Descendants of Adam Wilhelm Reuther

1-Adam Wilhelm Reuther,¹ son of Johann Adam Reuther² and Anna Eva Schuster², was born on 6 Feb 1810 in Trogen, Oberfranken District, Kingdom of Bayern (Bavaria),² died on 8 Aug 1892 in Sugar Valley, Greene Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania³ at age 82, and was buried in Bixler Church/MT Union Cemetery, Carroll, Greene Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania.⁴ The cause of his death was suicide. Another name for Adam was Adam Wilhelm Schuster.²

General Notes: Lotta Reuther Longstreet lists Adam's birthplace as Trogen bei Hof, Oberfranken, Bayen and/or as Trogen bei Hof, Oberfranken, Bavaria. The correct German spelling for Bavaria is Bayern.

Hof is an old city in the Oberfranken (Upper Franconia) region of northeast Bavaria, Germany, near Saxony and Thuringia, and dates back to the eleventh century. Hof was devastated by a fire in 1823 when Adam was young. Trogen is about four miles from Hof. In 2004, Trogen was still an independent town with a population of 1500.

As a young man, Adam moved to Heinersdorf bei Lobenstein (Heinersdorf, Furstentum Reuss jungere Linie - the village of Heinersdorf is near the larger town of Lobenstein), where he married Joanna about 1830 and they had their children.

Adam's children Christian and Catherine reported on the 1910 Census that they immigrated in 1850. Adam's naturalization records record that he immigrated in 1851.

On October 21 1853, Adam, Joanna, and their five youngest children (excluding Christian) arrived in Philadelphia from Bremen on the ship Louise Marie. Their last residence was Lobenstein. Adam was 43 and a shoemaker. The children ranged in age from Hannah, age 20, to Herman, age 5. [4]

It appears son Christian may have immigrated before the rest of the family. Or Adam and Christian may have immigrated in 1851, with Adam returning to fetch the rest of the family in 1853.

In Philadelphia on 10 April 1854, Adam Wm. Reuther (signed Adam Wilhelm Reuther) declared his intent to become a citizen. He was 44 years old and owed his allegiance to the Prince of Reus (Principality of Ruess Younger Line). [3]

Lotta reports the Reuthers settled in Sugar Valley, near the township of Carol, near Williamsport, PA. [letter 1963] Williamsport is in Lycoming County, next to the corner of Clinton County where Adam was living in 1857. "Past & Present Of Clinton County" by J. Milton Furey, 1892, lists the village of Carroll in the extreme east end of Green township.

By 1857, Adam has moved to Clinton County from Philadelphia, when he first appears on the tax records with one cow. On 8 February 1858, Adam purchased 100 acres in Greene township from James Hale. One month later he sold 50 acres to his son John C Reuther [Christian] of Philadelphia. [2]

On 12 September 1859, Adam W Reuther became a citizen of the United States in Clinton County, PA. Adam claimed to have immigrated in 1851. His son Christian Reuther vouched for him as living in the US for the last five years and of good moral character. Adam renounced his allegiance to the Prince of Reuss. Also present were his son-in-law Frederick Amm (who became a citizen the same day).

Adam had a small cemetery on his farm used to bury the family's deceased children. The first born child, a son, of Frederick Amm and Caroline Reuther was buried there. [Mary Hoffer - letter of Hilda Jeffries]

In the 1860 Census Adam (Adam Rider on the census) is living in Greene Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania. He is 50 years old and a shoemaker. The value of Adam's real estate is $357 and his personal estate is $150. The census taker has incorrectly recorded his birthplace as Penn. Living with him are Hannah, 56, (his wife Johanna), Henry, 17, Hamman (Herman), 12, and Harman Clobes (Herman Klobe), 3. Adam is living next door to his son Christian Reuther and his son-in-law Frederick Amm. Herman Klobe is the illegitimate son of Adam's daughter Hannah and Carl/Charles Klobe.

In the 1870 Census, Adam (Albert Reale on the census) is living in Greene Township, Clinton County, in the Sugar Valley area. He is 60 years old, a shoemaker, and was born in Saxony, Germany. He is a citizen. Living with him is his wife Hanah, 65, also born in Saxony. The value of Adam's real estate is $350 and his personal estate is $100. Adam is living near his sons-in-law Frederick Amm and Henry Martz.

In 1879 Adam Reuther testified in the case of Andrew G Curtin vs. Seth H Yocum over who had the right to be seated in Congress. From his testimony:

Adam was 69 years old, born in Germany, a shoemaker, living in Greene township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania. He was naturalized in Lock Haven on 12 September 1859, and had resided in Greene township since 1857.

Adam recalled that he voted Democrat in the 1878 election.

Adam paid his state/county tax on 25 May 1877 to David Geisweit. David Geisweit, the tax collector, owed Adam $100 and wanted to keep it longer, so David "kept these taxes out of the interest" owed to Adam. [6]

In the 1880 Census, Adam Reuther is living in Greene township, Clinton County. He is 70 years old (born about 1810), and his occupation is listed as shoemaker. His and his parents' birthplace is listed as Bayern (Bavaria). Adam is living with Herman Klobe, age 23 (born about 1857), a farm laborer, born in Pennsylvania, with his parents born in Bavaria. They are living close by Adam's son Herman, and sons-in-law Frederick Amm and Henry Martz.

In August 1882, Adam sold his land to his son Henry G Reuther for $1 to keep his father during his lifetime, plus 50 cents weekly. Adam must have changed his mind, as in October of the same year, Henry and his wife Emma sold the land back to his father for $5. On that same day, Adam sold the land to Mary Elizabeth Hoffmeister for $1400. (I guess Adam thought he had a better deal from Mary. - CAR)

Adam committed suicide on 8 August 1892 in Carroll, Greene Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania, by gunshot. Amazingly enough, Adam shot himself in the breast with a muzzle loader rifle using either the ramrod or his foot to pull the trigger. He was living with his son Herman at the time. Adam was reported to have been eccentric and displayed peculiar actions throughout his life. [1, 5]

Adam married Johanna F Wolfram¹⁰ about 1830 in Heinersdorf (Now Wurzbach), Saale-Orla-Kreis, Thuringen, Germany. Johanna was born on 11 Aug 1805 in Heinersdorf (Now Wurzbach), Saale-Orla-Kreis, Thuringen, Germany,¹¹ died on 13 Nov 1871 in Greene Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania¹² at age 66, and was buried in Bixler Church/MT Union Cemetery, Carroll, Greene Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania.⁴ Another name for Johanna was Hannah Wohlfrom.¹³ They had six children: Christian John, Hannah Maria, Caroline H, Catherine Hennrietta, Georg Heinrich "Henry," and Herman G.

Marriage Notes: Adam married after his first child was born. (per Lotta Reuther's "The Reuther Family")

If we assume Christian was Adam and Joanna's first born, they were married about 1830 after he was born in December 1829.

Noted events in their marriage were:

- Alt. Marriage: Heinersdorf Bei Lobenstein, Furstenbum Reis (Or Reus).⁵

General Notes: Only on daughter Catherina Henrietta (Reuther) Rosser's death certificate is her mother's full name given. Johanna's grandson Jesse B Rosser was the informant. [2]

According to Aunt Lotta, Joanna was from Heinersdorf bei Lobenstein, Furstentum Reis (or Reus). In 1860 the Census showed Joanna's birthplace as Saxony. Her son Christian showed his and his mother's birthplaces as Saxony on the 1880 Census. Daughter Caroline and son Herman showed their and their mother's birthplaces as Ferstentum/Ferstentum on the 1880 Census. Son

Descendants of Adam Wilhelm Reuther

Herman shows his and his mother's birthplaces as Saxony on the 1920 Census.

Joanna's birthplace was Heinersdorf, Furstentum Reuss jungere Linie, or the village of Heinersdorf in the Principality of Ruess Younger Line, one of several small Thuringian states. Furstentum Reuss jungere Linie was only 320 square miles, one-fifth the size of the state of Rhode Island. In 1920, the seven small Thuringian states were merged into one state called Thuringen (Thuringia in English). Today, Heinersdorf is part of the city of Wurzbach, Saale-Orla-Kreis (Saale-Orla Administrative District), Thuringen (Thuringia). The Heinersdorf area of Wurzbach is 3 miles west of Lobenstein.

Johanna F Reuther died 13 November 1871 at age 66 years, 3 months, and 2 days. Buried at Mount Union Cemetery, Clinton County, Pennsylvania. [1]

- Alt. Birth: 1805.⁴
- Alt. Birth: 21 Mar 1805, Heinersdorf (Now Wurzbach), Saale-Orla-Kreis, Thuringen, Germany.¹⁵

2-Christian John Reuther was born on 18 Dec 1829 in Heinersdorf (Now Wurzbach), Saale-Orla-Kreis, Thuringen, Germany,¹⁶ died on 3 Feb 1912 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania⁵ at age 82, and was buried on 6 Feb 1912 in Northwood Cemetery, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.¹⁷ Other names for Christian were Johann Christian Reuther¹⁸ and John Christian Reuther.

General Notes: Christian was born in Heinersdorf, Furstentum Reuss jungere Linie, or the village of Heinersdorf in the Principality of Ruess Younger Line, one of several small Thuringian states. Today, Heinersdorf is part of the city of Wurzbach, Saale-Orla-Kreis (Saale-Orla Administrative District), Thuringen (Thuringia), Germany.

According to Christian's death certificate, he was born December 18, 1829.

Although Christian's granddaughter Lotta Reuther Longstreet records his name as Christian, based on a land sale from Adam to Christian, and his citizenship papers, Christian's name was John Christian Reuther. Only in those two records does his name appear that way.

Christian reported on the 1910 Census that he immigrated in 1850. He reported on his naturalization papers that he immigrated in 1841 (at about age 12). His father Adam's naturalization records state that he immigrated in 1851. By reporting his immigration as 1841, which would have him immigrating before he was 18, Christian could become a citizen right away without the normal waiting period. His actual immigration was probably 1851. I have seen others who appeared to do this. [CAR]

Christian's parents and siblings immigrated on October 21 1853, arriving in New York from

Descendants of Adam Wilhelm Reuther

Bremen on the ship Louise Marie. It appears Christian immigrated before the rest of the family. Adam and Christian may have immigrated in 1851, with Adam returning to fetch the rest of the family in 1853.

On 30 November 1856, in Philadelphia, John C Reuther become a citizen of the US. John arrived in New York in 1841. He was younger than 18, and therefore did not have to declare his intention to become a citizen prior to his naturalization. John owed allegiance to the King of Prussia. [4] It appears that Christian may have falsified his citizenship papers to avoid the normal wait period, as he most likely immigrated about 1851 when he was about 21. [CAR]

On 24 September 1857, Christian vouched for his brother-in-law Charles Klobe when Charles became a US citizen in Philadelphia.

In March 1858, Adam William Reuther sold to John C Reuther of Philadelphia 50 acres of land in Greene township, Clinton Co, PA, that Adam had just bought the month before. Christian first appears in the tax records for Clinton County in 1858. Christian appears on those tax records as "Christian", not "John". [3]

In the 1860 Census Christian Reuther is living in Greene Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania. Mill Hall is the closest post office. He is 30 years old and a shoemaker. The census taker has incorrectly recorded his birthplace as Penn. Christian's real estate is valued at $350 and his personal estate as $60. Living with him are his wife Amelia, 25, and children Harman, 3, Ida, 2, Henry, 1, and Mary, 2 months. Christian is living next door to his father (Adam Rider on the census) and brother-in-law Fredrich Ann (or Amm).

Christian and Emilie moved to Philadelphia between 1860 and 1870.

Christian was drafted for the Union Army in the Civil War. His 4th or 5th child was about to be born and so he paid for a substitute (an acceptable practice at the time) [1].

In the 1870 Census, Christian and Amelia Reuther, age 40 and 35, are living in Philadelphia. Christian is a shoemaker. Christian and Amelia's birthplaces are listed as Saxony. Christian is a citizen. Living with them are seven children ages 13 to 1 - Herman, Ida, Henry, Annie [Annie is actually Anna Baldwin], Emma, Caroline, and Amelia. All the children were born in Pennsylvania.

