Reuther]

During college at API Cal worked for Mr. Fortner at Jake's Joint and the Elk's Club. He met Jane at Jake's Joint. Mrs. Fortner gave Cal her recipe for Barbecue Sauce and Barbecue Basting Sauce that he used throughout his life to make fantastic barbecue chicken on the grill.

Cal graduated from Alabama Polytechnic Institute (API - later re-named Auburn University) in Auburn, Alabama, in 1953, with a Bachelors of Science degree in Electrical Engineering. His first job was across the country for Boeing in Seattle, Washington, working on the B-52 airplane. He left Boeing in 1956 for Westinghouse in Pittsburgh, PA, but was on his way back to Boeing and Seattle in 1958 when Jane was pregnant with Cathy. Just weeks after Cathy was born in September, they headed for a new assignment in Fort Walton Beach, FL, and the BOMARC missile program at Eglin AFB.

In 1963, Cal, Jane, Cathy and Russell moved to California where Cal worked on the Minuteman weapon system.

In April 1965, Cal, Jane and the children moved to Huntsville, Alabama, where Cal continued his work for Boeing, this time on the space program. He was responsible for the Boeing Saturn V Logistics Support Staff, developing a Logistics Support Plan. He was also responsible for Saturn V Logistics activities and program schedule. In 1967 he assumed responsibility for directing the preparation of the Saturn V Flight Manual, a single source reference prepared specifically for the astronauts' use.

When Boeing reduced their operations in Huntsville in 1974 (the summer President Richard Nixon resigned and the fall Cathy got her driver's license), Cal and Jane decided to stay in Huntsville rather than be transferred to another city, and Cal went to work for Sperry Corporation on tactical missile systems at MICOM. In 1980 he began a brief stint at Guest Associates providing marketing and technical representation for technically oriented customers, as well as consultation to small business through the Small Business Administration.

Descendants of unknown Terry

In 1982, Cal went back to work for Boeing on marketing management assignments for the Air Force, MSFC, MICOM, and SSDC customers. He retired early in 1993 after Jane's brain aneurysms and surgery that year.

Early in their marriage, when they were young and poor, Cal decided to start making furniture instead of buying it. He bought the appropriate tools and set up shop in the spare bedroom in their apartment. The first thing he made was a long low bench in the Danish Modern style. He made their bedroom furniture and later on a hi-fi cabinet, kitchen table, and a new dresser for Jane in the 1970's.

In 1983, when his mother Lydia was no longer making the family Christmas cookies, Cal took up the task, often with daughter Cathy's help. He made their favorites Springerli, Brownie Lebkuchen & Schwaben Brodli, and new ones as well. Just as Lydia did, he kept track of what he made and how many. In 2002, Cathy took up the tradition on her own. Cal also had a vegetable garden for many years, and took up canning at that time. Not only did he can vegetables, but he also made jellies and pickles.

In 1988 & 1989, Cal and Jane built a new, larger house on Mountain Springs Circle in Huntsville and moved in in April 1989. The house included a 3-car garage with large shop attached, and Jane's large weaving room over the garage and shop. After Cal's death, the house was sold to Hank and Kathy Perkins, friends from church, and a school friend (Hank) of daughter Cathy's when growing up.

Cal entered Huntsville Hospital November 25, 1999 (Thanksgiving Day) for heart bypass surgery on November 26. The surgery was successful, but numerous complications ensued due to Cal's emphysema and the steroids he had been taking for the emphysema that interfered with the healing process. After seven weeks in ICU, he passed away due to multiple organ system failure on January 14, 2000, at 5:05 PM. Daughter Cathy, son Russell, future son-in-law Bryan Kennedy, and Dr. T. Benton Washburn were present. He was buried January 18, 2000 at Maple Hill Cemetery in Huntsville.

Unknown to his family until after he entered the hospital, Cal had been having heart problems for some time. Nitroglycerin pills were found in his study for heart pain. Cal left a folder of instructions for his daughter Cathy just prior to entering the hospital in case he passed away. The information and instructions included the notice of his death to be published in the newspaper. Cathy used this almost as he had written it.

Descendants of unknown Terry

Noted events in his life were:

- Education: University of Bridgeport, Between 1948 and 1949, Bridgeport, Fairfield County, Connecticut.⁵⁹⁶
- Graduation: Alabama Polytechnic Institute (now Auburn University) with a B.S in Electrical Engineering, Aug 1953, Auburn, Alabama.⁵⁹⁶

5-John Terry was born on 25 May 1879 in Oak Mountain Springs, Harris County, Georgia,⁴³⁰ died on 15 Oct 1957 in Dora, Walker County, Alabama⁶⁰⁴ at age 78, and was buried on 17 Oct 1957 in Birmingham, Jefferson County, Alabama.⁶⁰⁵

General Notes: In the 1910 Census, John Terry is living on Main Street in Dora, Walker Co, Alabama. He is 29 years old and a foreman for a coal mine. Living with him is his wife Jessie, 26, born in Alabama. They have been married for 9 years. Jessie has born two children, neither are living. They are living next door to (or across the street from) John's sister Maggie and her husband Alford B Phillips.

Between 1913 & 1916, Jessie's niece Clyde Gunnolls came to live with John and Jessie, and they raised her as their daughter. [1]

In 1918, John Terry registered for the World War I draft. John was living in Dora, Alabama, and was a foreman for the Pratt Cons[olidated] Coal Co. His wife Jessie Terry was listed as his nearest relative.

