Descendants of Johann Christian Heinrich Klobe

1-Johann Christian Heinrich Klobe

Johann married Christiane Henriette Margarethe. They had nine children: Charles, Heinrich Friedrich Martin, Julius Friedrich Eduard, Henriette, Christian Heinrich Ernst, Emilie, Pauline Ernestine Fanny, Ernestine Friederike Ida, and Johanne Charlotte Henriette.

2-Charles Klobe,¹ son of Johann Christian Heinrich Klobe² and Christiane Henriette Margarethe², was born on 18 Aug 1824 in Grumbach (Now Wurzbach), Saale-Orla-Kreis, Thuringen, Germany,³ was christened on 23 Aug 1824 in Wurzbach, Saale-Orla-Kreis, Thuringen, Germany,⁴ and died about 1878⁵ about age 54. Other names for Charles were Christian Freidrich Karl Klobe⁴ and Karl/Carl Klobe.⁶

General Notes: Lotta Reuther Longstreet identified Emilie Klobe Reuther's brother as Herman. It appears Emilie's brother was actually Charles Klobe. Charles was probably born Carl, and changed his name to Charles when he emigrated from Germany, a common name change for Germans.

Herman Klobe's (1857-1927) death certificate shows his father as Carl Klobe, born in Pennsylvania. Herman's son Charles, who reported the information on his father, did not have his grandfather's birthplace correct, as Herman always reported to the census taker that his parents were born in Germany.

On 20 May 1850, Charles Klobe, age 25 (born about 1824), declared his intention in Philadelphia to become a citizen of the United States. He owed his allegiance to the King of Saxony. On 24 September 1857, Charles became a citizen in Philadelphia. Vouching for him was Christian Reuther, husband of Charles' sister Emilie.

Charles Klobe and Hannah Reuther, sister-in-law of Charles's sister Emilie, had a son Herman, out of wedlock in 1857.

In 1858 & 1862, Charles Klobe is a swordmaker living at 920 Charlotte. [5]

In 1860 Charles Klobe is living in Philadelphia in the home of Herman Fuchs. He is 33, born in Saxony, and his occupation is military trappings. Also in the house is Ferdinand Ginder [Gunther], Charles' future brother-in-law.

In 1866 Karl Klobe is a sword maker in Philadelphia. [6]

1867 - Charles Klobe, jeweller, living at 720 Poplar [4]

1868 - Charles Klobe, machinist, 720 Poplar [3]

In 1870, Charles Klobe is living in the 20th Ward, District 63. He is 46, born in Saxony, and a gilder. He owns real estate valued at $2000 and personal property valued at $100. With him are his wife Elizabeth, 40, born in Hesse Darmstadt, and Herman, 13, born in Pennsylvania. Charles is a citizen. [1] Charles Klobe, gilder, is also in the city directory at 1244 N 8th street. [3]

The circumstantial evidence - born in Saxony and a gilder (the Klobe siblings' father was a goldsmith) - point to Charles as the brother of Emilie.

Descendants of Johann Christian Heinrich Klobe

1871 - Charles Klobe, gilder, living at 1244 N 8th [4]

1872 - Charles Klobner, plater, 1244 N 8th street [2]

1874 - Charles Klobe, finisher, 1244 N 8th [4]

By 1875 Charles Klobe is listed in the city directory as a confectioner. Probably he has become disabled and his wife Elizabeth is the confectioner. They are living at 1242 N 8th. In 1877 Charles Klobe, confectioner, is living at 1244 N 8th. [2]

Charles died sometime between 1877 and 1880, when his widow Elizabeth Klobe is listed on the 1880 Census.

Charles most likely died in 1878.

Noted events in his life were:

- Immigration: Bef 1850.

Charles had a relationship with Hannah Maria Reuther,⁷ daughter of Adam Wilhelm Reuther⁸ and Johanna F Wolfram,⁹ Marriage status: unmarried. Hannah was born in 1832 in Heinersdorf (Now Wurzbach), Saale-Orla-Kreis, Thuringen, Germany,¹⁰ died in 1895 in Greene Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania¹¹ at age 63, and was buried in Bixler Church/MT Union Cemetery, Carroll, Greene Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania.¹² Another name for Hannah was Hanna Reuther.¹³ They had one son: Herman Henry.

General Notes: Hannah was born in Heinersdorf, Furstentum Reuss jungere Linie, or the village of Heinersdorf in the Principality of Ruess Younger Line, one of several small Thuringian states. Today, Heinersdorf is part of the city of Wurzbach, Saale-Orla-Kreis (Saale-Orla Administrative District), Thuringen (Thuringia).

According to Herman Klobe's death certificate, his mother was Hannah Reuther. Herman's son Charles provided the information.

Hannah had Herman Klobe out of wedlock with Carl/Charles Klobe. This was not uncommon with the German families in Sugar Valley at this time. There was generally a stigma attached to the woman. She, many times, could not keep her child, and her father married her off to someone pretty quickly so as not to draw attention. Usually the new husband did not accept nor allow the out of wedlock child in his home. Sometimes, even a widowed woman who remarried was not allowed to keep her children, they had to be "farmed" out. [1]

According to a letter from Lotta Reuther Longstreet to Russell & Lydia Reuther in 1963, Adam's daughter married a man named Martz.

Hannah probably married Henry Martz very shortly after giving birth to Herman Klobe in Philadelphia in 1857. Her first child with Henry was born in 1859.

Hannah's husband Henry Martz was 20 years her senior. It is very likely that he was picked as a husband for her after the birth of Herman, rather than her choosing him.

Noted events in her life were:

- Immigration: 21 Oct 1853, Arriving In Philadelphia From Bremen On The Ship Louise Marie.

3-Herman Henry Klobe¹⁴ was born on 22 Feb 1857 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania,¹⁵ died on 22 Aug 1927 in Lock Haven, Clinton County, Pennsylvania¹⁶ at age 70, and was buried in Woodward Cemetery, Centre County, Pennsylvania.¹⁷ Other names for Herman were Henry Herman Klobe¹⁸ and Herman Klobe.¹⁹

General Notes: According to his daughter Bertha's marriage record in 1950, Herman was born in Philadelphia.

Herman was born out of wedlock to Carl/Charles Klobe and Hannah Reuther. He was probably raised by his grandparents Adam and Joanna Reuther until his father married Elizabeth. He probably lived with his father in Philadelphia from the mid to late 1860's until the late 1870's when Herman returned to Sugar Valley.

In the 1860 Census Herman (Harman Clobes on the census) is living in Greene Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania, with [grandfather] Adam Reuther (Adam Rider on the census), his wife Hannah [Joanna], and their sons Henry and Herman. Herman Klobe is 3 years old and was born in Pennsylvania.

In 1870, Herman is living in Philadelphia with his father Charles, and his father's wife Elizabeth.

Herman was a graduate of Gerard [Girard] College, Philadelphia and had been well known as an artist in his younger days. It is said he had a fine literary training and a promising future before he lost his health. When that happened he left Philadelphia and followed the occupation of lumberman, working for J B Barner and H L Murray at Pine Creek in Centre County and also in Sugar Valley. [1] It is said that Herman painted many posters for theaters in Philadelphia. [2]

Descendants of Johann Christian Heinrich Klobe

Lumbering is hard, physical work, and it seems unlikely that Herman left Philadelphia where he had a promising future as an artist and writer due to his health. He probably had other reasons for leaving Philadelphia. Herman may have left Philadelphia following the death of his father who appears to have died between 1877 & 1880.

In the 1880 Census, Herman is living in Greene Township with Adam Reuther. He is 23 years old, a farm laborer, born in Pennsylvania, with his parents born in Bavaria.

When he returned to Sugar Valley from Philadelphia, Herman worked for a saw mill near Woodward in Centre County. It was there that he met future wife Margaret Louise Miller. [3] She was three months pregnant when they married.

In the 1900 Census, Herman is living in Greene Township. He is 43 years old, and a day laborer. He was born in Pennsylvania and his parents were born in Germany. Living with Herman are his wife Maggie M, 36, and their children Birtie F, 10, Charles H, 8, and Floyde C, 6. They have been married for 12 years. Maggie has had 3 children and all are living.

In 1910, Herman is living in Greene Township. He is 54 years old and a farmer. Living with Herman are his wife Margaret, 46, daughter Bertha F, 20, sons Charles L, 18, and Floyd C, 16, and granddaughter Ida L [Ethelene] Buck, 3. Ida is daughter Bertha's child.

In the 1920 Census, Herman (Herman Globe on the census) is living in Greene Township. He is 63, and a farmer. Living with Herman are his wife Maggie L, 56, and son Charles L, 28, and his family.

According to his death certificate, Herman was a miller when he died.

On August 16, 1927, Herman sustained an axe wound four inches long to the back of his head that penetrated to his brain. He died several days later on August 22, 1927, without really regaining consciousness. Joseph Huntingdon, who had been hired by Herman's son Floyd to make moonshine, was tried for the murder, having been accused of attacking Herman after a day of drinking, arguing, and fighting with Floyd Klobe over money owed to Joseph. He was acquitted, and no one else was charged with the crime.

Lee, and Floyd Curtis.

Marriage Notes: At the time of their marriage, Margaret was three months pregnant with daughter Bertha.

General Notes: Margaret was about three months pregnant with daughter Bertha when she and Herman married.

In the obituary for her son Charles in 1990 in the Lock Haven Express newspaper, Charles' mother was Margaret Louise Miller. Bertha Klobe also reported her mother's name as Margaret Miller when she married William Geyer in 1950 (Clinton Co records).

Margaret parents are most likely Daniel and Margaret Miller. In 1870, Daniel, age 46, & Margaret Miller, age 45, are living in Penn Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania, with their children Mary, 16, Winfield [Charles W?], 11, Robert, 9, Margaret, 8, Irvin, 5, Newton, 4, and Anna, 2. [2] Winfield, Margaret & Newton match Margaret, brother Newton, and Charles W buried together in Woodward Cemetery.

Margaret's mother Margaret appears to have died between 1870 and 1873.

In 1880, Daniel Miller, 52, is living in Harris Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania. With him are his [2nd wife?] Sarah, 37, children Winfield, 20, Robert, 18, Newton, 14, Anna, 12, Cody M, 7, Thomas C, 4, and George H, 2. [3]

In 1880, Margaret L Miller is living in Potter Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania, with the family of Nathaniel Boob. She is 17, and a servant. [4]

Buried next to Herman and Margaret Klobe in Woodward Cemetery are Brother Newton E Miller, 1865-1942, and Charles W Miller, 1 January 1859 - 11 March 1899. Also nearby is George Miller, 19 June 1827 - 19 December 1917. [1]

General Notes: In 1910, Bertha F Klobe is living in Greene Township, Clinton Co, Pennsylvania, with her parents and brothers. Bertha is a servant for a private family. She is 20 years old, single, and has had one child, who is living. Ida L Buck, age 3, granddaughter to Bertha's father Herman on the census, is Bertha's child.