The are living at 947 Adler. [6]

On the 1880 Census Christian and Amelia Reuther, aged 50 and 44 [born 1830 & 1836], are living at 920 North Twelfth Street in Philadelphia where Christian was a cordwainer, or shoemaker. Nine children ages 23 to 2 are living with them - Herman, Ida, Henry, Annie [Annie is actually Anna Baldwin], Emma, Caroline, Charles, Christian, and Laura. Son Herman is also a cordwainer. All the children are listed as being born in Pennsylvania. Christian and Amelia show their birthplaces as Saxony. Christian's parents' birthplaces are Bavaria & Saxony, and Amelia's parents' birthplaces are both in Saxony.

Christian was described by granddaughter Lotta Reuther as a very stern, hard working man. [1]

Descendants of Adam Wilhelm Reuther

He was an excellent shoemaker. His clientele was the rich for only the wealthy could afford custom made shoes. He had no machines, - it was all done by hand [2].

When Grandma was fifty plus she was very happy that grandpa decided to give up his shoemaking & go back to the farm in Sugar Valley. Approximate date 1882. Grandpa sold his home and took the younger members of the family to the farm. So Emma, Carrie, Charles, Christian, & Laura went into the wilderness (as Emma called it). But about 1898 or 9 Grandfather sold the farm and returned to Philadelphia. He bought a house (1234 N. 12th St) and here Laura, Carrie & Ida lived with their parents. [1].

In October 1894, Christian and Amelia Reuther of Philadelphia sold 50 acres in Greene township to Samuel Brown.

Christian is not listed in the Philadelphia city directories in 1885, or between 1890 & 1895. [6]

He was so busy that he worked 7 days a week. In order to see him when we called on Sunday afternoons, we went to the second story rear room where we found him on his shoemaker bench in that little room so fragrant with the aroma of new leather. His hands were crippled from constantly holding his tools. He continued his work until about 5 years before his death when he was forced to quit - the hands that had made so many beautiful shoes could no longer hold the tools. [2] Christian must have retired about 1907.

In the 1900 Census, Christian Reuther is living at 1234 North Twelfth Street in Philadelphia. He is 70 years old, born in Germany and a shoemaker. Christian's wife Amelia is 64 and was born in Germany. They have been married 45 years. Amelia had had 14 children, 9 are living. Their daughters Ida, 42, and Laura, 23, are living with them.

In the 1910 Census, Christian (Kristian Reuther on the census) is living in Philadelphia with his son Herman. He is 81 years old, widowed, and born in Germany. He immigrated in 1850 and is a naturalized citizen. Christian is apparently retired as he is living on his "own income".

Christian's last address was 1234 N. Girard Ave in Philadelphia. [5]

Christian fell ill with La Grippe - influenza or the flu - in early December 1911, and died on February 3, 1912, from a cerebral hemorrhage, secondarily from the flu. He was buried on February 6 at Northwood Cemetery in Philadelphia. Christian's father on his death certificate is Adam Reuther, but son Henry incorrectly reported Amelia Klobe as his mother. Amelia (or Emilie) Klobe was his wife. [5]

Christian married Emilie Klobe, daughter of Johann Christian Heinrich Klobe and Christiane Henriette Margarethe, on 30 Apr 1855 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.¹⁹ Emilie was born on 18 Jun 1835 in Grumbach (Now Wurzbach), Saale-Orla-Kreis, Thuringen, Germany,²⁰ was christened on 19 Jun 1835 in Wurzbach, Saale-Orla-Kreis, Thuringen, Germany,²¹ died on 24 Nov 1905 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania²² at age 70, and was buried on 28 Nov 1905 in Northwood Cemetery, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.²³ Other names for Emilie were Amelia Klobe, Caroline Christiana Emilie Klobe,¹⁸ and Christiane Karoline Emilie Klobe.²¹ They had 13 children: Heinrich Hermann, Herman Henry, Ida Caroline, Henry Christian, Mary, Edward, Emma L, Caroline May "Carrie," Amelia, Charles Ferdinand, Christian Ernst, Louisa Amelia, and Laura Henriette.

Marriage Notes: Per Lotta Reuther's "The Reuther Family", Emilie married Christian when she was 18. Emilie bore 14 children, of whom 9 lived. Lotta thought they were probably all born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. When Emilie was 50 plus years old she urged Christian to give up his business as a shoemaker and move to the farm in Sugar Valley, PA. They were there in 1887, but had returned to Philadelphia before 1897.

Christian and Emilie moved to Sugar Valley in 1882 with the younger children, Emma, Carrie, Charles, Christian, and Laura. They sold the farm and returned to Philadelphia in 1898 or 1899. When they returned to Philadelphia, they bought a house at 1234 N. 12th Street, and lived there with Laura, Carrie, and Ida. [Letter, Lotta Reuther Longstreet to Russell & Lydia Reuther, Sept 29, 1963]

General Notes: Lotta reported Emilie's birthplace as Grumbach bei Wurdthbach, Furstentum Reis, Germany.

Emilie's birthplace was Grumbach, Furstentum Reuss jungere Linie, or the village of Grumbach in the Principality of Ruess Younger Line, one of several small Thuringian states. Furstentum Reuss jungere Linie was only 320 square miles, one-fifth the size of the state of Rhode Island. In 1920, the seven small Thuringian states were merged into one state called Thuringen (Thuringia in English). Today, Grumbach is part of the city of Wurzbach, Saale-Orla-Kreis (Saale-Orla Administrative District), Thuringen (Thuringia).

Interestingly enough, Grumbach and Heinersdorf, Christian's birthplace, are today both part of Wurzbach.

Emilie emigrated to America with her brother, Herman [should be Charles, aka Carl], and a sister. Her father was a goldsmith. She emigrated to America at age 16, about 1851, with her brother Herman and a sister who Lotta only remembers as "Tante" (or aunt). Another

Descendants of Adam Wilhelm Reuther

sister, Ida, remained in Germany.[1, 2]

Emilie Klobe actually immigrated in 1854. She arrived in New York City on 12 June 1854 on the ship Raleigh. Emilie was 18 years old, from Grumbach, and bound for Philadelphia. She was traveling with Henriette Klobe, 23, probably her sister. No other Klobes were listed on the ship's passenger list. Interestingly, there was a Fred. Amm, age 25, from Gissubel, also traveling to Pennsylvania. He is probably the Frederick Amm who married Emilie's future sister-in-law Caroline Reuther by 1858. [3]

Emilie had fourteen children. Nine of those survived childhood and were still living in 1900 (as reported on the census that year). Five children who died young have been identified - Heinrich, Mary, Edward, Amelia and Louisa Amelia. Another child may have been born about 1877 between Louisa Amelia and Laura. It is not clear if the number fourteen includes Anna Reuther/Baldwin, daughter of Emilie's sister Henriette Klobe, who was raised by Emilie and Christian.

According to her death certificate, Emilie was 70 years, 4 months, and 6 days old when she died on Nov 24, 1905. This would have her born July 18, 1835.

When Lotta was small she remembered her grandmother's sister, Tante. Tante had a tiny candy store just beyond 15th St on the south side of Fairmont Ave [in Philadelphia]. Her husband was blind. On Sunday morning she often came to see us & she always carried a little basket on her arm in which she had a few pieces or sticks of candy covered with a napkin, - a little gift to us. I can still see her tiny shop which was the front of their dwelling. [2]

Emelia Klobe was a very quiet, meek little woman who was dominated by her husband who was a very stern, hard working man. [2]

Emilie's name often appears in records as Amelia. It may be that the pronunciation sounded like Amelia, rather than the way we pronounce Emily today in the U.S.

General Notes: In the 1880 Census, Herman is living at home. He is a shoemaker like his father and grandfather.

Herman married Margaret about 1882. From their daughter Minnie's death certificate, Margaret was Margaret Ewing.

In 1885 Herman H Reuther is living at 920 N 12th in Philadelphia. His business is shoes. [2]

Throughout the 1890's, Herman is living at 1232 Poplar Street. His business is shoes. [2 - 1890, 1895, 1897 & 1898]

In the 1900 Census, Herman is living at 1232 Poplar Street in Philadelphia. He is 43 years old a shoemaker. Living with Herman are his wife Margaret, 42, born in Germany, and children Herman, 16, Minnie, 13, and Gertie, 11. Herman and Margaret have been married 18 years. Margaret has had 5 children, 3 are living. Also in the house are two boarders.

In the 1910 Census, Herman is living at 1234 N. Girard Avenue in Philadelphia. He is 53 years old, and was born in Pennsylvania. He is the proprietor of a shoe store. Living with him are his wife Margaret, 52, and born in Germany. Herman and Margaret have been married for 27 years. Living with them are their daughters Gertrude and Minne, and Herman's father Christian.

In 1911 the Common Pleas court was scheduled to hear a suit between the Stephen Putney Shoe Company and Herman H Reuther. [1]

In the 1920 Census, Herman and his wife Margarete are living in Philadelphia. Herman is 63, born in Pennsylvania, and a shoemaker. Margarete is 62, and was born in Germany. Living with them are their two granddaughters, Margarete and Wilma Gibbons, age 6 and 5. They are the daughters of Herman's daughter Minnie.

Noted events in their marriage were:

- Alt. Marriage: Abt 1883.³⁹

General Notes: On the birth records for her children Mary and Esther, Margaret's name is listed as Mary and Mary M.

In the 1910 Census, Herman and Margaret reported Margaret was the mother of five children, of which three were living in 1910.

In the 1900 & 1910 Censuses, Margaret's year of immigration is 1872.

The 1920 Census for daughter Gertrude records Margaret's birthplace as Prussia.

On the 1930 Census, Margaret is living in Philadelphia on North Third Street with her daughter Gertrude and her son-in-law William Galt. Margaret is 72 years old, reports she married at age 25, was born in Germany, immigrated in 1885, and is a naturalized citizen. Also living with them is Margaret Reuther, niece of William Galt. She is probably Margaret Gibbons, Margaret's granddaughter who was living with her and Herman in 1920.

Mrs. Margt. Reuther, widow of Herman H Reuther, died on 27 August 1939 of a cerebral thrombosis. She also suffered from arteriosclerosis. [1]

5-Alma Katherine Gibbons⁹⁷ was born on 14 Jun 1914 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania⁹⁸ and died on 28 May 1997⁹⁹ at age 82. Another name for Alma was Alma Katherine Thomas.

General Notes: According to a tree posted on Ancestry.com, Alma Catherine Gibbons-Thomas's mother Emily Reuther died in childbirth when she was born in 1914. Her father Charles Gibbons died in 1920, and her step-mother could not afford to raise her. She was placed in several foster homes, and was adopted in September 1920 by William & Josephine Thomas. [1] The foster home story is probably incorrect, as Wilma was with her grandparents in 1920, the year after her father died, and the same year she was reportedly adopted. [CAR]

Two confirmations identifying Alma Schug as Alma Gibbons:

Alma K Gibbons was born 14 Jun 1914 in Phila. Her mother was M Ruther. No Alma Thomas was found. [4]

Alma Shug of Philadelphia was listed as a survivor to her sister Margaret Cooper in 1993. [5]

In 1920 (the year after her father died), Wilma Gibbons and her sister Margarette are living in Philadelphia with their grandparents Herman and Margarete Reuther. [2]

In 1930 Alma C Thomas, age 16, is living in Philadelphia with her parents William & Josephine Thomas. William is 63 and a sawyer for a furniture manufacturer. Josephine is 56. William owns his own home worth $9000 and has a radio. [3]

In 1940 Alma and William Schug are living in Philadelphia. Alma is 25 and not working. William is 31. [7]

In 1950, Alma Schug, age 35, and family are living in Philadelphia. Husband

Descendants of Adam Wilhelm Reuther

William V, age 41, children William T, age 8, and Janice M, age 1. Also with them is Rose Faga, lodger, age 79, born in Tennessee, and a retired music teacher. [6]

Alma was born 14 Jun 1914 in Philadelphia, married William Vance Schug (1909-1997) in 1937 in Maryland, and died on 28 May 1997 in Philadelphia. [1]

That William and Josephine Thomas adopted a child named Alma is supported by the 1920 Census. They do not have a child with them in 1920. Also, they may have known the Reuther family, as they are living in the same census enumeration district.