John began his mining careet with Pratt Consolidated Coal Co, later being associated with Sloss Sheffield and Alabama By-Products Corp. [3]

In the 1920 Census, John Terry is living in Dora. He is 41 and a foreman for a coal mine. Living with him is his wife Jessie, 36. Also living with them is a 12 year old girl named Clyde. The census taker has identified her as their daughter. The census taker may not have talked to John or Jessie as he incorrectly recorded John's and his parents' birthplaces as Alabama.

John was a mine superintendent for the DeBardleben Coal Corporation at Overton, Alabama. [2]

In the 1930 Census, John is living in Flat Creek, Walker Co., Alabama. He is 49 years old, and a mine foreman at a coal mine. He must have been working for Charles Hager, the superintendent at Flat Creek. Niece Catharine Phillips married Henry Hager, Charles' son, a few years later. Living with John is his wife Jessie, 45. She was born in Alabama.

John and Jessie lived in Dora, Alabama, across the street from his sister Maggie Terry and her husband, Dr. A. B. Phillips.

John and Jessie are reportedly buried in Elmwood Cemetery in Birmingham. [1]

John married Jessie Caroline Ward,⁴³⁰ daughter of Marion B Ward and Florence Carolyn Martin, on 29 Jul 1901 in Sipscomb, Jefferson County, Alabama.⁷⁹ Jessie was born on 30 Mar 1884 in Jonesboro (Bessemer), Jefferson County, Alabama,⁶⁰⁷ died on 9 Apr 1976 in Charlotte, Mecklenburg County, North Carolina⁶⁰⁸ at age 92, and was buried on 12 Apr 1976 in Elmwood Cemetery, Birmingham, Alabama.⁶⁰⁹ They had three children: Julian, Hazel, and Clyde.

Noted events in their marriage were:

- Alt. Marriage: 29 Jul 1900.⁴³⁰

General Notes: In 1900 Jessie C Ward is 16 years old, born in Alabama, and living outside Bessemer, Alabama, with her parents Marion B & Florence C Ward, and younger sisters Bessie J & Ella M. [1]

Based on her marriage date (29 Jul 1901) and son Julian's birth date (12 Oct 1901), Jessie was about 6 months pregnant when she and John married.

Jessie was a quilter. Among the quilts she made in the last years of her life was a "Trip Around the World" for niece Catharine (Phillips) Hager. Grandniece Jane (Hager) Reuther asked her to make one for her, and Jessie did, from fabric supplied by Jane.

Jessie was a lunch room manager at Dora High School for many years. [4]

According to notes made by Calvin Reuther on his address cards, Jessie was last living at 201 4th Ave N, Ridgewood Manor in Jasper, Alabama. [Probably her last address before moving to Charlotte.]

Jessie Ward Terry was born Mar 30 1884 and died 9 April 1976 in Charlotte, North Carolina, where she was also living. [2, 3]

(Relationship to Father: Foster, Relationship to Mother: Foster)

General Notes: Clyde Gunnolls (sometimes spelled Gunnells) was the daughter of Clyde Gunnolls and Bessie Jane Ward. Bessie was the younger sister of Jessie (Ward) Terry, who along with her husband John Terry, raised Clyde from the age of 5 or so. [2]

Clyde Gunnells and Bessie H Ward married 29 Aug 1906 in Birmingham. [4]

Clyde's father Clyde Gunnolls was killed in a train accident in July 1907 three weeks before daughter Clyde was born. He is buried at Union Grove Baptist Church in Lipscomb (Jefferson County), Alabama. After his death, Bessie kind of wandered, and left daughter Clyde with the Terrys. She remarried at least once, may have spent time in Chicago, and was a manicurist at Pizitz Department Store in Birmingham. Bessie Jane Ward Gunnolls Warren is buried at Elmwood Cemetery in Birmingham, Alabama. [2]

In 1910 Clyde Gunnells, age 2, and her widowed mother Bessie, 21, are living in Jonesboro, Jefferson County, Alabama, in the home of Tom and Ida Bell Armstrong and their 5 children. Bessie is listed as Tom's sister-in-law. Ida may be the sister of Bessie's late husband Clyde. Tom is a miner in the coal mines. [3]

Descendants of unknown Terry

In 1923 Clyde's mother Bessie Jane Gunnels was an actress living in Cincinnati, Ohio. She married Richard S Warren, age 30, on 18 April 1923 in Hamilton County [Cincinnati]. Bessie was 31 [her correct age was 34]. Richard was born 4 July 1892 in South Carolina. At the time of their marriage he was a clerk in Birmingham, Alabama. [7]

Clyde attended the Athens Academy in Athens, Alabama, before her marriage to William Wood about 1929. [2]

Clyde had one year of college. [5]

In 1940 Clyde and William Wood are living in Birmingham. With them is Clyde's mother Bess Warren. Bess is 50, widowed [should probably be divorced], and a manicurist at a beauty parlor. She worked 0 weeks in 1939 for $600. [5]

Clyde's mother Besse Jane Warren died 18 August 1971 in St. Petersburg, Florida. Besse was survived by her daughter Mrs Clyde Wood of Charlotte, NC, sister Jessie Terry of Dora, and sister Ella Ward of St. Petersburg. Burial was in Birmingham at Elmwood with sister Jessie and her husband John Terry. [6, 8] Besse probably lived with her sister Ella.

In 1976 when her aunt Jessie died in Charlotte, North Carolina, Clyde was living there. Jessie may have been living with her.

