General Notes: In 1900 Avie is living with her father John and step-mother Ida in Slidell, Wise County, Texas. [2]

While it appears William and Avie married about 1898, she does appear in 1900 in her father's home. The census lists her as single. It is not known if she was visiting and this was a mistake of the census-taker, or if William & Avie married later. This would make their son Walter probably the son of William and an unknown woman. [CAR]

Avie died young, and William married her 18 year old sister. [1]

Avie J Sanders died 1 January 1916 at Clear Lake, Collin County, Texas, of pneumonia. [3, 4]

In 1900 Will Sanders with wife Annie and son Walter are living in Collin County, Texas. Will's age and birthplace are not correct, however everything else looked like him. Will

Descendants of Orrin Oakley

Sanders, age 20, born in Texas, parents born in Georgia and Tennessee, a farmer. Wife Annie, also 20, born in Texas, father born in Virginia, mother's birthplace unclear. They have been married 2 years and have 1 child. Their son Walter was born Nov 1899 and is one year old. Also in the house was a lodger Dora Spergeon and her child Elis. [4] William's father Milford Sanders is living nearby (on the next census page).

William Sanders also appears separate from Avie and son Walter in 1900 in Collin County. This William is a lodger with Sanders Pingletin and his family, and working as a farm laborer. He is 23, born May 1877 in Tennessee, and single. [5]

William and Avie moved to Oklahoma between 1906 and 1909.

In the 1910 Census, William Sanders is living in Odell township, Marshall Co, Oklahoma. He is 33 and a farmer. William was born in Tennessee, his father in South Carolina, and his mother in Tennessee. Living with him is his wife Avie, 30. Avie was born in Virginia, her father in Tennessee, and her mother in West Virginia. William and Avie have been married 12 years, and Avie has had 5 children, 4 are living. With them are their children Walter M, 11, born in Texas, Aldie G, 6, Texas, Lester R, 4, Texas, and Bertie W, 4 months, Oklahoma.

Also living with them is William's brother-in-law Paris B Oakley (although "brother-in-law" was crossed out and replaced with "head"). [6]

William returned to Texas in 1915, after his father's death in December 1914 [3] and before wife Avie's death in Collin County on Jan 1, 1916.

In 1918, William J Sanders was living in Clear Lake, Collin County, Texas, when he registered for the World War I draft. William was born Sept 10, 1876. He was a farmer and listed his nearest relatives as his children.

In the 1920 Census, Will Sanders is living in Collin County, Texas. He is 43 years old and a farmer. Will was born in Tennessee, his father in South Carolina, and his mother in Tennessee. Living with him is his wife Effie, 20. She was born in Texas, and her parents in Virginia and Tennessee. Living with them are Will's sons from his marriage to Avie, Burt, 10, Bart, 8, Irvin, 6, all born in Oklahoma, and Will's and Effie's daughter Eva Doris, 2 months, born in Texas. Will's daughter Ava Gertrude and her husband J Steven Merritt [Marriott] are living next door.

When Effie died in 1922, William just took off and left all the children behind. Bert told how they just stood in the road and watched him as he drove away. Eva Doris was taken in by Effie's mother, and the older kids were left to get by as best they could. Gertrude married at age 14 or 15, [Gertrude actually married about 1918 before Effie's death] and Bert eventually went to work on the farm with Lilburn Walls (Allee's father). [1]

William married two more times after Effie but had no other children. One of his wives was called Mama Cora and she was the grandmother of some quintuplets born during that time. William's children did not have much to do with him thru out the remainder of his life and he died in a nursing home. William was known as a drinking man and was never far from the bottle. [1]

William J Sanders of 3900 Live Oak, Dallas, died 24 July 1958. He was survived by sons

General Notes: Walter M Sanders enlisted in the US Army Air Corp as a Master Sergeant on 7 Jan 1946 in San Francisco, California. He was born in 1898 in Texas, reportedly in Nueces county, but that is probably incorrect. He is single and has had 2 years of high school. [4]

Walter was in the military, know at one time he was in Germany. When he got out of service, he stayed in California and lived in a hotel for men. He never married or had children and family rumor has it he was gay. General Notes: James's parents were Hiram Lee Marriott and Julia Wells. The informant on his death certificate was Geraldine [Walls] Plumlee. Scott was a police officer in Dallas before his bad car wreck in 1963 or 1964. [1967 or 1968, per Becky Sanders] He was driving an Electra 225, a car with early cruise control. Will Sanders, age 20, born in Texas, parents born in Georgia and Tennessee, a farmer. Wife Annie, also 20, born in Texas, father born in Virginia, mother's birthplace unclear. They have been married 2 years and have 1 child. Their son Walter was born Nov 1899 and is one year old. Also in the house was a lodger Dora Spergeon and her child Elis. [4] William's father Milford Sanders is living nearby (on the next census page).

Will's daughter Ava Gertrude and her husband J Steven Merritt [Marriott] are living next door.

When Effie died in 1922, William just took off and left all the children behind. Bert told how they just stood in the road and watched him as he drove away. Eva Doris was taken in by Effie's mother, and the older kids were left to get by as best they could. By 1951 it had 601 aged women, 121 aged men and 387 mentally retarded boys and girls and was called Mexia State School and Home. In November 1951 all the men were transferred to the Texas Confederate Home, and by 1958 all except the students had been transferred to other institutions. Known now as the Mexia State School, it became one of the first schools to be selected by the Texas Education Agency to establish a vocational rehabilitation program for persons with learning disabilities. [3]

In 1968 Sue died of gram negative sepsis [1], a medical condition due to a Gram-negative bacterial infection in which the entire body experiences inflammation as it tries to fight off an infection that has made its way into the blood stream. [2] She died