In the 1910 Census, Gertrude's age is 21, born about 1889, and in the 1930 Census she is 38, born about 1892, married at age 18.

Gertrude Galt was born 02 Jul 1888 and died Apr 1967. Her last residence was Philadelphia, Philadelphia, PA. [2]

Gertrude M Galt died 8 April 1967 in Philadelphia. Her death was ruled a suicide. About 6 April she "took overdose of sleeping pills, while temporarily mentally deranged" and died 2 days later of Acute Barbiturate Poisoning.

Gertrude was born 2 July 1888 in Philadelphia to Herman Reuther and Margaret. She was married [should be widowed] to William J Galt. The informant on her death certificate was cousin "Ella, MC Meekin". [4]

Ella is most likely Ella M Mellor, wife of John C McMeekin (married 1931 in Phila), and sister of Emma Mellor Galt, Gertrude's daughter-in-law.

General Notes: Per Lotta Reuther's "The Reuther Family", Ida never married.

In the 1900 Census, Ida is living with her parents on North Twelfth Street in Philadelphia. She is 42, and working doing something in shoes (the census was difficult to read).

In the 1910 Census, Ida Reuther appears to be living at 1240 N. Girard Avenue in Philadelphia, just down the street from her brother Herman and father Christian at 1234 N. Girard Avenue. She is a boarder in the house of Jacob and Elizabeth Scherer. She is 40, born about 1870 (should be 52, based on 1870 & 1880 Censuses), and was born in Pennsylvania. Her parents were born in Germany. She is an operator at a shoe factory.

In the 1920 Census, Ida Reuther is a roomer in the house of sisters Elizabeth and Margaret Bradley at 809 Barnby? Street in Philadelphia. She is 49 (should be 63) and a shoe fitter at a shoe factory. Ida was born in Pennsylvania and her parents were born in Germany. Also in the house are Elizabeth and Margaret's cousin Margaret (last name unclear), their aunt Sarah Alexander, and a boarder, Annie McNally.

In the 1930 Census, Ida may be the Ida Ruter lodging with the family of Austin C Carty. Ida is 69 years old (should be 73), born in Pennsylvania, and a housekeeper for a private family. Her parents' birthplaces (if this is our Ida) were erroneously reported as Pennsylvania.

In 1940 Ida Ruther is living in Philadelphia at Penn Widows Asylum. She is 82, single, born in Philadelphia. In 1935 she was living in Philadelphia, but not at Penn Widows Asylum. [2]

Ida Reuther died 3 February 1941 in Philadelphia at the Penn Widows Asylum [Penn Asylum for Indigent Widows and Single Women] where she was living. Ida died of May our love exist for ever, between us you and me.

For it is the heart felt wish of your brother that loves you well
For the love I have for you dear Sister no words can ever tell.

Daughter Lotta "did not remember her father with much affection". [7] Perhaps Henry was a very stern man like his father has been described. [CAR]

In the 1890 , Henry is living at 510 Franklin Street. He is a bookkeeper. [6] In 1895 & 1896, Henry C Reuther is still on Franklin street, but he is now a stationer at 252 N 8th st. [5]

In 1896 Henry C Reuther is selling "fancy goods" at 252 N 8th. He is living at 510 Franklin. In 1898 he is selling toys at 252 E 8th, and is now living at 635 N 12th. [2]

In the 1900 Census, Henry Reuther (Ruther on the census) is living at 635 North Twelfth Street in Philadelphia. He is 40 years old and a stationary dealer. Living with him is his wife Anna, 40. They have been married 12 years. Living with them are their children Edna, 11, Lotta, 8, Russell, 7, and Florence, 2, Anna's aunt Charlotte Barlow, 70, and Anna's nephew Frank Keely (Keighly on the census), 25. In addition, there are 4 boarders and 2 servants in the house.

On 26 October 1901, Henry C & Anna R Reuther sold their home at 635 N Twelfth St to Wm J Ferguson for $4000. But in 1902 a permit was issued to Ambrose Beck to add a 4.6 x 10 ft addition for $600 to the home of H C Reuther at 635 N 12th st. [2, 3]

In the 1910 Census, Henry is renting a house at 749 Corinthian Avenue in Philadelphia. He is 51 years old, married for 23 years (his first marriage), and is a retail merchant in the stationary business. Living with him is his wife Anna R. She is also 51 years old, and this is her second marriage. She has born 5 children, only 4 are currently living. Her occupation is none. Living with them are their daughters, Edna

L, 21, Lotta, 18, and Florence, 13. Edna is a saleswoman at a stationers - her father's store?

In 1916 H C Reuther purchased 4743 N. 12th St from Hill B Bush Asso No 2 for $1500. [4]

In 1917, Henry C Reuther, doing business at 259 [or 250?] N 8th st, advertised sharpening razor blades equal to new, both single and double edge. [1]

In the 1920 Census, Henry is living at 4743 12th Street in Philadelphia. He is 60 years old, and was born in Philadelphia, Pa. He is a merchant in the stationary business. Living with him are his wife Anna R, age 60, and daughters Lotta B, 28, and Florence A, 22. Florence is a clerk in the stationary business, and may be working with her father. Anna's occupation is none. She appears to have retired from her pleating business.

In the 1930 Census, Henry is living at 4743 12th Street in Philadelphia. He owns his home, and gave it a value of $5000. He owns a radio. Henry is 71 years old, widowed, and living alone. He is retired.

After Anna died, Henry moved to Fairfield, Connecticut, to live with his son Russell and his wife Lydia Speiser Reuther, and their children Joyce and Calvin. He died at their home at 219 Toilsome Hill Road. [Calvin Reuther]

In a note by Florence Reuther Becker in a notebook kept by Henry, he was buried Wednesday, June 8, 1932, in Westminster Cemetery, Philadelphia, PA. Services were conducted by Rev. Calvin P. Swank, pastor of Muhlenberg Lutheran Church.

Henry's obituary in the paper reads "Mr. Henry C. Reuther, for many years a resident of Logan, at 4713 North Twelfth street, passed away at the home of his son in Bridgeport, Connecticut, and was buried from the undertaker parlors of Mr Keller, and old friend, on Wednesday afternoon. He was a member of Muhlenberg Lutheran Church, whose pastor conducted the funeral."

Descendants of Adam Wilhelm Reuther

Pennsylvania.¹⁴³ Anna was born on 22 Nov 1858 in Limerick Township, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania,¹⁴⁵ died on 10 Mar 1930 in Daytona Beach, Volusia County, Florida¹⁴⁶ at age 71, and was buried on 14 Mar 1930 in Westminster Cemetery, Bala Cynwyd, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania.¹⁴⁷ The cause of her death was pneumonia & influenza. They had four children: Edna Laura, Lotta Barlow, Russell Evans, and Florence Anna.

Marriage Notes: The marriage took place at Anna's sister Lydia's home in Phoenixville, Pennsylvania [1].

Henry and Anna owned a store in Philadelphia. On the first floor Henry sold cutlery such as knives and scissors. He also sold other goods such as china and leather goods. The family still has knives, scissors, and tea cups that came from the store. On the second floor, Anna operated a pleating business.

Per a letter from Florence Reuther Becker to Lydia Speiser Reuther on June 18, 1968, the store was located on 8th Street. It must have been within a few blocks of 8th and Arch Streets, as this was the location of a store called George B. Evans that sold fancy candies, cakes, and fruits. The store also sold gifts and fine china. It covered the entire block on the 8th Street side. Anna passed this store on her way to Henry's store. It was at Evans that she saw a beautiful punch bowl in the window, that Henry subsequently surprised her with for Valentine's Day, reportedly in their first or second year of marriage, probably about 1889. The punch bowl set is currently owned by Catherine Reuther. The green bowl and top is decorated with strawberries, with matching cups, and a platter with strawberry flowers and leaves to sit on. [2]

Henry and Anna's store was located at 250 - 252 8th Street in Philadelphia. [3]

General Notes: When her father died, "my mother was not quite 5 years old & remained at home with her mother & later attended the little country school. There was no compulsory education law in those years and after finishing the 4th grade she went to work.

"I am ashamed to confess that I do not know what she did or when she went to Phila. Nor do I know how or when she started in the pleating business. I do know that she owned the first knife pleating machine in Phila." [6]

Anna would have been about 9 years old when she left home and went to work.

In 1870 Anna and her brother Mahlon appear to be living in Upper Providence township, Montgomery Co, Pennsylvania, in the house of Charles Garber. Anna is 11, and Mahlon is 9. Mahlon has attended school during the year, but Anna has not. Both children are listed on the census as Barber instead of Barlow.

Descendants of Adam Wilhelm Reuther

Charles Garber is likely a relative of Anna's aunt Mary (Barlow) Miller whose mother-in-law was a Garber.

Mahlon & Anna's brother Abraham Barlow was living with Charles & Harriet Garber's daughter Elizabeth Garber Fetterolf and her family. Charles Garber's daughter Anna married a man named Vanderslice. (Elaine Jeter's research on the Garbers.) Anna Barlow's first husband was John Vanderslice.

Annie Barlow (age 21, b. abt 1858) married Jno. Vanderslice (age 28, b. abt 1851) on 8 May 1879 in Burlington, New Jersey. [7]

Early in 1880 Annie Barlow is living in a rooming house in Philadelphia operated by her uncle Abe Hallman. Annie is a seamstress. Also in the house is her first husband John Vanderslice. Both John and Annie show as single.

Anna was married first to a promising young Philadelphia lawyer, John R. Vanderslice. Their first year of marriage was drawing to a close when their baby Charles Edgar was born 3/25/1881. While she was confined with the birth of their son, her husband was stricken with pneumonia & died. Soon after that the baby died. So she was a bride, a mother, a widow and childless within 12 months. [2]

They had actually been married almost 2 years when John died.

John Vanderslice appears to be the John P Vanderslice, lawyer, who died of Typhoid Fever on 22 April 1881.

In 1915 A R Reuther advertised her Knife & Accordion Pleating business. She pleated kilted, box and sun ray skirts. Mail orders received prompt attention. Her business was at 252 N. 8th street. [4]

Anna fell ill while visiting daughter Lotta in Daytona Beach, Florida. She and Henry had arrived about 17 February (21 days before her death). Anna died on 10 March 1930 of pneumonia and influenza. She had been attended by the doctor since 4 March. After she became so ill, her son Russell rushed from Connecticut to see her, but she died before he got there. [1, 3, 4]

4-Edna Laura Reuther was born on 24 Jan 1889 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania,⁵ died on 10 May 1949 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania¹⁵⁰ at age 60, and was buried on 13 May 1949 in Westminster Cemetery, Bala Cynwyd, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania.¹⁴⁷

General Notes: In the 1910 Census, Edna is 21 years old and living with her parents and younger sisters. She is a saleswoman at a stationers, probably her father Henry's store.

On 3 June 1916, just before she married Henry later that month, Edna purchased a home at 4522 N. Twelfth st in Philadelphia from Joshua M Holmes for $3800. [1] Edna and Henry lived in this home in the early years of their marriage.

Family stories passed down in the Zimmer family report that Edna may have been institutionalized at some point. Her husband Henry may even have had her institutionalized because he wanted a divorce. [2]

Regarding Edna's mental illness: Edna was treated professionally at home and by daughter Mildred. It was often said, Mildred raised her brothers Henry and Bob. [3]

From the little bit known, it appears Edna suffered from some type of mental illness. She was not ill enough to be hospitalized, but was ill enough that daughter Mildred may have performed many household duties, including the care of her younger brothers (only 2 and 4 years younger), as well as caring for Edna. It would not be unexpected for Mildred to have resented her mother and the position she was placed in. This would help explain the rift in the family that occurred when (if?) Henry and Edna divorced, and after Edna's death in 1949. [CAR]

Edna L Zimmer died 10 May 1949 at Germantown Hospital in Philadelphia. Husband Henry F Zimmer was the informant on her death certificate. He reports them as married and Edna as living at their home on Fairhill St. An inquest was held on 19 May with the jury rendering a verdict that the cause of death was hypertensive cerebral hemorrhage. Edna married Henry Frederick Zimmer Sr.,¹⁵¹ son of William Louis Zimmer and Anna K Hasselbach, on 28 Jun 1916 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.¹⁵² Henry was born on 21 Mar 1891 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania,¹⁵³ was christened on 17 Apr 1891 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania,¹⁵⁴ and died in Jul 1977 in Pennsylvania⁹⁵ at age 86. Another name for Henry was Friedrich Heinrich Zimmer.¹⁵⁴ They had three children: Mildred Barlow, Henry Frederick, and Robert Evans.