Clyde Gunnells Wood, born 14 August 1907, died 17 January 1994 in Greensboro, Guilford County, North Carolina, at age 86. [1]

General Notes: William Arnold Wood was born to Robert Wood and

Descendants of unknown Terry

Vera McCrary. [3]

William Wood was from Sayre, Alabama, [1] in Jefferson County.

In 1930 William A Wood is living in Jefferson County, Alabama, in the Irondale area. He is 25, born in Alabama, and a store keeper at a commissary. The commissary is probably part of a brick yard as most of the people in the area worked for a brick yard. Living with William are his wife Clyde G, 21, and a roomer James C Sandlin. William and Clyde were married at age 24 and 20. [2]

In 1940 William A Wood is living in Birmingham, Alabama. He is 34, married to Clyde, and a salesman of meat products. He completed high school. William owns his own house worth $3750. In 1939 he worked 47 weeks for $2650. With them are son Terry, 3, and mother-in-law Bess Warren. [4]

William was a manager for Geo A Harmel & Co when he died at age 60 of myocardial infarction and coronary arteriosclerosis. He is buried in Charlotte at Sharon Memorial Park. [3]

7-Terry Wood

Terry married Ann Turner.

5-Eliza Cookson "Lillie" Terry was born in Oct 1881 in Georgia,⁶²¹ died on 7 Apr 1921 in Bessemer, Jefferson County, Alabama³²⁷ at age 39, and was buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Bessemer, Jefferson County, Alabama. She had no relationships and no children.

General Notes: Eliza's nickname was Lila, based on the both the 1900 Census, and a family picture labeled by niece Catharine Phillips Hager. She was also known as Lillie, and her records at Bryce Hospital are in that name. She is also listed in the records of Cedar Hill Cemetery as Lillie. The only place I have found her name as Eliza is on her gravestone.

The records at Bryce Hospital (for the insane) for Eliza's nephew A. B. Phillips, record that he had a maternal aunt who had been treated at the hospital for melancholia insanity, although Lillie's records do not have a diagnosis of her condition.

On the 1910 & 1920 Censuses Lillie Terry, age 28 in 1910 & 39 in 1920, is a patient at Bryce Hospital.

Descendants of unknown Terry

Lillie was committed to Bryce Hospital for the insane in May 1907. Her older brother William C. Terry completed the necessary paperwork to have her committed, and he, along with Ellis G. Terry and Stephen A. Terry, agreed to be responsible for the cost.

In May 1907, Lillie's present condition had lasted 18 months, and she had been treated for the same trouble in Nov 1905. She thought everyone was against her, stayed in bed most of the time, and roamed the house at night. She was destructive of her clothing, would not bathe, and she had been making threats that caused others fear.

The Family History in the hospital records indicate Lillie's father's older brother had the same affliction.

The family took her home from Bryce twice on furlough; in 1907 for six months returning in 1908, and again in 1910 for about three weeks.

While in the hospital, she was often in fights, accused the nurses and patients of taking her clothing, destructive of her clothing, delusional, and thought everyone was against her.

In late 1918 and early 1919, during the world wide influenza epidemic, Lillie came down with influenza.

In 1920, she was diagnosed with tuberculosis. In March 1921, Bryce contacted the family several times about her worsening condition, and on April 1, 1921, her brother Fred Terry and a nurse came to Tuscaloosa in an ambulance to take her back to Bessemer. The correspondence indicated they wanted to take her to a cottage on the Mountain near Bessemer to be near the family, but, with her weakened condition, they may have taken her home. Lillie died a few days after leaving the hospital.

Miss Lillie C Terry died 7 April 1921 in Bessemer, Alabama.

Noted events in her life were:

- Alt. Birth: 1881.⁵⁶⁴

5-Frederick Jefferson Terry⁵⁸⁶ was born on 18 Nov 1883 in Oak Mountain, Harris County, Georgia,⁶²³ died on 18 Apr 1942 in McComb, Pike County, Mississippi⁶²³ at age 58, and was buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Bessemer, Jefferson County, Alabama.

General Notes: By 1909, Fred had joined his brothers William and Ellis as Secretary and Treasurer in the Terry Furniture and Loan Company. They were pawn brokers and collateral money lenders, and sold furniture and household goods on easy payments. By 1921, Fred is operating the Terry Brothers store, selling shoes, clothing, men's and children's ready-to-wear.

Descendants of unknown Terry

In 1918, Fred Jefferson Terry registered for the World War I draft. Fred was living in Bessemer, Alabama; the street name was not clear. Fred appears to be a boater ? working for the Mobile Ship Building Co of Mobile. Fred may have been living in Mobile when he registered as his draft registration card was stamped for both Mobile and Bessemer. Underneath Fred's signature he wrote "254 St Louis St Mobile Ala", apparently where he was living while working in Mobile. Fred listed his wife Annie M Terry of Bessemer as his nearest relative.

In the 1920 Census, Fred is living in Bessemer, Alabama. He is 36 years old and is a merchant. Living with him are his wife Annie, age 35, and her niece Mona (?) Cooper, age 14.

Fred J., Ellis G. Terry and George Terry Murrah were members of the Terry Murrah Realty Company at Bessemer. [2]

In the 1930 Census, Fred is living as a boarder in Bessemer in the house of Thomas and Rachel Bobs. Fred is 46 and widowed. He is a proprietor of a retail clothing store.

According to niece Gloria Terry Pennington, brothers Will, Steve, and Fred all moved to Mississippi.

In 1936, Fred was the "informant" on his mother Mary Terry's death certificate in McComb, Mississippi. He may have been living there.