Descendants of Johann Christian Heinrich Klobe

In December 1910 Bertha married William E Yarrison. They were divorced by 1918.

In 1920, Bertha Walsh is living in Williamsport, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania. She is rooming in the house of Fred & Goldie Hayes. Bertha is married but her husband is not listed on the census with her. Bertha is 29 and a shoe maker for a ribbon company. [Note: It is not confirmed that this is Bertha Klobe.]

In 1927, Bertha was listed in her father's obituary as Mrs Bertha Walsh of Williamsport [Lycoming County, Pennsylvania]. [1]

In January 1940 Bertha is living in New York. [5]

Klobe family stories report that Mrs. Bertha Farmer lived in New York City, and was an artist. [6]

Bertha was divorced from her last husband, before William Geyer, in Broome Co, NY, on 8 Feb 1944. [2]

Bertha was living in New York when she applied for her Social Security number before 1951. [4]

In April 1950 Bertha Klobe is living in Sharpsburg, Allegheny County. She is 60, divorced, and a cleaner & duster at a department store. Bertha is living in an apartment next door to daughter Ethelene Rios and her husband Ramon. [7]

In 1950 when Bertha married William Geyer, she was 60 years old, a store designer, and living in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Bertha died Saturday, Dec 2, 1978, at Leader Nursing Center in Jersey Shore. She had been a guest there for 5 1/2 years. Bertha was a member of St. Luke's Catholic Church in Jersey Shore. She was survived by her daughter Ethelene Rios of Avis, four step-children (the Geyers), brothers Charles & Floyd, and 3 grandchildren, 8 great-grandchildren and 6 great-great-grandchildren. [3]

Bertha had a relationship with John Henry Buck,³¹ son of John D Buck and Margaret Wycoff. Marriage status: unmarried. John was born on 1 Dec 1882 in Union County, Pennsylvania,³² died on 26 Dec 1956 in Kelly Township, Union County, Pennsylvania³³ at age 74, and was buried in Highland Cemetery, New Columbia, Union County, Pennsylvania.³⁴ Another name for John was John Buck. General Notes: Daughter Ethelene's father is identified in her obituary as John Buck. [1]

In 1900 John H Buck, 18, is living in White Deer, Union County, Pennsylvania, with his mother Margaret Buck, 38, widowed, and siblings William T, 21, Mzie[?] M, 14, Alfred L, 12, and Miriam A, 10. [5]

General Notes: Daughter Marian's SSA application lists her father as Mickel Walsh. If correct, an indication of an earlier relationship for Ethelene. However, Ethelene's step-father at this time was also named ___ Walsh. It is possible Ethelene used the name Walsh, and Marian was born out-of-wedlock, father not named. [7]

In 1930 Ethelene I Wagner and husband Francis W Wagner are living in Hampton, Allegheny County, Pennsylvania. Ethelene is 23. Francis is 28, and a plasterer of houses. They were married at age 16 (Ethelene) and 21 (Francis). With them are children Mary A, 7, August F, 5, and Bertha E, 4 years and 7 months. [5]

Descendants of Johann Christian Heinrich Klobe

In January 1940 Edith Ida Klobe and Ramon Rios applied for a marriage license in Allegheny County. Ethelene incorrectly lists herself as never married, her first name as Edith and her father as Herman Klobe. Ethelene and Ramon are living in Sharpsburg at the same address. [6]

They applied again for a marriage license in September 1940, showing Ethelene's divorce in July 1940. [6]

In January 1950 Ethelene Rios is living in Sharpsburg. [8]

In April 1950 Ethelene and Ramon Rios are in Sharpsburg, Ethelene is 30 [should be 44] and Ramon is 32 [should be 49]. Living in the apartment next door is Ethelene's mother Bertha Klobe. [9]

Ethelene I Buck Rios, wife of Ramon, and daughter of Bertha [Klobe] Geyer and John Buck, was born 10 October 1906 in Sugar Valley, and died 1 April 1987. Her last residence was in Avis, Clinton County, Pennsylvania. [1, 2]

Ethelene I Rios of Avis [Clinton County, Pennsylvania] died on 1 April 1987 at Divine Providence Hospital in Williamsport after a lengthy illness. She was involved with in-home nursing for the elderly. Ethelene was survived by her daughters Marian L Sack of Avis and Bertha Harnard of San Antonio, Texas. Also her half-siblings William Buck of Canandauiga, NY; David and Jake Buck of White Deer; Ethel Barto of Milton, and Miriam Eddinger of Canandauiga, NY. [3]

Ethelene is buried at Jersey Shore with her husband Ramon Rios. Also buried in the same plot (Ethelene was the owner) is her mother Bertha Geyer and friend Walter Craczyk [or Graczyk; see below] (died May 1988 age 87). Walter's burial is not marked. He was probably a close friend or boyfriend of Ethelene's. [4]

Charles and Margaret married when they were both 20 years old. Glenn is working as a laborer in the PA forestry, and Kenneth is a farm laborer. Also living with them is a boarder, William M Buck.

At one time Charles, wife Margaret, and son Willard were arrested for moonshining at the site of their still at Tea Springs. The still was 750 gallons, and 37 gallons of moonshine was confiscated. [4]

In January 1937, Charles Klobe, of Carroll, Sugar Valley, was arrested on a charge of non-payment of tax on liquor. The charge was from an arrest in August 1935 for possession of liquor. In October 1937, Charles' trial was scheduled for the October session of the Clinton County Criminal Court. [1]

In 1942 Charles Lee Klobe is living in Greene township in Clinton County. Charles is employed by Waltman & Store (?) of Williamsport and is doing defense work in White Deer Valley. Charles' closest contact is his son Glenn Klobe of Loganton. [2]

The Social Security Death Index had Charles L Klobe born 10 Aug 1891 died 3 Oct 1990. Last residence Jersey Shore, Lycoming Co., PA.

In 1990, at his 100th birthday celebration [he was really only 99], nine of his 11 children were living - Glenn L, Willard L, Fred L, Dorothy M who married a Meixsel, Mildred C, Lindy H, Thelma M married to Ray Bierly, Charles J, and Harold. Eight of them attended.

Although Charles was reported to have lived to be 100, his date of birth from Social Security and his ages on various censuses & the WWII draft, support an age of 99 at his death, and I have left 1891 as his more accurate birth. [CAR]

Descendants of Johann Christian Heinrich Klobe

In 1920 Curtis F Kobbe [sic] is living in Mill Hall, Clinton County, Pennsylvania. He is 27, born in Pennsylvania, his father in Germany [should be Pennsylvania]. Curtis is a laborer at a brickyard. With him is his wife Thressa M, 20 [should be 17], and daughter Ethel M, age 1. [6]

When daughter Ethel was just a baby, Floyd came home to find that Thressa had left, leaving baby Ethel in a dresser drawer. [5] Thressa left about 1920 or 1921.

Floyd quit his job to care for daughter Ethel, returning to Sugar Valley. His brother Charles and his wife Margaret helped to raise Ethel. [5]

In the 1930 Census, Floyd C Klobe is living in Greene Township, Clinton Co, Pennsylvania, not far from his brother Charles. He is 35 years old and divorced. Floyd is a lumberman. Living with him are his daughter Ethel M, 12, and Etta M Raudabaugh, servant, 28 & widowed.

Etta Raudabaugh was a lady who lived with him for a long time. She was the widow of a WWII vet [should be WWI vet] and had a good pension from that, so they never married because she would have lost the pension if she did. [Mary Hoffer]

In 1942 Floyd Curtis Klobe is living in Greene township in Clinton County. He is farming. Floyd's closest contact is his daughter Mrs Ethel Quiggle of Loganton. Floyd was born 3 Oct 1894 in Clinton County. [3]

Floyd died January 12 1979 at Lock Haven Hospital where he had been seriously ill for two weeks. Floyd lived in Sugar Valley all his life where he farmed. He retired in 1966. Floyd was survived by Etta [Raudabaugh] of Loganton, daughter Mrs Earl (Ethel) Quiggle, two granddaughters, eight great-grandchildren, one great-great-granddaughter and his brother Charles. [1]

In his will, Floyd left his farm to his friend Etta M. Raudabaugh and to his daughter Ethel K. Quiggle, for their use during their life times, and there after to his grandson David Quiggle. David was directed to pay to his sisters their 2/3 share of the farm.

After Floyd's death the family removed his moonshine still from its last hiding place beneath the floor of a shed. In December 2014 the family of his granddaughter Beulah Neff donated the still to the Sugar Valley Historical Society. [7]

General Notes: Floyd Quiggle was a self-employed truck driver, and an avid hunter. [1]

On 23 October 1967, Floyd was shot and killed while lying in bed at his home in Loganton by neighbor Leo Held. Held also shot and wounded Floyd's wife Donna. When Held walked into their home he had just shot and killed five people at the Hammermill Paper Company plant in Lock Haven where he worked. He wounded four others at the plant, then went to the Piper Aircraft Corporation at the Lock Haven Airport, where he wounded Mrs. Geraldine Ramm, before driving to Loganton. [2]

Floyd's daughter Joan (or Jody Lynn) was in the house when Held shot her parents. [2]

Leo Held was shot and wounded in a gun battle with police shortly after leaving the Quiggles' home. He died two days later at the Lock Haven Hospital. [2] Leo is buried in the same cemetery in Lock Haven as Floyd and Donna. [3]

The mass shooting was reported in newspapers across the country. [2]

Leo Held was initially reported as never having been in trouble, and as a quiet & peaceful family man. Later reports described him as suffering from a persecution complex - suspicious that someone was out to get his job, that his telephone was tapped, that neighbors (including the Quiggles) burned leaves to spite him, knowing he hated the smoke, and that he had been unfairly criticized for his driving and kicked out of the General Notes: In the shooting by Leo Held on 23 October 1967 that killed her husband Floyd Quiggle, Donna was paralyzed from the waist down. [1]

In December 1967 she was at St. Francis Hospital in Pittsburgh undergoing rehabilitation. Friends and neighbors back home collected $3750 to defray her medical costs. [1]

In December 1967 she was able to go home over the Christmas holiday to spend it with her children, before returning to St. Francis. [2]

Children David, 8, and Jody, 5, were staying with her mother [should be sister in law] Mrs. Mary Grieb. [1]

Donna Quiggle lived as a quadriplegic and needed constant care by a companion. She died five years after the shooting of a lung complication from her quadriplegia. [3]

Floyd next had a relationship with Etta May Long,²⁹⁷ daughter of Thomas Clayton Long and Myrtle Myra Bower. Etta was born on 24 Jan 1902 in Greene Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania,²⁹⁸ died on 30 Nov 1991 in Loganton, Clinton County, Pennsylvania²⁹⁹ at age 89, and was buried in Fairview Cemetery, Loganton, Clinton County, Pennsylvania.³⁰⁰ Another name for Etta was Etta Raudabaugh. They had no children.