Marriage Notes: Although two sources report that Edna and Henry were divorced, it is unclear at this time (2012) if that is correct or if they may have been separated or planning a divorce before her death in 1949. [CAR] When she died, Edna was listed on her death certificate as married and living at their home on Fairhill St in Philadelphia. Husband Henry was the informant. [4]

Edna and Henry had been divorced for many years when Edna passed away. They were still married in 1942, so may have divorced shortly after that as Edna died in 1949. [1]

Daughter Mildred and her husband John Root lived with Henry & Edna during World War II, so they most likely divorced between 1945 and 1949. John Root does not remember a divorce, but other sources (see notes below) do remember a divorce. [3]

When Henry divorced Edna, apparently for another woman, it caused a rift between their children. Mildred sided with her father, Robert with his mother, and Henry was caught in between. Eventually, Mildred and Robert quit talking to each other, and remained estranged until their deaths. [2]

Later, when Henry's 2nd wife Esther died [in 1982] grandson Mark Zimmer asked about the Zimmer family memorabilia that Esther inherited from Henry. Daughter Mildred wrote him that he was not in the will, everything was sold off; "tough stuff" - you don't get anything. [2] This contributed to the estrangement between the children of Henry and Edna and their grandchildren. Although, Mark reports that the cousins harbour no ill feelings.

Notes on divorce: Edna's brother Russell Reuther's daughter Joyce remembers a divorce. Joyce might have been planning her wedding around that time, so the breakup of the family would have been something she would remember. Also, Edna's son Henry Zimmer, Jr's, son Mark knew growing up that they had divorced, and that it caused a rift between Edna and Henry's children.

Noted events in their marriage were:

- Divorce: Between 1942 and 1949.¹⁵⁵
- Divorce: Between 1945 and 1949.

General Notes: In 1900 Henry F Zimmer is living in Philadelphia with his parents. William Zimmer was born in Germany and is a musician. Wife Anna K was also born in Germany. They have three sons - William L, 11, Henry F, 9, and Herbert P, 6 months. [2]

In the 1920 Census, Henry F Zimmer is living at 4522 12th Street in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Henry's in-laws Henry and Anna Reuther live at 4743 12th Street. He is 31 years old and was born in Philadelphia. Living with him are his wife Edna, 31, daughter Mildred, 2 9/12, and son Henry, 11/12. Edna and the children were also born in Philadelphia. Also living with them is Dorothy Stiffer?. She is identified as a helper. She is 13 years old and was born in Philadelphia.

In the 1930 Census, Henry Zimmer is living in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He is 39 years old, and was born in Pennsylvania. His parents were born in Germany. Henry is a salesman. Living with him are his wife Edna, 41, and children, Mildred, 13, Henry, 11, and Robert, 8. All the children were born in Pennsylvania.

In 1942 Henry Frederick Zimmer, Sr, registered for the World War II draft. He was born 21 March 1891 in Philadelphia, and was living at 6206 N Fairhill St in Philadelphia with his wife Mrs Edna Zimmer. Henry was working for Columbia Mills Inc of Philadelphia as a traveling salesman. [1]

Sometime after 1942 or 1945 [CAR], Henry divorced Edna because he wanted to pursue another woman. Henry's second wife was a woman named Esther. He pre-deceased her and she did not re-marry. [4]

Note: Family sources disagree on whether Henry and Edna divorced. His 2nd marriage seven months after Edna's death may point toward no divorce.

On 19 December 1949 Henry F Zimmer married Esther Mae Zerby in Doylestown, Berks County, Pennsylvania. Their marriage license was issued in Montgomery County. [5]

Henry Zimmer was born 21 Mar 1891 and died Jul 1977. His last residence was Philadelphia, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania. [3]

Esther may be the Esther Zimmer born 16 March 1894, died Jan 1982. Her last residence was Spring House, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania. [3]

He was in in the insurance business, working near his summer home about an hour and a half from the family's main home in Philadelphia. [4]

In writing Cal Reuther about the death of his cousin Henry Zimmer's widow, Lydia wrote her son that Henry had a drinking problem and committed suicide. [1] His drinking was probably related to his WW II experiences.

Over the years, Henry threatened suicide, always calling his father, who would call Henry's wife Connie. Connie would hurry to him to prevent him from following through. On 1 June 1973, Henry again threatened suicide. He was at their summer home, and Connie and the children were in Philadelphia. Before Connie could get there, Henry shut himself in the garage with the car running, using the car exhaust to kill himself. [4]

4-Russell Evans Reuther was born on 8 May 1893 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania,⁵ was christened on 23 Feb 1908 in Reading, Berks County, Pennsylvania,²⁰⁹ died on 4 Dec 1967 in Bridgeport, Fairfield County, Connecticut²¹⁰ at age 74, and was buried on 7 Dec 1967 in Lawncroft Burial Park, Fairfield, Connecticut.²¹¹ The cause of his death was Pulmonary Endema.

General Notes: Russell left school and Philadelphia at age 16 in 1909 to work for Mr. Phillips at the fabric company [in Bridgeport, Connecticut]. [Aunt Lotta]

In 1910, Russell Reuther is living in Bridgeport at the home of his boss H. Albert Philips. He was born about 1894 in Pennsylvania. [7]

Descendants of Adam Wilhelm Reuther

Russ first lived with the Phillips, then took a room on Coleman Street near Park Avenue. [6]

On June 5 1917, Russell Evans Reuther registered for the World War I draft in Bridgeport, Connecticut. He was living at 346 Beechwood Ave in Bridgeport, and was an assistant manager for Alb. & E. Henkels Inc.

Russell E. Reuther was inducted in the United States Army May 23, 1918 at Bridgeport, Connecticut. He achieved the rank of corporal October 7, 1918. He served in the 15th Company, 152nd Depot Brigade. He was honorably discharged May 28, 1919 at Camp Upton, New York. The discharge papers list his height as 5 feet, 2 inches. [Russell E. Reuther honorable discharge & enlistment record, US Army, 1919] Russell served his enlistment in the United States & did not go to Europe during World War I.

In the 1920 Census, Russell is living in Bridgeport, Fairfield Co., Connecticut, on Beechwood Avenue in the house of Christopher and Ida Melick. Russell is 29 years old and an assistant manager at a lace factory. Christopher is 52 years old, and a telegraph operator for the railroad. Ida is 51. Both were born in New Jersey. Russell became very close to Christopher and Ida as he boarded with them when he first came to Bridgeport at age 16, and I recall a story that Russ loaned them money to start a business (CAR). After Christopher died, Russ helped Ida manage her affairs. When Ida Bigley Melick died in 1947 (or 1946), she left Russ her house at 346-8 Beechwood Avenue. The flintlock rifle owned by Calvin Reuther was given to Russ. It was in the Melick family and is believed to be from the Revolutionary War. (Calvin Reuther). Currently, the gun is owned by Russell's grandson Russell Reuther (CAR 2004).

In March 1930, Russell received word that his mother was very ill in Florida, probably visiting her daughter Lotta in Daytona Beach. Russ rushed to Florida to see his mother, but she passed away before he got there. She was buried in Philadelphia, and Russ returned to Fairfield the day before his son Calvin was born. [5]

In the 1930 Census, Russell is living in Fairfield, Fairfield Co., Connecticut, on Toilsome Hill Road. He is 36 years old and was born in Pennsylvania. He is an assistant manager at a fabric factory. Living with him are his wife Lydia, 32, and their children Joyce B, 3, and Calvin R, 1 month. Lydia was born in Connecticut, and lists her parents' birthplaces as Wurttemberg, Germany.

In 1944, Russell E Reuther and his wife Lydia R are living at 219 Toilsome Hill Road in Fairfield. Russell is assistant secretary for the American Fabrics Company at 1069 Connecticut Ave. [2]

On Monday, September 17, 1951, Russ was fired from his job as manager of American Fabrics by the new owners who had purchased the company in May 1948. In a meeting with the owners, they had already prepared a resignation letter for Russ to sign. He was immediately escorted out without even having the opportunity to say his good byes nor to clean out his office after 42 years with the company. He was given 5 months pay in lieu of notice. Both Russ and Lydia talked about the gangster Jews that owned the company and fired him. [3, 4]

Descendants of Adam Wilhelm Reuther

Russ was 58 years old when he lost his job.

In 1955, Russ was elected to one of the seats in District Six for the Representative Town Meeting. [1]

Russ was deathly afraid of dogs. When walking in the neighborhood, if he saw a dog, he was so shaken, he would go back home. [Virginia Speiser Rutter]

Son Calvin remembers Russ talking about a Barlow cousin who was a Rockette at Radio City Music Hall in New York City. He met her on one of his trips to the city. Cal thought she may have still been there when he was little and the family went to Radio City.

Russell married Nora Alice Monk, daughter of John Thomas Monk and Alice Kemp, on 17 Oct 1921 in Bridgeport, Fairfield County, Connecticut.²¹⁵ The marriage ended in divorce. Nora was born on 8 Dec 1901 in Nottingham, Nottinghamshire, England²¹⁶ and died on 12 Aug 1968 in Fairfield County, Connecticut²¹⁷ at age 66. They had no children.

Marriage Notes: Nora Monk, daughter of Mr & Mrs Thomas Monk of 1010 Connecticut Ave, and Russell Reuther of 346 Beechwood Ave were married October 17 1921 at St John's Episcopal Church. After an extended honeymoon trip the couple will reside at 1550 North Ave. [1]

On September 12, 1923, summons were served on Nora Monk Reuther to appear before the Superior Court regarding the plaintiff's petition for divorce, charging Nora with adultery between the date of their marriage and September 11, 1923, in Atlantic City, New Jersey, with one Vessella. [Copy of Summons]

On Oct 20, 1923, The Bridgeport Telegram reported (on page 14) that counsel clashed in proceedings before the Judge about the divorce proceedings. Mrs. Reuther planned to contest the suit to the bitter end, and more time was needed to prepare her defense. No other information was included in the article beyond what the divorce papers contain.

According to the divorce decree, the plaintiff (Russell) was guilty of intolerable cruelty to the defendant (Nora) beginning about three months after their marriage, and ending on September 6, 1923, when Nora moved out of their shared residence. She was granted $10,000 in alimony, and her name was changed back to Nora Alice Monk. [Judgement of Divorce, State of Connecticut, Fairfield County, Superior Court, December 21, 1923]

On Dec 22, 1923, the divorce was reported on the front page of The Bridgeport Telegram. Russell must have been very unhappy to see himself on the front page of the paper. The paper reported that Nora Alice Reuther was granted a divorce on the grounds of cruelty. A few days earlier, Mr. Reuther withdrew his original complaint. In her cross-complaint, Mrs. Reuther reported that her husband had an annual salary of $8,400. An alimony of $10,000 was agreed upon.

On December 23, 1923, Nora received $10,000 from Russell, and signed a receipt to that affect.

In the 1920 Census, Nora Monk, 18, is living in Bridgeport, Connecticut, with her parents, at 1010 Connecticut Avenue. Nora's parents are Thomas, 42, & Alice Monk, 40. Her father John Thomas Monk became a citizen on 4 May 1926 in Bridgeport.

In 1930 Nora C & Robert E Worden are living in Fairfield, Connecticut. Nora is 28, born in England, immigrated 1914 and is a naturalized citizen. Nora is a billing clerk for a wire factory. Robert is 39, born in Connecticut, and a purchasing agent for a telephone company. They married at age 35 & 24 [about 1925]. [7]

[As signed by the guests in the wedding book.]

Russell & Lydia honeymooned in Havana, Cuba, and Daytona Beach, Florida.