Fred died 18 April 1942 at the City Hospital in McComb, Mississippi, of peritonitis due to a perforated duodenal ulcer. He had been ill for 3 days. [3]

When Fred died, he had been living in Fernwood, Pike County, Mississippi. He was a farmer of cotton and corn. [3]

5-Ellis Griffin Terry was born on 21 Sep 1885 in Oak Mountain Springs, Harris County, Georgia,⁴³⁰ died on 4 Feb 1945 in Bessemer, Jefferson County, Alabama⁶²⁵ at age 59, and was buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Bessemer, Jefferson County, Alabama.

General Notes: By 1907, Ellis is the Secretary & Treasurer of the Alabama Furniture and Loan Company at 103 Nineteenth Street in Bessemer, founded by William, the president . Brother Lucius was Vice President. They were pawn brokers and collateral money lenders, and sold furniture and household goods on easy payments. [company stationary/letters]

By 1909, they had changed the company name to Terry Furniture and Loan Company. Lucius was no longer part of the company (probably concentrating on his medical practice in Dora), Ellis was vice president, and brother Fred was secretary and treasurer. [company stationary/letters]

In the 1910 Census, Ellis Terry is living in Bessemer, Alabama, at 1704 Arlington Avenue. He is 24 years old, and a pawn broker, perhaps in business with his brothers Stephen and William. Living with him is his wife Lula, 19, born in Alabama. Her parents were born in Alabama and Tennessee. They have been married 1 year. His mother and siblings are living only a few census pages away. Also in the house are two boarders, Reuben, 25, and John, 29, Horsley. They are from Georgia.

On September 12 1918, Ellis Griffin Terry registered for the World War I draft. On the registration card, the registrar wrote "Should have registered in June 1917 - Failed on account of misunderstanding". Ellis was born September 21 1885. He was living at 1704 Arlington Avenue in Bessemer, Alabama. Ellis was self-employed as a merchant. His wife Lula A Terry was listed as his nearest relative.

About 1920, Ellis has started his own real estate and loan company. [company stationary/letters]

In the 1920 Census, Ellis (Ellie Terry on the census) is living in Bessemer, perhaps on Arlington Avenue. He is 34 years old and is a merchant (owner) of a shop; the type of shop was not legible. Living with him are his wife Lula, and their twin sons Jack and Joe, age 1. Also living with him is his niece Lucille Murrah. Lucille may be Ellis's bookkeeper.

Ellis Griffin Terry, of the Terry-Murrah Realty Company at Bessemer, is a native of Georgia, but has been active in business and civic affairs as a citizen of Bessemer for over twenty years.

Ellis G. Terry received his early school advantages in Harris County, Georgia, also attended school at Jonesboro, Alabama, and in 1902, at the age of seventeen, went to work in the dry goods and clothing store of Terry Brothers at Bessemer. Subsequently, he became a partner in the business and continued active therein until 1920. Since that year he has been in the real estate and insurance business, and in 1923 the Terry-Murrah Realty Company was established. This company acts as specialists in business property in the Birmingham district, and does a general business in real estate, rentals, and insurance.

Mr. Terry has been identified with all the movements for the progressive development of Bessemer during the last twenty years. He is a director of the Chamber of Commerce and of the YMCA, is a deacon and trustee of the South Highlands Baptist Church, is vice president of the Bessemer realty Board, is a member of the Alabama Board of Realtors, and fraternally is affiliated with the Masons and Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks. [History of Alabama and Her People, 1927 - listing for Ellis Griffin Terry, Vol III]

In the 1930 Census, Ellis is living in Bessemer, Alabama, on Fairfax Avenue (?). He is 44 years old, and a salesman in real estate. Living with him are his wife Lula C, and children Joe L and Jack S, age 11, and Gloria A, 8.

According to daughter Gloria, Ellis had an old World War II airplane that he loved to fly. He also had a motorcycle. He lost everything in the depression and had to start over. [9/2004] Since Ellis died in 1945, the airplane he had would have been from a earlier time. [CAR]

Ellis married Lula Audrey Craig, daughter of Rev. Luther Pickney Craig⁶²⁷ and Margaret Thompson,⁶²⁸ on 6 Apr 1909 in Bessemer, Jefferson County, Alabama.⁶²⁶ Lula was born on 10 Jul 1890 in Bessemer, Jefferson County, Alabama,⁶²⁹ died on 14 Jun 1968 in Montgomery, Alabama⁶³⁰ at age 77, and was buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Bessemer, Jefferson County, Alabama. They had five children: Ellis Griffin, Audrey Craig, Jack Sterling, Joe Luther, and Gloria Ann.

Noted events in their marriage were:

- Alt. Marriage: 16 Apr 1909.

General Notes: In the 1900 Census, Lula's family was living in Bessemer, AL, on the block between 6th & 7th Ave and 17th & 18th Streets. Luther P Craig appeared to be an upholsterer. Her mother Margaret had 8 children, 6 are still living in 1900. Lula is the youngest, age 9. All six children are living with their parents.