General Notes: Etta Raudabaugh was a lady who lived with Floyd Klobe for a long time. She was the widow of a WWII vet [should be WWI vet] and had a good pension from that, so they never married because she would have lost the pension if she did. [Mary Hoffer]

Etta was married to Earl Elmer Raudabaugh between 1918 & 1920 [1, 6]. They may have separated by 1920, when Earl is on the census as married, but Etta is listed as single. [4]

In June 1917 Earl Elmer Raudabaugh is a laborer for H___ Walker Brick Works in Mill Hall. He is living in Loganton. Earl was born 26 Jul 1893 in Green Township, Clinton County, PA. He is single. [2]

Earl E Raudabaugh died 12 August 1920 of pulmonary tuberculosis, and is buried at the Church of the Brethren Cemetery in Eastville, Clinton County. He was married at the time of his death. [3, 7]

By 1930 Etta Raudabaugh is living with Floyd Klobe. She is a beneficiary of his will and is listed as the step-mother of Floyd's daughter Ethel Quiggle when she died.

Etta M Raudabaugh is buried at Fairview Cemetery next to Floyd Klobe. [5]

Charles next married Elisa / Elizabeth Rothermel³⁰¹ on 3 Nov 1866 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.³⁰² Elisa was born in Jul 1830 in Hesse Darmstadt, Germany,³⁰³ died on 24 Apr 1907 in Westfield, Union County, New Jersey³⁰⁴ at age 76, and was buried on 28 Apr 1907 in Fairview Cemetery, Westfield, Union County, New Jersey.³⁰⁵ Other names for Elisa were Elizabeth,¹ Elizabeth Klobe, and Elizabeth Roesch. They had no children.

General Notes: Elizabeth immigrated to the US in 1851. [9]

Elizabeth had a daughter named Frances ___ about 1854 in Philadelphia. Frances (___) (Mueller) Brunner is listed in her mother's will. [6, see Notes below]

Note some information on Elizabeth was traced & confirmed based on information on an Ancestry tree - AdamsRobertsBennerSauerRulePeterCavalin owned by SwimSwamLiz. Reviewed by CAR in 2020.

Elizabeth was first married to Francis Sauer. They lived in Philadelphia and Baltimore, and had at least 5 children. They divorced about 1865.

In 1865, Elizabeth Sauer sued Francis Sauer in Baltimore for the non-compliance of an order by the court for not paying his wife alimony. The court fined the defendant $10 and costs. [8]

In 1866 Elisa Rothermel married Karl Klobe in Philadelphia. [10]

In 1870 Elizabeth's children with Francis Sauer are living with him in Baltimore. (See Notes below.)

In 1880 Eliz. M Klobler (or Klobe) is living at 906 Warnock St in Philadelphia, 20th Ward. She is 50 (born about 1830), widowed, and born in Prussia. Elizabeth is working as a huckster, or peddler. Living with her are Cath. Aeschlager, 50, Chas. Aeschlager, 20, John & Kate Miller and their daughter Ida, 9. They are probably rooming with Elizabeth. [1]

In 1888, 1889, 1890 & 1892 Elizabeth Klobe, widow of Charles, is living at 917 Warnock. [3, 4, 5]

Geo Roesch is listed in the 1897 & 1898 (and earlier) Philadelphia city directories in the "segars" business [apparently an old spelling for cigar], living at 1429 Brown. He nor his widow Elizabeth is listed in the 1899 nor 1900 city directory. (Footnote.com)

In 1900 Elizabeth Roesch is living in Newark, New Jersey, with her son August Sauer and several relatives. Elizabeth is 69, born July 1830 in Germany, widowed, has had 6 children, 5 are living, immigrated in 1851. Son August Sauer is 39, born in Maryland (married to Sarah, they have 3 children with them). Also in the house - Mary Wells (sister-in-law), Annie Shoenhal (cousin), Violette Haag (niece), & Emil Schwakopf (nephew). [9]

Mrs. Elizabeth Roesch died on Wednesday afternoon [24 Apr 1907], at the home of her daughter. Mrs. Rudolph Brunner. Broad street, where she had lived for the past five years [since about 1902]. She was in her 77th year. Mrs. Roesch had been delicate for a long time, but was apparently in her usual health on Wednesday, coming down to lunch, as was her custom. At about 2 o'clock she was heard to fall from her chair, and by the time her daughter reached her she was dead. The funeral was held at the Brunner home at 2:30 on Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Dr. Steans, of the Presbyterian church. Interment at Fairview. Mrs. Roesch is survived by three daughters - Mrs. [Frances] Brunner, of Westfield, Mrs. Thomas [Elizabeth] Jeffers, of Baltimore, and Mrs. August [Emma] Schawkoni, of Philadelphia. Published by The Westfield Leader on May 1, 1907. [7]

Elizabeth Roesch (signature looked like Elisabeth Rösh) wrote her last will dated 17 Aug 1904, probably in Philadelphia. She identified herself as Elizabeth Roesch, formerly Elizabeth Klobe, widow. Elizabeth left $300 to her step-daughter Mamie Roesch. The remainder of her estate went to her "daughter Frances Brunner (formerly Frances Mueller) in grateful appreciation of her care and kindness and her services to me". Daughter Frances was named executrix. Her address was at 140 Broad St in Westfield, New Jersey. [6] See the Notes below for more information on Frances.

Elizabeth Roesch died 24 April 1907. Her will was probated in Philadelphia. [6]

Elizabeth apparently owned real estate in Philadelphia. Her estate records list the cancellation of several fire insurance policies:

United Firemen's Insurance Co on 2439 Master St - $18.00

Fire Association on 1006 Euclid Ave - $13.50

Fire Association on 906 Warnock St - $22.80

[Elizabeth lived at 906 Warnock in 1880.]

Franklin Fire Insurance Co on 1226 Fawn St - $14.40

Total received for the cancelled policies $68.70 [6]

General Notes: Henriette Klobe immigrated in 1854. She arrived in New York City on 12 June 1854 on the ship Raleigh. She was 23 years old, from Grumbach, and bound for Philadelphia. She was traveling with her sister Emilie, 18. No other Klobes were listed on the ship's passenger list. [1]

In 1858 Henrietta Klobe is in Philadelphia living at No 705 Wood st. She is a saleswoman. [3]

In 1862 Henriette had a child named Mary Anna Baldwin (or Anna Mary) with Matthias W Baldwin. [2]

In 1863 Henrietta Klobe is listed on the Philadelphia Savings Fund Society list of members. [5]

It is not clear if Henriette married Matthias Baldwin. Most likely they were not married.

I believe that Matthias W Baldwin may have been a wealthy, married man. More research is required to determine if there are any other men who could be the mysterious Matthias.

In 1865 Henrietta Klobe and Ferdinand Gunther were the godparents to her nephews & niece Herman, Ida, and Henry Reuther. [4]

Henrietta and Ferdinand married in 1866. It was common in the German immigrant community at the time for the husband to not want the illegitimate child in the home. This happened with Henrietta's nephew Herman Klobe. Henrietta's daughter Anna probably went to live with her aunt and uncle Reuther at this time.

In 1870 Henrietta and Firten Ginder [sic] are living in Philadelphia. Henrietta is 35; Ferdinand is 45 and a carpet weaver. Both were born in Saxony. [8]

In 1880 Henrietta and Fred K Guenther [sic] are living in Philadelphia at 1602 1/2 Fairmount av. They are 49 & 55, respectively, born in Saxony. Ferdinand is a weaver. [9]

"Tante" [Aunt] had a tiny candy store just beyond 15th street on the south side of Fairmont Ave. Her husband (when we knew him as children) was blind. On Sunday morning she often came to see us & she always carried a little basket on her arm in which she had a few pieces or sticks of candy covered with a napkin - a gift to us. I can still see her tiny shop which was in front of their dwelling. [6]

In 1900 Henrietta and Frank A Gender [sic] are living at 1604 Farimount in Philadelphia. They have been married 34 years [since about 1866]. Ferdinand is not working. Henrietta is operating a confection store. Henrietta's age is listed as 77 (born Aug 1822). She should be about 70. [10]

Henrietta Guenther died at her home at 1604 Fairmmount av in Philadelphia on 20 April

Klobe has often been incorrectly written as Globe.

Henriette married Matthias W Baldwin. They had one daughter: Anna Mary.

3-Anna Mary Baldwin was born in Jul 1862 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania,³¹² died on 23 Aug 1943 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania²⁶⁰ at age 81, and was buried in Greenmount Cemetery, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.²⁶⁰ Another name for Anna was Anna "Annie" Reuther.³¹³

General Notes: Although Anna appears on the records before 1914 as Anna Reuther,

Descendants of Johann Christian Heinrich Klobe

she begins to appear after that as Anna (or Anna Mary) Baldwin. This places Anna as the daughter of Henriette Klobe and Matthias W Baldwin, as reported in the Reuther/Klobe/Baldwin Mystery Letter written by her granddaughter Bertha (Bitler) Schmid(t) in 1982.

Anna was raised by her mother's sister Emilie (Klobe) and her husband Christian Reuther, probably after Henrietta married Ferdinand Günther in 1866. The censuses when she was young, her marriage record, and children's baptisms all record her as Anna Reuther.

Anna's birth was reported on the 1900 Census as July 1862. Her next Reuther "brother", Edward, was born in October 1862, providing additional confirmation that Anna was not a biological child of Christian and Emilie Reuther.