When first married Russell and Lydia had a room in Colonnese's (spelling?) house on North Avenue. Mr. C. had a meat and vegetable market where Lydia traded. He also delivered to their home on Toilsome Hill Road as there was no market there when they first built the house. [1]

Russell and Lydia always had the family (Speiser) parties at their house because they had the largest house. [Virginia Speiser Rutter]

[1] Letter from Lydia S Reuther to son Calvin Reuther Aug 14 1983

General Notes: Lydia was baptized November 6, 1897. Her godparents were Elizabeth Boerschel, Anna Becker, and Chris Becker.

In the 1920 Census, Lydia is living at 425 Jane Street in Bridgeport with her parents. She is 22 years old and a bookkeeper in a textile shop.

When her father died in 1921 Lydia had severe pains in her legs such that she could not stand and was in bed for three weeks. She suffered similar pains in her arm from the shoulder to her hand in 1983 when her nephew Henry Broch died. [1]

Lydia did not care for her middle name, and often used Ruth in place of Johanna. Her marriage license to Russell lists her name as Lydia Ruth Speiser.

Lydia had a third pregnancy that ended in miscarriage about 1940 when Joyce was a freshman in high school. [Joyce Reuther Holley]

Lydia continued the family cooking traditions she learned from her mother - potato salad, herring salad, and Christmas cookies. When Lydia stopped making Springerle, Brownie Lebkuchen & Schwaben Brodli, her son Cal took up making the cookies. He and Joyce had already been making potato and herring salad for many years.

Descendants of Adam Wilhelm Reuther

In 1985, Lydia fell in the kitchen and broke her pelvis. She came South, first to daughter Connie's [Joyce] house in Decatur, GA, then to son Cal's in Huntsville, AL, to recover. By then Lydia was almost 90 years old. Connie and Cal decided she needed to be closer to them, so in the spring of 1986, they closed up and sold the house at 219 Toilsome Hill Road in Fairfield that Russ built for them after they married. Lydia moved into a retirement community in Huntsville, Alabama, near Cal.

In 1996, Lydia suffered a stroke, and died a few weeks later, just 6 weeks short of her 99th birthday.

Joyce was named "Joyce" because she was such a joy. [4]

How did Joyce end up at an all-girls Baptist college in Alabama?
It started when she was in high school and met someone from the school while on a family trip to Yellowstone National Park. Then there was the favorable article in Life magazine. When Joyce was ready to go to college she had been seriously dating a local boy. She had been trying to breakup with him, and knew that after the breakup, if she went to college in the Northeast that he would follow her wherever she went. So she headed to Alabama and loved Judson College in Marion, Alabama. [4]

Unlike the more progressive views on dating in New England, Judson College had restrictive rules on relations between boys and girls. One of those rules was that the students could not ride in a car with a boy. Connie thought that was funny since she had already been doing that back home. She broke that rule. [4]

Joyce received her nickname Connie when she was in college at Judson. Connie is a nickname for being from Connecticut. [2]

In the spring of 2012, Connie sold her house in the Decatur (Georgia) area and moved into a retirement apartment. She still drives her car to the grocery store, hairdresser, church and to the hospital where she continues to volunteer one day a week. She thinks she may give up drivig when she turn 90 in 2016. [3]

Connie gave up her car and volunteer job in 2013 to spend more time participating in the activities at her retirement home. [3]

5-Calvin Russell Reuther was born on 16 Mar 1930 in Bridgeport, Fairfield County, Connecticut,²²¹ died on 14 Jan 2000 in Huntsville, Madison County, Alabama at age 69, and was buried on 18 Jan 2000 in Maple Hill Cemetery, Huntsville, Alabama. The cause of his death was Multiple organ failure following heart by-pass surgery several weeks prior to death. Another name for Calvin was Cal Reuther.

General Notes: Born one month premature at 7:05 PM, weighed 4 pounds, 13 3/4 ounces, at Bridgeport Hospital [5].

Calvin was a favorite name or a favorite cousin (?) of his grandmother Anna (Barlow) Reuther. [4]

In September 1951, Cal's father Russ wrote Cal to tell him that after 42 years with the company, he had been fired from his job by the new owners. Russ told Cal that that meant there was no income coming in. While Russ had planned ahead for Cal's education (Cal was in college at Alabama Polytechnic Institute), so money was set aside for him to complete his education, but he should still watch his pennies. [1]

During college (Auburn, AL), Cal owned and flew his own airplane, an Ercoupe.

In 1951 or 1952, Cal flew to Connecticut from Auburn through bad weather with no radio and was the only plane flying over NY. Coming back to Auburn, he developed trouble in Maryland. He was able to land but could not afford to fix the plane, and left it at the airport. [6]

Descendants of Adam Wilhelm Reuther

In June 1952, Cal had airplane trouble. As written by his father - "Imagine you in your little plane, 4000' high, sailing along, as you told me, perfectly - then all of a sudden the moto knocked, the plane quivered and vibrated - and then no engine. You, with only a few hours experience in the air, had this happen. . . To glide that plane, 20 miles away from the airport, to a perfect landing at the field, is a feat you can forever be proud of." Cal landed the airplane in Easton, Maryland. He left it there with someone to look after and sell for him. [2]

During college at API Cal worked for Mr. Fortner at Jake's Joint and the Elk's Club. He met Jane at Jake's Joint. Mrs. Fortner gave Cal her recipe for Barbecue Sauce and Barbecue Basting Sauce that he used throughout his life to make fantastic barbecue chicken on the grill.

Cal graduated from Alabama Polytechnic Institute (API - later re-named Auburn University) in Auburn, Alabama, in 1953, with a Bachelors of Science degree in Electrical Engineering. His first job was across the country for Boeing in Seattle, Washington, working on the B-52 airplane. He left Boeing in 1956 for Westinghouse in Pittsburgh, PA, but was on his way back to Boeing and Seattle in 1958 when Jane was pregnant with Cathy. Just weeks after Cathy was born in September, they headed for a new assignment in Fort Walton Beach, FL, and the BOMARC missile program at Eglin AFB.

In 1963, Cal, Jane, Cathy and Russell moved to California where Cal worked on the Minuteman weapon system.

In 1964, Russell wrote his son Cal that he had asked the Republican Town Committee to send him an application for an absentee ballot. [3] - Was Cal still registered to vote in Connecticut? [CAR]

In April 1965, Cal, Jane and the children moved to Huntsville, Alabama, where Cal continued his work for Boeing, this time on the space program. He was responsible for the Boeing Saturn V Logistics Support Staff, developing a Logistics Support Plan. He was also responsible for Saturn V Logistics activities and program schedule. In 1967 he assumed responsibility for directing the preparation of the Saturn V Flight Manual, a single source reference prepared specifically for the astronauts' use.

When Boeing reduced their operations in Huntsville in 1974 (the summer President Richard Nixon resigned and the fall Cathy got her driver's license), Cal and Jane decided to stay in Huntsville rather than be transferred to another city, and Cal went to work for Sperry Corporation on tactical missile systems at MICOM. In 1980 he began a brief stint at Guest Associates providing marketing and technical representation for technically oriented customers, as well as consultation to small business through the Small Business Administration.

In 1982, Cal went back to work for Boeing on marketing management assignments for the Air Force, MSFC, MICOM, and SSDC customers. He took an early retirement in the fall of 1993 after Jane's brain aneurysms and surgery that year.

Early in their marriage, when they were young and poor, Cal decided to start making furniture instead of buying it. He bought the appropriate tools and set up shop in the spare bedroom in their apartment. The first thing he made was a long low bench in the Danish Modern style. He made their bedroom furniture and later on a hi-fi cabinet, kitchen table, and a new dresser for Jane in the 1970's.

In 1983, when his mother Lydia was no longer making the family Christmas cookies, Cal took up the task, often with daughter Cathy's help. He made their favorites Springerle, Brownie Lebkuchen & Schwaben Brodli, and new ones as well. Just as Lydia did, he kept track of what he made and how many. In 2002, Cathy took up the tradition on her own. Cal also had a vegetable garden for many years, and took up canning at that time. Not only did he can vegetables, but he also made jellies and pickles.

In 1988 & 1989, Cal and Jane built a new, larger house on Mountain Springs Circle in Huntsville and moved in in April 1989. The house included a 3-car garage with large shop attached, and Jane's large weaving room over the garage and shop. After Cal's death, the house was sold to Hank and Kathy Perkins, friends from church, and a school friend (Hank) of daughter Cathy.

Cal entered Huntsville Hospital November 25, 1999 (Thanksgiving Day) for heart bypass surgery on November 26. The surgery was successful, but numerous complications ensued due to Cal's emphysema and the steroids he had been taking for the emphysema that interfered with the healing process. After seven weeks in ICU, he passed away due to multiple organ system failure on January 14, 2000, at 5:05 PM. Daughter Cathy, son Russell, future son-in-law Bryan Kennedy, and Dr. T. Benton Washburn were present. He was buried January 18, 2000 at Maple Hill Cemetery in Huntsville.

Unknown to his family until after he entered the hospital, Cal had been having heart problems for some time. Nitroglycerin pills were found in his study for heart pain. Cal left a folder of instructions for his daughter Cathy just prior to entering the hospital in case he passed away. The information and instructions included the notice of his death to be published in the newspaper. Cathy used this almost as he had written it.

Descendants of Adam Wilhelm Reuther

General Notes: Per Lotta Reuther's "The Reuther Family", Carrie had no children.

In 1891 Caroline's brother Henry gave her a heart-shaped locket inscribed with her initials CHR. By 1932 the locket had been returned to Henry. In February 1932, a few months before he died, Henry gave the locket to his granddaughter Joyce Reuther. In 1965 Joyce gave the locket to Lydia Speiser Reuther to pass along to Henry's great-granddaughter Catherine Reuther as she and Caroline shared the same first and last initials. [1]

The H in Carrie's locket is actually a larger H between the smaller C and R, so her initials at the time would have been CRH for Carrie Reuther Harkness. It is likely that Henry gave his sister the locket in 1897 about the time of her marriage to Frank Harkness. [CAR]

In 1897 Carrie married Frank E Harkness at her parents' home.

In 1900 Caroline Harkness is living in Philadelphia with her husband and father-in-law at 628 Diamond st in Ward 20. Carrie's husband Frank Harkness died on 10 August 1918.

In 1920 Carrie M Harkness is living in Philadelphia at 131 Manheim St. She is 45 [should be 51] and widowed. Carrie was born in Pennsylvania and her parents in Germany. She is working on her "own account" as a teacher in the stenographer business. [4]

She owns her own home valued at $5600. Living with her is her niece Sarah E Miner. Sarah is 20 and a private secretary at a publishing company. Sarah was born in the District of Columbia [Washington DC], and her parents in Michigan & Indiana. She is probably the daughter of one of Frank Harkness's sisters. [3]

Carrie is not found in the city directory for 1950. [5]

Carrie M Harkness, born 22 October 1866 to Christian Reuther and Amelia Klobe in Philadelphia, died 9 September 1957 at her home on York Road in Philadelphia of carcinoma of the gall bladder. She was the widow of Frank Elmer Harkness. The informant on her death certificate was Ralph McKelvey. [6]

About 300 feet from the crossing Reuther speeded up, apparently in an attempt to beat the train.

The gate tender and others waved and yelled at him to stop.

Agnes T. and Willard E. Reuther were longtime supporters of Northeastern University in Boston. Their estate plans reflect pride in both their home town and his alma mater.

Through their estate gifts, the Reuthers established scholarship funds for Northeastern students: a Presidential Scholarship and the Willard E. and Agnes T. Reuther Scholarship for students from Worcester County. Their gifts, valued at $1.1 million, were given to the University in 1998 after Willard Reuther passed away.

"My uncle took great pride in being a Northeastern graduate and went to many of the alumni reunions. He always maintained a close relationship with the University and wanted to help the students," says the Reuthers' niece, Carole Dobeck.

She recalls his telling the story of living in a boarding house near the campus and paying fifteen cents for a bowl of oatmeal in the kitchen.

"His accommodations were very plain, but they were fine with him. He had very fond memories of Boston and his classmates at Northeastern. He made good grades and went on to become an engineer with the Electric Light Company in Worcester, where he also met my aunt. He spent his whole career there until he retired in 1964."