Descendants of unknown Terry

Luther Craig was a Baptist minister in Bessemer. [1]

Lula Terry was born 10 Jul 1890 and died Jun 1968. Her last residence was in Bessemer, Jefferson County, Alabama. Her Social Security number was issued in Pennsylvania before 1951. [Social Security Death Index]

General Notes: Jack S Terry was born in 1918 in Alabama. He enlisted in the military on 17 Jul 1941 at Fort McClellan, Alabama. He had 1 year of college and was working as a "Car Mechanic, Railway or Aerial Photopographer or Draftsman or Draftsman, Mechanical or Draftsman, Structural or Draftsman, Electrical (Draftsman, telephone and telegraph.) or Draftsman, Topographic or Tool Designer or Tracer or Cartographer." Jack was single. [2]

Jack was killed in action while serving with the United States armed forces in Belgium during World War II. [1, 3]

Jack fought during World War II in the Battle of the Bulge. He survived that battle without a scratch, but while recuperating at a Red Cross Hospital in Belgium was killed when it was bombed. [Catharine Philips Hager, Dec 1988. This seems contradictory - he would not have been in the hospital if he had not been wounded.- CAR]

According to niece Lou Terry White, Jack was in an airplane that was shot down. He was awarded a purple heart. [LTW 2007]

General Notes: Joe L Terry was born in 1918 in Alabama. He enlisted in the military on 1 Nov 1942 at Fort McClellan, Alabama. Joe had 1 year of college and was working as a "Car Mechanic, Railway or Aerial Phototopographer or Draftsman or Draftsman, Mechanical or Draftsman, Structural or Draftsman, Electrical (Draftsman, telephone and telegraph.) or Draftsman, Topographic or Tool Designer or Tracer or Cartographer." He was single. [2]

Joe's twin brother Jack served overseas in World War II, and was killed in the Battle of the Bulge in Belgium. Joe also joined the military, but due to a previous injury, he did not serve in combat. [1]

Joe attended the University of Alabama in Tuscaloosa, and graduated from Babson College in Massachusetts where he was stationed with the US Army during World War II. He founded Terry Realty Company in Bessemer in 1953. [3]

Joe has many Terry family history items including the pages from a Bible that have the dates for our Patterson ancestors. He also has a ledger from the Terry store in Georgia. Joe shared the location of the Carter-Griffin and Terry family cemeteries in Harris County, Georgia, with family historian Catherine Reuther about 1985 or 6.

Joe ran the Terry Brothers Realty founded by his father until he retired. His son Joe may be running it today. [1]

In his later years, Joe suffered from Alzheimer's. He had a late marriage that was annulled due to his diminished mental capacity.

General Notes: Harry L Pennington was a native of Wetumpka. [1]

Prior to marrying Gloria, Harry was married to Jeanette Bell and to Evelyn Higgins. Harry and Evelyn had two children - Harry, Jr, and Melanie (Pennington) Ezell. [1]

Harry L Pennington married Mary E [Evelyn] Higgins in May 1964 in Madison County. [2] Mary Evelyn (Higgins) Pennington died in 1972. [3]

Harry was a veteran of the U. S. Army Coast Artillery Corps (anti-aircraft). Following graduation from the University of Alabama School of Law after WWII, he settled in Huntsville, where he established a private law practice. [1]

Harry was named Circuit Solicitor (i.e. District Attorney) in 1951, and then Circuit Judge in 1955. In 1962, he was elected to the Alabama Legislature to represent Madison County. Harry served two terms. In 1970, Governor George C. Wallace chose Harry as his Executive Secretary (chief of staff) during Wallace's second term. It was in his second term that Governor Wallace was shot in an assassination attempt hospitalized. [1]

Harry was instrumental in establishing many noted programs and institutions for Huntsville and Madison County. These include the establishment and construction of Constitution Hall Village; the act creating the Alabama Space Science Exhibit commission, known as the Alabama Space and Rocket Museum (serving on that board in various capacities from 1965 - 1999); establishment of the Twickenham

5-Lena Catherine Terry was born on 17 Aug 1892 in Harris County, Georgia,²⁷⁵ died on 29 May 1934 in El Paso, El Paso County, Texas²⁷⁵ at age 41, and was buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Bessemer, Jefferson County, Alabama. The cause of her death was tuberculosis. She had no relationships and no children.

General Notes: Lena earned her Bachelor of Science from Athens College [Athens, Alabama]. [8]

In 1916-1917 Lena Catherine Terry of Bessemer, Alabama, was a student at the University of Chicago. [6]

In 1920 Lena Terry is living in Belton, Bell County, Texas, with her mother Mary Terry, They are living on College Street, boarding with Edward Whaler and his family. Lena is 27, born in Georgia as were her parents. She is a teacher at a college. [2]

In 1920 Belton, Texas, was home to Baylor Female College, part of Baylor University in Waco. Today Baylor Female College is the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor. Baylor Female's enrollment peaked at 2372 in 1925-1926. They had an expansive building program in the 1920's. After a devastating fire in 1929, the building debt and the Depression, the school was near bankruptcy. It was saved by a grant from Mary and John G Hardin, becoming the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor in 1934.

Descendants of unknown Terry

Lena was reported to have taught home economics at Baylor in Waco [1], but it is more likely she taught at Baylor Female College in Belton.

In 1920-1921 Lena C Terry taught Domestic Arts and Domestic Science [Home Ec] at the Acadamey of Baylor College [high school] in Belton, Texas. Her annual salary was $1550. Lena had 4 years of high school, 1 year of normal school, and 4 years of college. She received her BS from Athens College [Alabama], and also attended Thomas Nor[mal] and the University of Chicago. She has been teaching high school for 4 1/2 years, and teaching at this school for 1 year. [8]

In 1922 Lena C Terry (of Bessemer, Alabama) attended the University of Colorado. [7]

In 1926-1927 Lena Terry was Professor of Home Economics at Chowan College in Murphreesboro, North Carolina. Niece Margaret Murrah was Director & Coach of Athletics and niece Catharine Phillips was a sophmore. [5]

Lena Catherine was a member of the faculty at Columbia College at Columbia, South Carolina circa 1927. [4]

Lena taught home economics. She always had the most beautiful clothes. She may have lived in Bessemer when she died. [1] Lena actually died in El Paso, Texas.