When her daughter Henrietta Bitler died in 1914, Anna's husband John was the informant on Henrietta's death certificate. He reported that Henrietta's father was Johan Schaber, born in Germany, and her mother was Anna Baldwin, born in Philadelphia. [4]

In 1887 Anna A Reuther married Gottfried G Schaber in Philadelphia. The witnesses to her marriage were her cousins that she was raised with, Henry Christian Reuther and Ida Caroline Reuther. [1]

In 1900 Annie C Shaber has had 9 children, only 4 are living. [2] The same is listed on the 1910 census, but it should probably be 10 & 4. [3]

Anna Schaber died 23 August 1943 at her home in Philadelphia of cerebral thrombosis. She also suffered from arteriosclerosis and senility. She is widowed from husband John G Schaber, and son Wm C Schaber did not know who her parents were and listed her birthplace as Pennsylvania. [5]

On her death certificate, Anna's birth is shown as 13 January 1861, with her age at death as 81 years and 7 months which calculates to a birth in January 1862. [5] I have left her birth as July 1862 as this is more consistent with her age on the 1900, 1910 & 1920 Censuses. [CAR]

In 1910 William L Jarvis is living in Philadelphia with his parents and siblings. William is 17, born in England, and an alteror at a carpet mill. In the house are parents William & Ellen Jarvis, brother Frederick A, age 10, and sister Frances M Aitken and her daughter Marion E, age 2. [4]

In 1917 William Louis Jarvis is living in Philadelphia. He was born 22 January 1893 in Worcestershire, England. He has declared his intention to become a citizen. William is a piano organ tuner and builder. [6]

In 1930 William Jarvis is living in Lower Merion township, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania, in the home of his in-laws John G and Anne Schaefer [should be Schaber]. William is 38, born in England, and an organ bl__ [builder]. He immigrated in 1903 and is a naturalized citizen. With William are wife Anna, 27, and daughter Bertha, age 1 year and 3 months. William and Anna were married at age 36 & 25. [3]

General Notes: Bertha appears to have died about 1989. She had two marriages with children from both. Her husbands and children were "private". [1]

Bertha appears to be the writer of the Reuther/Klobe/Baldwin Mystery Letter (written 1982) about Mary Anna Baldwin, daughter of Henriette Klobe, who was raised by her Reuther relatives.

Bertha signed the Mystery Letter "Mrs Rudolph Schmid (Bertha E.H.B. Schmidt)". It is not clear at this time what the initials E. H. B. stand for.

Bertha's husband Rudolph Schmidt (1931-2004) has been identified based on records for him at the same address as on the Mystery Letter (4237 N 9th St, Philadelphia, 19140).

General Notes: In 1860 Ferdinand Ginder is living in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in the home of Herman Fuchs. He is 40 [should be about 35], born in Saxony, and a carpet weaver. Also in the home is Charles Klobe, Ferdinand's future brother-in-law. [3]

In 1866 Ferdinand Günther was a weaver in Philadelphia. [1]

The 1870 Census indicates that Ferdinand was a [naturalized] US citizen. [4]

Ferdinand is listed in the City Directory for 1876 and 1889 as a weaver. He was blind in his later years, and may have been blind and unable to work by 1890. [6]

On the 1900 Census, Ferdinand (Frank A Gender/Sender on the image) is 75, born July 1824, and not working (no occupation is shown). He immigrated in 1852, has been in the US for 48 years and is a naturalized citizen. [5]

Ferdinand moved into the Mary J Drexel Home in Philadelphia about 1903. [2]

Ernst Ferdinand Günther died on 6 August 1906 in Philadelphia of senile debility. [2]

2-Christian Heinrich Ernst Klobe³⁷⁴ was born on 1 Mar 1833 in Wurzbach, Saale-Orla-Kreis, Thuringen, Germany³⁷⁴ and was christened on 4 Mar 1833 in Wurzbach, Saale-Orla-Kreis, Thuringen, Germany.³⁷⁴

2-Emilie Klobe was born on 18 Jun 1835 in Grumbach (Now Wurzbach), Saale-Orla-Kreis, Thuringen, Germany,³⁷⁵ was christened on 19 Jun 1835 in Wurzbach, Saale-Orla-Kreis, Thuringen, Germany,³⁷⁶ died on 24 Nov 1905 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania³⁷⁷ at age 70, and was buried on 28 Nov 1905 in Northwood Cemetery, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.³⁷⁸ Other names for Emilie were Amelia Klobe, Caroline Christiana Emilie Klobe,³⁷⁹ and Christiane Karoline Emilie Klobe.³⁷⁶

General Notes: Lotta reported Emilie's birthplace as Grumbach bei Wurdtdach, Furstentum Reis, Germany.

Emilie's birthplace was Grumbach, Furstentum Reuss jungere Linie, or the village of Grumbach in the Principality of Ruess Younger Line, one of several small Thuringian states. Furstentum Reuss jungere Linie was only 320 square miles, one-fifth the size of the state of Rhode Island. In 1920, the seven small Thuringian states were merged into one state called Thuringen (Thuringia in English). Today, Grumbach is part of the city of Wurzbach, Saale-Orla-Kreis (Saale-Orla Administrative District), Thuringen (Thuringia).

Interestingly enough, Grumbach and Heinersdorf, Christian's birthplace, are today both part of Wurzbach.

Emilie emigrated to America with her brother, Herman [should be Charles, aka Carl], and a sister. Her father was a goldsmith. She emigrated to America at age 16, about 1851, with her brother Herman and a sister who Lotta only remembers as "Tante" (or aunt). Another sister, Ida, remained in Germany.[1, 2]

Emilie Klobe actually immigrated in 1854. She arrived in New York City on 12 June 1854 on the ship Raleigh. Emilie was 18 years old, from Grumbach, and bound for Philadelphia. She was traveling with Henriette Klobe, 23, probably her sister. No other Klobes were listed on the ship's passenger list. Interestingly, there was a Fred. Amm, age 25, from Gissubel, also traveling to Pennsylvania. He is probably the Frederick Amm who married Emilie's future sister-in-law Caroline Reuther by 1858. [3]

Emilie had fourteen children. Nine of those survived childhood and were still living in 1900 (as reported on the census that year). Five children who died young have been identified - Heinrich, Mary, Edward, Amelia and Louisa Amelia. Another child may have been born about 1877 between Louisa Amelia and Laura. It is not clear if the number fourteen includes Anna Reuther/Baldwin, daughter of Emilie's sister Henriette Klobe, who was raised by Emilie and Christian.

According to her death certificate, Emilie was 70 years, 4 months, and 6 days old when she died on Nov 24, 1905. This would have her born July 18, 1835.

When Lotta was small she remembered her grandmother's sister, Tante. Tante had a tiny candy store just beyond 15th St on the south side of Fairmont Ave [in Philadelphia]. Her husband was blind. On Sunday morning she often came to see us & she always carried a little basket on her arm in which she had a few pieces or sticks of candy covered with a napkin, - a little gift to us. I can still see her tiny shop which was the front of their dwelling. [2]

Emelia Klobe was a very quiet, meek little woman who was dominated by her husband who was a very stern, hard working man. [2]

Emilie's name often appears in records as Amelia. It may be that the pronunciation sounded like Amelia, rather than the way we pronounce Emily today in the U.S.

Emilie married Christian John Reuther, son of Adam Wilhelm Reuther⁸ and Johanna F Wolfram,⁹ on 30 Apr 1855 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.³⁸² Christian was born on 18 Dec 1829 in Heinersdorf (Now Wurzbach), Saale-Orla-Kreis, Thuringen, Germany,³⁸³ died on 3 Feb 1912 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania³⁸⁴ at age 82, and was buried on 6 Feb 1912 in Northwood Cemetery, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.³⁸⁵ Other names for Christian were Johann Christian Reuther³⁷⁹ and John Christian Reuther. They had 13 children: Heinrich Hermann, Herman Henry, Ida Caroline, Henry Christian, Mary, Edward, Emma L, Caroline May "Carrie," Amelia, Charles Ferdinand, Christian Ernst, Louisa Amelia, and Laura Henriette.

Marriage Notes: Per Lotta Reuther's "The Reuther Family", Emilie married Christian when she was 18. Emilie bore 14 children, of whom 9 lived. Lotta thought they were probably all born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. When Emilie was 50 plus years old she urged Christian to give up his business as a shoemaker and move to the farm in Sugar Valley, PA. They were there in 1887, but had returned to Philadelphia before 1897.

Christian and Emilie moved to Sugar Valley in 1882 with the younger children, Emma, Carrie, Charles, Christian, and Laura. They sold the farm and returned to Philadelphia in 1898 or 1899. When they returned to Philadelphia, they bought a house at 1234 N. 12th Street, and lived there with Laura, Carrie, and Ida. [Letter, Lotta Reuther Longstreet to Russell & Lydia Reuther, Sept 29, 1963]

General Notes: Christian was born in Heinersdorf, Furstentum Reuss jungere Linie, or the village of Heinersdorf in the Principality of Ruess Younger Line, one of several small Thuringian states. Today, Heinersdorf is part of the city of Wurzbach, Saale-Orla-Kreis (Saale-Orla Administrative District), Thuringen (Thuringia), Germany.

Descendants of Johann Christian Heinrich Klobe

According to Christian's death certificate, he was born December 18, 1829.

Although Christian's granddaughter Lotta Reuther Longstreet records his name as Christian, based on a land sale from Adam to Christian, and his citizenship papers, Christian's name was John Christian Reuther. Only in those two records does his name appear that way.

Christian reported on the 1910 Census that he immigrated in 1850. He reported on his naturalization papers that he immigrated in 1841 (at about age 12). His father Adam's naturalization records state that he immigrated in 1851. By reporting his immigration as 1841, which would have him immigrating before he was 18, Christian could become a citizen right away without the normal waiting period. His actual immigration was probably 1851. I have seen others who appeared to do this. [CAR]

Christian's parents and siblings immigrated on October 21 1853, arriving in New York from Bremen on the ship Louise Marie. It appears Christian immigrated before the rest of the family. Adam and Christian may have immigrated in 1851, with Adam returning to fetch the rest of the family in 1853.

On 30 November 1856, in Philadelphia, John C Reuther become a citizen of the US. John arrived in New York in 1841. He was younger than 18, and therefore did not have to declare his intention to become a citizen prior to his naturalization. John owed allegiance to the King of Prussia. [4] It appears that Christian may have falsified his citizenship papers to avoid the normal wait period, as he most likely immigrated about 1851 when he was about 21. [CAR]

On 24 September 1857, Christian vouched for his brother-in-law Charles Klobe when Charles became a US citizen in Philadelphia.