Dobeck says that both her aunt and uncle held Northeastern in high esteem and that their legacy will live on through the students that receive the scholarships. [6]

General Notes: Frank's parents were Harry Keely and Lydia Ann Barlow.

In the 1900 Census, Frank Keely (Keighly on the census) is living in Philadelphia, PA, on North Twelfth Street in the home of his aunt Anna Barlow Reuther (Ruther on the census) and her husband Henry. Frank is 25 years old and a bookkeeper.

On 12 Sep 1918, Frank Ralghton Keely registered for the WWI draft in Philadelphia. Frank is 43, born 20 Nov 1874. He is living at 5838 Sansom street. Frank occupation is in some type of credit, the writing was not clear. His closest relative is his wife Mrs Laura Keely.

In 1910 Frank R Kelly is living in Philadelphia at 5832 Sansom Street. He is 30 and a bookkeeper at a toy wholesaler. Living with Frank is his wife Laura, 27. Both Frank and Laura were born in Pennsylvania. Laura's parents were born in Germany. They have been married 8 years, and Laura has had no children.

In the 1920 Census, Frank R. Keely is living in Philadelphia in the 46th ward, at 5832 Sansom Street. Frank is 40 years old. His occupation is credit. The industry was unclear. Living with him is his wife Laura H, age 35. Laura was born in Pennsylvania, and her parents in Germany.

In the 1930 Census, Frank R Keely and his wife Laura H are living in Philadelphia, in the 42nd ward, at 5615 North 13th Street. Frank is 49, and a bookkeeper at a silk hosiery mill. Laura is 42. Both were born in Pennsylvania, and Laura's parents were born in Germany. They were married at age 27 & 20.

Frank R Keely died 7 December 1948 in Schyl T (probably Schuylkill township, Chester County, Pennsylvania). [1]

Frank R Keely died 7 Dec 1948 at RFD#2 Phoenixville. His residence is RD 2 Phoenixville. [2] Frank was most likely living with his brother-in-law Paul Y Martens. RFD 2 is the same address of Frank's sister Anna when she died, and Paul Martens was the informant on Frank's death certificate.

Frank died of acute coronary thrombosis, due to chronic coronary sclerisis & myocardial decompensation. He also had chronic bronchial asthma. [2]

Frank and Laura Keeley are buried in Northwood Cemetery in Philadelphia in the plot originally owned by Christian Reuther. Christian, his wife Emilie, and daughter Ida are also buried there. 2-Hannah Maria Reuther³²¹ was born in 1832 in Heinersdorf (Now Wurzbach), Saale-Orla-Kreis, Thuringen, Germany,³²² died in 1895 in Greene Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania³ at age 63, and was buried in Bixler Church/MT Union Cemetery, Carroll, Greene Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania.⁴ Another name for Hannah was Hanna Reuther.⁶

General Notes: Hannah was born in Heinersdorf, Furstentum Reuss jungere Linie, or the village of Heinersdorf in the Principality of Ruess Younger Line, one of several small Thuringian states. Today, Heinersdorf is part of the city of Wurzbach, Saale-Orla-Kreis (Saale-Orla Administrative District), Thuringen (Thuringia).

According to Herman Klobe's death certificate, his mother was Hannah Reuther. Herman's son Charles provided the information.

Hannah had Herman Klobe out of wedlock with Carl/Charles Klobe. This was not uncommon with the German families in Sugar Valley at this time. There was generally a stigma attached to the woman. She, many times, could not keep her child, and her father married her off to someone pretty quickly so as not to draw attention. Usually the new husband did not accept nor allow the out of wedlock child in his home. Sometimes, even a widowed woman who remarried was not allowed to keep her children, they had to be "farmed" out. [1]

According to a letter from Lotta Reuther Longstreet to Russell & Lydia Reuther in 1963, Adam's daughter married a man named Martz.

Hannah probably married Henry Martz very shortly after giving birth to Herman Klobe in Philadelphia in 1857. Her first child with Henry was born in 1859.

Hannah's husband Henry Martz was 20 years her senior. It is very likely that he was picked as a husband for her after the birth of Herman, rather than her choosing him.

Descendants of Adam Wilhelm Reuther

was christened on 23 Aug 1824 in Wurzbach, Saale-Orla-Kreis, Thuringen, Germany,³²⁴ and died about 1878³²⁵ about age 54. Other names for Charles were Christian Freidrich Karl Klobe³²⁴ and Karl/Carl Klobe.³²⁶ They had one son: Herman Henry.

General Notes: Lotta Reuther Longstreet identified Emilie Klobe Reuther's brother as Herman. It appears Emilie's brother was actually Charles Klobe. Charles was probably born Carl, and changed his name to Charles when he emigrated from Germany, a common name change for Germans.

Herman Klobe's (1857-1927) death certificate shows his father as Carl Klobe, born in Pennsylvania. Herman's son Charles, who reported the information on his father, did not have his grandfather's birthplace correct, as Herman always reported to the census taker that his parents were born in Germany.

On 20 May 1850, Charles Klobe, age 25 (born about 1824), declared his intention in Philadelphia to become a citizen of the United States. He owed his allegiance to the King of Saxony. On 24 September 1857, Charles became a citizen in Philadelphia. Vouching for him was Christian Reuther, husband of Charles' sister Emilie.

Charles Klobe and Hannah Reuther, sister-in-law of Charles's sister Emilie, had a son Herman, out of wedlock in 1857.

In 1858 & 1862, Charles Klobe is a swordmaker living at 920 Charlotte. [5]

In 1860 Charles Klobe is living in Philadelphia in the home of Herman Fuchs. He is 33, born in Saxony, and his occupation is military trappings. Also in the house is Ferdinand Ginder [Gunther], Charles' future brother-in-law.

In 1866 Karl Klobe is a sword maker in Philadelphia. [6]

1867 - Charles Klobe, jeweller, living at 720 Poplar [4]

1868 - Charles Klobe, machinist, 720 Poplar [3]

In 1870, Charles Klobe is living in the 20th Ward, District 63. He is 46, born in Saxony, and a gilder. He owns real estate valued at $2000 and personal property valued at $100. With him are his wife Elizabeth, 40, born in Hesse Darmstadt, and Herman, 13, born in Pennsylvania. Charles is a citizen. [1] Charles Klobe, gilder, is also in the city directory at 1244 N 8th street. [3]

The circumstantial evidence - born in Saxony and a gilder (the Klobe siblings' father was a goldsmith) - point to Charles as the brother of Emilie.

1871 - Charles Klobe, gilder, living at 1244 N 8th [4]

1872 - Charles Klobor, plater, 1244 N 8th street [2]

1874 - Charles Klobe, finisher, 1244 N 8th [4]

By 1875 Charles Klobe is listed in the city directory as a confectioner. Probably he has become disabled and his wife Elizabeth is the confectioner. They are living at 1242 N 8th. In 1877 Charles Klobe, confectioner, is living at 1244 N 8th. [2]

Descendants of Adam Wilhelm Reuther

Charles died sometime between 1877 and 1880, when his widow Elizabeth Klobe is listed on the 1880 Census.

Charles most likely died in 1878.

3-Herman Henry Klobe³²⁷ was born on 22 Feb 1857 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania,³²⁸ died on 22 Aug 1927 in Lock Haven, Clinton County, Pennsylvania²⁴² at age 70, and was buried in Woodward Cemetery, Centre County, Pennsylvania.³²⁹ Other names for Herman were Henry Herman Klobe¹² and Herman Klobe.¹³⁷

General Notes: According to his daughter Bertha's marriage record in 1950, Herman was born in Philadelphia.

Herman was born out of wedlock to Carl/Charles Klobe and Hannah Reuther. He was probably raised by his grandparents Adam and Joanna Reuther until his father married Elizabeth. He probably lived with his father in Philadelphia from the mid to late 1860's until the late 1870's when Herman returned to Sugar Valley.

In the 1860 Census Herman (Harman Clobes on the census) is living in Greene Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania, with [grandfather] Adam Reuther (Adam Rider on the census), his wife Hannah [Joanna], and their sons Henry and Herman. Herman Klobe is 3 years old and was born in Pennsylvania.

In 1870, Herman is living in Philadelphia with his father Charles, and his father's wife Elizabeth.

Herman was a graduate of Gerard [Girard] College, Philadelphia and had been well known as an artist in his younger days. It is said he had a fine literary training and a promising future before he lost his health. When that happened he left Philadelphia and followed the occupation of lumberman, working for J B Barner and H L Murray at

Descendants of Adam Wilhelm Reuther

Pine Creek in Centre County and also in Sugar Valley. [1] It is said that Herman painted many posters for theaters in Philadelphia. [2]

Lumbering is hard, physical work, and it seems unlikely that Herman left Philadelphia where he had a promising future as an artist and writer due to his health. He probably had other reasons for leaving Philadelphia. Herman may have left Philadelphia following the death of his father who appears to have died between 1877 & 1880.

In the 1880 Census, Herman is living in Greene Township with Adam Reuther. He is 23 years old, a farm laborer, born in Pennsylvania, with his parents born in Bavaria.

When he returned to Sugar Valley from Philadelphia, Herman worked for a saw mill near Woodward in Centre County. It was there that he met future wife Margaret Louise Miller. [3] She was three months pregnant when they married.

In the 1900 Census, Herman is living in Greene Township. He is 43 years old, and a day laborer. He was born in Pennsylvania and his parents were born in Germany. Living with Herman are his wife Maggie M, 36, and their children Birtie F, 10, Charles H, 8, and Floyde C, 6. They have been married for 12 years. Maggie has had 3 children and all are living.

In 1910, Herman is living in Greene Township. He is 54 years old and a farmer. Living with Herman are his wife Margaret, 46, daughter Bertha F, 20, sons Charles L, 18, and Floyd C, 16, and granddaughter Ida L [Ethelene] Buck, 3. Ida is daughter Bertha's child.

In the 1920 Census, Herman (Herman Globe on the census) is living in Greene Township. He is 63, and a farmer. Living with Herman are his wife Maggie L, 56, and son Charles L, 28, and his family.

According to his death certificate, Herman was a miller when he died.

On August 16, 1927, Herman sustained an axe wound four inches long to the back of his head that penetrated to his brain. He died several days later on August 22, 1927, without really regaining consciousness. Joseph Huntingdon, who had been hired by Herman's son Floyd to make moonshine, was tried for the murder, having been accused of attacking Herman after a day of drinking, arguing, and fighting with Floyd Klobe over money owed to Joseph. He was acquitted, and no one else was charged with the crime.

Marriage Notes: At the time of their marriage, Margaret was three months pregnant with daughter Bertha.

General Notes: Margaret was about three months pregnant with daughter Bertha when she and Herman married.

In the obituary for her son Charles in 1990 in the Lock Haven Express newspaper, Charles' mother was Margaret Louise Miller. Bertha Klobe also reported her mother's name as Margaret Miller when she married William Geyer in 1950 (Clinton Co records).

Margaret parents are most likely Daniel and Margaret Miller. In 1870, Daniel, age 46, & Margaret Miller, age 45, are living in Penn Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania, with their children Mary, 16, Winfield [Charles W?], 11, Robert, 9, Margaret, 8, Irvin, 5, Newton, 4, and Anna, 2. [2] Winfield, Margaret & Newton match Margaret, brother Newton, and Charles W buried together in Woodward Cemetery.

Margaret's mother Margaret appears to have died between 1870 and 1873.

In 1880, Daniel Miller, 52, is living in Harris Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania. With him are his [2nd wife?] Sarah, 37, children Winfield, 20, Robert, 18, Newton, 14, Anna, 12, Cody M, 7, Thomas C, 4, and George H, 2. [3]

In 1880, Margaret L Miller is living in Potter Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania, with the family of Nathaniel Boob. She is 17, and a servant. [4]

Buried next to Herman and Margaret Klobe in Woodward Cemetery are Brother Newton E Miller, 1865-1942, and Charles W Miller, 1 January 1859 - 11 March 1899. Also nearby is George Miller, 19 June 1827 - 19 December 1917. [1]

In 1918, Floyd Curtis Klobe registered for the draft in Lycoming County. He was living at 207 Locust in Jersey Shore, and working as a lineman for Western Union Telegraph. Floyd was married, and appears to be working to support his wife, father & mother. Floyd was born Oct 3, 1893 in Carrol, PA.