Lena died in 1934 at the Homan Sanatorium in El Paso, Texas, of tuberculosis. According to her death certificate she was a resident of Alabama, but had been living in El Paso for the past two years. Dr. R. B. Homan was her attending physician, and had attended her in her illness from December 17 1933 to her death in May 1934. Lena contracted or was diagnosed with tuberculosis in 1930. [3]

Lena collected much family information from her mother on the Carter, Griffin, Terry, Ellison and Patterson families. She passed that on to her niece Catharine Phillips Hager, who passed it to granddaughter Catherine Reuther. Lena's work made Catherine Reuther's genealogy work much easier, and made this book possible.

4-Frederick Marion Terry was born on 6 Jan 1843 in Georgia,⁶⁵⁴ died on 25 Jul 1906 in Atlanta, Fulton County, Georgia⁶⁵⁵ at age 63, and was buried on 26 Jul 1906 in Westview Cemetery, Atlanta, Georgia.⁶⁵⁶

General Notes: Fred Terry is listed on the 3rd Georgia Calvary, Company C muster roll dated April 1, 1861. Also on the list are his brothers John and Thomas (James Polk) Terry. Fred's brother-in-law A.S. (Adjer) Ellison, and his brother Job Ellison also joined Company C. [3]

Fred is also listed on a transcription for the Georgia Volunteer Infantry, 4th Regiment, Company A, as a private June 30, 1861. He was discharged May 20, 1862, after furnishing William Kellum as a substitute. He then enlisted as a private in Georgia State Troops. Company A was the first volunteer troop from Talbot County.

On 21 October 1861, F M Terry, private in Company A, 4th regiment Georgia Volunteers, was admitted to the Regimental Hospital, 4 Georgia Volunteers, with ____ fever. He was sent to the General Hospital on 24 October, and discharged on 31 October. [4]

In April 1862, Fred had been ill with Typhoid fever when he furnished a substitute for himself in Company A, 4th Georgia Regiment Volunteers. He was discharged as unfit for duty and was ill for 8 months. During that time he was under the care of Dr H K Stanford of Waverly Hall [Harris County, GA]. Fred then reported to Confederate officials in Columbus, GA. The surgeon gave him a furlough on account of his health. His health continued to be bad until the next spring [1863]. At that time Fred was exempt from service as he owned 15 working negroes engaged in farming in Harris County. In the spring of 1864, Fred again entered the service and remained in the militia until allowed to return home. He then reported to Confederate officials with Major Bryan's command at Midway, GA, and remained with that command until the end of the war. Just before the end of the war, in April 1865, he was given a sick furlough and was at home in Harris County when the war ended. Fred was paroled by United States officials about 23 May 1865 in Columbus, GA. [1]

The 1880 Census (www.familysearch.org) lists Fred M. Terry, age 35 (born about 1845), farming in District 904, Talbot county, Georgia, with his wife, Mary, age 34 (born about 1846). Living with them are their 6 children, Janie, age 14, Sallie, age 11, Fred, age 8, Maggie, age 5, and twins (?) Stephen and James, age 2. Fred and Mary both list their birthplace as Georgia. Fred lists his father and mother's birthplaces as South Carolina and Maryland, respectively. Mary lists her father's birthplace as Tennessee and her mother's birthplace as Georgia.

Descendants of unknown Terry

The family was in Texas the following year when daughter Bessie was born.

In the 1900 Census, Fred M Terry is living at 145 Grant Street in Atlanta, Fulton Co, Georgia. He is 56 years old, and may be a patent medicine dealer (the census was difficult to read). Fred was born in Georgia, his father in South Carolina, and his mother at sea. Living with Fred are his wife Mary E, 54, sons Hill S, 22, and James G, 22, and daughter Bessie S, 18. Bessie was born in Texas. Fred and Mary have been married for 35 years.

In December 1905, Frederick M Terry of Fulton County, Georgia, applied for a Confederate soldier pension from the state of Georgia. [1]

Mr F M Terry died July 1906. The funeral was held at his home at 145 Grant Street. Fred was survived by his wife. His surviving children appear to be J Gordon Terry, F D Terry, Mrs W M Edwards, Bessie Terry, H S Terry, & Mrs M F Barnes. [2 - see Note] left $100 to his niece Margaret Ellison. He also left $400 to his beloved niece Mary Terry, wife of F? Terry [Mary Davis Terry wife of Fred Terry, daughter of Jane Ellison Davis] to be invested for the sole use and benefit of herself and her children. The balance of his estate was to be divided equally between the children of niece Mary Terry. The will was recorded in the Talbot County will book 5 June 1898.

On the 1900 Census, Mary has had 7 children and all are living.

In the 1910 Census, Mary E Terry is living in Atlanta, Fulton Co, Georgia. She is 64 years old and a widow. Mary was born in Georgia. Her father was born in Tennessee and her mother in South Carolina. She is living in the house of her son Fred D Terry and his family, and with her son Stephen. Mary has had 7 children and all are living.

In the 1920 Census, Mary Esther Terry is living in Atlanta with her son Frederick D Terry and his family. She is 74 years old and a widow. Mary was born in Georgia. Her father was born in Tennessee and her mother in Georgia (should be South Carolina).