In March 1858, Adam William Reuther sold to John C Reuther of Philadelphia 50 acres of land in Greene township, Clinton Co, PA, that Adam had just bought the month before. Christian first appears in the tax records for Clinton County in 1858. Christian appears on those tax records as "Christian", not "John". [3]

In the 1860 Census Christian Reuther is living in Greene Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania. Mill Hall is the closest post office. He is 30 years old and a shoemaker. The census taker has incorrectly recorded his birthplace as Penn. Christian's real estate is valued at $350 and his personal estate as $60. Living with him are his wife Amelia, 25, and children Harman, 3, Ida, 2, Henry, 1, and Mary, 2 months. Christian is living next door to his father (Adam Rider on the census) and brother-in-law Fredrich Ann (or Amm).

Christian and Emilie moved to Philadelphia between 1860 and 1870.

Christian was drafted for the Union Army in the Civil War. His 4th or 5th child was about to be born and so he paid for a substitute (an acceptable practice at the time) [1].

In the 1870 Census, Christian and Amelia Reuther, age 40 and 35, are living in Philadelphia. Christian is a shoemaker. Christian and Amelia's birthplaces are listed as Saxony. Christian is a citizen. Living with them are seven children ages 13 to 1 - Herman, Ida, Henry, Annie

[Annie is actually Anna Baldwin], Emma, Caroline, and Amelia. All the children were born in Pennsylvania.

The are living at 947 Adler. [6]

On the 1880 Census Christian and Amelia Reuther, aged 50 and 44 [born 1830 & 1836], are living at 920 North Twelfth Street in Philadelphia where Christian was a cordwainer, or shoemaker. Nine children ages 23 to 2 are living with them - Herman, Ida, Henry, Annie [Annie is actually Anna Baldwin], Emma, Caroline, Charles, Christian, and Laura. Son Herman is also a cordwainer. All the children are listed as being born in Pennsylvania. Christian and Amelia show their birthplaces as Saxony. Christian's parents' birthplaces are Bavaria & Saxony, and Amelia's parents' birthplaces are both in Saxony.

Christian was described by granddaughter Lotta Reuther as a very stern, hard working man. [1]

He was an excellent shoemaker. His clientele was the rich for only the wealthy could afford custom made shoes. He had no machines, - it was all done by hand [2].

When Grandma was fifty plus she was very happy that grandpa decided to give up his shoemaking & go back to the farm in Sugar Valley. Approximate date 1882. Grandpa sold his home and took the younger members of the family to the farm. So Emma, Carrie, Charles, Christian, & Laura went into the wilderness (as Emma called it). But about 1898 or 9 Grandfather sold the farm and returned to Philadelphia. He bought a house (1234 N. 12th St) and here Laura, Carrie & Ida lived with their parents. [1].

In October 1894, Christian and Amelia Reuther of Philadelphia sold 50 acres in Greene township to Samuel Brown.

Christian is not listed in the Philadelphia city directories in 1885, or between 1890 & 1895. [6]

He was so busy that he worked 7 days a week. In order to see him when we called on Sunday afternoons, we went to the second story rear room where we found him on his shoemaker bench in that little room so fragrant with the aroma of new leather. His hands were crippled from constantly holding his tools. He continued his work until about 5 years before his death when he was forced to quit - the hands that had made so many beautiful shoes could no longer hold the tools. [2] Christian must have retired about 1907.

In the 1900 Census, Christian Reuther is living at 1234 North Twelfth Street in Philadelphia. He is 70 years old, born in Germany and a shoemaker. Christian's wife Amelia is 64 and was born in Germany. They have been married 45 years. Amelia had had 14 children, 9 are living. Their daughters Ida, 42, and Laura, 23, are living with them.

In the 1910 Census, Christian (Kristian Reuther on the census) is living in Philadelphia with his son Herman. He is 81 years old, widowed, and born in Germany. He immigrated in 1850 and is a naturalized citizen. Christian is apparently retired as he is living on his "own income".

Christian's last address was 1234 N. Girard Ave in Philadelphia. [5]

Descendants of Johann Christian Heinrich Klobe

Christian fell ill with La Grippe - influenza or the flu - in early December 1911, and died on February 3, 1912, from a cerebral hemorrhage, secondarily from the flu. He was buried on February 6 at Northwood Cemetery in Philadelphia. Christian's father on his death certificate is Adam Reuther, but son Henry incorrectly reported Amelia Klobe as his mother. Amelia (or Emilie) Klobe was his wife. [5]

5-Alma Katherine Gibbons⁴⁵¹ was born on 14 Jun 1914 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania⁴⁵² and died on 28 May 1997⁴⁵³ at age 82. Another name for Alma was Alma Katherine Thomas.

General Notes: According to a tree posted on Ancestry.com, Alma Catherine Gibbons-Thomas's mother Emily Reuther died in childbirth when she was born in 1914. Her father Charles Gibbons died in 1920, and her step-mother could not afford to raise her. She was placed in several foster homes, and was adopted in September 1920 by William & Josephine Thomas. [1] The foster home story is probably incorrect, as Wilma was with her grandparents in 1920, the year after her father died, and the same year she was reportedly adopted. [CAR]

Two confirmations identifying Alma Schug as Alma Gibbons:

Alma K Gibbons was born 14 Jun 1914 in Phila. Her mother was M Ruther. No Alma Thomas was found. [4]

Alma Shug of Philadelphia was listed as a survivor to her sister Margaret Cooper in 1993. [5]

In 1920 (the year after her father died), Wilma Gibbons and her sister Margarete are living in Philadelphia with their grandparents Herman and Margarete Reuther. [2]

In 1930 Alma C Thomas, age 16, is living in Philadelphia with her parents William & Josephine Thomas. William is 63 and a sawyer for a furniture manufacturer. Josephine is 56. William owns his own home worth $9000 and has a radio. [3]

In 1940 Alma and William Schug are living in Philadelphia. Alma is 25 and not working. William is 31. [7]

In 1950, Alma Schug, age 35, and family are living in Philadelphia. Husband William V, age 41, children William T, age 8, and Janice M, age 1. Also with them is Rose Faga, lodger, age 79, born in Tennessee, and a retired music teacher. [6]

Alma was born 14 Jun 1914 in Philadelphia, married William Vance Schug (1909-1997) in 1937 in Maryland, and died on 28 May 1997 in Philadelphia. [1]

That William and Josephine Thomas adopted a child named Alma is supported by the 1920 Census. They do not have a child with them in 1920. Also, they may have known the Reuther family, as they are living in the same census enumeration district.

Gertrude Galt was born 02 Jul 1888 and died Apr 1967. Her last residence was Philadelphia, Philadelphia, PA. [2]

Gertrude M Galt died 8 April 1967 in Philadelphia. Her death was ruled a suicide. About 6 April she "took overdose of sleeping pills, while temporarily mentally deranged" and died 2 days later of Acute Barbiturate Poisoning.

Gertrude was born 2 July 1888 in Philadelphia to Herman Reuther and Margaret. She was married [should be widowed] to William J Galt. The informant on her death certificate was cousin "Ella, MC Meekin". [4]

General Notes: Per Lotta Reuther's "The Reuther Family", Ida never married.

In the 1900 Census, Ida is living with her parents on North Twelfth Street in Philadelphia. She is 42, and working doing something in shoes (the census was difficult to read).

In the 1910 Census, Ida Reuther appears to be living at 1240 N. Girard Avenue in Philadelphia, just down the street from her brother Herman and father Christian at 1234 N. Girard Avenue. She is a boarder in the house of Jacob and Elizabeth Scherer. She is 40, born about 1870 (should be 52, based on 1870 & 1880 Censuses), and was born in Pennsylvania. Her parents were born in Germany. She is an operator at a shoe factory.

In the 1920 Census, Ida Reuther is a roomer in the house of sisters Elizabeth and Margaret Bradley at 809 Barnby? Street in Philadelphia. She is 49 (should be 63) and a shoe fitter at a shoe factory. Ida was born in Pennsylvania and her parents were born in Germany. Also in the house are Elizabeth and Margaret's cousin Margaret (last name unclear), their aunt Sarah Alexander, and a boarder, Annie McNally.

In the 1930 Census, Ida may be the Ida Ruter lodging with the family of Austin C Carty. Ida is 69 years old (should be 73), born in Pennsylvania, and a housekeeper for a private family. Her parents' birthplaces (if this is our Ida) were erroneously reported as Pennsylvania.

In 1940 Ida Ruther is living in Philadelphia at Penn Widows Asylum. She is 82, single, born in Philadelphia. In 1935 she was living in Philadelphia, but not at Penn Widows Asylum. [2]

Ida Reuther died 3 February 1941 in Philadelphia at the Penn Widows Asylum [Penn Asylum for Indigent Widows and Single Women] where she was living. Ida died of chronic myocardial degeneration and advanced age. [1]

In the 1900 Census, Henry Reuther (Ruther on the census) is living at 635 North Twelfth Street in Philadelphia. He is 40 years old and a stationary dealer. Living with him is his wife Anna, 40. They have been married 12 years. Living with them are their children Edna, 11, Lotta, 8, Russell, 7, and Florence, 2, Anna's aunt Charlotte Barlow, 70, and Anna's nephew Frank Keely (Keighly on the census), 25. In addition, there are 4 boarders and 2 servants in the house.

On 26 October 1901, Henry C & Anna R Reuther sold their home at 635 N Twelfth St to Wm J Ferguson for $4000. But in 1902 a permit was issued to Ambrose Beck to add a 4.6 x 10 ft addition for $600 to the home of H C Reuther at 635 N 12th st. [2, 3]

In the 1910 Census, Henry is renting a house at 749 Corinthian Avenue in Philadelphia. He is 51 years old, married for 23 years (his first marriage), and is a retail merchant in the stationary business. Living with him is his wife Anna R. She is also 51 years old, and this is her second marriage. She has born 5 children, only 4 are currently living. Her occupation is none. Living with them are their daughters, Edna L, 21, Lotta, 18, and Florence, 13. Edna is a saleswoman at a stationers - her father's store?

In 1916 H C Reuther purchased 4743 N. 12th St from Hill B Bush Asso No 2 for $1500. [4]

In 1917, Henry C Reuther, doing business at 259 [or 250?] N 8th st, advertised sharpening razor blades equal to new, both single and double edge. [1]

In the 1920 Census, Henry is living at 4743 12th Street in Philadelphia. He is 60 years old, and was born in Philadelphia, Pa. He is a merchant in the stationary business.

Descendants of Johann Christian Heinrich Klobe

Living with him are his wife Anna R, age 60, and daughters Lotta B, 28, and Florence A, 22. Florence is a clerk in the stationary business, and may be working with her father. Anna's occupation is none. She appears to have retired from her pleating business.