In 1920 Curtis F Kobbe [sic] is living in Mill Hall, Clinton County, Pennsylvania. He is 27, born in Pennsylvania, his father in Germany [should be Pennsylvania]. Curtis is a laborer at a brickyard. With him is his wife Thressa M, 20 [should be 17], and daughter Ethel M, age 1. [6]

When daughter Ethel was just a baby, Floyd came home to find that Thressa had left, leaving baby Ethel in a dresser drawer. [5] Thressa left about 1920 or 1921.

Floyd quit his job to care for daughter Ethel, returning to Sugar Valley. His brother Charles and his wife Margaret helped to raise Ethel. [5]

Descendants of Adam Wilhelm Reuther

Floyd died January 12 1979 at Lock Haven Hospital where he had been seriously ill for two weeks. Floyd lived in Sugar Valley all his life where he farmed. He retired in 1966. Floyd was survived by Etta [Raudabaugh] of Loganton, daughter Mrs Earl (Ethel) Quiggle, two granddaughters, eight great-grandchildren, one great-great-granddaughter and his brother Charles. [1]

In his will, Floyd left his farm to his friend Etta M. Raudabaugh and to his daughter Ethel K. Quiggle, for their use during their life times, and there after to his grandson David Quiggle. David was directed to pay to his sisters their 2/3 share of the farm.

After Floyd's death the family removed his moonshine still from its last hiding place beneath the floor of a shed. In December 2014 the family of his granddaughter Beulah Neff donated the still to the Sugar Valley Historical Society. [7]

Etta M. Raudabaugh was born 24 January 1902 and died in November 1991. [4]

On 23 October 1967, Floyd was shot and killed while lying in bed at his home in Loganton by neighbor Leo Held. Held also shot and wounded Floyd's wife Donna. When Held walked into their home he had just shot and killed five people at the Hammermill Paper Company plant in Lock Haven where he worked. He wounded four others at the plant, then went to the Piper Aircraft Corporation at the Lock Haven Airport, where he wounded Mrs. Geraldine Ramm, before driving to Loganton. [2]

Floyd's daughter Joan (or Jody Lynn) was in the house when Held shot her parents. [2]

The mass shooting was reported in newspapers across the country. [2]

Leo Held was initially reported as never having been in trouble, and as a quiet & peaceful family man. Later reports described him as suffering from a persecution complex - suspicious that someone was out to get his job, that his telephone was tapped, that neighbors (including the Quiggles) burned leaves to spite him, knowing he hated the smoke, and that he had been unfairly criticized for his driving and kicked out of the car pool. To avoid her vehicle, a car driven by Joshua Zuckerman (passenger Matthew Rice) stopped on the right shoulder. John Irwin tried to navigate the space between the two vehicles, struck the parked Zuckerman vehicle and

Irwin's estate sued Gessinger and Zuckerman. Smith's estate sued Irwin, Gessinger & Zuckerman. Zuckerman and Rice sued Gessinger and the Irwin estate. All parties came together in mediation in Middlebury, Connecticut. In the settlement, Gina's estate received $2.1 million, John Irwin's estate $1.6 million, Matthew Rice $400,000, and Joshua Zuckerman $17,500. [3]

A private service was held for Gina on 14 February 2004 in Cranston, Rhode Island, and a Celebration of Life Memorial Service on 27 February 2004 at St. Paul the Apostle Church in New York City. [2]

Clara Rumpf, 19, is listed in the second enumeration.

This lodge is still in existence, and it is in a remote section of Lewis Twp, Union Co., PA. Not at all close to the County seat of Lewisburg. So, back in the 1830s when David Zimmerman moved there with his parents, John and ---- Zimmerman, it seems that the census taker did not make it there. [1]

Heinsheim, Mosbach, Grand Duchy of Baden, died on 7 Dec 1909 in White Deer Township, Union County, Pennsylvania⁴⁰⁶ at age 71, and was buried on 10 Dec 1909 in White Deer Church, Union County, Pennsylvania.⁴⁰⁶ The cause of his death was organic disease of the heart. Other names for Jacob were Jacob Strasser,⁴ Jakob Conrad Strassner,¹⁶⁶¹ and Jacob Henry Straussner. They had no children.

General Notes: Based on his children's burial in Union County, the spelling of Jacob's last name was Strassner.

Jakob Conrad Strassner was born 8 October 1838 in Heinsheim, Mosbach, Baden [Grand Duchy of Baden] to Georg Michael Strassner and Juliana Elisabetha Berg. [2]

Jacob's first wife was Catherine, also from Germany. She probably died after 1887, when their son Frederick was born. They probably had about 9 children together.

In 1900, Jacob Straussner is living in White Deer township, Union County, Pennsylvania. He is 61 years old, born in Germany, and a farmer. Living with him is his wife Carolina, also 61 and born in Germany, and Jacob's son Frederick W, 13. The census taker appears to have erroneously recorded Jacob and Carolina as having been married for 38 years, and Carolina as having had nine children.

Jacob may be buried with his first wife Catherine at St. Peter's Reformed Church in White Deer. Several of their children who died young are buried there. No markers exist for Jacob and Catherine if they are there.

Jacob Conrod Strassner, son of Michael Strassner, died 7 December 1909 in White Deer Township of disease of the heart. He was buried at White Deer Church. [1] White Deer Church cemetery has not been identified. [CAR]

She did not know her name. On the 1880 Census, William's wife's name is Henretta. In 1870 and 1910, William's wife is Catherine.

In the 1910 Census, W H and Catherine H Rosser are living in Mill Hall. Catharine is 69, born in Germany, and immigrated in 1850. She had five children, three are currently living.

Descendants of Adam Wilhelm Reuther

The other two children probably died young.

After the death of husband William in 1920, Catherine applied for a widow's pension on 22 November 1920. She was granted a pension of $30 a month. [2]

In 1923 the Clearfield Progress newspaper reported that Mrs William Rosser, mother of President of Council George M Rosser passed away at the family home in Jersey Shore on 22 July. George was at his mother's side when she passed away. The funeral was to be held Wednesday. [1] Catherine's place of death was actually Mill Hall. [3]

Noted events in their marriage were:

- Alt. Marriage: Abt 1862, Probably Green Township, Clinton Co, PA.³⁹

General Notes: William H Rosser was born 24 September 1840 in Bloosburg, and came to Clinton County when a small child. He spent his boyhood on a farm in Bald Eagle township. [5]

In the 1860 Census, William Rosser is living in Lamar Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania, in the Mill Hall area. He is 19 years old, and a blacksmith. He is living with Heines Stoner, also a blacksmith, and his family.

William's father John Rosser is living in the Mill Hall Boro in 1860. He is 47 years old, a miner, and was born in Wales. Living with him are his wife Mary, 46, and their children Merrick, 16, Harriett, 17, John, 12, and Titus, 7.

Descendants of Adam Wilhelm Reuther

William enlisted in the Pennsylvania Volunteers on 23 September 1861 in Lock Haven, the same day he married Catherine H Reuther. [4] William served in Company C of the 52nd Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers during the Civil War. [2]

After William began serving in the Civil War, his unit was initially quartered in comfortable barracks in Washington, DC. In March 1862 they started on the Peninsula campaign and went into camp near Alexandria [VA]. The first night they had no shelter of any kind during a severe snow and rain storm. William contracted a severe cold including the loss of his voice for several weeks. After a partial recovery of his voice, his troubles located to his left side. William never sufficiently recovered to do any heavy duty. He remained with his regiment until June 1862. He was then in the hospital at Yorktown, Va, Newport, RI, and Philadelphia. He was discharged in Philadelphia on 17 September 1862 in Philadelphia. [4]

William lived at Salona from 1 October 1862 to 1 April 1863; in Flemington from 1 April 1863 to fall 1865; in Lock Haven until December 1866; and in Mill Hall after December 1866. [4]

William's occupation on the censuses is listed as blacksmith. His obituary describes him as a carriage builder. [2]

In 1864, William embarked in the coach-making business at Lock Haven. In 1866 he accepted a position at the wagon works of Garth & Sons at Mill Hall until 1883. [5]

In the 1870 Census, William (Wm Wusser on the census) is living in Mill Hall. He is 29, a blacksmith, and born in Pennsylvania. His wife Catherine is also 29, and born in Pennsylvania. Their children are Harvey, 4, and G. M., 2. Also living with them is Jno Wusser [Rosser], 56, a miner. His birthplace is also listed as Pennsylvania.

In the 1880 Census, (the first I looked at for the Rossers) William and Henretta are living in Mill Hall, Clinton Co., Pennsylvania. Previously, only William Rosser's name and the names of their sons were known. William's occupation is blacksmith. His parents were born in Scotland. He and Henretta were 39 and 38 years old. Henretta was born in Germany. Their sons are Harvey, 14, George, 12, and Jessie, 7. They were born in Pennsylvania.

In 1883 William, along with his brothers John O and Titus, began the manufacture of axes and tools as Rosser Brothers. They continued in business for three years when the business was totally destroyed by fire. [5]

In 1886 William was a candidate for the nomination for the office of associate judge. [5]

William never fully recovered from his illness during the Civil War. Although he did work, he declared that he was never able to work full time. William was eventually granted a pension of $50 a month. [4]

In 1892 (approx) had been an acting justice of the peace for 20 years [since about 1882]. [5]

In the 1900 Census, William Rosser is living on East Main Street in Mill Hall. He is 59 years old. Living with him are his wife Catherine, 59, and son Jesse, 27. [1]

Descendants of Adam Wilhelm Reuther

In 1900, William was a Justice of the Peace in Mill Hall. [3]

In the 1910 Census, W H Rosser and wife Catharine H are living on East Main Street in Mill Hall, probably not too far from their son Jesse. William is 69 years old, and has been married for 48 years. He was born in Pennsylvania, and his parents were born in Wales. He is a notary public. Catharine H Rosser is also 69, and was born in Germany.

In the 1920 Census, William H and Cathryn H Rosser are living with their son Jessie on East Main Street in Mill Hall, Pennsylvania. William and Cathryn are both 79. William was born in Pennsylvania, and his parents in Wales. Cathryn was born in Germany. Her year of immigration is not clear on the census image.

William died 16 November 1920 in Mill Hall of chronic nephritis, from which he had suffered for five years. [4 - copy of death certificate]

[1] The 1900 Census image for William was very faint, and the normal information available on this census (month and year of birth) could not be read. William and his families ages were taken from the index on Ancestry.com, which also had him as Kesser instead of Rosser.

General Notes: Bertha was born in Rush township, Centre County, Pennsylvania. Her parents were living there on 2 Aug 1870 (shortly after Bertha was born) when the census was taken. Census questions were asked as of June 1, so Bertha was not listed on that census. [2]

By 1880 the family was in Osceola Mills, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. [3]

Shortly after her husband George died, Bertha sold their handsome buff brick residence on West Market Street in June 1927 to William A Hagerty for $12,000. She moved to an apartment in the A Boyd Thorn building on Market Street. [4]

General Notes: In 1911 Ward Rosser was a ticket clerk for the Reading Railroad in Clearfield. In March he had been visiting in the Jones home in Mount Carmel for "some time". On 6 March Margaret Jones and Ward Rosser departed for

Descendants of Adam Wilhelm Reuther

Clearfield intending to marry. They plan a wedding trip to Washington, DC, and to reside in Clearfield. [23]

Ward and Margaret's daughter Jean Ruth was born 9 Dec 1911 in Mt Carmel, Northumberland Co. Ward was living in Clearfield at the time, and Margaret living in Mr Carmel. [21]

Ward and Margaret were divorced in Philadelphia in 1913. [22]
Their daughter Jean was adopted by Ward's parents (see notes on George Rosser and Jean Rosser).