Mrs. Mary E. Terry died at her home 249 Hill Street, Atlanta, Georgia, on 16 February 1925, of acute nephritis (senility). She was attended by her physician from 14 January 1925 until her death the following month. Mary was survived by her three sons R.D. (should be F.D.), H.S. & J.G, and her three daughters Mrs. S.A. Smith and Mrs. W.N. Edwards of Atlanta and Mrs. J.F. Powell of Cruso, Texas. [1, 2, 3]

General Notes: Sarah died in Mississippi in a train wreck. [1]

In May 1912, Sallie was on a train from Texas to Atlanta to visit her mother, who was in feeble health, and that she had not seen for five years. Also on the train were numerous Confederate veterans on their way to a reunion in Macon, Georgia. On 6 May the train (the New Orleans and Northeastern railroad) derailed five miles north of Hattiesburg, Mississippi, near Estabutchie (or Eastabuchie). The locomotive, baggage car, day coach, and three tourist sleepers derailed and tumbled down a high embankment as the train crossed a trestle. Nine people were killed, including Mrs Charles Holmes of Big Spring, Texas. At least 35 people were injured, some seriously. [2]

Mrs Holmes made her home in Big Springs since about 1901, having moved there from Fort Worth. She had four children, a son that died at age 3 and was buried in Fort Worth, and three daughters Ruth, Mary and Jane. Sallie was also survived by her mother Mrs T M Terry [should be F M] of Atlanta, sister Mrs J F Powell of Grand Saline, TX, aunts Mrs S C Sewell of Corpus Christi, and Bettie Ethridge of Dallas, and uncles James Davis of Corpus Christi and John Davis of Falls County, TX. She was also survived by her sister Mrs Samuel Smith of Gabbettville, GA, and siblings in Atlanta - Mrs Margaret Edward, Miss R S Terry [sister Bessie S Terry Smith listed twice?], and Fred, Hill, and Gordon Terry. Marriage Notes: No record of Bessie' marriage has been found in Fulton or DeKalb counties, and they may have married in Troup county where Samuel was operating a grocery store when they married.

Descendants of unknown Terry

General Notes: In 1910 Samuel A Smith and wife Bessie S are living in LaGrange, Troup County, Georgia, where Samuel is co-proprietor of a retail grocery store. They have been married 0 months, so appear to have married in March 1910. Samuel is 27, born in Georgia, and Bessie is 26, born in Texas, her parents in Georgia. [1]

Samuel became sheriff of Gabbettville in Troup County between 1910 and 1912. [7]

In September 1918, Samuel Arthur Smith is living in Troup County, and is sheriff. He was born 2 November 1882, and his nearest relative is [wife] Bessie Sue Smith. [2]

In 1920 Samuel A Smith is in LaGrange, and is county sheriff. He lives at the jail with his family, two servants, two boarders, and 12 prisoners. Samuel is 39, born in Georgia. Wife Bessie T is 36, born in Texas, her parents in Georgia. With them are their children, Everett T, 9, Sarah, 6, and Samuel E, 2 years and 8 months. [3]

The Smiths probably moved to Atlanta about 1922.

In 1930 Sam H Smith is living in Atlanta, Fulton County, Georgia. He is 47 and a detective with the city police department. Sam owns his own home worth $6000. With him are his wife Bessie, 48, and children Sara R, 17, Samuel E, 14, and Bettie, 8. Bessie was born in Texas and her parents in Georgia and Alabama. [4]

At one point, Samuel held the world's record for most recovered stolen cars. [8]

Sam was a City Detective on the police force where he was an outstanding member of the automobile theft squad. He had been on the detective force more than 10 years when he died in 1932. [6]

On Saturday, 22 October 1932, Sam A Smith was in an automobile collision in Mabelton, Georgia. He suffered a broken back, and died on 24 October 1932 at Grady hospital in Atlanta. In addition to his wife, Sam was survived by his daughters Misses Betty and Sarah Smith. At his burial, he had an honorary escort of the police and detective forces. [5, 6]

Mary married Andrew T Matia, son of Thomas E Matia.

Stephen next married Sarah Sutton,⁸¹⁴ daughter of Jeremiah Sutton¹⁷ and Mary Ann Rickenbacker,⁸¹⁶ on 31 May 1871 in Harris County, Georgia.⁸¹⁵ Sarah was born in Jul 1838 in Georgia²⁵ and died about 1915 about age 77. They had one son: Jeremiah Sutton.

General Notes: In 1850, Sarah C Sutton is living in Harris County, Georgia, with her parents Jeremiah Sutton and Mary A. Jeremiah and Mary, along with their two oldest children, were born in South Carolina. Sarah is 11, born abt 1839 in Georgia. Also in the house is her older sister Martha, 12. Sarah's son Jeremiah Terry would live with Martha in her later years. [2]

The Suttons are probably from Fairfield district, South Carolina, where the Terrys are from, and where Jeremiah Sutton is listed on the 1830 Census.

On December 3, 1857, Sarah Sutton married Sidney F Weaver in Harris County, Georgia. [4]

In 1860 Sarah Weaver is living in Columbus, Muscogee County, Georgia. She is 22 years old and married to Sidney E Weaver, age 28. With them are their children John, 2, and Mary, 3 months in June. Sidney was an overseer with real estate valued at $9600 and personal property of $19, 840. [3]

Sidney E Weaver served with the Confederacy in Company E, the 2nd Regiment, Georgia Infantry. He probably died in the Civil War. His regiment saw heavy fighting in Virginia and lost many men.

Descendants of unknown Terry

In the 1870 Census, Sarah C Weaver, age 32, born in Georgia is keeping house for Stephen Terry. With her are her children John S Weaver, age 12, and Sidney Weaver, age 8.