In the 1930 Census, Henry is living at 4743 12th Street in Philadelphia. He owns his home, and gave it a value of $5000. He owns a radio. Henry is 71 years old, widowed, and living alone. He is retired.

After Anna died, Henry moved to Fairfield, Connecticut, to live with his son Russell and his wife Lydia Speiser Reuther, and their children Joyce and Calvin. He died at their home at 219 Toilsome Hill Road. [Calvin Reuther]

In a note by Florence Reuther Becker in a notebook kept by Henry, he was buried Wednesday, June 8, 1932, in Westminster Cemetery, Philadelphia, PA. Services were conducted by Rev. Calvin P. Swank, pastor of Muhlenberg Lutheran Church.

Henry's obituary in the paper reads "Mr. Henry C. Reuther, for many years a resident of Logan, at 4713 North Twelfth street, passed away at the home of his son in Bridgeport, Connecticut, and was buried from the undertaker parlors of Mr Keller, and old friend, on Wednesday afternoon. He was a member of Muhlenberg Lutheran Church, whose pastor conducted the funeral."

Henry married Anna Ruberta Barlow,⁴⁹⁵ daughter of Mahlon Barlow⁴⁹⁷ and Hannah Hallman,⁴⁹⁷ on 25 Jul 1888 in Phoenixville, Chester County, Pennsylvania.⁴⁹⁶ Anna was born on 22 Nov 1858 in Limerick Township, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania,⁴⁹⁸ died on 10 Mar 1930 in Daytona Beach, Volusia County, Florida⁴⁹⁹ at age 71, and was buried on 14 Mar 1930 in Westminster Cemetery, Bala Cynwyd, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania.⁵⁰⁰ The cause of her death was pneumonia & influenza. They had four children: Edna Laura, Lotta Barlow, Russell Evans, and Florence Anna.

Marriage Notes: The marriage took place at Anna's sister Lydia's home in Phoenixville, Pennsylvania [1].

Henry and Anna owned a store in Philadelphia. On the first floor Henry sold cutlery such as knives and scissors. He also sold other goods such as china and leather goods. The family still has knives, scissors, and tea cups that came from the store. On the second floor, Anna operated a pleating business.

Per a letter from Florence Reuther Becker to Lydia Speiser Reuther on June 18, 1968, the store was located on 8th Street. It must have been within a few blocks of 8th and Arch Streets, as this was the location of a store called George B. Evans that sold fancy candies, cakes, and fruits. The store also sold gifts and fine china. It covered the entire block on the 8th Street side. Anna passed this store on her way to Henry's store. It was at Evans that she saw a beautiful punch bowl in the window, that Henry subsequently surprised her with for Valentine's Day, reportedly in their first or second year of marriage, probably about 1889. The punch bowl set is currently owned by Catherine Reuther. The green bowl and top is decorated with strawberries, with matching cups, and a platter with strawberry flowers and leaves to sit on. [2]

Henry and Anna's store was located at 250 - 252 8th Street in Philadelphia. [3]

General Notes: When her father died, "my mother was not quite 5 years old & remained at home with her mother & later attended the little country school. There was no compulsory education law in those years and after finishing the 4th grade she went to work.

"I am ashamed to confess that I do not know what she did or when she went to Phila. Nor do I know how or when she started in the pleating business. I do know that she owned the first knife pleating machine in Phila." [6]

Anna would have been about 9 years old when she left home and went to work.

In 1870 Anna and her brother Mahlon appear to be living in Upper Providence township, Montgomery Co, Pennsylvania, in the house of Charles Garber. Anna is 11, and Mahlon is 9. Mahlon has attended school during the year, but Anna has not.

Both children are listed on the census as Barber instead of Barlow.

Charles Garber is likely a relative of Anna's aunt Mary (Barlow) Miller whose mother-in-law was a Garber.

Mahlon & Anna's brother Abraham Barlow was living with Charles & Harriet Garber's daughter Elizabeth Garber Fetterolf and her family. Charles Garber's daughter Anna married a man named Vanderslice. (Elaine Jeter's research on the Garbers.) Anna Barlow's first husband was John Vanderslice.

Annie Barlow (age 21, b. abt 1858) married Jno. Vanderslice (age 28, b. abt 1851) on 8 May 1879 in Burlington, New Jersey. [7]

Early in 1880 Annie Barlow is living in a rooming house in Philadelphia operated by her uncle Abe Hallman. Annie is a seamstress. Also in the house is her first husband John Vanderslice. Both John and Annie show as single.

Anna was married first to a promising young Philadelphia lawyer, John R. Vanderslice. Their first year of marriage was drawing to a close when their baby Charles Edgar was born 3/25/1881. While she was confined with the birth of their son, her husband was stricken with pneumonia & died. Soon after that the baby died. So she was a bride, a mother, a widow and childless within 12 months. [2]
They had actually been married almost 2 years when John died.

John Vanderslice appears to be the John P Vanderslice, lawyer, who died of Typhoid Fever on 22 April 1881.

In 1915 A R Reuther advertised her Knife & Accordion Pleating business. She pleated kilted, box and sun ray skirts. Mail orders received prompt attention. Her business was at 252 N. 8th street. [4]

Anna fell ill while visiting daughter Lotta in Daytona Beach, Florida. She and Henry had arrived about 17 February (21 days before her death). Anna died on 10 March 1930 of pneumonia and influenza. She had been attended by the doctor since 4 March. After she became so ill, her son Russell rushed from Connecticut to see her, but she died before he got there. [1, 3, 4]

General Notes: In the 1910 Census, Edna is 21 years old and living with her parents and younger sisters. She is a saleswoman at a stationers, probably her father Henry's store.

On 3 June 1916, just before she married Henry later that month, Edna purchased a home at 4522 N. Twelfth st in Philadelphia from Jushua M Holmes for $3800. [1]
Edna and Henry lived in this home in the early years of their marriage.

Descendants of Johann Christian Heinrich Klobe

Family stories passed down in the Zimmer family report that Edna may have been institutionalized at some point. Her husband Henry may even have had her institutionalized because he wanted a divorce. [2]

Regarding Edna's mental illness: Edna was treated professionally at home and by daughter Mildred. It was often said, Mildred raised her brothers Henry and Bob. [3]

From the little bit known, it appears Edna suffered from some type of mental illness. She was not ill enough to be hospitalized, but was ill enough that daughter Mildred may have performed many household duties, including the care of her younger brothers (only 2 and 4 years younger), as well as caring for Edna. It would not be unexpected for Mildred to have resented her mother and the position she was placed in. This would help explain the rift in the family that occurred when (if?) Henry and Edna divorced, and after Edna's death in 1949. [CAR]

Edna L Zimmer died 10 May 1949 at Germantown Hospital in Philadelphia. Husband Henry F Zimmer was the informant on her death certificate. He reports them as married and Edna as living at their home on Fairhill St. An inquest was held on 19 May with the jury rendering a verdict that the cause of death was hypertensive cerebral hemorrhage. Edna married Henry Frederick Zimmer Sr,³² son of William Louis Zimmer and Anna K Hasselbach, on 28 Jun 1916 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.⁵⁰⁴ Henry was born on 21 Mar 1891 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania,⁵⁰⁵ was christened on 17 Apr 1891 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania,⁵⁰⁶ and died in Jul 1977 in Pennsylvania¹⁰⁷ at age 86. Another name for Henry was Friedrich Heinrich Zimmer.⁵⁰⁶ They had three children: Mildred Barlow, Henry Frederick, and Robert Evans.

Marriage Notes: Although two sources report that Edna and Henry were divorced, it is unclear at this time (2012) if that is correct or if they may have been separated or planning a divorce before her death in 1949. [CAR] When she died, Edna was listed on her death certificate as married and living at their home on Fairhill St in Philadelphia. Husband Henry was the informant. [4]

Edna and Henry had been divorced for many years when Edna passed away. They were still married in 1942, so may have divorced shortly after that as Edna died in 1949. [1]

Daughter Mildred and her husband John Root lived with Henry & Edna during World War II, so they most likely divorced between 1945 and 1949. John Root does not remember a divorce, but other sources (see notes below) do remember a divorce. [3]

Descendants of Johann Christian Heinrich Klobe

When Henry divorced Edna, apparently for another woman, it caused a rift between their children. Mildred sided with her father, Robert with his mother, and Henry was caught in between. Eventually, Mildred and Robert quit talking to each other, and remained estranged until their deaths. [2]

Later, when Henry's 2nd wife Esther died [in 1982] grandson Mark Zimmer asked about the Zimmer family memorabilia that Esther inherited from Henry. Daughter Mildred wrote him that he was not in the will, everything was sold off; "tough stuff" - you don't get anything. [2] This contributed to the estrangement between the children of Henry and Edna and their grandchildren. Although, Mark reports that the cousins harbour no ill feelings.

Notes on divorce: Edna's brother Russell Reuther's daughter Joyce remembers a divorce. Joyce might have been planning her wedding around that time, so the breakup of the family would have been something she would remember. Also, Edna's son Henry Zimmer, Jr's, son Mark knew growing up that they had divorced, and that it caused a rift between Edna and Henry's children.

Noted events in their marriage were:

- Divorce: Between 1942 and 1949.⁵⁰⁷
- Divorce: Between 1945 and 1949.

General Notes: In 1900 Henry F Zimmer is living in Philadelphia with his parents. William Zimmer was born in Germany and is a musician. Wife Anna K was also born in Germany. They have three sons - William L, 11, Henry F, 9, and Herbert P, 6 months. [2]

In the 1920 Census, Henry F Zimmer is living at 4522 12th Street in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Henry's in-laws Henry and Anna Reuther live at 4743 12th Street. He is 31 years old and was born in Philadelphia. Living with him are his wife Edna, 31, daughter Mildred, 2 9/12, and son Henry, 11/12. Edna and the children were also born in Philadelphia. Also living with them is Dorothy Stiffer?. She is identified as a helper. She is 13 years old and was born in Philadelphia.

In the 1930 Census, Henry Zimmer is living in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He is 39 years old, and was born in Pennsylvania. His parents were born in Germany. Henry is a salesman. Living with him are his wife Edna, 41, and children, Mildred, 13, Henry, 11, and Robert, 8. All the children were born in Pennsylvania.

In 1942 Henry Frederick Zimmer, Sr, registered for the World War II draft. He was born 21 March 1891 in Philadelphia, and was living at 6206 N Fairhill St in Philadelphia with his wife Mrs Edna Zimmer. Henry was working for Columbia Mills Inc of Philadelphia as a traveling salesman. [1]

Descendants of Johann Christian Heinrich Klobe

Sometime after 1942 or 1945 [CAR], Henry divorced Edna because he wanted to pursue another woman. Henry's second wife was a woman named Esther. He predeceased her and she did not re-marry. [4]

Note: Family sources disagree on whether Henry and Edna divorced. His 2nd marriage seven months after Edna's death may point toward no divorce.