In 1914 Ward was a merchant living in Altoona, Blair County, Pennsylvania. [8]

Ward Jesse Rosser married Grace Stannert at her home in Altoona, PA, on 28 April 1914. They will reside in Clearfield, PA, where Ward works with his father in the furniture business. [1]

In 1915 Ward J Rosser and wife Grace are living in Clearfield. Ward is a frt clk [freight clerk] for NYC RR. [9]

In 1917, Ward Jesse Rosser registered for the World War I draft in Blair County, Pennsylvania. Ward was born Oct 12 1890 in Kerrmoor, PA. Ward is a locomotive fireman for the Pennsylvania Railroad in Altona, PA. He is married and his wife and mother-in-law are his nearest relatives. Their names may have been on the registration card, but it was unclear.

On 20 July 1917 Ward Jesse Rosser's, of Altoona, draft number was drawn and he was to report to the county draft board for examination. [12]

In August 1917, the newspaper reported that Ward J Rosser was accepted for military service, but he had filed papers for an exemption. [15]

In October 1917 when daughter May died, W J Rosser lived in Sproul [probably Blair Co], Pennsylvania. He was born in Kerrmoor. [11]

In 1919 Ward Rosser is listed in the Altoona [Blair County PA] directory as living in Juniata. He is a fireman. [9]

In the 1920 Census, Ward J Rosser is living in Juniata burough, Blair County, Pennsylvania. He is 29 years old and was born in Pennsylvania as were his parents. He is a foreman for the steam railroad. Living with him is his wife Grace, also 29. She was born in Pennsylvania. Her father was born in Texas, and her mother in Pennsylvania.

The newspaper reported that some insurance was carried but not sufficient to cover the total loss that occurred. [16]

Descendants of Adam Wilhelm Reuther

In March 1927 Mr & Mrs Ward Rosser and son of Spruce Creek [Huntingdon Co, PA] were in Clearfield to attend the funeral for Ward's father. [3]

On 9 December 1927, W J Rosser, of Juniata, was arrested on charges of larceny and passing worthless check. He was also accused of stealing an automobile. While being taken to the Sharpsburg police station, he attempted to escape, leaping from the car and climbing aboard a passing freight train. The officers emptied their guns at him and he was found lying in the yard of the Fort Pitt Brewing Co, Sharpsburg, shot in the back in the right leg. He was taken to St Francis hospital in Pittsburgh, where he was near death. [25]

On 14 April 1928 W J Rosser was sentenced to the Allegheny County Workhouse for 1 to 2 years for "Lar" [larceny?]. Ward was received at the Workhouse on 18 April 1928. He was 30 years old [should be 37], born in Pennsylvania, his occupation was clerk [?]. He was discharged on 16 April 1929 after serving one year. His occupation in prison was "Rug". [23]

In May 1928 the PA State Highway Department revoked the drivers' licenses of 29 motorists, and an additional 27 were placed on the departments prohibitory list. W J Rosser of Juniata was on the "blacklist" for larceny. [26]

In 1930 Ward J Rosser is living in Turtle Creek, Allegheny County, Pennsylvania. He is 39, and the proprietor of a billiard room. Living with Ward are his wife Grace, 39, and son John E, 10. Grace's father was born in Pennsylvania and her mother in Texas. [4]

On 30 Jun 1933 in Altoona, Ward J Rosser, of South Lakemont, was arrested on charges of check forgery and issuing worthless checks. His arrest was the result of many weeks of work.[27]

In July 1933 Ward J Rosser, of Altoona, went before Alderman Cyrus Stern, accused of 16 different law violations. Only three informations were made against him - two instances of forgery and one of breaking and entering and stealing a set of automobile registration plates. Ward purchased an automobile, issuing a bogus check in payment, then took the car's license plates, placed them on his own car, and left the city. Ward was committed to the county jail to await trial. [28]

In September 1933, "W. J. Rosser, of Altoona, pleaded guilty to the charge of issuing worthless checks in Huntingdon. . . Rosser stated to the court that he was a furloughed trainman on the Pittsburgh division, and that his wife was in need of medicine and that his son was in need of clothing to enter high school. He was brought to the Huntingdon county jail from the jail at Hollidaysburg, where he was confronted with similar charges. He stated he had been out of work four years. . . . [On the 1st charge] he was sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution, make good the amount of the worthless check, and be imprisoned in the county jail for one month. [On the 2nd charge] A similar sentence was imposed . . . The sentences are to run consecutively . . . [17]

In November 1933, "W. J. Rosser, formerly of Altoona, who has been in jail for some time serving a sentence for issuing fraudulent checks, was paroled to the custody of Sheriff Albert J Fore, with instructions that he remain outside the county. [18]

Descendants of Adam Wilhelm Reuther

In September 1934 Ward was before a judge in Hollidaysburg [Blair County] for sentencing:

"Ward J. Rosser, charged with the forging of a check, which was cashed by J.E. O'Neill and with issuing a fraudulent check, which was cashed by W.B. Dysart. District Attorney Cilbert said Rosser has been a nuisance in Blair, Clearfield and Huntingdon counties. Rosser admitted being in jail for 27 months in recent years, and would be good. He showed a letter purporting to offer him a position if freed but the letter was written on plain paper and unsigned.

It was said Rosser had committed his last offense but 14 days following his release from the workhouse. Judge Patterson directed that Rosser be returned to jail, to see if he could get letters, indicating a job awaits him in any other county." [13]

On 16 October 1934, "A police dragnet is being spread for W. J. Rosser, alias George B. Grey, alias W. G. Grey, wanted by Williamsport authorities for allegedly passing a worthless check at a Williamsport bank and purchasing an automobile without funds to pay the purchasing price. According to teletype description of the man and the crime broadcast from Harrisburg, Rosser, whose mother resides in Clearfield, recently conducted a store at Spruce Creek. He is five feet ten inches tall, slim build and wears a small mustache. The exact charge logged against Rosser in event of his arrest will be forgery. He signed the name of W. G. Grey, treasurer of the Snow Shoe hunting camp, to the hundred dollar check. When last seen he was wearing a blue serge suit and driving a 1927 Hudson sedan. [19]

Ward was reported as in the Ohio Penitentiary in 1935. [10] It could have been that he was in jail, but not in the Ohio Penn.

In December 1938 the Williamsport newspaper reported that Ward J Rosser, who had been a prisoner in the Lycoming County Jail for four years and worked during that time as a cook for the jail, was now doing time in the Ohio Penitentiary in Columbus, Ohio. The Cuyahoga County, Ohio, authorities charged him with defrauding an innkeeper. [6]

In January 1939 a class picture from 1902 was published in the Clearfield Progress. Ward Rosser was identified as currently living in Williamsport [Lycoming County, PA]. [5] He was actually in prison in Ohio.

In April 1940 Ward J Rosser is in the Ohio Penitentiary in Columbus, Franklin County, Ohio. He is 50 years old and born in Pennsylvania. Ward is married, although that could have been crossed out, meaning he was divorced. The census recorded him as being there in 1935. [10]

He was released from prison shortly after the census, and in trouble again by July.

Descendants of Adam Wilhelm Reuther

"Ward J. Rosser, aged about 50, 328 Elmira street, Williamsport, a check artist wanted in both Williamsport and Altoona on bad check charges, came to grief on Saturday afternoon [27 July 1940] through the work of Chief of Police A.D. Mencer.

Rosser, alias Ward James Vernon and James Bernon, started his act in Tyrone [Blair County] on Saturday afternoon with several blank checks. He went to the bookkeeper in the Rupert Auto Sales, East Tenth street, and requested that one of the blank checks be drawn on the Spruce Creek Rod and Gun Club, with no amount set on it and then requested a checkwriter. The bookkeeper told him they did not have a check writer, but told him one could be procured at the Mann Printing company.

As soon as Rosser left the building Chief Mencer was notified and started on the hunt, being behind his quarry by about five minutes until he showed up at the Miller Brothers Hardware company. He asked for merchandise in Miller Brothers which they did not stock.

As the man left Miller Brothers, Mencer was right behind him and noticed he entered Fisher's Hardware company, where he purchased hardware to the amount of $15.00 for which the check was written. As soon as he left Fisher's Rosser was apprehended and taken to the police headquarters, and then to Justice of the Peace W.B. Robinson, where information was made against him. Unable to furnish bail he was committed to Tyrone jail and then taken to Hollidaysburg on Saturday night.

Chief of Police Mencer learned from the prisoner's effects that he was from Williamsport and on communicating with police there found he was wanted in Lycoming county on bad check charges, as was also the case when the Altoona police were asked about him." [14]

On 24 July 1941, Ward Jesse Rosser was sentenced to 4 months to 1 year at the Allegheny County Workhouse. He was convicted of "fraudently making a written inst." [instrument]. He was recieved on 1 August 1941, age 50, born in Pennsylvania, and his pre-incarceration occupation was cook. [23]

In October 1941 the former captains of the Bison football team who then resided outside Clearfield were invited to the high school alumni homecoming activities. Ward Rosser was captain in 1907; his whereabouts in 1941 were unknown. [2] He was in the Allegheny County Workhouse.

Ward was discharged from the Allegheny County Workhouse on 22 November 1941 after serving 4 months. His prison occupation was unclear. [23]

From the newspaper reports of his criminal history, Ward used the aliases George B Grey, W G Grey, Ward James Vernon, and James Bernon.

Conflicting information was given in wife Grace's obituaries in 1946 - that she was the wife of W J Rosser and the widow of W J Rosser. [7] Her death certificate showed she was widowed.

Ward has not been found on the WWII draft of 1942 for those born between 1877 & 1897, and may have died before then or moved to another state. Or been in prison, and not eligible to participate in the draft.

In January 1950, Ward's son John E Rosser applied for WWII military service compensation. He listed his mother as deceased and his father W J Rosser as address unknown. [2]

He could have died between 1941 and 1946, or anytime after 1941, including after 1950. [CAR]

Ward has not been found on the PA death certificates from 1939 to 1963. [CAR Jan 2015]

In 1914 Grace was a nurse in Altoona, Blair County, Pennsylvania. [5]

In 1918, Grace's mother Jennie Stannert died:

Mrs. Jennie Stannert of 609 Twelfth street died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. W. Bensinger, East Pittsburg, Wednesday morning of influenza [during the 1918 influenza epidemic], aged 61 years. The remains were brought to her late home last night. She was born in Northumberland on June 4, 1890, the daughter of Wilson S. and Jennie Stannert of California. Surviving are one son, John E. Descendants of Adam Wilhelm Reuther

Burial was at Oak Ridge cemetery in Altoona, Pennsylvania. [4]

Although her obituaries give two different dates for her birth, the 1890 date is consistent with other information.

On 3 September 1945 Mrs Grace Rosser fell in the street and broke her right femur. She spent the next 156 days at the Altoona Hospital. She died on 5 February 1946 of surgical shock, arteriosclerotic heart disease, and an "united fracture of rt femur" [a bone fracture that does not heal]. Descendants of Adam Wilhelm Reuther

Jean Ruth Rosser was born 9 Dec ??? in Mt Carmel, Northumberland County. Her adoptive parents were George M Rosser and Bertha Ella Neff. [4]

Looking further, an original birth certificate was found for Jean Ruth Reuper. Reviewing other words and the names of her parents, I believe the handwriting was misinterpreted. The R had a loop that looked like an e; the u looked just like the o in her mother Margaret Jones' name, and the p could be an old way of writing the double-s.

Jean Ruth Rosser (or Reuper), born 9 Dec 1911, Mt Carmel, Northumberland County father Ward J Rosser (or Reuper), resident of Clearfield, born in Clearfield Co, age 21 (b. abt 1890)

mother Margaret Jones, resident of Mt Carmel, born in Mt Carmel, age 17
(Also, the child's original name on the birth certificate was Marion or Maria. This was crossed out and Jean Ruth printed in a different handwriting.) [4]

This is certain proof that Jean was the biological child of Ward J Rosser and his first wife Margaret. She was probably adopted by her grandparents between 1913 (her parents' divorce) and when the 1920 Census was taken. [CAR]

When Jean's father George died in 1927, Jean was listed as his adopted daughter. [1]

In the 1930 Census, Harold and Gene Strickland are living at 126 Strayer Street in Johnstown, Cambria County, Pennsylvania. They are both 21 years old and were married at 18.