Sarah was probably pregnant before she and Stephen D Terry married. She is widowed in 1870 when the census was taken in July. According to the 1900 Census, her son Jeremiah Terry was born the following year in March 1871. Sarah would have already been pregnant when the census was taken. [CAR]

In 1894, when son Jeremiah was about 23 years old, Sarah A[?] Terry, guardian of J S Terry (who is the orphan of S D Terry), requested her guardianship of Jeremiah be dismissed. It was granted 5 March 1894. [5]

In the 1900 Census, Mrs. Sarah Terry is living in the Milners Crossroads District of Harris County, Georgia. She was born July 1838 in Georgia. Her age was difficult to read, but this would make her 61 at the time of the Census. She is widowed and a farmer. On the census, she reported that she was a mother to 5 children, only one of which was living. Her children John, Mary, and Sidney Weaver may have died, or married, before the 1880 Census, as they were not living with her and Stephen Terry at that time.

Living with Sarah in 1900, are her step-son, Stephen Terry, and her son Jessy or Jerry, daughter-in-law Elizabeth, and two grandchildren, Jason(?) and Bonnie(?). Son Jessy is 29, born March 1871. Elizabeth is 25, born March 1875. The children are 4 and 1 years old. (The 1900 census was difficult to read for Jessy and the children's names, as well as the birth dates for Sarah, Stephen, and the youngest child.)

In the 1910 Census, Sarah Terry is living in the Milners Crossroads District of Harris County. She is a farmer, 71 years old and born in Georgia. As on the 1900 Census, she is widowed, and the mother of 5 children, only one is living. Living with her are her son Jerry, age 38 and widowed, and her step-son Stephen Terry, age 75. Also in the house are three grandchildren, Jisse (Jesse), age 13, Bonnie, age 11, and Bittie (Betty), age 9.

Sarah was not found in the census after 1910, and may have died about 1914-1915 when land from Stephen D Terry's estate was sold in December 1915. She is reportedly buried in the Terry Family Cemetery in Harris County. No marker has been found.

Jeremiah were Jeremiah Terry,²⁶ Jerry Terry,⁴² and Jerry S Terry.²²⁷

General Notes: In 1900 Jerry Terry is living in the Milners Crossroads District of Harris County, Georgia. He is living in the home of his mother Mrs. Sarah Terry. Jerry is 29, born March 1871. With him are his wife Elizabeth, 25, and two children, Jason(?), 4, and Bonnie(?), 1. Also in the house is Jerry's half-brother Stephen Terry.

In the 1910 Census, Jerry is living in the Milners Crossroads District of Harris County, with his mother Sarah Terry and his half-brother Stephen. He is 38 and widowed. Also are his children Jisse (? - Jerry?), age 13, Bonnie, age 11, and Bittie (?), age 9.

In the 1920 Census, J. S. Terry is living in Milners Cross Roads, Harris Co, Georgia, in the house of his aunt Miss Mat. [Martha] Sutton. Martha is 83 years old, single, and was born in Georgia. Jerry is 45 years old, widowed, and a farmer. He was born in Georgia, his father in South Carolina, and his mother in Georgia. Also in the house is his daughter Bonnie, and her husband Carson Blackwell and their son Terry Carson.

In the 1930 Census, he is living in the house of Martha Sutton, age 95. Jerry M Terry is 59 years old, born in Georgia, and widowed. He is a justice of the peace for the county. Also living in the house is his daughter Bonnie M Blackwell, niece of Martha, age 32, and widowed, and her son Terry Blackwell, age 11.

In her 1930 will, Martha Sutton made J S Terry one of her executors.

Family members report that Jeremiah lied about everything and could not be trusted. [2]

Jerry is probably the Jermia[h] S Terry (male) who died in Harris County 22 Jun 1953 at age 81 [born about 1872]. He was living in Harris County at the time of his death. [1]

Jeremiah may be buried at Primitive Baptist Church in Shiloh, Harris County, Georgia. [2]

In the 1860 Census, F J H Terry is 52 years old and farming in the 782 District of east Harris County, GA. Living with him are his mother Mary, and F M Terry, age 17, probably Fred's nephew Fred M Terry. Fred owns real estate valued at $1200, and personal estate valued at $53900. Fred owns 65 slaves, ranging in age from 2 months to 70 years. They live in 13 slave houses.

During the Civil War, Fred Terry was swung up a tree by Yankee soldiers who wanted to know where he had hidden his gold. Who knows why they did not hang him as he did not tell them what they wanted to know. The gold was buried near a creek. It was apparently lost, as it was never dug up. [1]

In the 1870 Census, Frederick is living in Harris County, Georgia. He is 67 years old (should be 64), born in South Carolina, and a farmer. He lists the value of his real estate as $7200 and his personal estate as $1600. His brother Stephen lives only 4 households away on the Census.

In the 1880 Census (www.familysearch.org), F. J. H. Terry, age 69 (his correct age is 74), is a single, retired farmer living in Milners Cross Roads, Harris county, Georgia. He was born in South Carolina, as were both of his parents. He is living in the household of John Wadsworth, age 22, John's wife Babe, age 20, and their daughter Leola, age 2.

Fred Terry died at his home in Talbot County on 26 January 1884 of pneumonia. His brother John died in the same room, also of pneumonia, a few days later. They were life-long members of the Primitive Baptist church. [3] Fred was at one time in affluent circumstances. It was also reported that he was a citizen of Milner's district, Harris County. [4]