On 19 December 1949 Henry F Zimmer married Esther Mae Zerby in Doylestown, Berks County, Pennsylvania. Their marriage license was issued in Montgomery County. [5]

Henry Zimmer was born 21 Mar 1891 and died Jul 1977. His last residence was Philadelphia, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania. [3]

Esther may be the Esther Zimmer born 16 March 1894, died Jan 1982. Her last residence was Spring House, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania. [3]

Lydia Speiser wrote that Mildred & John had a child named Dusky. [2] This appears to be in error (or unclear) and should probably have been Dick (or Dicky).

Mildred Z. Root was born 4 Apr 1917 and died 20 Apr 2003. Her last residence and benefit paid was in Sylvania, Lucas County, Ohio. Her SSN was issued in New Jersey before 1951. [1]

He was in in the insurance business, working near his summer home about an hour and a half from the family's main home in Philadelphia. [4]

In writing Cal Reuther about the death of his cousin Henry Zimmer's widow, Lydia wrote her son that Henry had a drinking problem and committed suicide. [1] His drinking was probably related to his WW II experiences.

Over the years, Henry threatened suicide, always calling his father, who would call Henry's wife Connie. Connie would hurry to him to prevent him from following through. On 1 June 1973, Henry again threatened suicide. He was at their summer home, and Connie and the children were in Philadelphia. Before Connie could get there, Henry shut himself in the garage with the car running, using the car exhaust to kill himself. [4]

4-Russell Evans Reuther was born on 8 May 1893 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania,³⁸⁴ was christened on 23 Feb 1908 in Reading, Berks County, Pennsylvania,⁵⁶¹ died on 4 Dec 1967 in Bridgeport, Fairfield County, Connecticut⁵⁶² at age 74, and was buried on 7 Dec 1967 in Lawncroft Burial Park, Fairfield, Connecticut.⁵⁶³ The cause of his death was Pulmonary Endema.

General Notes: Russell left school and Philadelphia at age 16 in 1909 to work for Mr. Phillips at the fabric company [in Bridgeport, Connecticut]. [Aunt Lotta]

In 1910, Russell Reuther is living in Bridgeport at the home of his boss H. Albert Philips. He was born about 1894 in Pennsylvania. [7]

Russ first lived with the Phillips, then took a room on Coleman Street near Park Avenue. [6]

On June 5 1917, Russell Evans Reuther registered for the World War I draft in

Descendants of Johann Christian Heinrich Klobe

Bridgeport, Connecticut. He was living at 346 Beechwood Ave in Bridgeport, and was an assistant manager for Alb. & E. Henkels Inc.

Russell E. Reuther was inducted in the United States Army May 23, 1918 at Bridgeport, Connecticut. He achieved the rank of corporal October 7, 1918. He served in the 15th Company, 152nd Depot Brigade. He was honorably discharged May 28, 1919 at Camp Upton, New York. The discharge papers list his height as 5 feet, 2 inches. [Russell E. Reuther honorable discharge & enlistment record, US Army, 1919] Russell served his enlistment in the United States & did not go to Europe during World War I.

In the 1920 Census, Russell is living in Bridgeport, Fairfield Co., Connecticut, on Beechwood Avenue in the house of Christopher and Ida Melick. Russell is 29 years old and an assistant manager at a lace factory. Christopher is 52 years old, and a telegraph operator for the railroad. Ida is 51. Both were born in New Jersey. Russell became very close to Christopher and Ida as he boarded with them when he first came to Bridgeport at age 16, and I recall a story that Russ loaned them money to start a business (CAR). After Christopher died, Russ helped Ida manage her affairs. When Ida Bigley Melick died in 1947 (or 1946), she left Russ her house at 346-8 Beechwood Avenue. The flintlock rifle owned by Calvin Reuther was given to Russ. It was in the Melick family and is believed to be from the Revolutionary War. (Calvin Reuther). Currently, the gun is owned by Russell's grandson Russell Reuther (CAR 2004).

In March 1930, Russell received word that his mother was very ill in Florida, probably visiting her daughter Lotta in Daytona Beach. Russ rushed to Florida to see his mother, but she passed away before he got there. She was buried in Philadelphia, and Russ returned to Fairfield the day before his son Calvin was born. [5]

In the 1930 Census, Russell is living in Fairfield, Fairfield Co., Connecticut, on Toilsome Hill Road. He is 36 years old and was born in Pennsylvania. He is an assistant manager at a fabric factory. Living with him are his wife Lydia, 32, and their children Joyce B, 3, and Calvin R, 1 month. Lydia was born in Connecticut, and lists her parents' birthplaces as Wurttemberg, Germany.

In 1944, Russell E Reuther and his wife Lydia R are living at 219 Toilsome Hill Road in Fairfield. Russell is assistant secretary for the American Fabrics Company at 1069 Connecticut Ave. [2]

On Monday, September 17, 1951, Russ was fired from his job as manager of American Fabrics by the new owners who had purchased the company in May 1948. In a meeting with the owners, they had already prepared a resignation letter for Russ to sign. He was immediately escorted out without even having the opportunity to say his good byes nor to clean out his office after 42 years with the company. He was given 5 months pay in lieu of notice. Both Russ and Lydia talked about the gangster Jews that owned the company and fired him. [3, 4] Russ was 58 years old when he lost his job.

Descendants of Johann Christian Heinrich Klobe

In 1955, Russ was elected to one of the seats in District Six for the Representative Town Meeting. [1]

Russ was deathly afraid of dogs. When walking in the neighborhood, if he saw a dog, he was so shaken, he would go back home. [Virginia Speiser Rutter]

Son Calvin remembers Russ talking about a Barlow cousin who was a Rockette at Radio City Music Hall in New York City. He met her on one of his trips to the city. Cal thought she may have still been there when he was little and the family went to Radio City.

Russell married Nora Alice Monk, daughter of John Thomas Monk and Alice Kemp, on 17 Oct 1921 in Bridgeport, Fairfield County, Connecticut.⁵⁶⁷ The marriage ended in divorce. Nora was born on 8 Dec 1901 in Nottingham, Nottinhamshire, England⁵⁶⁸ and died on 12 Aug 1968 in Fairfield County, Connecticut⁵⁶⁹ at age 66. They had no children.

Marriage Notes: Nora Monk, daughter of Mr & Mrs Thomas Monk of 1010 Connecticut Ave, and Russell Reuther of 346 Beechwood Ave were married October 17 1921 at St John's Episcopal Church. After an extended honeymoon trip the couple will reside at 1550 North Ave. [1]

On September 12, 1923, summons were served on Nora Monk Reuther to appear before the Superior Court regarding the plaintiff's petition for divorce, charging Nora with adultery between the date of their marriage and September 11, 1923, in Atlantic City, New Jersey, with one Vessella. [Copy of Summons]

On Oct 20, 1923, The Bridgeport Telegram reported (on page 14) that counsel clashed in proceedings before the Judge about the divorce proceedings. Mrs. Reuther planned to contest the suit to the bitter end, and more time was needed to prepare her defense. No other information was included in the article beyond what the divorce papers contain.

According to the divorce decree, the plaintiff (Russell) was guilty of intolerable cruelty to the defendant (Nora) beginning about three months after their marriage, and ending on September 6, 1923, when Nora moved out of their shared residence. She was granted $10,000 in alimony, and her name was changed back to Nora Alice Monk. [Judgement of Divorce, State of Connecticut, Fairfield County, Superior Court, December 21, 1923]

On Dec 22, 1923, the divorce was reported on the front page of The Bridgeport Telegram. Russell must have been very unhappy to see himself on the front page of the paper. The paper reported that Nora Alice Reuther was granted a divorce on the grounds of cruelty. A few days earlier, Mr. Reuther withdrew his original complaint. In her cross-complaint, Mrs. Reuther reported that her husband had an annual salary of $8,400. An alimony of $10,000 was agreed upon.

On December 23, 1923, Nora received $10,000 from Russell, and signed a receipt to that affect.

Marriage Notes: Russell & Lydia were married at the home of Russell's parents in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, by Reverend Swank. The marriage license shows Lydia as "Lydia R. Speiser". Lydia did not care for her middle name Johanna at this time, and used Ruth as her middle name.

Guests were Babette Speiser (mother of the bride), Reverend Stengler, Lula R. Diller, Edna R. Zimmer (sister of the groom), Elsbeth Speiser (sister of the bride and maid of honor), Mr & Mrs Albert Phillips (Russell's boss at American Fabrics and best man), Helene Speiser (sister of the bride), Florence Reuther (sister of the groom), Mary Evans, Henry and Anna Barlow Reuther (parents of the groom). [As signed by the guests in the wedding book.]

Russell & Lydia honeymooned in Havana, Cuba, and Daytona Beach, Florida.

When first married Russell and Lydia had a room in Colonnese's (spelling?) house on North Avenue. Mr. C. had a meat and vegetable market where Lydia traded. He also delivered to their home on Toilsome Hill Road as there was no market there when they first built the house. [1]

Russell and Lydia always had the family (Speiser) parties at their house because they had the largest house. [Virginia Speiser Rutter]

[1] Letter from Lydia S Reuther to son Calvin Reuther Aug 14 1983

General Notes: Lydia was baptized November 6, 1897. Her godparents were Elizabeth Boerschel, Anna Becker, and Chris Becker.

In the 1920 Census, Lydia is living at 425 Jane Street in Bridgeport with her parents. She is 22 years old and a bookkeeper in a textile shop.

When her father died in 1921 Lydia had severe pains in her legs such that she could not stand and was in bed for three weeks. She suffered similar pains in her arm from the shoulder to her hand in 1983 when her nephew Henry Broch died. [1]

Lydia did not care for her middle name, and often used Ruth in place of Johanna. Her marriage license to Russell lists her name as Lydia Ruth Speiser.

Lydia had a third pregnancy that ended in miscarriage about 1940 when Joyce was a freshman in high school. [Joyce Reuther Holley]

Lydia continued the family cooking traditions she learned from her mother - potato salad, herring salad, and Christmas cookies. When Lydia stopped making Springerle, Brownie Lebkuchen & Schwaben Brodli, her son Cal took up making the cookies. He and Joyce had already been making potato and herring salad for many years.

In 1985, Lydia fell in the kitchen and broke her pelvis. She came South, first to daughter Connie's [Joyce] house in Decatur, GA, then to son Cal's in Huntsville, AL, to recover. By then Lydia was almost 90 years old. Connie and Cal decided she needed to be closer to them, so in the spring of 1986, they closed up and sold the house at 219 Toilsome Hill Road in Fairfield that Russ built for them after they married. Lydia moved into a retirement community in Huntsville, Alabama, near Cal.

In 1996, Lydia suffered a stroke, and died a few weeks later, just 6 weeks short of her 99th birthday.

General Notes: Born one month premature at 11:21 AM, weighed 4 pounds, at home at 1650 North Ave, Bridgeport. [1]

Joyce was named "Joyce" because she was such a joy. [4]

How did Joyce end up at an all-girls Baptist college in Alabama?
It started when she was in high school and met someone from the school while on a family trip to Yellowstone National Park. Then there was the favorable article in Life magazine. When Joyce was ready to go to college she had been seriously dating a local boy. She had been trying to breakup with him, and knew that after the breakup, if she went to college in the Northeast that he would follow her wherever she went. So she headed to Alabama and loved Judson College in Marion, Alabama. [4]

Unlike the more progressive views on dating in New England, Judson College had restrictive rules on relations between boys and girls. One of those rules was that the students could not ride in a car with a boy. Connie thought that was funny since she had already been doing that back home. She broke that rule. [4]

Joyce received her nickname Connie when she was in college at Judson. Connie is a nickname for being from Connecticut. [2]

In the spring of 2012, Connie sold her house in the Decatur (Georgia) area and moved into a retirement apartment. She still drives her car to the grocery store, hairdresser, church and to the hospital where she continues to volunteer one day a week. She thinks she may give up drivig when she turn 90 in 2016. [3]

Connie gave up her car and volunteer job in 2013 to spend more time participating in the activities at her retirement home. [3]

5-Calvin Russell Reuther was born on 16 Mar 1930 in Bridgeport, Fairfield County, Connecticut,⁵⁷³ died on 14 Jan 2000 in Huntsville, Madison County, Alabama at age 69, and was buried on 18 Jan 2000 in Maple Hill Cemetary, Huntsville, Alabama. The cause of his death was Multiple organ failure following heart by-pass surgery several weeks prior to death. Another name for Calvin was Cal Reuther.

General Notes: Born one month premature at 7:05 PM, weighed 4 pounds, 13 3/4 ounces, at Bridgeport Hospital [5].

Calvin was a favorite name or a favorite cousin (?) of his grandmother Anna (Barlow) Reuther. [4]

In September 1951, Cal's father Russ wrote Cal to tell him that after 42 years with the company, he had been fired from his job by the new owners. Russ told Cal that that meant there was no income coming in. While Russ had planned ahead for Cal's education (Cal was in college at Alabama Polytechnic Institute), so money was set aside for him to complete his education, but he should still watch his pennies. [1]

During college (Auburn, AL), Cal owned and flew his own airplane, an Ercoupe.

In 1951 or 1952, Cal flew to Connecticut from Auburn through bad weather with no radio and was the only plane flying over NY. Coming back to Auburn, he developed trouble in Maryland. He was able to land but could not afford to fix the plane, and left it at the airport. [6]

In June 1952, Cal had airplane trouble. As written by his father - "Imagine you in your little plane, 4000' high, sailing along, as you told me, perfectly - then all of a sudden the moto knocked, the plane quivered and vibrated - and then no engine. You, with only a few hours experience in the air, had this happen. . . To glide that plane, 20 miles away from the airport, to a perfect landing at the field, is a feat you can forever be proud of." Cal landed the airplane in Easton, Maryland. He left it there with someone to look after and sell for him. [2]

During college at API Cal worked for Mr. Fortner at Jake's Joint and the Elk's Club. He met Jane at Jake's Joint. Mrs. Fortner gave Cal her recipe for Barbecue Sauce and Barbecue Basting Sauce that he used throughout his life to make fantastic barbecue chicken on the grill.

Cal graduated from Alabama Polytechnic Institute (API - later re-named Auburn University) in Auburn, Alabama, in 1953, with a Bachelors of Science degree in Electrical Engineering. His first job was across the country for Boeing in Seattle, Washington, working on the B-52 airplane. He left Boeing in 1956 for Westinghouse in Pittsburgh, PA, but was on his way back to Boeing and Seattle in 1958 when Jane was pregnant with Cathy. Just weeks after Cathy was born in September, they headed for a new assignment in Fort Walton Beach, FL, and the BOMARC missile program at Eglin AFB.

In 1963, Cal, Jane, Cathy and Russell moved to California where Cal worked on the Minuteman weapon system.

In 1964, Russell wote his son Cal that he had asked the Republican Town Committee to send him an application for an absentee ballot. [3] - Was Cal still registered to vote in Connecticut? [CAR]

In April 1965, Cal, Jane and the children moved to Huntsville, Alabama, where Cal continued his work for Boeing, this time on the space program. He was responsible for the Boeing Saturn V Logistics Support Staff, developing a Logistics Support Plan. He was also responsible for Saturn V Logistics activities and program schedule. In 1967 he assumed responsibility for directing the preparation of the Saturn V Flight Manual, a single source reference prepared specifically for the astronauts' use.

When Boeing reduced their operations in Huntsville in 1974 (the summer President Richard Nixon resigned and the fall Cathy got her driver's license), Cal and Jane decided to stay in Huntsville rather than be transferred to another city, and Cal went to work for Sperry Corporation on tactical missile systems at MICOM. In 1980 he began a brief stint at Guest Associates providing marketing and technical representation for technically oriented customers, as well as consultation to small business through the Small Business Administration.

In 1982, Cal went back to work for Boeing on marketing management assignments for the Air Force, MSFC, MICOM, and SSDC customers. He took an early retirement in the fall of 1993 after Jane's brain aneurysms and surgery that year.

Early in their marriage, when they were young and poor, Cal decided to start making furniture instead of buying it. He bought the appropriate tools and set up shop in the spare bedroom in their apartment. The first thing he made was a long low bench in the Danish Modern style. He made their bedroom furniture and later on a hi-fi cabinet, kitchen table, and a new dresser for Jane in the 1970's.

In 1983, when his mother Lydia was no longer making the family Christmas cookies, Cal took up the task, often with daughter Cathy's help. He made their favorites Springerle, Brownie Lebkuchen & Schwaben Brodli, and new ones as well. Just as Lydia did, he kept track of what he made and how many. In 2002, Cathy took up the tradition on her own. Cal also had a vegetable garden for many years, and took up canning at that time. Not only did he can vegetables, but he also made jellies and pickles.

In 1988 & 1989, Cal and Jane built a new, larger house on Mountain Springs Circle in Huntsville and moved in in April 1989. The house included a 3-car garage with large shop attached, and Jane's large weaving room over the garage and shop. After Cal's death, the house was sold to Hank and Kathy Perkins, friends from church, and a school friend (Hank) of daughter Cathy.

Cal entered Huntsville Hospital November 25, 1999 (Thanksgiving Day) for heart bypass surgery on November 26. The surgery was successful, but numerous complications ensued due to Cal's emphysema and the steroids he had been taking for the emphysema that interfered with the healing process. After seven weeks in ICU, he passed away due to multiple organ system failure on January 14, 2000, at 5:05 PM. Daughter Cathy, son Russell, future son-in-law Bryan Kennedy, and Dr. T. Benton Washburn were present. He was buried January 18, 2000 at Maple Hill Cemetery in Huntsville.

Unknown to his family until after he entered the hospital, Cal had been having heart problems for some time. Nitroglycerin pills were found in his study for heart pain. Cal left a folder of instructions for his daughter Cathy just prior to entering the hospital in case he passed away. The information and instructions included the notice of his death to be published in the newspaper. Cathy used this almost as he had written it.

She was planning to leave everything to her church, but nephew Bob Zimmer talked to her and she agreed with him that it would be better to leave everything to family. initials CHR. By 1932 the locket had been returned to Henry. In February 1932, a few months before he died, Henry gave the locket to his granddaughter Joyce Reuther. In 1965 Joyce gave the locket to Lydia Speiser Reuther to pass along to Henry's great-granddaughter Catherine Reuther as she and Caroline shared the same first and last initials. [1]

The H in Carrie's locket is actually a larger H between the smaller C and R, so her initials at the time would have been CRH for Carrie Reuther Harkness. It is likely that Henry gave his sister the locket in 1897 about the time of her marriage to Frank Harkness. [CAR]

In 1897 Carrie married Frank E Harkness at her parents' home.

In 1900 Caroline Harkness is living in Philadelphia with her husband and father-in-law at 628 Diamond st in Ward 20. She owns her own home valued at $5600. Living with her is her niece Sarah E Miner. Sarah is 20 and a private secretary at a publishing company. Sarah was born in the District of Columbia [Washington DC], and her parents in Michigan & Indiana. She is probably the daughter of one of Frank Harkness's sisters. [3]

Carrie is not found in the city directory for 1950. [5]

Carrie M Harkness, born 22 October 1866 to Christian Reuther and Amelia Klobe in Philadelphia, died 9 September 1957 at her home on York Road in Philadelphia of carcinoma of the gall bladder. She was the widow of Frank Elmer Harkness. The informant on her death certificate was Ralph McKelvey. [6]

About 300 feet from the crossing Reuther speeded up, apparently in an attempt to beat the train.

The gate tender and others waved and yelled at him to stop.

Agnes T. and Willard E. Reuther were longtime supporters of Northeastern University in Boston. Their estate plans reflect pride in both their home town and his alma mater.

Through their estate gifts, the Reuthers established scholarship funds for Northeastern students: a Presidential Scholarship and the Willard E. and Agnes T. Reuther Scholarship for students from Worcester County. Their gifts, valued at $1.1 million, were given to the University in 1998 after Willard Reuther passed away.

"My uncle took great pride in being a Northeastern graduate and went to many of the alumni reunions. He always maintained a close relationship with the University and wanted to help the students," says the Reuthers' niece, Carole Dobeck.

She recalls his telling the story of living in a boarding house near the campus and paying fifteen cents for a bowl of oatmeal in the kitchen.

"His accommodations were very plain, but they were fine with him. He had very fond memories of Boston and his classmates at Northeastern. He made good grades and went on to become an engineer with the Electric Light Company in Worcester, where he also met my aunt. He spent his whole career there until he retired in 1964."

Dobeck says that both her aunt and uncle held Northeastern in high esteem and that their legacy will live on through the students that receive the scholarships.
